SPECULATION UPON ENORMOUS SCALE

Trading Followed Last Week's General Lines.

LONDON CABLES ADVANCES

Profit-Realizing Sales in Great Amount Appeared Throughout Market, and Had Marked Effect—New York Air Brake Secured Sensational Advance.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Speculation in the stock market was upon the enormous scale when business opened this morning.

The trading in general followed the same general lines which prevailed throughout last week's exciting business session.

There was, as a matter of fact, nothing whatever which was novel in this morning's news.

Advices from the winter wheat belt were again discouraging in tenor, excessive heat being reported in several sections.

Saturday's comparatively strong bank statement was taken to foreshadow easy monetary conditions, and speculative sentiment was further enthused by the material advances shown in American stocks in the London market.

Foreign houses dealt heavily in this market upon the opening of business and on both sides of the account.

With the exception of sugar refining, the whole active list of stocks opened materially above Saturday's final figures.

Almost immediately, however, profit-realizing sales on an enormous scale appeared throughout the market.

St. Paul and Union Pacific, which were the conspicuous features of the American market, felt the effect of this selling particularly, and reacted sharply from their initial high prices.

Notably strong features of the market were the declines in Southern stocks, the Washaw issues, the Readings, Missouri Pacific, and a number of the railway specialties were bid up sharply.

Among the miscellaneous stocks New York Air Brake scored a sensational advance in the early dealings of nearly 30 points above Saturday's last figures.

Amalgamated Copper also opened well above Saturday's final prices. American Locomotive was heavily dealt in at a material advance.

In the industrial quarter, Sugar Refining opened steady, but soon developed at Washington.

The United States Steel stocks were heavily dealt in at advancing prices and a further advance was secured in International Silver.

Enormous liquidation in Union Pacific and St. Paul appeared soon after the opening of business, causing those stocks to react sharply and leading to recession throughout the market at large.

The weather news from the West continued unfavorable, and apparently received more attention than it did last week.

Aside from that, however, there was nothing specific to which the reactionary tendency of prices could be referred. The local traction group was an exception to the general rule.

Price movements seemed to follow technical lines exclusively, and the trading which had been in enormous volume during the forenoon, began to fall away in activity toward midday. London trading on a large scale in the local market and on both sides of the account.

Sales of stocks to 1 p. m., 1,172,500 shares; bonds, $4,308,000.

NEGROES ORGANIZE TO GET PENSIONS

Would Have Government Give ex-Slaves Money.

KNOWN AS "JUSTICE PARTY"

Membership Nears Million Mark—Twenty-six States Send Delegates—To Figure in Coming Elections—Will Work in Congressional Campaign.

White Republicans and Democrats were Saturday discussing the political deserts and inter-party alliances incident to the vote on the Cuban reciprocity bill a new party was organizing for work in the rooms on the third floor of the "Traders" Bank Building at Tenth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue.

Delegates from twenty-six States—most of them able and educated negroes—attended the meeting of the "Justice Party," which Mr. W. R. Vaughan is the moving spirit.

The approaching Congressional campaigns in various parts of the United States will be the scenes of the new party's first work. One of the principles upon which the party has been organized is the agitation of the system of pensions for ex-slaves.

Big Membership.
H. C. Foy is the president, and N. M. Vaughan, the secretary. It is proposed that the party shall affiliate with the National Industrial Association, of which S. P. Mitchell, of this city, who was elected as the only negro representative on the executive council, is president.

This organization has a membership throughout the United States of 900,000. The party will perfect organization in every State and Congressional district in the Northern States, and in those Southern States where the negro voter has not been disfranchised.

The party managers will throw their support to candidates, either Republican or Democratic, who promise to support the ex-slave pension measure. If no candidate can be found willing to do this, the party will place candidates in the field itself.

While colored voters will be especially attracted to the party ranks, members of the dominant race are encouraged to affiliate themselves with the party.

Outline the Work.
The meeting Saturday was called to order by Mr. W. R. Vaughan, the leader, who outlined the work of organization to be perfected during the session, which will continue until Wednesday. He called upon those present to use the influence in their respective States to create favorable sentiment for the ex-slave pension bill.

It is held by members of the party that the granting of such pensions would prove a source of great commercial benefit to the South, in that it would pour a great amount of money into that section of the country each month.

A committee on resolutions was appointed. They framed resolutions which were unanimously adopted. The resolutions bear a reference to the anniversary—April 19—of the battle of Lexington. The committee appointed consists of N. M. Vaughan, S. P. Mitchell and H. Boyd. The resolutions conclude as follows:

Demands Set Forth.
"This sacred anniversary, therefore, seems a peculiarly opportune time for the foundation of a new party of which justice is at once the motto and the cornerstone. Carelessness and corruption have been the characteristics of both the old parties.

"Personal ambition and aggrandizement have too generally supplanted the sturdy patriotism of our earlier days, when individual interests and aspirations were sacrificed on the altar of public welfare, and another generation is needed to clear away the dense mists of injustice which shroud the land like a pall and darken the sky of freedom.

