

APOSTOLIC DELEGATE WILL BE RECOGNIZED

Acknowledgment of Partial Victory for Church Diplomacy.

FRIARS' CASE GOES TO MANILA

Accredited Representative of Vatican Will There Treat With Taft.

PRIESTS TO GO, HOWEVER.

United States, While Willing to Concede Technical Points, Insists on Their Leaving the Archipelago—Contested Lands to Be Held as Forfeit.

Notwithstanding the failure of Governor Taft to secure an agreement with the Vatican with respect to the purchase of the church lands in the Philippine islands and the withdrawal of the friars, the officials here claim that substantial progress has been made toward a settlement in the near future.

Unless the Vatican shows an earnest desire to renew the negotiations with a view to an immediate agreement to the propositions made by Governor Taft looking to the withdrawal of the friars it is certain that there will be no further exchange of notes at Rome and Governor Taft will leave Manila July 24, as heretofore announced.

Whether the negotiations will be continued at Manila will largely depend upon the attitude of the church toward the question of withdrawing the friars. There will be, of course, negotiations looking to a settlement by the United States of the claims of the friars for damages caused by the troops to church property, but the officials here are determined that it will give no assistance to the friars in their efforts to recover such property as may now be occupied by Filipinos until some assurance is given that the friars will quit the islands.

A Victory for the Vatican.

In some respects the result of the negotiations at Rome may be said to be a victory for church diplomacy.

From the very beginning the Vatican has sought to have the negotiations conducted at Manila instead of at Rome. It was the wish of Governor Taft, however, to deal directly with the Vatican and not through any delegate who may be compelled to submit to Rome whatever propositions were made, thus delaying a final settlement.

Then again it was thought that the negotiations could be conducted more satisfactorily to both parties at Rome instead of at Manila, where the friars themselves would seek to influence the situation.

As early as June 21, Cardinal Rampolla proposed an investigation by both sides into the probable liabilities and claims and the settlement of them by an accredited apostolic delegate to Manila.

The refusal of the Vatican to agree to the propositions of Governor Taft is considered here as part of a plan to have the negotiations transferred to Manila.

Church Held Out for Recognition.

It is declared that there is no concealing the intent of the church to have this done, partly for the purpose of being able to secure an implied recognition of the church by the American Government through its recognition of an accredited delegate to the Philippine government at Manila.

The officials say, however, that the church will obtain little recognition from the officials in Manila, though an accredited delegate may be sent, as it is determined to have the subject of a business viewpoint, and further negotiations will be confined strictly to business propositions.

While the Vatican has apparently secured a victory by the consent of the United States to a transfer of the negotiations to Manila, the determination of the American Government that the Spanish friars shall not be again placed in a position to embarrass the existing government and menace the peace of the inhabitants will be firmly adhered to.

Damage to Church Property.

Steps are to be taken at once to determine the amount of damage which the troops have inflicted upon church property, with a view to an ultimate settlement for its use. The soldiers have occupied much church property in the islands, churches have been turned into barracks and convents have been used for military purposes, but while undoubtedly the friars have just cause to ask compensation for the use of some of this property, it is contended that a close examination of the title deeds will show that a large part of the property did not actually belong to the friars, but to the Spanish government.

In this connection it is asserted that as a condition precedent to the transfer of certain property rights to the church, now held by the Philippine government to be Spanish Crown lands, the Vatican must yield to the United States in regard to the withdrawal of their friars. In his instructions to Governor Taft, and in the final note to Cardinal Rampolla, Secretary Root says down that principle. He makes it clear that the negotiations will not be continued at Manila until certain information is supplied by the church as to the extent of the church property.

Property of Religious Orders.

He asks that Cardinal Rampolla send to the Philippine government four lists of the property considered to belong to the religious orders represented by the friars, as follows: The ecclesiastical corporations; the ecclesiastical buildings occupied by the troops, with indications of the damage and compensation for it; the property before considered Spanish lands which it is desired the American Government should transfer to the church, and the charitable and educational institutions which it desires to be considered as belonging to the church.

