

Fifth List Of Photographs Now Ready to be Called for At Taylor's Photograph Studio, 15th and G Streets.

Look for the number on your ticket and call and get your picture, if the number is published here. Don't come until your number is published to save confusion.

Table with 3 columns: No., No., No. containing a list of numbers for identification.

FOR THEIR EXAMINATIONS.

Applicants for Government Printing Office Positions Will Be Notified. The Civil Service Commission announces that all persons who file applications in proper form for Government Printing Office examinations will be notified of the date on which they are to appear for examination.

$5.00 Weekly Excursion Ex. $5.00. Every Friday and Saturday until August 31, inclusive, the Pennsylvania railroad will sell for the 10 a. m. and 11 a. m. train excursion tickets to Cape May, Atlantic City and Red Bank City, at rate of $5.00, good returning until following Tuesday.

JUSTICE WAS SATISFIED

Joseph Beam Hanged for Murdering Annie Leahy.

KEPT UP A BRAVE FRONT

Execution Admirably Managed—In Six Minutes From the Time of Leaving His Cell All Was Over—Neck Broken by the Fall—His Last Will and Testament.

With head erect and unflinching step, Joseph A. Beam, murderer of his stepdaughter, Mrs. Annie Leahy, left his cell door in the United States District Jail at 11 o'clock yesterday morning and marched to the scaffold on which he was to expire his life.

Four minutes later the drop fell that launched him into eternity, and when he landed the city were ringing out the bells of triumph, and a cheer was raised in a coffin, and started on the way to the cemetery. He had paid the earthly penalty for a horrible crime.

Only thirty minutes elapsed from the time Warden Leonard entered the condemned man's cell and read the death warrant until he was pronounced dead by the jail physician and placed in the coffin.

Thursday night Beam slept but little, and spent most of the time reading in a prayer book and talking to Guard Smith of the death watch. He talked of his past life, of his wife and friends, but avoided any allusion to the crime for which he was to die.

RESTLESS AND NERVOUS. He was very restless and nervous, and the guard, seeing that he was unable to sleep, encouraged him to talk. About 4 o'clock he dozed off, and slept a couple of hours. When he awoke he was refreshed but little by his short slumber.

At a heavy breakfast, but was unable to eat much. From his actions during the time that elapsed between his awakening and the visit of the priests the prison officials were of the opinion that he would break down at the last moment and cause a scene.

Nothing of the kind happened, however. Fathers McAtee and Dolan visited the condemned man early and were with him until the end. The last rites of the Catholic Church were performed, and the rest of the time spent in spiritual communion. The Litany of the Saints and recommendations to departing souls were read to him, and he made no response.

Exactly at 11:30 o'clock Warden Leonard, accompanied by Jail Guards Waters and Woodward, entered the cell of the condemned man. The spectators had in the meantime been ranged along the route across the rotunda and were kept in place by a squad of policemen. The jury who were to certify to the execution had been assigned seats near the foot of the scaffold.

The warden read the death warrant to Beam, and Guard Waters stepped forward and pinned his arms tightly behind him. The little procession of death was then formed and marched slowly across the rotunda, and finally reached the scaffold.

At 11:55 he marched up the scaffold steps and placed on the drop. While he was still repeating the prayers of the priests his lower limbs were tied at the ankles and knees, and the noose was thrown over his head.

Just before the black cap was drawn over his head Father McAtee held up the crucifix, and he bowed his head and kissed it passionately. He seemed to gain courage, for his responses were next made so loudly that Father Dolan requested him to moderate his voice.

As soon as the noose was tightened Warden Leonard stepped to the corner next to the scaffold, and the drop fell, which sent the unknown executioner and gave the signal. It was evidently unnecessary for the hangman to be waved a second and third time, as the drop fell before the man over and said "good-bye" before the rope was pulled.

Just as the words, "Lord Jesus have mercy on my soul," were being uttered the man fell from under him and he fell fully six feet, bringing up with a jerk that sounded through the jail.

One convulsive movement of the knees and shoulders followed the drop, and the body swung to and fro without another muscular tremor. The drop fell just six minutes after the cell door was opened by Warden Leonard.

Several visiting doctors pressed around and examined the body. The pulse, immediately after the drop, went up to 100 and the heart beat rapidly, but both soon subsided. At 12 o'clock he was lowered into the casket ready to receive him, dead.

During Beam's last night of unrest he dictated his will to Guard Smith. He dictated his last wishes to the warden, and the members of the grand jury, with their foreman, were present, as were a number of court officials. The jury of witnesses was composed mostly of newspaper men and certified to the proper carrying out of the sentence of death.

