

Fair and warmer tonight and Friday; light variable winds, becoming fresh southerly.

The Evening Times

READ THE MORNING TIMES
THE NEWS OF ALL THE WORLD

Number 2258.

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1902.

Price One Cent.

INDIANS CAUSE SERIOUS TROUBLE

International Complications May Arise From Rash Act of Canadian Police.

HELENA, Mon., Oct. 23.—International complications between England and the United States may result from the action of the Canadian Mounted Police in driving back into the United States a band of wandering Creek Indians, rightful wards of the Canadian government, who are afflicted with smallpox.

Dear was told to take his band out of Choteau county into Canada. The chief attempted to obey, but the Canadian Mounted Police drove the Indians back over the boundary line to ward Havre, Mon. Scores of them are said to have died from smallpox by the way.

MONTANA AUTHORESS DISGUSTED WITH EAST

Leaves for Land of Woolen Hose.

HER GENIUS UNRECOGNIZED

Indignantly Denies Wearing Lace Stockings, From Which She Prays the Devil to Deliver Her.

WINTHROP, Mass., Oct. 23.—Weary of the effete East, Mary MacLane started today for her home in Butte, Mon. Before going she took occasion to deny the charge that she wore open work stockings, and referred feelingly to an extract from her book, which says: "From all women who wear lisle thread stockings, good devil deliver me."

MOLINEUX'S TRIAL MOVES WITH CELERITY

Prisoner's Aged Father Ever at His Side.

CORNISH AGAIN ON HAND

Testimony Heard at Morning Session Adverse to Accused—Much Spleen Manifested by Some Witnesses.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The rapidity with which the evidence is being taken in the Molineux trial promises to bring it to a quick close.

SERGEANT HEAP AHEAD IN WASHINGTON MATCH

Captain Robbins, of the Brigade Team, Second.

MAGRUDER MEDAL THE PRIZE

Short Ranges in All Today's Contests to Be Shot Before Any of the Long Distances.

(Special to The Times.)
RIFLE RANGE, Ordway, Md., Oct. 23.—Major James E. Bell, the executive officer of the rifle meet, decided this morning to have the short range in all four of today's matches shot off before going to the longer distances with any of them, and those who were not present at the opening forfeit their entry.

DEATH CLAIMS ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE HOUSE

Representative C. A. Russell Expires at His Home.

FAMILY WITH HIM AT END

Illness Was of Short Duration—Died at Half-Past Nine o'Clock—A Sketch of His Career.

DANIELSON, Conn., Oct. 23.—Congressman Charles A. Russell died this morning at 9:30 at his home at Killingly of Bright disease. His wife and two children, Sabin Sayles and Deborah Russell, were at his bedside. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

PRELIMINARY MEETING OF ARBITRATION BOARD

Recorder Wright Announces Program Arranged.

AT TEMPORARY WHITE HOUSE

President's Instructions to Be Read and Organization to Follow, With Judge Gray Chairman.

Col. Carroll D. Wright, Commissioner of Labor and recorder of the coal strike arbitration board, which is to meet in this city tomorrow morning, today made public the details for the preliminary meeting, as agreed upon between President Roosevelt and himself.

MINERS TAKE UP PICKS IN ANTHRACITE FIELD

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION WRECKS READING SHAFT

Miners Mowrey and Dreher Frightfully Burned.

SIX MAY HAVE PERISHED

Rescuing Party Hard at Work to Reach Breasts Where Supposed Additional Victims Are Entombed.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 23.—With the re-opening of two-thirds of thirty collieries in this region this morning, a terrific explosion of gas occurred at the Reading Company's Alaska shaft.

Night and Day Work to Be the Order in All Collieries Except Those Needing Further Repairs.

Employes of Smaller Concerns Complain Against Exaction of Pledge Not to Interfere With New Men.

No Open Antagonism Manifested Toward Miners Who Took the Places of Strikers—Work for All.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 23.—Work was resumed today in the mines after 165 days of idleness, the strikers returning and reporting for duty; each colliery where they were formerly employed. The great majority were taken back, those who were turned away were told the mine was not yet in shape for work, and they would be notified later.

MISS ROOSEVELT NOT TO WED CAPT. GREENWAY

Engagement to Yale Rough Rider Denied.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—According to an Ogden Bay dispatch to the "Evening Journal," a member of the family of West Roosevelt, a cousin of the President, today denied the report that Miss Alice Roosevelt was engaged to John Greenway.

Reading Collieries Resume.

The Philadelphia and Reading opened twenty-eight of its thirty-nine collieries. The Erie resumed at three-fourths of its workings, and will soon have the others working.

The Lehigh and Wilkesbarre started the Hollenback No. 5 and Maxwell in this section, and all but one of the other mines will be working by Monday.

BALTIMORE KNIGHTS TEMPLAR IN TOWN

Maryland Commandery Delegation and Party of Women Guests of Columbia Brothers.

STEAM MEN AGAIN TURNED AWAY.

Steam men who reported for work this morning, after being turned away yesterday, were again turned away, being told that the men who filled their places will not be dismissed. Some of them were offered other places, and a number accepted. They are told that if the non-union men do not prove competent they will be discharged.