It is here declared to be the purpose of the American Government to make no such transfer to the church unless a satisfactory agreement be reached on all other questions, which is explained by one authority here to mean that all lands in dispute will continue to be held by the Philippine government as public domain and will not be settled for until the Vatican yields to the suggestion that the friars be withdrawn.

The situation, as summed up this morning by a high official connected with the negotiations is that, while Governor Taft has really failed in his mission to Rome, because the Vatican was more willing to have the negotiations conducted at Manila, the United States has not receded in the slightest degree from its position that the Spanish friars shall not continue their profession in the Philippines.

Friars Not to Return to Their Parishes.

As stated several days ago, this is the important feature of the negotiations, and one which will continue to be the difficult problem in the conduct of the future negotiations. The Philippine government can, and will, prevent the return of the friars to their parishes, on the ground that they are not wanted by the natives, and, furthermore, because they are considered a menace to the peace of the islands.

The majority of the friars are now in Manila, and they are a source of considerable expense to the church for their maintenance. They have no income from the natives, and they will receive nothing from the government for their property until they have agreed to vacate the islands. In this way it is hoped to bring the church to terms within a short time and, it is believed, also bring about a harmonious settlement of the questions at issue.

THREE CARDINALS IN OPPOSITION TO TAFT

All Belong to Catholic Religious Orders.

Steinhuber, Gotti, and Vives y Tuto the Cause of Semi-Rejection of His Proposals.

ROME, July 17.—It is now known that the semi-rejection of Governor Taft's proposals regarding the disposition of the friars in the Philippines was due to the action of Cardinals Steinhuber, Gotti, and Vives y Tuto, of the committee appointed to treat with Taft.

IMPALED ON HORNS OF A WILD STEER

Creek Indian Boy Remained There Over Night.

TULSA, L. T., July 17.—A Creek Indian boy, Charles Mingo, was found dead Wednesday, securely fixed on the horns of a wild Texas steer. He had evidently been there all night.

When found, the steer was trying to dislodge the boy by rubbing against the banks of a small ravine in which the animal was standing, completely tired out from an all night run. The steer was immediately shot and the body taken from its horns.

GOOD AS CANDY.

Children Like Grape-Nuts.

Wise selection of food will help any one. The healthy people can keep well and those who are ill can obtain sure benefit by the steady use of Grape-Nuts.

A lady says, "To say that Grape-Nuts Food has been a help to me is putting it very mild indeed. For seven years I was an invalid suffering from extreme nervousness and weak, tired, exhausted feeling. I was compelled to lie down several times each day and the least exercise exhausted me. I was also unable to sleep nights. I read many times of the remarkable results from the use of Grape-Nuts Food and finally decided to try it.

I ate Grape-Nuts three times a day in different styles for about three months, then twice a day, and have realized a wonderful benefit. I have grown strong and almost entirely well. Can do all my own work, and seldom have to lie down until I go to bed at night; then I enjoy restful sleep.

I do not become fatigued as I used to and am able to study more in my line of work (music). My brain does not get weary as it used to. My stomach is strong and I can and do eat three hearty meals a day. We would hardly know what to do without Grape-Nuts for the house. The children often say, "Mamma, make a great big pudding this time." They enjoy the food as they would candy." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Delicious recipes for warm weather desserts in each package of Grape-Nuts.

MOST OF STRIKERS GET PLACES BACK

Chicago Freight Depots Assume Old Look.

CHICAGO, July 17.—Work at all freight depots in the city is in full swing this morning, and efforts are being made to undo as far as possible the damage occasioned by the strike.

Considerable work was accomplished at several of the freight houses. Late yesterday afternoon, merchandise began to arrive, but it was not until this morning that the transfer yards and team tracks began to look as formerly. At nearly all the depots three and four lines of cars are in waiting, and the congestion of teams is very great.

MISS BEAL DRAWS HER SECOND PRIZE

First Was in the Oklahoma Land Lottery.

She Now Takes a Husband to Help Share Her Good Fortune. $2,500 Trousseau.

WICHITA, Kan., July 17.—Mattie Beal, the Wichita telephone girl who drew second prize in the Oklahoma land lottery last fall, was last night married to Charles W. Payne, a Chicago grocery salesman. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother and was private. Miss Beal's trousseau is said to have cost $2,500, which is considered expensive in Western society.

