

Telegraphic News Supplied by the Exclusive Service of the United Press and Bennett Cables, Supplemented by the Associated Press and Special Correspondents—More than twice what other local newspapers have.

Here's a Menu For the Mind. It will be spread before you to-morrow page by page, and you'll miss it all if you don't get a copy of The Sunday Times. That humor page is a very particular part of The Sunday Times, and it will be especially attractive to-morrow. Some of the other attractive features are—

Local Features. Tales of forgotten fortunes which are turning up every now and then in Washington. Some of the vanities of life seen in one of the numerous boarding houses of the Capital. Timely hints to women who desire to make a living outside the beaten tracks. Story of Thomas Hodgkins, who left a fortune for the study of air. Interviews with Cabinet ladies—A woman reporter tells how they talk for publication. The Old Guard—History of Washington's famous veteran organization. Advent of the reed bird—How the dainty birds are hunted in Potomac marshes. Washington of old times—Changes that twenty years have made in the Capital City.

Fiction. The Turn of the Wheel—Illustrated by Gilbert Parker. Short Stories by well-known authors.

Sports. A Unique Yacht Dinner for Lord Dunraven. Women Who Pose in Hunting Dresses. Local Amateur Athletics. Baseball Gossip and Notes. Racing of the past week and the week to come.

Fads, Fashions and Fancies. The Baby Ball at Athens. Frocks for the Autumn Girl. Golf in New England Hills. The New "Walking Cure." New Parisian Toilettes. Very Ladylike Smugglers. Clever Designs in Yachting Jewelry. Six Costumes From One.

General Articles. Gen. Schofield's Retirement—Illustrated. Bacilli Preventives for Murchison Intentions—Illustrated. Hoo-Hoo Day—September 9—Illustrated. Two Young Wives Who Were Martyrs to Husbands of Genius—Illustrated. The Art Show at Atlanta—Illustrated. Fair Americans Who Rule in England—Illustrated. Judges of the Supreme Court in Their Own Libraries—Illustrated. Three (3) cents buys all the above.

WOULDN'T HEAR BRADLEY

Birth Joint Kentucky Debate Broke Up in a Row.

One Man Killed by a Stroke of Lightning in This Demoralized the Large Crowd.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 30.—The sixth joint debate between the Republican and Democratic candidates for Governor of Kentucky—Col. William O. Bradley and P. W. Harkness—was to have taken place at the Henry county fair grounds near Paducah, this afternoon, but was broken up by a storm which killed one man and injured many others.

Col. Bradley introduced Col. Bradley, who was to make the first speech. When the crowd advanced to the front of the platform, a large number of drunks were seen to have gathered close around the speakers' stand and to have begun to throw stones and other missiles.

DAVENPORT GOODS TAKEN

Constable Swinburne Cleverly Captures Valuable Articles.

CLAIMS OF THE MERCHANTS

At the Old Surratt Home Five Barrels of Glassware and China Were Found.

More Washington creditors of John I. Surratt, the late Republican boss and United States supervisor of elections of New York city, used the process of the law yesterday to seek personal effects and household goods belonging to the long-dead and absent debtor to satisfy judgments in their favor. As in a number of cases reported recently and extensively in The Times, Constable Swinburne yesterday headed the constabulary, acting under authority of Justice Fisher and Chief Justice Blair, to the Surratt home, No. 512 H street, was the scene of one of the seizures.

Through Justice Surratt W. B. Jones had secured judgment against the absent Surratt for the sum of $2,214. The bill, which was legally in default, showed that in February, 1894, Surratt had purchased barometers, lace curtains, and other articles, the value of which was $2,214.

Old Surratt Mansion.

of the finest quality, and had even gone so far as to have certain hats made to order. The goods were all displayed in the Surratt home, and were valued at $2,214. The amount of the order was in the neighborhood of $2,214. The Surratt home was a large, ornate house, and had a large porch.

ACTOR LEONARD MISSING

Police Officials Will Now Try to Solve the Mystery. Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 30.—The police officials of this city have been asked to aid in the search for Actor Allen Leonard, who was last seen in the city on the morning of the Forepaugh Stock Company in this city.

