

Cloudy, possibly showers. Probably clearing afternoon. Southerly to westerly winds.

All Easter

week

we will sell Spring

Top coats

and

Suits

made to order for $20, $25

$30, and

$35

at

Ten Dollars

A fine Suit

and Top coat

for Easter

complete

for a twenty dollar bill

Misfit Clothing

Parlors

407 Seventh

VERY DRY DAY IN BROOKLYN

Raines' Liquor Law the Cause of Bitter Complaining.

Few Arrests for Drunkenness and

Only Rare Cases of Violation of the New Law.

Brooklyn, N. Y., March 29.—After the clocks had chimed the hour of midnight last night the Raines liquor law was in force in Brooklyn.

The amiable had gone forth from Police Commissioner Welles and District Attorney Foster L. Backus. The law would be strictly enforced and every saloonkeeper within the jurisdiction of the police was notified to comply with its provisions today, and saloon, side doors and all closed tight and every facility was given to the police to observe that it was not a pretense, but a positive fact.

Bands were drawn in at the liquor stores and in cases where glass panels obstructed

KAISER'S TRIP TO ITALY

Followed by a Political Conference at Vienna.

RUSSIAN POLICY THE THEME

German Press Has Been Instructed to Minimize the Importance of the Visit—Imposing Retinue Accompanied by the Emperor and His Family.
Meeting With King Humbert.

Berlin, March 29.—The imperial party, in their visit to Italy, are accompanied by a large and distinguished suite.

Among those attached to the emperor are General Von Plessen, Col. Engelbrecht, and three aides-de-camp. Admiral Von Seydlitz, chief of the emperor's marine staff, Count Von Eulenberg, grand marshal of the court, Baron Von Kiderlen-Wachter, German minister to Denmark, and a close confidante of the kaiser, and Duchess Luise.

Among the attendants of the empress are two chamberlains and two ladies of honor and the young princess are accompanied by three tutors. Count Eusebio Drysander is also with the party for the purpose of officiating at the religious duties of holy week, and Count Painter Bismarck will make sketches of the scenes of Italy and Sicily, which will afterwards be printed in pictures commemorative of the trip.

THE KAISER'S ITINERARY.

Leaving Naples March 31 on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, the emperor and empress, with their suites, will sail for Palermo. They will sojourn five days in Sicily and will thence go to Venice, where they will meet the king and queen of Italy and King Humbert, the communication between the two monarchs being made by the emperor's private secretary, Italian prime minister, in regard to the presence of the German emperor in Italy having resulted in the two monarchs deciding upon a meeting in person.

Queen Margherita will accompany King Humbert and will receive the empress.
During the three days of the stay of the imperial party in Venice, the king and queen of Rumania will join the imperial and royal party. After the interview between the kaiser and King Humbert the empress will go to Trieste, where she will be joined by Prince Hohenzollern.

The official press has received instructions to minimize the importance of these conferences and to state that the kaiser is going to Austria for the purpose of attending the marriage of his niece, and that his visit to Italy is only a happy coincidence, the imperial visit to Austria and the marriage of the chancellor's niece being synchronous events.

WILL HAVE A CONFERENCE.

It is impossible, however, to direct the course of the important trip, and the majesty will meet successively three monarchs who are his allies—meetings which certainly have some significance.

It is believed that the conferences do not relate to a renewal of the dread that being already secured, but rather to the kaiser's policy toward Russia, whose policy toward the Balkans is a matter of great anxiety to the Austrian and Romanian courts, to the king of Rumania, especially, and to the emperor of Germany, that monarch being somewhat anxious as to the attitude of his ally toward the development in view of Russia's attitude.

The emperor is largely due to his own taste. Previous to his arriving in Genoa his majesty ordered the band of marines on board the Hohenzollern, and the band was at Genoa, to give a concert for the benefit of the Italian soldiers who were wounded at the battle of Adowa in Abyssinia, the entertainment realizing a large sum.

The kaiser also directed Prince Henry Prussia to visit the wounded who were being treated in the hospital in Naples, and another concert will be given by the marine band in honor of the emperor's army. The kaiser has reached a phenomenal intensity of enthusiasm.

SHOT HIS LANDLORD.

Tenant Killed Him Because He Tried to Evict Him.

Sheraton, Pa., March 29.—At 12:15 o'clock Monday, J. J. Newton, a well-known physician of this city, was shot twice and dangerously wounded by his tenant, W. B. Greaves, a dyer and merchant tailor.
The doctor's office and his apartment were in the building, corner of Penn avenue and Spruce street, where Greaves does his dyeing and the doctor has taken office. The doctor and his tenant were to have Greaves ejected. This has led to bad blood between them.