Miss Beal's farm is adjoining Lawton, and is said to be worth about $50,000. Under the law she would have forfeited the farm by her marriage had not the special commutation plan been adapted to her case. She paid to the Land Office department yesterday $1,500 before the marriage license was procured and thereby secured the deed.

CLEARING UP MINES TO RESUME WORK

Coal Companies Getting Matters in Shape.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 17.—Several of the large coal companies this morning put to work men who have recently applied for places—miners, laborers and others—and they are being used in clearing up the mines, evidently with the intention that work is soon to be resumed. There are falls in the gangways and breasts, loosened timbers, and general debris to be cleared up, and work for some fifty or more men at each mine.

This is considered the first step toward starting work with as many men as can be obtained. No attempt was made to interfere with them and they went quietly to the mines. As many of them will remain at the mines and be housed within the stockade, no trouble is expected. They have been assured of protection by the companies.

The citizens' alliances of Scranton, this city, Hazleton, and Lansford say they will punish any effort at boycotting or intimidation. Rumors that work will be started in some of the mines before the end of the week prevail, and although the operators do not admit it their reticence indicates that some move is on foot. They report most of the mines in good shape, clear of water, and ready to resume work at a few days' notice.

Cards are being placed on the sidings at many of the collieries and the general activity indicates that a resumption of work is not far distant.

WAR PRISONERS TO MEET WITH G. A. R.

A Unique Association of Union Men Coming in October.

THE PRESIDENT TO PRESIDE

Conference Held Today at Encampment Headquarters Attended by Col. J. D. Walker, Commander of the Organization—Reduced Rates Granted by Railroads.

A conference was held at the Grand Army headquarters this morning between Chairman Warner and Secretary Bulkeley, of the citizens' executive committee, in charge of the encampment arrangements, and Col. J. D. Walker, of Pittsburgh, national commander of the Union ex-Prisoners of War, relative to holding the encampment of the prisoners association simultaneously in this city with that of the Grand Army. Colonel Walker's visit to the city this morning was to effect preliminary arrangements.

At the close of the conference he expressed the greatest confidence that the reunion of this fall would exceed in interest and importance any earlier gathering of this unique association.

To Continue Conference.

The question of a hall for the convention and quarters for the veterans was, by general agreement, left unsettled, with the understanding that Colonel Walker, while on his way to supervise the erection of monument at Andersonville late this month, shall meet with the local officials a second time. He expects fully 5,000 veterans to attend the ex-prisoners campfire. Not the least of his purposes is to arrange for a delegation to march in the second day's parade of the encampment.

Colonel Walker is past commander of Post 83 of Pittsburgh. While President Roosevelt was in Pittsburgh recently, he obtained from him a promise that the President should preside over this annual gathering of the ex-prisoners.

Secretary Root has been requested by Chairman Warner to grant the executive committee the use of the Monument Grounds and the White Lot during the encampment. At a recent conference Mr. Root expressed his purpose to do all he could to further this reunion, and it is thought almost certain will grant the committee's request in this instance.

Mr. Norris Gives $50.

Mr. James L. Norris sent to headquarters this morning a check for $50, accompanied by a very cordial expression of interest in the encampment. Mr. Norris is a member of the reception committee.

The officers of the executive committee received this morning from Mr. S. B. Hege, chairman of the subcommittee on transportation to battlefields, notification that the Southeastern Passenger Association and Trunk Line Association have taken action in regard to side trips during the forthcoming encampment. The rates established by this agreement follow:

To the various battlefields in the vicinity of Washington, one fare for the round trip by the same route in both directions, and 1 1/2 cents per mile distance traveled via circuitous route. Tickets to be sold to holders of return portions of G. A. R. tickets or on joint agents' receipt showing such ticket to be on deposit; tickets to be sold October 8 to 14, limited to five days.

The Southern Railroad has notified Mr. Warner of the compilation of a folder on the subject of battlefields. Over 1,000 battles are to be marked. The description of the campaign covered by this publication is now being written by Gen. H. V. Boynton.
