ONE QUERY ABOUT MAINE

Major McKinley's Callers Excite Much Interest Among the Politicians.

The numerous visits being paid to Major McKinley have started the gossips going again.

Now they are busy figuring out for the thousands how this money, which are to be the members of the President-elect's cabinet.

It is quite a matter of course for the arriving Congressman to ask newspapermen for the latest Cabinet gossip.

MILLIKEN NOT IN IT.

Well, I see how it is to be Secretary of State; Dingley is to take the Treasury portfolio, and White on the State of Maine it might be well to suggest that Mr. Dingley is not such a Cabinet possibility as some persons may think.

ASSIGNMENT OF THE ROOMS

Superintendent Green Claims He Can Transfer the Books in Thirty Days—Question of Furniture Discussed as Well as Method of Moving the Volumes.

The Committee on the Library of Congress concluded its work for the week at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and went home to eat Thanksgiving dinner.

It was made for folks with salaries to whom the paying of a little each week or month is much easier than "cash down."

You certainly don't pay any more, either, for this privilege of credit. Our $7.50 Suits and Overcoats are $7.50 Cash or Credit, and they're the biggest value you were ever offered for $7.50.

Fact is you cannot buy such garments elsewhere under $9 and $10.

We would like a few of you prejudiced people to drop in for a few moments sometime.

We like to "get hold" of a man who thinks that our liberal credit system isn't legitimate and helpful.

We don't know of any store that's so reasonable in price-making of clothes—of hats—of boys' suits and furnishings—of ladies' wraps, suits and skirts.

D. A. 66 WILL NOT OBEY IT

Condemns the Rochester Convention by a Decided Vote.

HOT SHOT FOR MR. HAYES

Warm Speeches Were Made After Delegate O'Dea Had Related the Inside of the General Assembly's Workings—Resolution Passed Condemning the General Officers.

District Assembly, No. 66, K. of L., met last night at Pastors' Hall, Master Workman Simmons in the chair.

The most important matter considered was the adoption of the report of Delegate Thomas O'Dea, who represented this district at the Rochester convention of the general assembly, recently held at Rochester, N. Y.

The report was verbal and referred especially to matters affecting the local assembly and more especially to the action taken in reference to Master Workman Simmons and Delegate Potter.

In speaking of this matter he said the action of the general assembly was very arbitrary and unjust. Personally he was not accorded the courtesy extended other delegates, and he attempted to submit matters relative to the organization he represented, although they were under the seal of the order, he was not given an audience, to write the matters at all were not entertained.

WAS A GENERAL PROTEST.

In general terms his report was a protest against the action of the general assembly, and matters pertaining to the District Assembly No. 66, K. of L., which would effect the several locals in this jurisdiction.

It was antagonized by several members, but without success. Mr. Frank Pent made two efforts to persuade delegates to make a protest against the action of the general assembly, but without success.

Delegate Blake also made a speech, in which he appealed to all to express in the mandates of the general assembly.

A delegate from the Eccentric Engineers attacked Mr. Blake in a warm speech.

Delegate Carr, of the Carpenters' Association, also made a speech, in which he expressed his disapproval of the action of the general assembly.

There is no doubt as to the sentiment of District Assembly No. 66, in reference to the action of the general assembly, for every delegate present at the general assembly was opposed to the action of the general assembly.

BY A BIG VOTE.

There is no doubt as to the sentiment of District Assembly No. 66, in reference to the action of the general assembly, for every delegate present at the general assembly was opposed to the action of the general assembly.

DECLINES TO OBEY.

The resolutions declare that District Assembly No. 66, K. of L., has no authority to issue a mandate to the general assembly, and that the general assembly has no authority to issue a mandate to District Assembly No. 66, K. of L.

They protest against the illegal and farcical manner of the trial of Messrs. Simmons and Potter in which those who were alleged to be injured were made prosecutors in the case and who are now governed by the decision of the general assembly.

They protest against the resolution of the general assembly to consider certain resolutions proposed by the general assembly, and to charge that such resolution was a pointed insult.

