MACEO'S VICTORY. Two important news items regarding the affairs of Cuba were served up to the readers of The Times yesterday.

FREE KINDERGARTENS. A report just made to subscribers for the maintenance of free kindergartens through Mr. B. Pickman Mann, shows that these admirable institutions, supported wholly by voluntary contributions, have been doing a work of immeasurable value during the two years that have passed since they were first established.

It is gratifying to know that the proposed mass-meeting has aroused the Spanish government. The protest be made by all means. It has no other effect, it may lead the administration of public affairs at Washington to find its voice, and say something upon the Cuban question.

Spain might buy a copy of the Constitution of the United States and study it just to learn that free speech and the right of the people to meet cannot be abridged.

It is very nearly time for the present occupant of the White House to write some letters. David Bennett Hill has been making speeches.

Between Great Britain and Corbett and Venezuela and Fitzsimmons the ultimate racket has been worked until it must feel very tired.

Thomas Brackett Reed is far more interesting in the role of a growing socialist than in the part of a cooling dove.

John Sherman's book appears to have stirred up the whole Republican menagerie.

If that drought were in Kentucky instead of Pennsylvania, the people would voluntarily set apart a day for thanksgiving.

To the Deaf and Malarious. The most incredulous are convinced of the virtues of Aunt Rachel's Malaria and Peruvian Bark Bitters upon a trial of them.

Doesn't Know His Wife is Dead. Messrs. Arthur English and P. J. Costan, assistant attorneys in the Interior Department, have been on a hunting trip in the mountains of West Virginia for several days.

GAIL HAMILTON'S BOOK

Biography of James G. Blaine Which Will Cause Discussion. Interesting Autobiography by Hon. Horatio King Which Contains Valuable Unpublished History.

After the memoirs of Gen. Grant, Blaine's "Twenty Years of Congress," and the freshly published autobiography of Senator Sherman, no recent production dealing with the life of public men possesses the interest that attaches to the "Biography of James G. Blaine," just published by the literary house of Putnam's company.

Another mistake is made in exhausting space with letters both of youthful and mature years, which are wholly uninteresting and unimportant, disclosing no new phase of the character of the man and having no bearing on his public life.

Spain Excited. The extraordinary news reached America yesterday that the Spanish government is preparing a protest to present to the Government of the United States against holding the mass-meeting in this city which has been announced to take place on October 31.

ANACOSTIA ROAD EMPLOYEES DECIDE TO REJECT THE AGREEMENT.

A special meeting of the employees of the Anacostia and Potomac River Street Railway, was held at the Hotel Anacostia, last evening, to consider the terms of the agreement entered into on Friday between members of the Street Railway Assembly and President Griswold.

The matter of accepting or rejecting the agreement was then submitted to the meeting. The vote was overwhelmingly against acceptance, there being only one vote in favor of approving it.

Another protest against the Custom Rates by a Business Man. Editor Times: I was much interested in an article that appeared in your issue of this morning signed "Business Man," under the caption of "Fairs That Are Unfair."

WOMEN WILL HELP CUBA. Mrs. John A. Logan Openly Tenders Her Sympathy. ATTENDS THE MASS MEETING.

Her Husband Favored Cuban Independence, So Does She—Corporate Tanager to Preside—Important Meeting of the Executive Committee, Newspaper Representatives.

PRICE OF A WIFE'S AFFECTIONS. John Lingg Wants $10,000 for the Allegation of His Spouse's. Shelbyville, Ind., Oct. 26.—A $10,000 judgment was rendered by the Circuit Court at Indianapolis today, by John D. Lingg, a prominent furniture dealer of this city, who charges Harry C. Parker, general traffic manager of the Lake Erie steamship line, with seducing his wife.

HILL AND CAMPBELL. Only a Small Crowd Greeted Them at Lima, Ohio. Lima, Ohio, Oct. 26.—The big Democratic rally, with Senator Hill, of New York, and ex-Gov. Campbell, and a number of lesser lights, as drawing cards, drew a small crowd.

HE STOOD HIGH, BUT GOT $10,000 BY FALSE PROMISE. Manatee, Mich., Oct. 26.—W. C. Demay, a prominent business man of Richmond, Ind., formerly cashier of the First National Bank of Little Rock, Ark., has been bound over for trial at the next session of the circuit here.

SENATOR HILL IN THE OHIO CAMPAIGN. Lima, O., Oct. 26.—Ten thousand people attended the demonstration today, this being the first appearance in Ohio during the present campaign of Senator David B. Hill, of New York. Senator Hill, ex-governor Campbell, Senator Brier and John Peaslee arrived at noon on a special train.

HAS THREE CHARGES TO ANSWER. Edward Hendon, a colored waiter, was locked up in the Third precinct station yesterday afternoon, on the charges of destroying private property, preferred by John J. Bee, proprietor of the Arms, carrying concealed weapons, and receiving stolen goods.

SITUATION IN NEW YORK. Lays his Bible on the shelf. Must hustle for himself. He swears his pupil for the stump. And goes without his dinner.

WHY "SHOULD WOMEN VOTE?" should have been the title of a little "novel" published and distributed by the National Post-office box 950, New York, though the title page says "by a bachelor," one can hardly say. The point of the volume, which is written in a beautiful, readable style, is to show that the right of suffrage is a natural right of woman.

THE FACT THAT "THE LEGAL SUNDAY" by James T. Ringgold, of the Baltimore bar, is dedicated to the members of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, and is published by the International Religious Liberty Association, tells the whole story in regard to this little volume.

Jerome and the Colonel. Said Justice Jerome as he sat on the bench, Presiding at Special Sessions: It has given OUR Honors a terrible wrench, when WE all the Sabbath breakers would swear.

SAID JUSTICE JEROME, WITH A TERRIBLE FROWN, THAT HE HAD NEVER SEEN A MAN MORE DISRESPECTFUL TO THE LAW THAN THE PRESIDENT OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

SAID JUSTICE JEROME, IN A VOICE LOW AND STRONG: "WE REGRET THAT IN GENERAL SESSIONS, WHEN SALOON MEN ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THEY'RE IN THE WRONG, WE'RE DETERMINED TO PUT STRONG LAW-BREAKING DOWN."
