

THE HURD-ROMEIS CASE.

URD'S DEFEAT LARGELY DUE TO PERSONAL JEALOUSY.

ow the Southern Democrats Voted—The Tennessee Senatorship—Postal Order.

(SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.) WASHINGTON, April 14.—The chief of interest in the House today was the Hurd-Romeis case. After the members of the Committee on Elections were heard, Breckinridge of Kentucky made a luminous and exhaustive argument, taking the ground that there had been no legal election in the Toledo district. Hurd followed with one of his most brilliant and impressive efforts, reviewing the frauds of the Toledo district and the intimidation practiced on Kelly's Island. Hurd was listened to with wrapt attention, and frequently interrupted with applause from the House and galleries. His scathing allusions to Senator Kelly, the wealthy manufacturer, and the dictating of the votes of his laborers, created a sensation. Turner of Georgia then summed up the case on behalf of Romeis. The vote forty-eight Democrats lined the Republicans in favor of Romeis. Well was the Tennessee Democrat who voted in favor of Romeis. There were no votes against Hurd from Arkansas, and only one, B. Morgan, from Mississippi. How was the only member of the Ways and Means Committee who voted for Romeis. Besides Howitt and Turner, and all his friends in the House, only a prominent Democrat who voted against Hurd. The vote is largely due to personal jealousy and Hurd's extreme L. W. tariff views. It is a measure of Randall's strength against the body of the party in the House.

MR. GLADSTONE'S SCHEME DENOUNCED BY THE LOYAL PATRIOTIC LEAGUE OF LONDON.

A Great Public Meeting at the Opera-House Speeches by Leading Conservatives.

LONDON, April 14.—The meeting called by the Loyal Patriotic League for the purpose of denouncing Mr. Gladstone's Irish home rule scheme, was held in the opera-house to-night. The building was packed to its utmost capacity, and thousands were unable to get in. The meeting was opened by a prayer, and the reading of a resolution which was passed in the name of the League. The speaker, Lord Salisbury, denounced the scheme as a betrayal of the British Empire, and called for the resignation of Mr. Gladstone. The meeting was a success, and the League's efforts are being continued.

THE MINNEAPOLIS FLOUR MARKET.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 14.—In this weekly review of the work of the mills, the Northwestern Miller of Friday will say: Twenty mills reported a flour output last week, and though a day or two was lost by severe cold, the flour production will not fall much. The total amount manufactured was 123,200 barrels, averaging 20,600 barrels daily, against 129,100 the preceding week, and 132,300 the corresponding period in 1885. There has been quite a change since Saturday as to the number of mills running. The water power is so that could be desired, but the flour market is decidedly ill. Several mills shut down Saturday and yesterday. At noon to-day sixteen were in operation.

SERIOUS RAILROAD ACCIDENT IN NEW ENGLAND.

LINCOLN, N. H., April 14.—This morning the north-bound train on the Merrimack Valley railroad, running from Omaha and Marysville, Kas., was wrecked near Oketo, fifteen miles south of Beatrice, in this State, and two coaches thrown from the track into Blue river, where the water was about six feet deep. The train was rounding a curve near the bridge when one of the rails tipped, and in a twinkling the train was in the water. Every one on board was hurt more or less. A four-year-old girl of Mrs. Smith of Oketo was killed, and her babe so injured that it will probably die. The cars burst open and the passengers escape from the water.

JACKSON'S VACANT SEAT.

NO INDICATION AS TO WHO WILL FILL IT.

Gov. Bate Keeping His Own Counsel—The Leading Candidates and Their Chances.

NASHVILLE, TENN., April 14.—Telegrams continued to pour in on Gov. Bate today concerning the appointment of Senator Jackson's successor. Gov. Bate says he has more telegrams than he could read in a week, and still they come in from every portion of the State. The Governor has not yet received Senator Jackson's resignation, but it was thought that the papers of Washington today. Not a word has been heard directly from the Senator, and Gen. W. H. Jackson, his brother, and none of his intimates have heard from him since the appointment was made. No doubt he is entertained but that the Senator will accept the proffered judgeship. His attitude in the affair precludes any other idea than acceptance. The United States Circuit Court opens here Monday, and something definite must, therefore, transpire between now and then. Although Gov. Bate remains silent, he has employed his time thoroughly in canvassing the situation, and it is certain that he will act with great promptness. When pressed to-night by the APPEAL'S correspondent for some idea as to his intentions he replied: "I can only say that I will be practical in this matter, and appoint a man who will be true to the interests of the people and who will be satisfactory to the people."

THE SITUATION.

To-day, for the first time, became anything like tangible. Each section of the State has, of course, made a fight for its favorite, but there has been a marked difference in the methods pursued by the different sections. East and West Tennessee are relying upon the telegraph to catch the Governor, and Middle Tennessee is literally on the ground and has made the race hot from the start. There is no attempt whatever on the part of East Tennessee Democrats to centralize on any one man. It is a free fight from that quarter, with no alternatives and no species of compromise candidates. McConall of Chattanooga is the strongest aspirant from that quarter. Speaker Manson is here from Hardeman, and it is understood that he is championing the cause of McNeal. Col. Josiah Patterson and Col. Robert Looney of Memphis, and McNeal, are the only West Tennesseeans who are considered at all formidable. The much only is certain, that if the appointment goes to West Tennessee.

MEAL WILL GET IT.

A number of prominent Democrats from Middle Tennessee are here in the interest of friends. Gen. Dibble is in no sense a candidate. The Hon. R. F. Wilson is regarded by the public as having the strongest chance, but he will not accept the appointment if tendered him, he says. There is every reason to believe that a thorough understanding exists between him and Bate, and that although Bate might be willing to appoint him, that he will not. The Hon. J. F. House is prominently urged, but he is making no effort to secure the place. The point urged against him is that he is too strong a man for Bate to appoint, that if he were to get Jackson's seat, he would keep it and defeat Bate's chances next year. Gen. W. C. Whitthorne is the other strong man from Middle Tennessee. All things considered, your correspondent would select him as the probable appointee. He is gaining ground rapidly, and he is in the right situation to command Bate's favor. Your correspondent would prophesy from the meagre information now obtainable, that the appointment will go to Middle Tennessee, and that Gen. Whitthorne will be appointed.