After examining the body the physicians decided that Beam's neck had been broken and that death had been instantaneous. The body was taken to Mt. Olivet cemetery, where it will be placed in a vault until the warden indicates the disposition she desires to make of it. Beam's own desire was that his body be cremated, and it is probable that this will be done.

THE CRIME FOR WHICH BEAM WAS EXECUTED was the murder of Mrs. Annie Leahy, his stepdaughter. The woman resided with her mother and sister at No. 226 Maryland avenue northwest, and for some weeks previous to the shooting Beam had been denied admission to the house because of his dissipated habits.

On the afternoon of the murder he called at the house about 3 o'clock, as he afterwards explained to see his wife. His stepdaughter opened the door, and when she saw that it was Beam who had rung the bell, she endeavored to close it in his face. Beam, enraged, tried to push her aside and enter the house, but she resisted, and she drew two revolvers from her pocket, and began emptying them into the body of Mr. Beam.

When he saw the crowd he reloaded his revolvers and started up the street, saying that he would kill the first one who attempted to touch him. He was first met by Congressman Melickjohn, who was the first to approach him, and to him he surrendered.

Beam was committed to jail and his trial took place before Judge C. C. Beaman. A plea of insanity was introduced and a number of witnesses were produced to show that Beam was a man of a very eccentric disposition.

It was shown by the government that the defendant was a man of bad habits and violent and unscrupulous character. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. A motion for a new trial was overruled, and he was sentenced to be hanged yesterday.

DR. WALKER.

All the many thousands of testimonials published and read by Dr. Walker by enthusiastic patients, but repeat the story of Dr. Walker's unparalleled success in curing all nervous and chronic diseases, rheumatism, neuralgia, hemorrhoids, diseases of women, heart disease, kidney and liver troubles, and many other ailments, and baffle the average physician. They tell young and middle-aged men who are suffering from the effects of their own youthful follies and excesses that they may be restored to the full vigor and strength of perfect manhood.

Dr. Walker may be consulted free of charge, personally or by letter, at his well-known sanitarium, 1411 Pennsylvania avenue, adjoining Willard's Hotel, is open daily for consultation and treatment. Office hours, 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Wednesday and Saturday evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays, 10 to 12.

Charges for treatment very low. All interviews and correspondence strictly confidential. No case made public without consent of patients.

Mr. Walker was consulted free of charge, personally or by letter, at his well-known sanitarium, 1411 Pennsylvania avenue, adjoining Willard's Hotel, is open daily for consultation and treatment. Office hours, 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Wednesday and Saturday evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays, 10 to 12.

Charges for treatment very low. All interviews and correspondence strictly confidential. No case made public without consent of patients.

RECORD OF THE COURTS.

Probate Court—Proceedings in estates have been recorded as follows: William H. Cummack; asset of next of kin filed; order of publication; return August 23; Henry H. Bader; order of publication; return August 23; Peter McNamara; answer of Thomas M. Mahon to affidavit of John J. Johnson filed; Thomas H. Lewis; continued to next Friday.

Inventory of personal estate of deceased; petition of D. S. Stanley for leave to sell; order authorizing sale of personal property; Julia A. Wilbur; order admitting letters of administration with the will annexed to Thomas S. Hopkins; bond $1,000; Barbara O'Connell; order admitting will and codicil to probate and record; Oscar Reed; Helena Gens appointed administrator; Samuel C. Van Deventer; guardian resigned to Maria A. Barlett; bond $5,000; Elizabeth Goepfert; will appointing Theodore Pitt executor filed and fully proved; Milton H. Helleck; order authorizing sale of personal property; William Setzen; order admitting will to probate and record; granting letters testamentary to the American Security and Trust Company; Patrick Conroy; James Conroy; appointed administrator; Samuel Jackson; petition of Whitefield McKinlay for letters of administration; return August 23; against Peter F. Bacon; return August 23; James Burns; caveat of William Burns filed; James L. Barbour; answer of H. S. Barbour filed and answered; William W. Hall; proof of publication filed; Mary E. Offutt; first and final accounting of administrator; Mary A. Potter; first and final accounting of administrator; William Berman; first and final accounting of executor; C. E. Sneli; final accounting of administrator; filed; Theodore A. Bedford; first accounting of administrator; Equity Court, No. 2—Justice Hagner and Justice Cole—Childs vs. Palet; distribution under auditor's reports ordered; Wilkes vs. Wilkes; first accounting of administrator; filed; Theodore A. Bedford; first accounting of administrator; Equity Court, No. 1—Justice Cole—Perkins, Goodrich & Co. vs. National Electric Publishing Company; judgment by default.

