FROM ALTAR TO THE STAGE

Mr. George Truesdell's Impending Marriage to Miss Westcott.

Chinese Legation Babies Have Shed Their Native Costumes and Are Arrayed Like Americans.

Miss Carroll Dore Westcott, who has been spending the summer with the family of Commissioner Truesdell at Deer Park, will be married the latter part of the present month to Mr. George Truesdell.

The Chinese legation seems always to be able to furnish interesting matter for social gossip, in the most innocent fashion, in October. This time the latest bit of interesting data from this source is to the effect that the two small children, the infant child of the minister and that of one of the attaches, have become emancipated from the swaddling clothes of their native land and, so far as their outward garments are concerned, have blossomed out into full-fledged Americans.

The change has only recently been made and the respective mothers of the children, as well as their nurses, seem charmed with the new order of things. The Chinese love of color has been given due prominence in the change, for the garments of the little ones, instead of being white, as is generally the case, are vivid blues and pinks. This arrayed, the Chinese babies, who are generally displayed on the front steps of the legation together, look like miniature Gifford-Giffords.

Miss Jane Prall is spending some time at Atlantic City.

Gen. and Mrs. William H. Browne have returned to Washington after a visit to one of the near by resorts.

Miss Ida Von Dachenhausen left the city on Wednesday for a visit to relatives in Virginia, where she will spend the autumn.

Miss Adelle Graham is visiting friends on the Hudson.

Miss Anna Graham has returned from a visit to relatives near Philadelphia.

Miss Sue Lammam is in the city visiting Mrs. Charles Lammam.

Miss Catalina Barham left the city last week for a visit to friends in Washington County, Md.

Mr. Herman Hollerith, who has been abroad for some time past on business, will be here for this country to-day. Mrs. Hollerith and her family have been spending the season at their summer home in the mountains of North Carolina.

The friends of Dr. Brunwell will be glad to learn of his recovery. He will return to Washington the first of October, making the return trip by way of California, where he has gone from Salt Lake City where he was taken so ill some weeks since.

Mrs. Harry Beth has been critically ill for a fortnight past, but is now recovering.

Mrs. Sheridan will soon return from her summer home at Nonquitt. Her twin daughters will be introduced to society during the coming winter.

Miss Jane Riggs, who has been abroad for the summer visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howard, will soon return to this country.

Mrs. McArdle will not return to Washington until the middle of next month from Arizona, where she has been visiting her father, Dr. J. Ford Thompson, for some time past. Dr. Thompson has entirely recovered from his recent illness.

A most enjoyable entertainment was given on Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Edson, No. 1212 New Jersey, where the principal feature being the performances of a number of little people.

The programme embraced sixteen numbers, including recitations, tableaux, fancy dancing and vocal and instrumental music, the participants being Misses Pauline Wainwright, Pearl Edson and Thelma Cook, who were being assisted by Masters Prescott McKellar, Bob Wainwright, Frank Wainwright and George Cook.

The tableaux were very attractive, and reflected great credit on the children, who were appropriately costumed and posed most naturally. Miss Wainwright, who represented America, holding aloft a model Defender, and Miss Cook, with a very small Valkyrie, both reaching for the cup held by a miniature Lord Mansfield, brought down the house. A bunch of poppies composed of the four young men of the talent, each holding and gazing lovingly on a doll baby, was greeted with shouts of laughter from the crowd of juveniles present. The whole programme was rendered without a hitch, and the many friends present had nothing but words of praise for the youthful actors, who had given them so much pleasure, making them almost forget the extreme heat of the evening. Among the many present were Messrs. Riley, Wainwright, McKellar, Prescott, Lovelace, Lyons, Cook, Misses Hooper, Green, Stearns, Upton, Kellogg, Brown, Frazer, Tucker, Thomson, Bailey, Morgan, Mackay, Deedee, Goldsmith, Slattery and Bell, Messrs. Kellogg, Thomas, Hughes, and Messrs. Lawson, Cook, and Edson.

Rev. Dr. A. G. Rogers, of the Church of Our Father, who has been visiting his old home in Essex, and Mrs. Rogers, who has been in Vermont during the summer, have returned to this city. They will reside at No. 942 P street northwest.

Mr. Josiah Newman, recently of The Stanley, at Atlantic City, is enjoying the sights of Washington under the pilotage of Dr. Sudliff.

Mr. R. C. Blewland Leonard Jones and the Misses Deane and Leslie Cooper are the guests of the Misses Grace and Rose Klopfer.

Miss Lillian L. Andem is spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. Fred Eberly.