Later last night the quarrel was renewed and the doctor, who had a revolver, drew it and, pursuing the doctor into his office, fired three shots.

Two took effect in Newton's shoulder, and the doctor was seriously wounded, proceeding one of them to be dangerous.
Greaves was seen in a cell in the station-house, and declared that his act was a deliberate one, and expressed sorrow that he had not killed the doctor.

LYNCHING IS EXPECTED.

Indiana Farm Hand Assaulted a Woman and Is in Jail.

Crown Point, Ind., March 29.—It is very probable that the Crown Point jail yard will be the scene of a lynching party before tomorrow night.

Albert Knuss, a farm hand working for Nicholas Knauss, a prosperous farmer living five miles south of this place, brutally and criminally assaulted Mrs. Haahn while her husband was away from home.

The brute then kicked Mrs. Haahn into an extremely doubtful. Knuss was arrested and placed in jail yesterday. A well-defined rumor is in circulation that he will be taken from jail and lynched, and Sheriff Hayes has placed the jail under a strong guard of deputies.

COAL BREAKER BURNED.

Three Hundred Men Thrown Out of Employment at Erieburg.

REVOLT OF THE MATABELES.

Situation Not Quite So Serious as Was First Reported.

Cape Town, March 29.—According to advices received here the rising among the Matabeles is not so serious as the first dispatches portended, but there is nevertheless much to be done as to what the final outcome will be.

A dispatch received today from Bulawayo, the principal town of Matabeleland, says that the Matabele whites have been killed by the natives.

Sir Hercules Robinson, governor of Cape Colony, and high commissioner in South Africa, has called on the Matabele Chamberlain in London, that Capt. Nicholson telegraphs from Bulawayo that he has 350 rifles and ammunition.

Capt. Nicholson thinks that the revolt will not spread. The only detachments of the native police who are known to have been killed are those of the 1st and 2d Commissioner Benti. Another thirty were very restless and were dispersed, after which they deserted.

MURDERED MAN AND WIFE

Mysterious Attempt to Kill a Whole Household in Ohio.

THREE OTHERS WILL DIE

Respectable and Wealthy Farmer's Family the Victims, and the Motive is a Mystery—Two Daughters and a Man-Servant Fatally Wounded.
Horse Throat Is Suspected.

Cleveland, O., March 29.—At 1 o'clock this morning a crime of almost unparalleled atrociousness was perpetrated near Tallmadge, a village five miles north of Akron.

Alvin Stone, aged sixty-nine, and his wife, aged sixty-two, while asleep at their home, were brutally murdered by a fiend, who literally beat their heads to pieces, after which numerous knife thrusts were made into the bodies of the dead.

Two daughters, Hattie, aged twenty-nine, and Emma, aged twenty-seven, and the family man-servant, A. F. Stillson, were also attacked. All three of these were fatally injured and lie at their home awaiting death. They had been beaten about the head with a blunt instrument, which must have been of great size.

Alvin Stone was among the most wealthy and prominent of Summit county farmers and his wife was a member of one of the wealthiest families in Northwestern Ohio.
The object of the murderous assault on the family was not robbery, as numerous articles of value, including a large sum of money, which were on the last room dresser, were not taken.

MOTIVE MOST MYSTERIOUS.

The crime is shrouded in mystery and the whole country is agitated. The only suspicion as yet rests on one John Smith, a blacksmith at Edward Porter's blacksmith shop, one-eighth of a mile from the Stone homestead.

Smith was despatched by Alvin Stone two weeks ago. The former was a close friend of the latter, and was on the night of the murder at Edward Porter's blacksmith shop, one-eighth of a mile from the Stone homestead.

Smith was despatched by Alvin Stone
two weeks ago. The former was a close
friend of the latter, and was on the night
of the murder at Edward Porter's blacksmith shop, one-eighth of a mile from the Stone homestead.

Smith was despatched by Alvin Stone
two weeks ago. The former was a close
friend of the latter, and was on the night
of the murder at Edward Porter's blacksmith shop, one-eighth of a mile from the Stone homestead.

Smith was despatched by Alvin Stone
two weeks ago. The former was a close
friend of the latter, and was on the night
of the murder at Edward Porter's blacksmith shop, one-eighth of a mile from the Stone homestead.

