

NEWS AND GOSSIP FROM GEORGETOWN

CANAL DECISION DISAPPOINTS.

Had Hoped for Railroad Prospects. Enthusiastic Over Plans for the Betterment of Washington.

The Maryland Court of Appeals' decision in the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal case, giving the trustees six more years of control, greatly disappointed Georgetown. The sale of the canal franchise and its purchase by a railroad company, to be used for railroad purposes was expected.

Georgetown is enthusiastic over that part of the great general improvement plan providing for the establishment of driveways and the general beautifying of the land lying along the Potomac River to the Great Falls. This, with the improvement of Rock Creek, will make Georgetown a place of residence, unsurpassed for beauty and general advantages.

The Death Record. The following deaths for twenty-four hours were reported to the Health Office up to noon today:

The Evening Times THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 1932.

Don't like to be casting stones at the amiable gentleman who presides at the weather counter, but must say we'd be vastly obliged if he'd stop his fooling.

Denies Disrespect to McKinley. Charles Town, W. Va., Postmaster Takes Issue With Mayor Washington.

Mr. L. D. Getzandauer, postmaster of Charles Town, W. Va., in a communication to The Times, takes exception to the statement recently made in The Times by the Hon. George Washington, mayor of Charles Town, in which Mr. Washington said:

"On the 10th of last September, on a call issued by myself, the good citizens of Charles Town gathered in the courthouse and churches for the purpose of doing honor to the memory of our beloved President. All business and social functions were suspended, except in the postoffice building, which is owned by L. D. Getzandauer, postmaster of the town."

"This gentleman's conduct was in marked contrast with that of the entire population. Regardless of propriety, he rented the upper floor of the postoffice building to some colored people, who hired it for the express purpose of giving a dance. This was done over the protest of the mayor, and it aroused the deep indignation of the people, regardless of their politics. It is said he attended the dance."

Mr. Getzandauer writes: "I was the first citizen in Charles Town to drape my building in mourning upon the hearing of the death of our beloved President. I attended divine service at the Presbyterian Church upon the morning of the day of the funeral, and also the citizens' meeting at the courthouse the afternoon of the same day. After the citizens' meeting adjourned I returned to my duties as postmaster."

"About closing time that night, nearly 9 o'clock, the mayor called upon me and said that he desired to protest against a dance which was being conducted by the colored people of the town which that night, not day, in a hall which they had rented from me some two weeks ago."

"I told him that I had no objection to his protesting to the tenants of the hall if he thought they were acting improperly, but I did not think that I as landlord had any right to interfere."

"As to the charge that I attended the dance, it is impossible for me to conceive of a Washington, a lineal descendant of Samuel, the brother of George, could allow such a false and base insinuation to emanate from such a noble source.

"I cannot believe our colored people meant any disrespect to the memory of our beloved President by dancing the night after his funeral services. All the business houses were open that night as usual."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new catarrh cure, has met with such success that today it can be found in every store throughout the United States and Canada.

To be sure a large amount of advertising was necessary in the first instance to bring the remedy to the attention of the public, but everyone familiar with the subject knows that advertising does not make any article permanently successful.

Physicians who formerly depended upon inhalants, sprays and local modes of treatment, as now use Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because, as one of the most prominent states, these tablets contain in pleasant and convenient form all the really efficient catarrh remedies, such as red gum, blood root, and similar antiseptics.

Dr. J. J. Reiter, of Ovington, Ky., says: "I suffered from catarrh in my head and throat every fall, with stoppage of the nose and irritation in the throat affecting my voice and often extending to the stomach, causing catarrh of the stomach. I bought a fifty-cent package of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at my druggist, carried them in my pocket and used them faithfully. They were certainly remarkable. I had no catarrh last winter and spring, and consider myself entirely free from any catarrhal trouble."

Mrs. Jerome Ellison, of Wheeling, W. Va., writes: "I suffered from catarrh nearly my whole life, and last winter my two children also suffered from catarrhal colds and sore throat so much they were out of school a large portion of the winter. My brother, who was cured of catarrhal deafness by using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, says that he has been 25 years deaf, but now he can hear and see, and am truly thankful for what they have done for myself and my children. I always keep a box of the tablets in the house, and at the first appearance of a cold or sore throat we nip it in the bud and catarrh is no longer a household affliction."

Full-sized packages of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold for fifty cents at all druggists. Write for book on cause and cure of catarrh mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

GREATLY ALARMED. By a Persistent Cough, But Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burlage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burlage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now he looks on his case and cure of cough as a mere change, and after using two bottles of the twenty-five-cent size, was permanently cured.

"THE BUSY CORNER." ALWAYS THE BEST OF EVERYTHING FOR THE LEAST MONEY.

Our Remnant Sale Tomorrow. Will be a Sandow affair as to strength and values. Although just having started our Before-Inventory Sale, we were compelled to sidetrack the same for this one day and give our usual Friday Remnant offering first show.

Fine Silk Mousselines. A mill story of great interest. Remnants are usually made by accumulation of goods from regular stock, which we generally call odds and ends.

NEW PERGALES, at least 20,000 yards, which means a gigantic lot of one kind of material—in light and dark grounds, with every sort of stripe, neat veines, dots, which the coming season will show in the G. 29c, 32c, and 35c per yard.

WHITE MADRAS, very stanch and weighty, at the same time wear-resistant, in assorted wide and narrow stripes, which are worth from 12c to 18c per yard.

Our DRESS GINGHAMS remnants, which comprise a full line of all the latest styles and colorings, in all sorts of lengths, to suit most anyone's want—we shall offer in remnants at 67c.

SEERSUCKER GINGHAMS, made by the Bates mill, which are known to be equal to the best among domestic makers—are offered in assorted stripes and checked styles, as well as such plain colors as pink, blue, grey, brown, green, lavender, and tan—12c per yard.

Pongee Foulards, the great counter-fetters of silk—and fine imported corded Madras in plain white and neat figures—are the only goods which cost you 5c per yard in the piece—offered in remnants at 15c.

Fancy Teardrop Outing and Fancy Donee Plaids in neat stripes, dots, checks, and plaids, as well as plain colors, in light and medium colorings, which are worth in the piece from 12c to 15c per yard.

Several bales of 26-inch Unbleached Muslin, a quality which is soft and fine, useful for lengths up to 15 yards, and worth in the piece 7 1/2c, will be offered to you in 48c.

A grand finale of remnants—we wish to move them in short order—we therefore priced them at a mere song—they consist of red flannel, white, blue, and grey flannels—they are worth in the piece up to 12 1/2c.

We also will give you the choice of all our red, white, blue, and grey wool flannels that have sold in the piece from 25 to 45c per yard—19c.

4,000 yards of double width brocade and novelty dress goods, as well as Plaids, Checks, Cashmeres, Henriettas, Venetian Cloths, Granites, and other weaves—in all colors and lengths, suitable for waists, skirts, and children's dresses, which sold in the piece from 29c to 69c per yard, 12 1/2c.