One of the resolutions peremptorily refused to comply with the order of the general assembly to place on the unfair list an institution within the jurisdiction of the order, which institution employs only union labor.

Another resolution reaffirms the resolution of D. A. 66, recently passed, in which it was declared that the general assembly has no authority to issue a mandate to District Assembly No. 66, K. of L.

Fishing Steamer Ashore.

New York, Nov. 26.—The harbor steamer John E. Moore, which started this morning on a fishing excursion with 150 passengers, grounded at the elbow of Homer Shoal, just inside Sandy Hook, and sank, the water touching her main deck.

No fatalities occurred, the excursionists being taken off by the station pilot boat Walter H. Adams. They were brought to this city. An attempt will be made to float the Moore.

POLICE BLESSED THE DAY

Everyone Was Good and They Had a Rest.

CROWDS WERE ORDERLY

One or Two Liquid Celebrators Got Locked Up, But the Spirit of Thanksgiving Banned Wickedness—Only Minor Accidents Were Reported at the Hospitals.

Washington is becoming good, at least if it is not taken as a criterion, and the police are of the opinion that the criminal element has reformed.

Yesterday and last evening was the quietest, most commonplace, everyday sort of a Thanksgiving in which the city has ever indulged.

In contrast with last year the improvement was marked. A year ago last night people did all manner of strange things and secured the arrival of the Pilgrim Fathers in many peculiar ways.

The police stations and hospitals were filled with overflowed patients, and there were some who escaped the vigilance of the patrolmen.

HOLIDAY FOR THE POLICE.

All this, however, has changed, and Washington has had a model Thanksgiving. Last night the streets were gathered in, but for the most part the police simply stood around corners and watched the crowd go by and waited for something to happen.

CONFESSED IN OPEN COURT

at night. The date for this was fixed. It was some time ahead of the time when the deed was actually committed, and Mrs. Irwin declares she did not know of Matthews' intentions to come to the house that fatal night, in August.

Mrs. Irwin said she was confined in the La Platte jail and was unable to go to the trial and also that she had confessed.

The crime charged against George Matthews was one of the foulest in this State's history. While sleeping at home Irwin was shot in the head by his wife's paragon. The fatal wound was inflicted by a shot from a heavy musket, the barrel of which was placed so close to the sleeping man's head that it grazed the hair.

One detail led to the arrest of Matthews, the chief homicide investigator in this State's history. While sleeping at home Irwin was shot in the head by his wife's paragon.

Several weeks ago Matthews escaped from jail here. A dilapidated launch was made for him but the launch was not found. He was being held in Liberty three or four days he surrendered himself.

HOSPITAL DOCTORS LOADED.

An emergency hospital the surgeons were kept for a very quiet day. No serious cases came in and the list was a short one.

Louis Colard disobeyed his mother yesterday and went gunning. Later they brought him to the hospital. Louis is thirty years old and lives at No. 1345 Sixth street northwest.

William Gettinger and J. W. Rawlings were the limit men, with seven and a half minutes on the scratch met. B. F. Larcombe did the handicapping. The summary is as follows:

BARN BURNER LYNCHED.

Taken From a Florida Sheriff and Strung Up.

Gainesville, Fla., Nov. 26.—Alfred Daniels, alias Frank Williams, who is alleged, was convicted of the burning of J. D. Stungel's barn, about five miles west of this city, some five miles since, and who was arrested in Jacksonville a few days ago on the charge of arson, was lynched about five miles north of the city about 2 o'clock this morning.

Deputy Sheriff Rives, in whose charge the prisoner was, was traveling by private conveyance from Wahoo and was accompanied by Paul Reynolds and a colored lad about fourteen years old, when guns were stuck in their faces and they were ordered to stop.

Part of the mob still held the deputy and driver covered with guns, while the others succeeded in pulling the prisoner out of the carriage, and after ordering the driver to proceed, they took the man to a nearby tree and hanged him.

Deputy Rives could describe the none of the mob, as it was very dark, and he said they looked as if their faces had been blackened.
