

DON'T STOP OVER.
"Don't stop over," the old man said,
As he placed his hand on the young man's head.
"Go it by all means, go it fast,
Go it while leather and horse shoes last;
Go it while hide and hair on horse
Will hold together. Oh, go it of course—
Go it as rapid as ever you can,
But don't stop over, my dear young man."

"Don't stop over. You'll find some day,
That keeping an eye to the windward will pay.
A horse may run a little too long,
A preacher preach just a fraction too strong;
And a poet who pleases the world with rhymes
May write and regret it in after times.
Keep the end of the effort in view,
And don't stop over, whatever you do."

Don't stop over. The wisest men
Are bound to stop over now and then;
And yet the wisest at work or feast
Are the very ones who blunder the least.
Those who for spilt milk never will
Are the ones who carry the steadiest pail.
Wherever you go, go in for the fat;
But don't stop over—and freeze to that.

Don't stop over, distrust yourself.
Nor always reach to the highest shelf,
The next to the highest will generally do,
And answer the needs of such as you.
Of him of course, but always stop;
And take breath a little this side of the top;
And so you will reach it in wind and strong,
Without stopping over. "Thus ends my song!"

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!

Super-Phosphate of Lime and Bone Dust.
ALL WHO USE IT ONCE WILL BUY NO OTHER.

THE HIGH PRICE OF THE PERUVIAN Guano has done much to call the attention of farmers to other fertilizers; still too many continue using it. Let us see some of the advantages which the Farmers' and Planters' Super-Phosphate of Lime must have over it.

1st. It costs less than two-thirds as much as Peruvian Guano.
2d. It is always finely powdered, dry and in good condition for drilling, whereas Guano is always lumpy and must be prepared for the drill.
3d. It is pure and unadulterated, while much of the Guano sold has been tampered with.
4th. It is not volatile, and will always remain in the ground when not removed by plants; while Guano, being to a great extent volatile, is constantly losing strength, and if not immediately absorbed by the plants, gives up its value to the air, and does not improve the soil.

5th. Its constant and careful use will, in four or five years, double the value of a farm;
whereas, by the constant application of guano,
the land becomes poorer—as the stimulated growth at first occasioned by guano is not supported by fertilizing materials, and the land is depleted by every crop.
6th. Wheat grown by this Super-Phosphate will weigh more than where guano has been used, and the straw being strengthened by a proper supply of true nourishment, will be less likely to fall down.

With regard to barn-yard manure, it is hardly necessary to say, that every prudent farmer will husband his supply and consume every load made upon his farm—still this supply will be very much less than he will require;
he must either purchase more, or obtain some other fertilizer; otherwise his land will decrease in productiveness.
Try one Sack. Put up in 200lb. Bags, and sold at $7.00 per Bag, delivered free on board Railroad at Knoxville, Tennessee.

MARRIAGE GUIDE.
BEING A PRIVATE INSTRUCTOR FOR
married persons or those about to be married, both male and female, in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our sexual system, and the production and prevention of offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any address on receipt of 50 cts. Address DR. W. E. YOUNG,
No. 416 Spruce street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.
AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE.
No matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any one of the notorious QUACKS—native and foreign
—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's Book and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life. Dr. Young can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications, at his office, No. 416 Spruce street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.
