RUSSIA'S NEW MINISTER

Prince Cantacuzene Relieved at His Own Request.

M. Kotzabok Probably His Successor. M. Pierre Bokhne Transferred to Darmstadt.

An almost complete change has been made in the personnel of the Russian legation here. Prince Cantacuzene, the present minister, now in Russia on leave of absence, will return to Washington in September, only to present his letters of recall and pack up his effects, for he will be transferred and become Russian minister at Stuttgart. This change will be made at the Prince's own request. He has family reasons for being near his estates in Russia. While Prince Cantacuzene's successor has not yet been definitely named, it is understood that he will be M. Kotzabok, now minister at Stuttgart, so that it will amount to an exchange of places between the ministers.

The marriage of Count Adalbert von Sierstorff to the wealthy New York widow, Mrs. Samuel J. Colgate, is looked for at an early date. It will be remembered that the Count was generally credited as the fiance of Miss Lester a year since, although subsequent events have proved that there was no truth whatever in the reports circulated at that time.

How Is It With You? Isn't there some piece of furniture that's lacking at your house—something that you'd like to have—and would BUY if you knew that you could pay for it a little at a time, and still have the benefit of the lowest CASH price? That is precisely what you can do if you buy here. We haven't, but our price is the same price you will find in the cash stores—and it's cash.

Dr. Hoffmann's Estate. Henry S. West and Charles M. Heaton, executors under the will of the late James P. Hartigan, United States consul at Trieste, Austria, yesterday filed an answer to the petition of Mrs. Clara E. Hartigan, the widow. She asks for a half interest in $8,000 now remaining on the estate before her renounces her share under the will. The executors reply that articles of separation, dated Nov. 4, 1887, set aside the two-way Mrs. Hartigan property, which she sold for $41,000, and that any claim she may now have will be determined by a suit in equity. Mrs. Hartigan's claim is that the property referred to was her own before her marriage and Dr. Hartigan contributed only about $2,000 to the amount invested in it.

Mrs. Lovell's Will. The will of the late Mrs. Frances Woodbury Lovell, of No. 1000 Vermont avenue, was filed for probate yesterday. It gives her son and daughter $30,000 each, and makes her usual residuary legatee and executor, with remainder to their children. The instrument is dated February 11, 1892.

Funeral Services. Faith Council, No. 13, Sons of Jonathan, has elected the following named officers for the ensuing term: Chief, John S. Dewey; vice-chief, Philip Corridor; past Charles B. Allen; recording secretary, Alton C. McLean; financial secretary, W. H. Newhall; treasurer, I. M. Baker; guide, Robert E. Ward; inside warden, William Sauter; outside warden, William J. White.

Disturbed Divine Services. For disturbing the services of the Rock Creek Baptist Church Jordan Van and Calvin Ball, both colored, were each fined $10 in Judge Kimball's court yesterday.

In Memoriam. GREEN CLAY SMITH. Lay him low, the well-beloved, Vainly now a people weep, Covered are his decorations, Sleep calmly, comrade, sleep.

Lay him low in the sunshine and the clover. In the land he loved so truly and so well, With grasses and daisies cover him over; Toi soilly, soilly, sweetly bell.

Slow and solemn our march shall be, A fitting emblem of woe, A sorrowing throng; Walkers in numbers, Blow softly, bugles, blow.

All is done, our grief is one, Lay low, the well-beloved, Vainly now a people weep, Covered are his decorations, Sleep calmly, comrade, sleep.

Let the solemn music toll For his departing soul; Fire a volley along his grave, Bravest of the brave.

MARION GUILD WALFORD.

the road from that owned by Judge Jerome Wilson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hinkley will spend the summer at Newport.

Mr. Alexander Porter Morse and family are spending the summer in their cottage on the Ridge road, about seven miles from Washington.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Arnold have returned from No. 1431 Chapin street to No. 917 H Street northwest. Mrs. Arnold is at home Saturdays.

Mrs. L. Bonn and Miss Pauline Bonn are summering at Oakland, Md.

NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL HOME. Corner Stone for It Will Be Laid Next Wednesday.

The corner stone of a house of worship for the North Capitol Sunday School will be laid next Wednesday evening.

This religious body was formed about five years ago through the efforts of Mr. Edwin B. Linton, a member of the North Presbyterian Church, and since its organization has held its meetings in houses in the neighborhood. The Presbyterian Alliance has purchased a plot at the intersection of I and North Capitol streets and Florida avenue and on the tract the congregation will erect a handsome little building, adequate for the present needs, but the plans are so arranged that additions to the structure may be made at any time.

The name of the body will be changed from the North Capitol Sunday School to that of the Edgemoor Presbyterian Sunday School. The exercises will begin on Wednesday at 9:45 p. m. The programme consists of singing by the choir, a paper reading on the history of the organization, read by Mr. Edwin B. Linton, the laying of the corner stone by the Rev. Charles B. Kamsdell, D. D., and addresses by Rev. Drs. Sutherland, Pitzer, Buttiger and Joseph T. Kelly.

Miss Wilson Fell on Her Knees Before the Jury.

She Tearfully and Excitedly Implored the Jurors to Acquiesce in Her Request to Be Released on Her Own Bond.

PATHETIC CITY HALL SCENE.

Miss Wilson was arrested Saturday by Police Officer Hogan, on a charge of profraternization with the members of the Fourth at Wines' Grove, Hyattsville, and resulted 14 to 12, in favor of Brookland.

Miss Josephine Blake, after a ten months' absence, has returned to Brookland, and will reside with her sister, Mrs. John Lewis.

Mr. Charles McGee met with a painful accident on the Fourth, having his hand and arm badly burned by the explosion of a toy cannon.

Master William Goodloe, of Lexington, Ky., nephew of Major Green Clay Goodloe, U. S. A., is spending the summer at "Woodside."

Mr. Frederick Lewis left Brookland yesterday to locate permanently in Connecticut.

Miss Josephine Blake, after a ten months' absence, has returned to Brookland, and will reside with her sister, Mrs. John Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Hatfield left a delightful "At Home" on July 4th. Many friends from the city and suburbs were present.

Mr. Henry Farquhar, who was summoned to New York by the death of her father, Charles Adams, of Harlem, N. Y., returned home last evening.

JUMPED FROM A CABLE CAR. Conductor Didn't Stop as Told and Mrs. Smith Was Hurt.

Mrs. J. R. Smith, of Haymarket, Prince George's county, Md., was painfully injured yesterday morning at Twenty-first street and Pennsylvania avenue northwest by jumping from a cable car while it was in motion.

She had just reached the city and was on the way to the residence of her sister, Mrs. A. M. Tubman, of No. 2031 Pennsylvania avenue, who is very ill. When the car passed Twentieth street she signaled the conductor to let her off at the next corner. The car did not stop there, but kept on at full speed, and she, on an impulse, jumped to the ground, falling and striking her head on the asphalt pavement.

She was carried into her sister's house and Dr. Elmer Sotheron summoned. Her injuries consisted of a contused scalp wound, which had to be sewed up. It is not dangerous.