DRANK IMPURE MILK

Dr. Osler and Seven Other People Made Very Sick. Baltimore, Md., Aug. 30.—Dr. J. M. Osler, of Philadelphia, his wife, and six other persons, who had been in the city of Baltimore, Md., became suddenly and very sick on the morning of the 29th. The cause of the illness was traced to a bottle of milk which had been taken from a cow which had been milked in a stable.

FOUR CHILDREN DEAD

Were Killed by a Bottle of Milk. Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 30.—The Princeton football team play the eleven from the Lehigh University, in this city, on October 19. The Tigers have secured the Philadelphia ball club's grounds.

Killed by Lightning

South Washington, N. C., Aug. 30.—Charles H. Young, one of the section masters of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, was yesterday killed by lightning while he was standing on the piazza of the section house this afternoon.

VICTIMS OF A PROCESSION

Three Girls Just Arrived in the City Arrested by the Police.

Acting Lieut. Schilling, of the First precinct, had the officers bring to the station-house last night three girls who were found in disorderly house, No. 302 Thirtieth street, north-west. The girls were arrested by the police, and were taken to the station-house.

NO RED SCHOOLHOUSE

Chief Marshal McHugh Excludes It from Labor Day Parade.

Silly Story of the Star What Messrs. Keithley and Drechsler Have to Say About Their Little Scheme—President McHugh Will Preside Rites or Sensations on Labor Day.

The Star printed yesterday afternoon one of its characteristic caricatures and parodies of the news of the labor leaders in Washington. It was stated in the story of the parade, that Messrs. George Keithley and Edward Drechsler had obtained permission from Chief Marshal McHugh to have an educational float in the parade.

QUAY'S LATEST AMBITION

He Wants to Be the Next Governor of Pennsylvania.

Only Sullied When He Was Asked This Question After the Convention Just Adjourned. Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 30.—A special to the Evening Telegraph from Harrisburg says it is stated there on what is considered good authority that Senator Quay had more at stake in his fight this week than the State chairmanship, the control of the Pennsylvania delegation to the next Republican national convention and the national chairmanship.

ENGINES CRASH TOGETHER

Nineteen Cars and Their Contents Entirely Destroyed.

Traffic on the C. & O. Delayed for Hours and Passengers Were Late Reaching the City. All traffic on the Southern Railway north of Clifton, Va., was suspended for eight hours yesterday by a wreck a few miles south of this place. The wreck was caused by the collision of two engines and a passenger car. The engines were from the West and were also delayed, and many citizens were very anxious about friends who were on the train.

LIBERTY BELL CAN GO

Judge Thayer Decides It Can Take the Journey to Atlanta. Philadelphia, Aug. 30.—The city today received judicial consent to send the old Liberty Bell to the Atlanta exposition. The judge, Judge Thayer, has decided that the bell can go to Atlanta, and that it will be put on a special train for the purpose.

THE CROW IS SAFE

London, Aug. 30.—The British bark Plymouth, Capt. Byrd, from New York, was yesterday reported to have arrived safely at the port of London. The bark had been on a voyage to New York, and had returned with a cargo of goods.

VACANT HOUSE SET ON FIRE

Unoccupied house, No. 7 Brown's alley southeast, was set on fire last night by a man who had crawled into the structure through the window to shoot craps. It is said No. 8 fire engine responded to a local alarm and extinguished the flames before more than $25 damage had resulted.

SALES AND COMPANY GET IT

By an order issued by Judge McCombs on Thursday, the entire stock of Wilcox & Buell, hatters and furriers, was transferred to Sales & Company.

DEAD INFANT FOUND

Park Waterman Perry found a dead infant in the shrubbery of the excavation west of the A. & P. depot last night.

LT. BIRKMEYER IS BITTER

Writes the Secretary of War Opposing Leniency to Gill.

HE WANTS A VINDICATION

Insists That the Full Sentence Imposed on the Fighting Private Stand—Has Written, Presenting His Claims for the Department's Action—Fears for the Army.

Lieut. Birkmeyer, of the Washington Barracks, does not mean to pass unheeded the efforts made to secure a commutation of the sentence of Private Gill to serve four years in Columbus military prison for his assault upon him. He has insisted upon full sentence, and yesterday it developed that he is fighting those who have interferred on the other side.