Washington Ministers There. Baltimore Sunday School Convention of the M. E. Church South Adjourns. (By Associated Press.) Baltimore, Md., July 26.—The Sunday school convention of the Baltimore conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was adjourned today, to meet next summer in Rockville, Md.

During the day there was an Epworth League meeting, which was presided by Rev. J. O. Kroth, of Washington, D. C.; Rev. F. J. Prettymann, of Martinsburg, Va.; and Rev. W. F. Hamner, of Baltimore.

Rev. W. H. D. Harper, D. D., of Winchester, Va., was selected to preach the convention sermon next year.

Mrs. T. B. Ritchie, of Woodstock, Va., gave a talk on the way in which she conducted infant class work.

The convention was closed with prayer by Rev. Dr. J. P. Hyde, of Winchester, Va., the singing of "God Be With Us," and the benediction by President Walton, and the benediction by Rev. Ramsey Smithson, D. D., of Washington.

BLOOD FROM HIS PORES.

Remarkable Illness of Policeman Averted. When Harry N. L. G. A singular case talked about a good deal in police circles is that of Owen Cooney, in the third precinct, who is under the care of Dr. Mayfield. He was taken sick several days ago, with what was supposed to be hemorrhage of the bowels.

It was found, however, that the blood came from the roof of his mouth. After some treatment the discharge from the mouth ceased and blood again flowed from the pores of the patient's face. Later an eruption appeared on the face and chest.

This accounted to treatment only to give place to an eruption on the legs and a return of the trickling of blood from the pores of the skin in several parts of the body. There are grave fears that Mr. Cooney may not live.

SCHOONER SUNK.

Run Down in Clear Weather by an Unknown Steamer. (By Associated Press.) Vineyard Haven, Mass., July 26.—Word has been received here that the schooner Addie G. Bryant, Capt. Clay, from Philadelphia, with coal for Rockland, was sunk in collision with a Reading coal steamer off Fallow Rip last night.

Capt. Clay reports that the weather was clear at the time, and that after the collision the steamer, the name of which he was unable to ascertain, did not stop to try to save lives. Fortunately the Bryant's boat was unharmed, and the captain and crew were taken from the steamer to the tug Juno bound for Boston.

President's Coachman Better. President Cleveland's colored coachman, William Williams, who was stricken with paralysis while at work in the White House stables Thursday, was much better and considered out of danger. He has served the occupants of the White House for twenty years, and is now in the management of his duties.

FIRE FIGHTER LOWE DEAD

Assistant Chief Expires After a Long and Painful Illness.

He Was A Brave Man and Very Popular in the Department—Leaves a Widow and Children.

Assistant Fire Chief Louis P. Lowe, one of the bravest fire fighters in Washington and a chief of the fire department, died at 1:36 o'clock this morning.

The end was not unexpected, as the sick man was unconscious for a long time, and the attending physicians stated yesterday that he would not last twenty-four hours longer. The cause of death was cancer of the stomach, and occurred at Mr. Lowe's residence, No. 1228 Twenty-ninth street northwest.

Mr. Lowe was ill about three weeks. He went upon his leave at the beginning and spent a few days at Colonial Beach. Returning to the city over a week ago, Mr. Lowe grew steadily worse despite the earnest efforts of Police Surgeon Mayfield and Dr. Appleby. In the last day or two the physicians and family gave up hope and sorrowfully watched the unconscious sufferer passing from life. There was no man better liked in the fire department, and every hour or so during the last twenty-four one of the fire ladders was called at the house.

Mr. Lowe was forty-six years old, more than five of which he spent in the department, and he was a very popular man. He was foreman of No. 5, and served long and well. He leaves a wife and seven children, five boys and two girls, several of them being at school. No religious arrangements for the funeral have yet been made.

PREPARING FOR LABOR DAY.

Electrical Workers and Bricklayers No longer will the celebration of Labor Day be confined to the city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

Since the last meeting the president has received five communications from unions in different cities, and the sentiment is almost unanimously in favor of Washington.

It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

Messrs. W. B. Balser and John Collins, inventors of proposals, set on foot the celebration of Labor Day in this city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

Every effort will be made to make a commendable showing in the Labor Day parade. No union has been asked to participate in the parade, and the sentiment is almost unanimously in favor of Washington.

