Interesting Gossip Gleaned Among Employees of Government Bureaus.

A WELL-POSTED MAN IN THE PENSION OFFICE

Mr. Newton A. Strait's Vast Information on the Subject of Army Organization--Bright Bits of News From the World's Greatest Printing Office.

Mr. Newton A. Strait, of the division of special examination of the Pension Office, is one of the best informed men in the Government service in regard to army organization, battles, and general history pertaining to all subjects of a like nature...

The Assistant Attorney General for the Postoffice Department, Mr. James N. Tynes, is the chief law officer of that department. His duties are to give opinions on questions of law relating to the work of the department presented to him...

In 1882 Mr. Strait published his first book relating to pension matters, and recently he has issued another volume devoted to the battles in which American forces have been engaged. This covers a period from the Colonial wars in 1754 to the recent troubles in China in 1900, as well as operations in the Philippines.

Mr. E. A. M. Lawson, an assistant foreman in the Government Printing Office and president of Columbia Typographical Union, who at first announced himself a candidate for delegate to Cincinnati, has recently withdrawn. Mr. Lawson says he desires to rest on the honors bestowed on him by No. 101 in past years.

Mr. Martin Evans, a trusted employe of the Government Printing Office, has just reported for duty, after a long and painful illness in Providence Hospital.

Mr. Henry H. Glasie, who was recently appointed by District Attorney Gould as one of his assistants, is a very busy man these days. In fact, since his appointment he has been so closely engaged in matters connected with the office that he has not had time to spare to enjoy the honor conferred upon him.

Mr. Thomas Bynum, a brother of ex-Representative Bynum of Indiana and one of the most competent, obliging, and popular professors in the Government Printing Office, will also make the race for delegate to the Typographical convention.

Mr. John Hyde, the statistician and chief of the division of statistics of the Department of Agriculture, who is required to collect information as to crop production and the numbers and status of farm animals, through a corps of county and township correspondents and State agents, obtains similar information from foreign countries through special agents, assisted by consular, agricultural, and commercial authorities.

Among the topographic maps recently issued by the United States Geological Survey are two of portions of Texas: The El Paso sheet, showing El Paso, the neighboring towns on the Rio Grande, and portions of the Franklin and Hueco Mountains; the Abilene sheet, covering nearly all of Taylor county, in central Texas, is named after Abilene, the largest town upon it. Both these maps show in great detail all towns, roads, and streams, and by the use of contours reveal the relief of the country.

SENATOR DEPEW THE TEXT OF A SERMON

His Father Told Him He Must Rise or Fall by His Own Efforts.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Dr. Louis Albert Banks, at the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church last night, spoke by way of prelude to his sermon on "Senator Chauncey Depew's Lesson in Self-Reliance." He said in part:

"Chauncey Depew, to whom such phrases as 'Senator' seem insignificant, since the man is a much bigger man than Senator, has been discussing 'The Art of Being Happy.' In an exceedingly interesting discussion he tells how, on his finishing his education, his father, a very successful man, told him that he must now shift for himself, and succeed or fail on his own efforts. Young Depew thought it was pretty severe at the time, but he now looks back at it as the most fortunate thing that ever happened to him.

COTTON SPINNERS TO CONVENE TOMORROW

Boston Meeting Promises to Be of Great Importance.

Action That Delegates Take Will Probably Control Policy of All the Cotton Manufacturers During Year.

BOSTON, March 31.—Tomorrow the semi-annual convention of the National Spinners' Association will convene in Temple Hall, and from present indications it will be the most important gathering of spinners held in this country.

Besides the present disturbance in the textile factories of the country, the situation in Lowell and elsewhere will be thoroughly canvassed.

Secretary Ross reports that more than the usual number of delegates is expected, and that nearly every important textile center will send delegates.

As the delegates who attend are specially selected for their conservative opinions and for their knowledge of the cotton industry, it is expected that such action as may be taken as a result of their deliberations will govern the policy of the cotton spinners of the entire country for the coming year.

BULL TOSSES PREMIER MATADOR OF JUAREZ

Americans Cheer Animal, and Riot Nearly Follows.

Jarligo, the Matador, So Badly Injured by the Beast That He Will Likely Not Fight Any More.

EL PASO, Texas, March 31.—The usual Sunday bullfight at Juarez, Mexico, was accompanied by an unusual feature, the goaded animal turning the tables on the matador.

Several bulls had been brought into the arena, but the amusement furnished was tame from a Mexican standpoint.

There were many Americans among the spectators, who were disgusted with the brutal show, as horse after horse was gored by the maddened bulls, while the matadors escaped unscathed.

This was changed, however, when Jarligo, the premier matador, was preparing to thrust his sword into the heart of the fifth bull.

The animal stood in the center of the arena, bleeding from many wounds. Suddenly it made a quick lunge forward.

So unexpected was the attack that the fighter was unable to make the customary side step.