STRIKER SHOT BY DEFENDER OF A NON-UNION WORKMAN

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 23.—John Meyer, a striker, was shot in the leg by J. H. Long, a hotelkeeper at Trevorton, last night during an attempt by a mob of strikers to storm his establishment in search of Shock Eisenhecker, who was accused of doing non-union work during the strike.

LIUT. DAVIS HONORED.

A testimonial dinner was given last night in the banquet hall of Gaskins T. Gaines, 320 Eighth Street northwest, in honor of Lieut. Benjamin O. Davis, who about one year ago was commissioned from the ranks as a second lieutenant of the Tenth Cavalry. The dinner was attended by twenty-five of the foremost colored citizens of Washington.

WORK DENIED OLD MEN AT LEHIGH COLLIERY

Turned Back From Mines by Line of Deputies When They Reported for Duty.

TAMAQUA, Pa., Oct. 23.—The unexpected happened in the Panther Creek Valley this morning, when thousands of employes of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, reported for work, but were promptly halted by the company's deputies at the outside of the different stockades. They refused to allow the employes to enter the collieries, claiming that they had received no orders to that effect.

GREEK MILLIONAIRE THE VICTIM OF AN ASSASSIN

Killed Because He Refused to Aid Armenian League Fund

VIENNA, Oct. 23.—"Die Zeit" today reports the assassination of a Greek millionaire named Jostoglu by an emissary of the Armenian League at Constantinople, because he refused to subscribe to the funds of the league. The assassin, the paper says, was arrested, killed Abdul Hamid, but that the guards were alert and overpowered the would-be assassin before he could harm the Sultan.

ASSASSIN ATTEMPTS TO TAKE SULTAN'S LIFE

Abdul Hamid Saved by His Vigilant Guards.

VIENNA, Oct. 23.—The "Tagblatt" publishes a Constantinople dispatch stating that an attempt has been made to assassinate the Sultan.

DOMINICAN REVOLUTION QUELLED IN TEN DAYS

Official advices were received by the State Department and the Navy Department today that the revolutionary outbreak at Monte Cristo, San Domingo, against the government of the Dominican republic had been quelled, after an existence of only ten days.

FUNERAL OF CHARLES G. GRAVES.

The funeral of Charles G. Graves, the clerk in the office of the Secretary of the Senate, who died of typhoid fever at Garfield Hospital Tuesday morning, took place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Temple Baptist Church, Tenth and N Streets northwest, the pastor, Dr. J. J. Muir, officiating. The funeral was in charge of the Masonic bodies, of which the deceased was a member.

TICKET BROKER ACCUSED OF CONTEMPT OF COURT

Justice Hagner Issues War- rant for A. E. Machold.

Justice Hagner today issued a writ for the arrest of A. E. Machold for contempt of court, for violating the restraining order passed October 15, prohibiting ticket brokers from trafficking in the return coupons of non-transferable Grand Army excursion tickets.

EXTREME SIMPLICITY TO MARK CEREMONY

Dr. Woodrow Wilson's Installation as Princeton's President to Be Devoid of Undue Pomp.

CANAL NOT DISCUSSED.

Senator Morgan of Alabama, chairman of the Senate Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals, called on President Roosevelt this morning. The Senator said he did not discuss the canal question and that he has no knowledge of what the forthcoming report of the Attorney General on the question of the Panama title will be.

ELEVATOR DROPS FIFTY FEET TO TEST CUSHIONS

Eggs and Glass Make Quick Trip Without Injury.

A successful test was made at noon today of the safety air cushion recently placed in an elevator shaft at the Patent Office. The elevator car, in which were numerous frail articles, was dropped fifty feet, and no injury resulted to the car and little, if any, to its contents.

APOSTOLIC DELEGATE TO END ALL QUARRELS

ROME, Oct. 23.—It was ascertained in Vatican circles today that the first duty which would be imposed on Monsignor Falconio, the new apostolic delegate at Washington, would be the ending of quarrels among the clergy in the United States, such as the local trouble in the archdiocese of Chicago and the diocese of Denver, and general quarrels such as the campaign for and against the creation of Archbishop Ireland as a Cardinal.

STEAMER ON FIRE.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 23.—The Swedish steamer Blekinge with a general cargo and spirits aboard is afire at Guller Sweden. The crew and passengers have been landed in safety.

BOY'S DARING PRANK COSTS HIM HIS LIFE

Climbed an Electric Light Pole and Touched Wire.

Coroner Nevitt this morning issued a certificate of accidental death in the case of John Noel, the ten-year-old boy who was killed by touching an electric wire near the corner of Tenth and H Streets northeast about 7 o'clock last night. The remains of the dead youth have been taken to an undertaking establishment to be prepared for burial.

SENATOR HANNA STARTS ON SPEECH-MAKING TRIP

Much Improved in Health, He Takes the Stump in Indiana, Accompanied by Beveridge and Fairbanks.

TRUSTEE TRANSFERS HOTEL TO MRS. G. W. COCHRAN

The American Security and Trust Company, trustee under the will of the late George W. Cochran, has placed a deed on file conveying to Mrs. Rosa Maurer Cochran, widow of the deceased, the property known as the Cochran Hotel, corner of Fourteenth and K Streets northwest. The consideration named is $200,000.

BOND SUBSTITUTION OFFERS.

The Treasury received this morning $171,000 in bonds offered in substitution, bringing the total up to $14,285,000.