It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

Messrs. W. B. Balser and John Collins, inventors of proposals, set on foot the celebration of Labor Day in this city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

Every effort will be made to make a commendable showing in the Labor Day parade. No union has been asked to participate in the parade, and the sentiment is almost unanimously in favor of Washington.

It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

Messrs. W. B. Balser and John Collins, inventors of proposals, set on foot the celebration of Labor Day in this city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

Every effort will be made to make a commendable showing in the Labor Day parade. No union has been asked to participate in the parade, and the sentiment is almost unanimously in favor of Washington.

It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

Messrs. W. B. Balser and John Collins, inventors of proposals, set on foot the celebration of Labor Day in this city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

Every effort will be made to make a commendable showing in the Labor Day parade. No union has been asked to participate in the parade, and the sentiment is almost unanimously in favor of Washington.

It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

Messrs. W. B. Balser and John Collins, inventors of proposals, set on foot the celebration of Labor Day in this city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

Every effort will be made to make a commendable showing in the Labor Day parade. No union has been asked to participate in the parade, and the sentiment is almost unanimously in favor of Washington.

It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

Messrs. W. B. Balser and John Collins, inventors of proposals, set on foot the celebration of Labor Day in this city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

Every effort will be made to make a commendable showing in the Labor Day parade. No union has been asked to participate in the parade, and the sentiment is almost unanimously in favor of Washington.

It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

A Good Impression.

TUXEDO has made a good impression on all who have paid a visit to this beautiful suburb, and, judging from the sales during the past week, it is very likely to make a good impression on all who have paid a visit to this beautiful suburb, and, judging from the sales during the past week, it is very likely to make a good impression on all who have paid a visit to this beautiful suburb.

Just Think of It, a Choice Home Site for Only $40 AND UP!

Small Payments Down; $1 Weekly. Ten per cent off for Cash. No Swamps, No Malaria, but Pure Air, Pure Water, Perfect Drainage is what you get at 100 Feet Above Washington.

TUXEDO CO., 623 F STREET NORTHWEST.

TRIED TO THREAD NEEDLES

Wimodanghis Was Highly Amused by Nine Gentlemen Friends.

Mr. J. De Silva Poked the Thread Through Six Eyes in One Minute and Won the Trophy Apron.

It takes one grown man one minute to thread the needle how long will it take nine grown men to sew a button on an overcoat?

This was the problem in several unknown quantities that were solved last night at the parlors of Wimodanghis. There was a very large company present during the investigation of this question.

The gentlemen who were put up to prove the case were: Messrs. Thad Libbey, M. Mott, George H. Macdonald, G. W. Wofen, George H. Macdonald, J. De Silva, F. H. Gibson, and S. I. Bradley.

The referee was Mrs. Lockland, and the time-keeper, Miss Edith Phelps. The prize was a Trophy Apron with a right hand pocket to hold the needles and cotton.

The gentlemen were seated around a table on which was a cushion stuffed full of needles, some of them upon sticks. Each gentleman was supplied with a thread, and when time was called there was a dash for the needles. Mr. Libbey poked the right end of the thread forty-six times at the wrong end of the needle, and seventeen times at the right end, the thread going through on the sixty-third trial, that is he pushed it at it at the rate of more than six to the minute.

A similar feat was performed by Mr. Agnew. Mr. Wanger managed to stop two holes in one minute, Mr. Gwynne three, Mr. Gibson four, Mr. Macdonald five, Mr. Macdonald, De Silva and Brady five in one minute.

In the second round to settle the ownership of the apron Mr. Macdonald dropped to four needles and Mr. De Silva went up one, threading six, in a minute. He was declared the winner and donned the apron. It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

Messrs. W. B. Balser and John Collins, inventors of proposals, set on foot the celebration of Labor Day in this city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

Every effort will be made to make a commendable showing in the Labor Day parade. No union has been asked to participate in the parade, and the sentiment is almost unanimously in favor of Washington.

It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

Messrs. W. B. Balser and John Collins, inventors of proposals, set on foot the celebration of Labor Day in this city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

Every effort will be made to make a commendable showing in the Labor Day parade. No union has been asked to participate in the parade, and the sentiment is almost unanimously in favor of Washington.

It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

Messrs. W. B. Balser and John Collins, inventors of proposals, set on foot the celebration of Labor Day in this city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

Every effort will be made to make a commendable showing in the Labor Day parade. No union has been asked to participate in the parade, and the sentiment is almost unanimously in favor of Washington.