The marriage of Mr. Thomas Keibough, of Mt. Carmel, Md., and Miss Della A. Page, of this city, was duly solemnized last Wednesday by the Rev. W. H. Chapman, at his residence on Maryland Avenue northeast, a large number of the friends and acquaintances of the bride and groom being present. The congratulations of all present crowded the event, and Mrs. Keibough left at once for a trip to New York and Boston.

ALEXANDRIA HAPPENINGS.

The board of police commissioners of Alexandria have determined to ask the city council to increase the police force from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and fifty. The board of opinion that in consequence of the increase of population, the north and west in the last few years, the present force is entirely too small to do effectively the work of not only patrolling the officers to get their meals while on duty has been resigned by the board, who will also the town forty-five minutes each for dinner and supper. It was also determined to continue granting ten days' leave to the men during the warm weather. The anniversary sermon of the Junior Order United American Mechanics will be preached in Alexandria on Sunday, September 22, by the Rev. J. T. Williams, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The services will be attended by all three of the lodges of the order in the city.

Patrolman Lodge of Odd Fellows have recently added two stories to their hall on North Columbia street, which is now being fitted up for property rooms for the paraffin of the different societies that meet there. The old property rooms in the east front of the building are to be torn out to make room for the degree material of the order.

John Johnson, colored, nineteen years of age, was arrested yesterday morning in this city, at the request of the Alexandria police, for the purpose of having stolen a lot of clothing from a resident of the village.

A handsome miniature of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which is to be placed on the altar of the Catholic church in St. Mary's, is a beautiful work of art, five feet high, and cost about $500.

Judge News, in a case in which a corporation, yesterday admitted the will of the late Frank A. Reed to probate. The estate, valued at about $500, is left to his wife, who is named as executrix. The will was drawn in 1875. It was generally supposed that Mr. Reed had much wealth.

The funeral of the late Mrs. James T. Monroe, which took place yesterday, at 3 o'clock, from her late home, on South Lee street, was attended by a large number of the friends and the interment in the cemetery was made by the Rev. P. P. Phillips. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Frank M. Adams, E. M. Adams, John Bullinger, Charles King, L. H. Thompson, William H. Smith, and E. E. Padgett.

Mrs. William Brainer and daughter, Miss Fannie, are the guests of Mrs. H. Woodward.

SUNDAY-SCHOOLS THE TOPIC.

Conference of Workers Held at Eastern Presbyterian Church.

There was a union meeting last night of East Washington Sunday school workers, of all denominations, at the Eastern Presbyterian Church, to prepare for the institute to be held two weeks hence, which will in turn work up an interest in the school convention to be held in connection with the November 13 and continue three days.

Those who participated in the conference and the organizations represented were: Mr. P. H. Briggs, president of the Eastern Union, and Mr. Jerome F. Johnson, its field worker; Messrs. E. C. Warren, of the Metropolitan Baptist church, and Dr. W. E. Dodd, of the North Carolina Avenue Methodist church; and Mr. McBride, of the Eastern Presbyterian church.

The November convention will be completely devoted to the subject of the church in East Washington, and its principal object will be the advancement of the school. The school convention, which will probably be the formation of a permanent union for future work.

HYPONOTIC TOOTH PULLING.

Successful Experiment Upon a Lady of This City.

Dr. C. H. White, dentist, Thursday evening extracted a tooth for Mrs. May Seabright, No. 1212 New Jersey, and, while the patient was under the hypnotic influence.

The operation was performed at the residence of Mrs. McDonald, No. 407 1/2 North-west, in the presence of about 150 people, who had been invited to witness the experiment. The result was in every way successful.

After the patient had been hypnotized, Dr. White believes that hypnosis will eventually be made of great service in all kinds of surgical operations. He expects to hold a short time to experiment with a person who has a large number of teeth to be drawn.

He thinks the only drawback to success in such cases would be a strong-willed individual, who would not rather than pain, encourage the hypnotic influence. This, he feels, is the only reason why it would not be a practical success surgery.

PERNICIOUS ACTIVITY.

Civil Service Commission Defines Violation of Its Rules.

Referring to a recent communication charging that a member of a local civil service board of examiners for the internal revenue service was guilty of improper partisan activity in connection with a recent political convention, the Civil Service Commission asked the accused for such reply to the charges as the facts may warrant, and in its letter to him added:

While attendance at a political convention holds that partisan activity sufficient to merit exclusion from the service, the Civil Service Commission is sufficient cause for removal from membership in any of its boards of examiners.

OLD MAN OF LUDLOW JAIL.

William Stitt Dies After Fifteen Years of Prison Life.

New York, Sept. 13.—William Stitt, who was known as the "Old Man of Ludlow Street Jail," died early this morning in Bellevue Hospital.