OFFICERS DREW PISTOLS

Some of the Men, Though, Offered Any Resistance—Were Intended for Officers in the Patriot Army—Were to Have a Vessel Meet Them—A Fatal Delay.

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 30.—This afternoon United States Marshal Lanna, of Delaware with a posse of Wilmington policemen and two Pinkerton detectives, left this city for the purpose of capturing twenty Cuban men who had been taken from this city last night on the tug Taurus. The men were taken from the tug and were being held in the city.

CAUGHT THE FILIBUSTERS

Twenty Cuban Sympathizers Arrested Near Wilmington.

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 30.—This afternoon United States Marshal Lanna, of Delaware with a posse of Wilmington policemen and two Pinkerton detectives, left this city for the purpose of capturing twenty Cuban men who had been taken from this city last night on the tug Taurus. The men were taken from the tug and were being held in the city.

WILL NOT TALK

The prisoners take the arrest coolly and will not talk on the subject. This is the first arrest of filibusters made since the trouble in Cuba, and it has been anticipated for some time. It was believed that the men had been living in Philadelphia and the vicinity.

FRENCH VESSEL FOUNDERS

Goes Down in a Storm Which Has Done Great Damage. St. Johns, N. F., Aug. 30.—The French fishing vessel Yachtina has foundered on the Grand Banks. Her crew of nineteen persons was picked up by the Gloucester schooner Emma E. Willette and safely landed here today. A terrible storm swept the Grand Banks Monday night and wrought much damage to the fishing fleet.

LIBERTY BELL CAN GO

Judge Thayer Decides It Can Take the Journey to Atlanta. Philadelphia, Aug. 30.—The city today received judicial consent to send the old Liberty Bell to the Atlanta exposition. The judge, Judge Thayer, has decided that the bell can go to Atlanta, and that it will be put on a special train for the purpose.

THE CROW IS SAFE

London, Aug. 30.—The British bark Plymouth, Capt. Byrd, from New York, was yesterday reported to have arrived safely at the port of London. The bark had been on a voyage to New York, and had returned with a cargo of goods.

VACANT HOUSE SET ON FIRE

Unoccupied house, No. 7 Brown's alley southeast, was set on fire last night by a man who had crawled into the structure through the window to shoot craps. It is said No. 8 fire engine responded to a local alarm and extinguished the flames before more than $25 damage had resulted.

SALES AND COMPANY GET IT

By an order issued by Judge McCombs on Thursday, the entire stock of Wilcox & Buell, hatters and furriers, was transferred to Sales & Company.

BURNS WAS FIGHTING DRUNK

Would Not Even Let the Physician Dress His Wounds. Louis C. Schilling and John Burns, two old soldiers, who have been drinking something stronger than Potomac water, became engaged in a lively fight at "Soldier's Retreat," on Missouri avenue, between Third and P streets, on the evening of August 29. Burns was badly beaten on the head and face, and Schilling, who made his escape before the police arrived.

MYSTERY NO MORE

Holt Will Case Cleared Up by Times Representatives. There is little doubt but that Mr. Cutler found the Holt will and placed that, too, in the hands of the Times. This belief is strengthened because of the fact that a never called back. Probably he thought someone would demand the return of the will.

WILL WAS IN KNOX FIRE

Taken with Other Debris to the Old Refuse Dump. Mr. Lyles said last night to The Times that the Holt will was in the Knox fire. He said that the will was in a box which was taken to the old refuse dump.

CAPTAIN CUNNINGHAM'S FIND

The Document Was Deposited in the Storehouse and Was Saved From the Flames—Some Weeks Ago in Making Over the Charred Papers on the Dump Mr. Lyles Found the Holt Will and Handed It to Cunningham, Who Scanned It and Laid It Aside—It Was Forgotten by Him and Picked Up by a Colored Woman Named Turner, Who Sold It to a Nephew, Edwin Cutler, of Mrs. Stockley—Four Witnesses Who Saw the Will Weeks Ago and Then Lost Sight of It.

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 30.—The mystery surrounding the will of Judge Holt was cleared away last night by The Morning Times, and all the theories heretofore advanced by newspapers and politicians are at an end. The instrument is genuine and The Times is prepared to furnish four witnesses who will make oath to its identity. These witnesses are: Harvey Lyles, owner of Lyles' street north-west, No. 2121 F street north-west, Daniel Kniffin, a carpenter, of No. 644 E street north-west, John Jones, an East Washington carpenter.