It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

Messrs. W. B. Balser and John Collins, inventors of proposals, set on foot the celebration of Labor Day in this city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

Every effort will be made to make a commendable showing in the Labor Day parade. No union has been asked to participate in the parade, and the sentiment is almost unanimously in favor of Washington.

It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

Messrs. W. B. Balser and John Collins, inventors of proposals, set on foot the celebration of Labor Day in this city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

Every effort will be made to make a commendable showing in the Labor Day parade. No union has been asked to participate in the parade, and the sentiment is almost unanimously in favor of Washington.

It is plain from the report that the celebration of Labor Day will be held on the 28th of September, with two exceptions this city was picked out as the most preferable place for the convention.

Messrs. W. B. Balser and John Collins, inventors of proposals, set on foot the celebration of Labor Day in this city. The convention committee of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 23, held a session at the close of last evening's regular meeting in the hall at No. 827 Seventh street northwest, and reported that the prospects for making this city the meeting place of the celebration of Labor Day are very bright.

RANSACKED BY BURGLARS

Residence of the Misses Rathbun Entered During Their Absence.

Police Found a Door Broken and the Interior in a State of Disorder.

No Clue to the Thieves.

The residence of the Misses Rathbun, No. 1907 Fifteenth street, was burglarized last evening. The thieves, who carried off a large amount of value of what was carried off by the thief or thieves is not known, as the ladies are now in Rhode Island, their former home.

About 2 o'clock a. m. Policeman Duval, while patrolling his beat on Fifteenth street, passed the house and walked up the little alley which runs into the block, the entrance being next to the Rathbun residence.

The officer saw that the little side basement window of the house was open, and knowing that the inmates are absent on a visit to their Northern home, concluded that burglars were about.

Tiptoeing to the rear door, he tried it and found it unlocked and the lock broken. He investigated the door and found that the house-breakers were not within, and communicated with No. 2 station for instructions.

Later a patrol wagon was dispatched to the scene with a police sergeant and a thorough search made. The furniture and articles in the parlor and other rooms were found upset and disarranged, and the interior of the house had the appearance of having been thoroughly ransacked.

The burglar or burglars had evidently taken anything which was stolen, but from appearances the thieves did not leave empty-handed. Miss Enly Rathbun, who is a teacher in the elementary school on Seventeenth street, and Miss Mary Rathbun, clerk in the National Museum, are the tenants, and when they left for New England four days ago, they thought they had securely fastened every door and window of the house.

Entrance was apparently made by the burglars through the side tower window, and the booty taken through the back door. No clue had been found by the police up to a late hour last night. The lady tenants have been telegraphed for, and will probably arrive tomorrow.

ASHORE ON ALASKA'S COAST.

Ship Raphael Goes to Pieces in Tangle of Ice. (By Associated Press.) Port Townsend, Wash., July 26.—The steamer Raphael, which arrived here this morning from Alaska with a cargo of fish, was wrecked on the coast of Alaska.

The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost. The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost.

The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost. The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost.

The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost. The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost.

The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost. The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost.

The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost. The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost.

The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost. The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost.

The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost. The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost.

The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost. The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost.

The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost. The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost.

The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost. The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost.

The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost. The ship was wrecked on the coast of Alaska, and the cargo of fish was lost.

WORKINGMEN

and others whose occupations prevent them from making deposits during the day, can have their money deposited in the Union Savings Bank, 1222 F St. N. W., which is open every night from 8 o'clock to 10 o'clock.

Interest Paid Upon Deposits.

INTEREST IS ALLOWED ON DEPOSITS on daily balances subject to check. Those who have accounts with this bank usually have balances to their credit should consider this a valuable feature.

It is credited on your pass book, added to the principal and made subject to your check.

JOHN J. EDSON, President. JOHN A. SWOPE, Vice President. JOHN R. CALMODY, Treasurer. ANDREW PARKER, Secretary.

Washington Loan & Trust Co.

Cor. 9th and F Sts. American Security and Trust Co., 1405 G St. Capital paid in $250,000. Surplus $250,000.

This company has money to loan on real estate and collateral security at regular rates. American Security & Trust Co., 1405 G St.

TRAMMERS CAPTURE A TRAIN. But the Wilmington Police Captured a Train of Thieves.

Wilmington, Del., July 26.—About 10 o'clock tonight a squad of police captured twenty-nine tramps on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad line at Landis, a northern suburb of this city. The train was a fast freight and left Philadelphia at 8:40 this evening.

The trammers discovered thirty tramps on the train and ordered them off. They refused to go, and some of