He was caught on the bull's horns and tossed about like a toy balloon. Before he could be rescued, Jarligo's clothing was torn from his body, and his hips were severely lacerated. It will doubtless prove his last bullfight.

As the bull tossed the man high in the air, receiving his body on his horns, the Americans in the audience cheered the animal, the result of his having a stomach full of hisses from the Mexicans, and for a time it looked as though there would be a collision between the two races.

TO GIVE WARNING TO ALL THE NATIONS

What the United States Can Do When It Comes to Retaliation.

REV. J. A. BOKEL'S FUNERAL. Octogenarian Priest's Body Sent to Somerset, Ohio.

Funeral services were held over the remains of the Rev. John A. Bokel, assistant rector of St. Dominic's Roman Catholic Church, at that house of worship, at 10 o'clock this morning. Requiem mass was said by the Rev. J. C. Kent, pastor of the church. The remains were removed to Somerset, Ohio, where interment will be made.

The Rev. John Albert Bokel was one of the first pastors of the church where he officiated at the time of his death, and had a large circle of friends in this city. He was born eighty-two years ago in Germany, and came to this country at the age of eighteen. He was ordained a priest in 1848, having secured an education at the Dominican Novitiate in Somerset, Ohio.

POWER OF THE PRESIDENT

Long List of Articles That Can Be Barred From Importation in Case American Goods Are Not Treated Fairly by the Other Power.

Notice will be served during the coming week on all European nations, especially Germany, of the tremendous power in the hands of the United States Government that can be used to retaliate against any nation which by unjust discrimination excludes American products of farm and factory from its markets.

This notice will be given by the publication of a list compiled by direction of the Secretary of Agriculture, showing what articles are imported into the United States from Europe which are deleterious to health and which can be excluded under the authority of the Dingley tariff act, and of the agricultural appropriation laws which give the president the power to retaliate when American goods are discriminated against.

Will Be Food for Thought. This list is a long one and will give Europe something to think about. It will also undoubtedly act as a deterrent upon any power which contemplates unfriendly steps of a commercial nature.

Germany's latest discriminatory action does not look cooperative until October. Secretary Wilson's new list will be particularly interesting to that country.

It is the hope of the Administration that public sentiment on this subject will crystallize so as to give the Government plenty of time in which to prepare the steps which will be most effective.

Secretary Wilson has declared in the most emphatic manner that the action of the department was not taken with a view to retaliating against Germany, and insisted that the list of articles, which have been subjected to preservatives and other chemical action, was made up from the products of all nations, regardless of whether they had excluded or proposed to exclude American goods.

Notice to the World. "The President has ample power to retaliate," was the significant remark of the Secretary, "but the entire question will be submitted to the press and the people of the country. It is for them to decide what shall be done. The matter is in their hands, and the President has abundant legal authority to protect our trade."

When a nation that, prepared by my direction, is made public it will give notice to the entire world that we have an effective weapon with which to fight our commercial battles. Of course we do not desire a commercial war with any nation, and when it becomes known how strong the United States would be in such a conflict this knowledge will have effect in securing fair treatment for American goods in foreign markets.

Some of the articles which will be included in the list are macaroni, cocoa, brandies, sausages, olive oil, coffee, curries of potato, sugar, cheese, wines, and beer.

THINKS THE SAVIOUR DID NOT RISE IN BODY

But Dr. Minot J. Savage Believes He Was Seen Alive After Crucifixion.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Dr. Minot J. Savage spoke in the Church of the Messiah yesterday morning on "The Abolition of Death." He said:

"If a person asks me whether I think there is satisfactory evidence that the body of Jesus was raised from the dead I will frankly say I do not. No case in a modern court could be carried through successfully unless there were in its favor better evidence than we have here. When a man is killed, the body of no first-hand testimony of anybody to that fact, and we know perfectly well that if we had the testimony of a hundred or a thousand to a similar fact as taking place today it would weigh with us very little."

"But I believe with my whole soul that Jesus was seen alive after the crucifixion, and out of that belief I do not see how I can believe that the body had risen. I do not believe there is anything in the fact of death that changes us more than going to sleep at night and waking up this morning. Why should there be? It is only tradition and an unfounded idea that it can have any such effect. I believe that the body of Jesus, that we graduate from this life, take the next step in an ever advancing career of progress, and that we are just ourselves over there."

DERBY COLT INJURED.

Runnels Overreached Himself, Almost Severing Tendon of Left Leg.

CHICAGO, March 31.—Runnels, the $15,000 American Derby colt, belonging to John A. Drake, was almost hopelessly cut down in a work-out Saturday morning at the Hawthorne race track, and it is practically certain he will not be a starter in the great race at Washington Park or in any of the other important races early in the approaching season.

The son of Charade was taking a five-furlong bypass accompanied by his stable companion, Wyeth, another derby candidate, when he overreached himself, and half severed the tendon of his left foreleg.

The injury, severe as it was, was not noticed until the colts pulled up. Then it was seen that Runnels was lame and bleeding, and an examination showed the injury was of most serious nature.