"We propose today to fire the first shot in a new war, in which the people of every township in our broad land will march under the snowy banner of justice to the rescue of the oppressed, and to the overthrow of oppression, corruption, and injustice. No ravaged fields; no smoking homesteads will mark the march of the victorious hosts.

Plan Use of Ballots.
"Ballots, not bullets, will be their weapons, and the great heart and sterling character of our American people, when once awakened to the momentous issues involved, may be relied upon to answer to the call upon their honor, their patriotism, and their highest interests.

"In addition to many other gross injustices from which the entire nation is suffering, there is one which affects many millions of our countrymen, and which we have hoisted justice. Forty years ago the North waged the greatest war of modern times against the oppressions of millions of dollars for the emancipation of the colored race, and today nearly a million pensioners draw yearly from the taxpayers of the Nation about $100,000,000, but the race for which blood was spilt and treasure spent so lavishly has been practically neglected, and no provision has even been attempted for the relief of the old, infirm, needy ex-slaves, who thus become a grievous burden to the Southern taxpayer upon whom falls the whole weight of their support, as well as the education of the colored children.

"Years ago my attention was directed to this matter, and I published a volume upon the subject, and in addition have seven times procured the introduction in Congress of a bill to make this worthy and needy class wards of the entire nation (upon whose sympathy they have a peculiar and pressing claim), and I propose to agitate the matter until popular attention is directed to it, in which case the justice of the proposition will at once receive a general and generous acknowledgment.

"On this notable day, gentlemen, we have assembled here to lay the foundation of a new party. You are the chosen representatives of an immense constituency, and the success of our efforts rests in your hands.

Zeal and Patriotism.
"Upon your zeal and patriotism depends the future of the National Justice Party, and I have full faith that you will rise to the occasion and be lacking in nothing which will insure the triumph of right, and make our great Government once more the representative and exponent of truth, and freedom, and justice.

"And do not forget that while in the first campaign you may not succeed to the full extent of your desires, you at least hold the balance of power and can elect many Congressmen as well as a President who is most in sympathy with your ideas.

"And now, thanking you for your courtesy, and invoking wisdom and harmony for the future of the Nation, I will speed in your great work, in which I pledge myself to assist you with every power which God has given me."

SOUTHWORTH'S SUICIDE REMAINS A MYSTERY

Investigation Fails to Disclose How He Got Pistol.

CORONER TOLD OF TRAGEDY

Suicide Was a Wealthy New York Lawyer, and Despite Closest Care by Hospital Attendants, Found No Difficulty in Taking His Own Life.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Rigid investigation by the management of the Presbyterian Hospital has failed to reveal how Edward Southworth, a private patient of the institution, secured the revolver with which he killed himself.

Mr. Southworth was a wealthy retired lawyer, a former resident of the University Club, who went to the hospital to be treated for neurasthenia, and was supposed to be under the closest observation.

Yesterday afternoon his nurse administered some medicine to him and left the room. A few moments later patients and attendants of the hospital were startled by the report of a revolver.

Mr. Southworth lay dead on the bed with a pistol in his hand and a bullet wound in his temple.

Although the suicide occurred at 1 o'clock yesterday, the hospital authorities, in a futile attempt to conceal the facts and the attendant circumstances, failed to notify the coroner until today.

Mr. Southworth did little legal practice after the death of his wife, several years ago. He went to live at the University Club, but his nervous state grew so bad that on the advice of his physician he sought relief at the hospital.

After some months he recovered sufficiently to leave the hospital and travel. As he had ample means, he journeyed about for several months, but gaining little relief, as returned to the hospital.

EFFICACY OF TOXINS.
Medical Association Disapproves the Bill Before Congress.

The effort to regulate the sale of "viruses, serums, toxins, and analogous products in the District of Columbia, to regulate interstate traffic, and for other purposes," has caused the medical association of the District to make a presentation to Congress on the bills relating to these questions now before the body.

The executive committee of the District association represents that although serious harm has resulted from the use of the preparations, their efficacy in preventing disease remains undisputed, and holds that harmful results have followed the use only of preparations sent out by firms not subjected to proper Government scrutiny, which results in poisonous compounds being sold. Most of the establishments are held to be reputable, and all harm is said to be done from lack of Federal supervision.

It is proposed by the physicians to amend Senate bill 4690, House 13,392, section 4, by providing that the authority of the Surgeon General shall be vested in the Surgeon General of the Army and Navy, the supervising surgeon of the navy, the chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, and the District Health Officer, subject to approval of the Secretary of the Navy. The bill pending provides that regulation be investigated by the Secretary of the Treasury on advice from the head of the Marine Hospital Service.

Appointed a Bank Examiner.
Upon the recommendation of Senator Kearns, Mr. D. C. Beebe, of Salt Lake City, has been appointed bank examiner for the State of Utah.