IN THE DEBRIS

After remaining in the debris of the fire several months, the alleged instrument in company with a mass of other charred and blackened papers, found its way to the city dump, at the foot of Nineteenth street, where it was rescued from the rubbish by Mr. Lyles and Capt. Cunningham.

CHARLED PAPER THERE

Among the stuff deposited from her son's vehicle near Mrs. Turner's residence were several wagon loads of charred and damaged papers. One of the papers was a document which was found by Mr. Lyles and Capt. Cunningham.

IT WAS HOLT'S WILL

The instrument was burned about the edges, water soaked, while several snails were crawling upon it. "It was in a rusty condition," said Cunningham to The Times last night, and when opened it was found to be a document which was found by Mr. Lyles and Capt. Cunningham.

JUST A FRIENDLY GO

Howard Wilson and Mike Leonard Spurred Four Horses. Howard Wilson, of the Associated Actors and Artists, was yesterday seen to be driving a team of four horses. The horses were very friendly and were going to the city.

STOLE HIS EMPLOYER'S HORSE

Looked out for and arrested Frank Adams, colored, who took a big horse from the stable of Mr. J. F. Schuyler, in the care of Mr. Adams, yesterday afternoon. The horse was found in the city and was returned to its owner.

THE WEATHER TO-DAY

District of Columbia, Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, cloudy, variable winds, followed by fair, variable winds.

LABOR DAY EXTENSION OF THE EVENING

Engineers to Marshall Hall for the benefit of the widows of Davis and Phillips.

WILL BE IN THE CITY

There is little doubt but that Mr. Cutler found the Holt will and placed that, too, in the hands of the Times. This belief is strengthened because of the fact that a never called back. Probably he thought someone would demand the return of the will.

WILL WAS IN KNOX FIRE

Taken with Other Debris to the Old Refuse Dump. Mr. Lyles said last night to The Times that the Holt will was in the Knox fire. He said that the will was in a box which was taken to the old refuse dump.

CAPTAIN CUNNINGHAM'S FIND

The Document Was Deposited in the Storehouse and Was Saved From the Flames—Some Weeks Ago in Making Over the Charred Papers on the Dump Mr. Lyles Found the Holt Will and Handed It to Cunningham, Who Scanned It and Laid It Aside—It Was Forgotten by Him and Picked Up by a Colored Woman Named Turner, Who Sold It to a Nephew, Edwin Cutler, of Mrs. Stockley—Four Witnesses Who Saw the Will Weeks Ago and Then Lost Sight of It.

IN THE DEBRIS

After remaining in the debris of the fire several months, the alleged instrument in company with a mass of other charred and blackened papers, found its way to the city dump, at the foot of Nineteenth street, where it was rescued from the rubbish by Mr. Lyles and Capt. Cunningham.

CHARLED PAPER THERE

Among the stuff deposited from her son's vehicle near Mrs. Turner's residence were several wagon loads of charred and damaged papers. One of the papers was a document which was found by Mr. Lyles and Capt. Cunningham.

IT WAS HOLT'S WILL

The instrument was burned about the edges, water soaked, while several snails were crawling upon it. "It was in a rusty condition," said Cunningham to The Times last night, and when opened it was found to be a document which was found by Mr. Lyles and Capt. Cunningham.

JUST A FRIENDLY GO

Howard Wilson and Mike Leonard Spurred Four Horses. Howard Wilson, of the Associated Actors and Artists, was yesterday seen to be driving a team of four horses. The horses were very friendly and were going to the city.

STOLE HIS EMPLOYER'S HORSE

Looked out for and arrested Frank Adams, colored, who took a big horse from the stable of Mr. J. F. Schuyler, in the care of Mr. Adams, yesterday afternoon. The horse was found in the city and was returned to its owner.

THE WEATHER TO-DAY

District of Columbia, Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, cloudy, variable winds, followed by fair, variable winds.

LABOR DAY EXTENSION OF THE EVENING

Engineers to Marshall Hall for the benefit of the widows of Davis and Phillips.