Smith was despatched by Alvin Stone
two weeks ago. The former was a close
friend of the latter, and was on the night
of the murder at Edward Porter's blacksmith shop, one-eighth of a mile from the Stone homestead.

Smith was despatched by Alvin Stone
two weeks ago. The former was a close
friend of the latter, and was on the night
of the murder at Edward Porter's blacksmith shop, one-eighth of a mile from the Stone homestead.

Smith was despatched by Alvin Stone
two weeks ago. The former was a close
friend of the latter, and was on the night
of the murder at Edward Porter's blacksmith shop, one-eighth of a mile from the Stone homestead.

RECH IS AT LAST IN JAIL

Suspected Jersey Wife Murderer Makes a Confession.

WAS CAPTURED BY THE POLICE

Prisoner Is Allowed to Answer No Questions of Reporters, But It Is Stated That He Has Made an Admission to the Authorities—Story of His Escape.

Philadelphia, March 29.—John Rech, the suspected murderer of his wife at the hamlet of Esclerville, N. J., was arrested about 1:30 this morning in a little hotel just across the city line in Montgomery county.

It is probable that Rech has made a full confession that he killed his wife, but the police refuse to affirm or deny this. Still, from various little circumstances this refusal to affirm or deny in every likelihood means that Rech has confessed.

Rech was seen in his cell at the city hall today by a reporter. The man is about thirty-three years of age and is a rather good-looking fellow of the ordinary type.
While not overly intelligent, Rech seems clever enough, but while giving no evidence of familiarity with the book moral perception and to have no realization of the horrible crime of which he stands accused.

The man has a pronounced German accent, and was ready enough to answer any question that the police official who looked for a hearing place for the man.
ANSWERED NO QUESTIONS.

Rech was not allowed to answer any question bearing directly upon his guilt or innocence, nor was he permitted to state whether he had confessed anything to the police.

According to his story Rech left Estelville on Thursday afternoon last for Philadelphia with his brother and his baby.
His brother went on to Allentown, where he is employed as a book-binder, and the infant was left at the home of industry with the child over night.

On Friday morning early he started out looking for a hearing place for the infant.
He inserted an advertisement in one of the daily papers for a boarding place for the child and then continued his search.

He finally found a boarding place for the infant with a German family and leaving it there, walked towards the suburbs of the city, and sought towards the farms of the area, where he was seen by a farmer and spent the night at a country hotel. On Saturday he continued his search for farm work.

Saturday he read the account in the papers of the finding of his wife's body and the search for himself. He said he became determined to leave the country, and he left his overcoat behind him, and this overcoat caused his arrest.

The man's nervousness had excited the suspicions of the landlord, and when he went out without his overcoat the landlord searched his pockets. He found the overcoat in his pocket, and he was arrested. This disclosed the man's identity, and the landlord immediately called the police and arrested Rech.

POSSE OF FARMERS.

Rech, in the meanwhile crossed the city line into Montgomery county, and, as it was now dark, he stopped at a small country house. A posse of farmers were sent upon his trail, and later in the evening they came upon him at the house. At first the farmers hesitated to arrest the man, but finally set upon him. A short rough and tumble fight ensued, in which no great damage was done to any of the parties, and Rech, being overpowered, was led toward Philadelphia. His captors mounted policemen, they turned their prisoner over to the officer, who took the clothes, Hattie, and Emma, and he was locked up over night. This morning he was brought to the Central police station.

Rech denied that he had any quarrel with his wife, and that he had no desire to kill her. He said the woman first came to his saloon at Gloucester, N. J., about two years ago and that they had since lived together.

In May last they were married in Jersey City by a justice of the peace. Rech says that when he read the account in the papers of the murder of his wife, he was so shocked that he fled to Philadelphia, and hid himself up, but that he was going to wait until Monday.

He wrote a letter to his lawyer, Carroll H. Smith, who was in Philadelphia, and yet received the letter. As the reporter was leaving the cell Rech called after him and said: "I am going to Philadelphia tomorrow, and perhaps I will see you there."

Chief of Detectives Miller tonight admitted that Rech has made a full confession, but the chief refused to give any of the details. Miller said that he had further information that Rech confesses that the child which passed for his wife and became a quarter resulting from the event of her death without issue.

SHOT HIS YOUTH WIFE.

Then Killed Himself Without Knowing That She Was Almost Unborn.

Columbus, O., March 29.—Fred Gorrell, aged twenty-two, attempted to kill his wife last afternoon, and, supposing he had succeeded, killed himself.