Stitt was removed from the jail to the hospital yesterday on an order of Chief Justice Daly, in the court of common pleas.

Stitt was about fifty-six years old and had been in Ludlow Street Jail for the past fifteen years, he having been committed there for contempt of court in refusing when ordered to hand over some $20,000 which he held as a debtor of the estate of Joseph Walden. What became of the money remains a mystery.

Gov. Morton Going South. Albany, N. Y., Sept. 13.—Col. Ashley W. Cole, Gov. Morton's private secretary, announced this afternoon that the Governor had been able to make arrangements which insured his taking a trip next week to the Chickasaw and Choctaw battle fields and the Atlanta exposition.

TRAGICAL DRAMATIC MAN

What Bad Western Whiskey Did For a Bad Theatrical Manager.

Drunken Frank Forbes Fatally Wounds His Wife and Narrowly Escapes Killing an Officer.

Grand Lodge, Mich., Sept. 13.—Frank Forbes, manager of the Forbes & Ward Dramatic Company, which is playing an engagement in this city, went on a spree yesterday.

He quarreled with his wife in their room at the Middleton House about 6 o'clock in the evening and threatened to shoot her.

She ran out of the room, when Forbes drew a revolver and fired at her, the bullet striking her in the left side, two inches above the hip bone, passing through her body and coming out on the right side.

Deputy Sheriff Halliday, who was at the hotel when the shooting occurred, attempted to arrest Forbes, when the latter turned the revolver on the officer and fired twice at him.

One bullet cut the left wristband of his shirt and the second passed under his right arm, cutting the shirt sleeve from the body.

Forbes was then overpowered and locked up. Mrs. Forbes will probably die. Her parents live at Omaha, Neb.

TAR AND FEATHERS.

Pleasant Letter Received by a Kansas Prohibitionist.

Wichita, Kan., Sept. 13.—H. W. Lewis, ex-president of the Kansas National Bank, who has been one of the foremost leaders in the local fight for prohibition, has received a letter threatening him with tar and feathers if he does not leave town within 24 hours.

The letter is as follows: "If you do not leave this city within the next twenty-four hours you will have to take the consequences of tar and feathers and fire riding on a rail in open daylight, or publish to the world your ultimatum. You will have to do this during the time stated above or take the consequences. Look out, beware, and hang in. Y. C. Committee of Forty."

The feeling between the liberal and prohibition elements is running high. Mr. Lewis is taking steps to hunt down the senders of the letter.

AGED NINETY-SIX.

Death of Dr. Wakefield, Oldest Mason and Minister.

West Newton, Pa., Sept. 13.—Rev. Dr. Samuel Wakefield, the veteran Methodist minister, died at 7 o'clock this morning, at the residence of J. B. Brown. Dr. Wakefield was aged 96 years, 6 months and 8 days.

Three of his ten children, all of whom are living, were present when he died.

Dr. Wakefield was said to be the oldest Mason and the oldest minister of the Methodist Episcopal church in the city. He was of any denomination in the world.

He had been a member of the Masonic fraternity for almost seventy-five years.

Dr. Wakefield's career is a part of the history of Western Pennsylvania. He was ordained a minister in 1817. He was the author of several books on theology which made him widely known.

PROF. SIMS' DEPARTURE.

Y. M. C. A. Loses the Physical Director It Has Had for Five Years.

Prof. J. W. Sims, for several years the athletic director of the Y. M. C. A. in this city, leaves to-day for his new field of labor.

He will have charge of the physical culture work of the railroad branch, West Philadelphia Y. M. C. A., which has a membership numbering about 600 more than in this city.

The local association, in being forced by the recent fire to let Prof. Sims go, has a membership numbering about 600 more than in this city.

The local association, in being forced by the recent fire to let Prof. Sims go, has a membership numbering about 600 more than in this city.

Prof. Sims has been an athlete since fifteen years of age, when he won his first race. He was one of the fastest runners in the world, and has won handicap foot races at Birmingham, Oldbury, Rochester, Edinburgh, Manchester and Sheffield, and has a record of running 133 1/2 yards in 12 3/4 seconds at Hartford in 1882, and was first in more than fifty events during his career.

Prof. Sims entered physical culture work about twelve years ago and attended the Training School for Physical Directors at Springfield, Mass. He left the Hartford Y. M. C. A. when he was received membership it had ever had and came to Washington.

He is a careful budding athlete is well known, and his caution and refusal to permit trick work, although proficient himself in all of it, has saved many a young man some broken bones and a neck perhaps. His aim has been to build up the form in sinew and tissue, making perfect specimens of physical manhood.
