Cabbage without Transplanting. I noticed a few weeks ago an inquiry as to whether late cabbage could be raised by planting the seed in the hills where they were to grow.

The Value of Sunflowers. In the first place, the flowers abound in honey, and furnish food for bees. The seeds contain oleaginous matter and yield oil at the rate of one gallon to the bushel.

A Spiritualized Editor. From the Memphis Register. Living in Memphis is a lady of good education, pleasant manners and person.

Residing with her husband and family, there was nothing remarkable about this lady, who was and is a good wife and mother, quietly discharging the duties of her position.

The lady seated herself in the parlor, and while an ordinary conversation was in progress, one of the chairs moved slowly across the floor towards Mrs. M.

Miscellaneous. Emerson says: "The way to make the world better is by reforming number one."

A western paper says of the air, in its relations to man: "It kisses and blesses him, but will not obey him."

"A Good Man Gone to Rest," was the headline in a western paper's obituary.

At a Brooklyn wedding, among the presents ostentatiously displayed, was a one-hundred dollar bill, a present from the doting father to the darling daughter.

EBB-TIDE. On a summer eve, when the sun was low, An old man sat in the golden glow.

He had passed his three-score years and ten, He had smiled and wept like other men;

That solemn tide, with its voiceless roll, Shall bear on its waves the weary soul

Young Raven.

THE THOROUGH-BRED TROTTER Stallion, YOUNG RAVEN, will stand the present season at his own stable in Athens, McMinn county, at Ten Dollars to insure a mare in foal—payable when the fact is ascertained by the property trader. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but no liability for any that may occur.

YOUNG RAVEN comes of a pure strain, and has proved himself an excellent breeder, his colts being large and with fine style and action. He was sired by Washington, Jr., he by old Washington, who was bred by Smith Burr, of Long Island, New York, and was sold at the age of 17 for $5,000. Old Washington was sired by Napoleon, he by Young Membrino, and he runs back to Imported Messenger, and has all of the best crosses. The 1st dam of RAVEN's sire was by Imported Albion, 2d dam by Imported Pop, 3d dam by Old Stockholder. RAVEN's 1st dam was by Gen. Harder's Imported Childie Harold, 2d dam by Dan Rice, 3d dam an Andros Jackson mare. So it will be seen that YOUNG RAVEN is three-fourths thoroughbred and the other fourth of the very best trotting families. He is of kindly disposition, and performs splendidly in harness.