Gorrell came from Mount Vernon, Ohio, last fall and married the daughter of his employer, Sylvester Eggleston, a contracting painter. He was insanely jealous of her and became a quarrelsome man. She left him some days ago. Gorrell went to the house of his father-in-law, where his wife was staying, this afternoon, and killed her. She refused and drew a revolver and shot her twice, and the other pierced her left breast just below the shoulder. Gorrell then snatched the revolver at his own head repeatedly, but it would not go off. He then went to the kitchen and securing a butcher knife tried to cut his throat, but it was too dull. He then ran to his father-in-law's room and sent his mother to his room. He made such a desperate stroke at his throat that the head was almost severed from the body and he fell dead.

WILL USE CUBA AS A PEG

House Rebels May Try Their Strength Again Today.

HAVE A PROGRAM ARRANGED

Under Suspension of the Rules They Will Call Up the Conference Report to Displace the Sundry Civil Bill—Will Let the Opposition Do the Talking.

A program has been arranged by which, if it goes through, Cuba will have a final and triumphant hearing today in House.
The conference report, accepting the Senate resolutions as a substitute for those passed by the lower branch of Congress, will be called up, according to the program, under suspension of the rules, and passed through with little debate as possible.

The revolt against the ordinary control of legislation by Speaker Reed, which last Friday upset all plans and calculations, left the fate of Cuban liberty, so far as an expression of opinion by Congress is concerned, suspended in the air. It was beyond the power of the most expert mathematician to compute as to certainly the next train of events.

An impression prevailed that the contest between the leaders and the rebels would soon be over. The rebels, however, seem to be determined to continue their struggle until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chairman Cannon had declared the sundry civil appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

THEIR GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY.

On the other hand the rules make this suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

On the other hand the rules make this
suspension day and the revolutionists, who
are determined to continue their struggle
until the preceding volcanic eruption, Chair-
man Cannon had declared the sundry civil
appropriation bill should come up for consideration, and he was determined to give
the almost any proposition looking to the side-
tracking of that measure.

BUSINESS PORTION DESTROYED.

Weston, W. V., Suffers Great Damage From the Flames.

Weston, Va., March 29.—The fire which started in the Commercial Hotel here last night burned itself out shortly after daylight today, having destroyed nearly the entire business portion of the town.
Among the large buildings burned were the Commercial and Central Hotels, postoffice, Kitson's block, Dawson building, Griffin's four miles, Opera House, Post's drug store and building, Lewis's shoe house and handsome residence adjoining O'Hara building and Dyer's wagon. Besides these there were a large number of small buildings, including three general stores, two groceries and two saloons.

The loss is variously estimated at from $200,000 to $300,000. The Commercial Hotel, 25 percent of which is covered by insurance.
The State asylum for insane was not injured, but unfortunate inmates who did not know this were rendered frantic and the scene there during the conflagration was a terrible one, and resulted in many deaths from over excitement.

FOUR DIED FROM FRIGHT

Terrible Fatalities of a Fire in a Paris Hospital.

TEN FIREMEN POISONED

Historic Gothic Church of Saviour and the Hospital Adjoining Destroyed—Sappers Got Into the Drug Room and Drank Poison for Liquor.

Paris, March 29.—The Gothic Church of Saviour, on the boulevard du Marechal Vaillant, at Lille, was destroyed by fire this morning.

The flames spread to the Hospital of St. Saviour, adjoining the church. There was the greatest excitement when it was seen that the hospital would be burned.
The scenes among the patients were terrible. Those who were convalescent were hurriedly directed to leave the building, and the hospital attendants and others devoted themselves to removing those who were not able to help themselves.

DIED FROM FRIGHT.

The cries of the sick were heard rending.
Four of the patients, who were extremely weak, succumbed to fright, and died before they could be taken out. Many of the sick were received in the convent of the Little Sisters of the Poor, which is situated but a short distance from the scene of the fire.

DRUNK POISON FOR LIQUOR.

Ten sappers, who had been ordered to save the medicine in the hospital, came across what they thought was a quantity of champagne. They each took a drink and were almost immediately seized with symptoms of poisoning. Physicians at once attended them, but despite all their efforts, four of the sappers died and the others are still suffering from agonizing pains.

It was not until 7 o'clock this evening that the fire was mastered. It was caused by the neglect of some plumbers who had been employed in the repair of the church, and who had either left their burning brazier or dropped a piece of glowing charcoal.

WOMEN KILLED AT A