ESTABLISHED 1840. MEMPHIS, TENN., SATURDAY, AUGUST 14, 1886. VOL. XLVI--NO. 192

THE "SWAMP ANGEL."

MARTIN MITCHELL LIVING NEAR WITTSBURG.

A Talk With the Former Terror of Black Fish—Pulaski Democratic Convention.

SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., August 13.—The name of Martin Mitchell, although well remembered by the public in connection with his recent dare devil conduct in the St. Francis bottoms; his ultimate arrest in Memphis by Deputy United States Marshal Faulkenberg, of this city; his trial, conviction and sentence to a $1000 fine and 100 days in confinement, and his final escape from the Cross county jail, is rapidly blowing over and will soon have been forgotten, but the Arkansas "Swamp Angel" is still flourishing with all his misdeeds, and is now comfortably ensconced at Allen's Landing, about eight miles below Wittsburg, his old home, where he is said to be carrying on the only "store" at that place. Your correspondent today talked with a responsible citizen of Cross county, who stated that he had seen and heard a lengthy conversation with Mitchell within the past two weeks, at the Swamp Angel was en route home from Wittsburg. This fugitive from justice, although comparatively a young man, is as gray as a hager and carries a brace of pistols all the time. He says he knows the jig is up with him if he ever falls into the hands of the law again, and it is his intention never to be caught napping if good preparation will serve as a preventive. Of course I would have to serve out the sentence of the United States Court for his stilling," he said, "and as soon as the United States Government got through with me, the State of Arkansas has some half a dozen indictments I would have to answer to—the principal one being the killing of that fellow on the St. Francis river, but God knows I was fully justified in that, because he was trying to kill me. Then there are one or two true bills standing in the Shelby County (Tenn.) Court, not to mention "charge for action" which they claim in Mississippi. Alabama, or two or three States are reserving for me, but I guess the Memphis Gun Club can mark their grievances down on ice and keep her members cut of these bottoms, else the man who ventures over here will turn up missing when his front end is in the hands of a peaceably, but disturbing no one or no one's business, and all I ask is to be permitted to pursue the even tenor of my way, and I will guarantee no trouble will ever arise between myself and the law." Our informant stated that Mitchell was living in a house about half a mile below Allen's Landing, there being two women and a man who he believed to be one of the notorious Daniels brothers run out of the Three Corners settlement, up in the northwestern portion of the county, some two years ago, residing with him. His three children keeps him alive, as all his catches are shipped to Memphis and sold. There is no reward for Mitchell, and it is more than probable he will never be disturbed.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

At 12 o'clock today W. B. Worthen, chairman of the county Central Committee, called the Democratic County Convention to order in the Opera House. Gen. R. C. Newton was elected temporary chairman, with Jake Erb, Sam O. Smith and H. Clay Jones as secretaries. A committee on credentials was appointed, and the convention took a recess until 3 o'clock.

On reassembling, a report from the Credentials Committee was read and adopted, showing 166 votes present—each township in the county availing its full representation on the floor. Gen. Newton and Judge Frank T. Vaughan were present in nomination for permanent chairman. Judge Vaughan was elected, and taking his seat made a patriotic Democratic talk that invigorated the entire convention.

There was considerable filibustering over the manner of procedure, but as soon as the convention had nominated out its dispatch business with a promptness worthy of the cause.

Judge Johnson H. Rogers received the county's instructions for O. Rogers, Col. Anderson, Will R. Aves, Ed B. Black, Jr., and Nick Slack were all mentioned for Sheriff as it seemed for a few moments that no other nominees were to be placed in the field, when a delegate from Gay township arose to his feet and nominated W. B. Worthen. The people on the floor of the convention and in the two galleries almost went wild on the mention of Mr. Worthen's name, and when the chairman announced the vote it was unanimous for W. B. Worthen for Sheriff of Pulaski county. Vociferous calls were made for him, and he came forward, and in a most felicitous manner accepted the nomination. He stated, however, that he had been a constant office holder for the past fifteen years notwithstanding his frequent expressions of a desire to retire to private life.

This virtually ended the struggle, and the remainder of the ticket was soon made up, composed of the following names: State Senators, John T. Jones and J. E. Williams; County Judge, W. F. Hill, present incumbent; County Clerk, Ham O. Williams; Circuit Clerk, Wm. W. Field; Chancery Clerk, S. R. E. Brown; County Treasurer, Joe Griffith, present incumbent; County Assessor, Alvin Pemberton; County Coroner, Dr. J. B. Bond, present incumbent; County Surveyor, Frank H. Conway; Representative, Peter O'Connell, L. G. Balch, Dr. G. W. Granberry, and W. A. Gumpston. Ham O. Williams is the Deputy Sheriff who was so seriously wounded in the recent trouble at the Barrage Cross bridge. The ticket is one of the best ever put out in this county, and will be elected by a handsome majority.

WANTON OUTRAGE.

A negro named McEdward reported to the Sheriff here today that on Monday night some one stole a fine horse from him, and Wednesday he found the animal dead, riddled with bullets, about a mile this side of the Scott place, in the southern portion of this county, where McEdward was living. He is at a loss to account for the deed, and the Sheriff will try and apprehend the villain.

MOB LAW AT MACON, GA.

A POLICEMAN TAKEN FROM JAIL AND LYNCHED

For a Criminal Assault Upon a Young Woman—Great Excitement Over the Affair.

MACON, Ga., August 13.—Miss Marie Little, from Savannah, reached this city on Saturday evening and asked ex-Policeman Jim Moore for directions. He proceured a hack for her, and getting in himself, put his pistol to her head and compelled her submission. He took her to two assignation houses, keeping her under cover of his pistol. These facts came out on Wednesday, when an indignation meeting of citizens was held. The result was that this morning at 1 o'clock they went to the jail and demanded Moore, on being refused, they broke through with sledge hammers and battered through the second door, making their way to Moore's cell. They then rested in their work of destruction until the Sheriff and jailor could be called. These officials failed to answer and the crowd proceeded to break the third and last barrier, whereupon the authorities delivered up the keys and the crowd seized upon the prisoner with yells and cheers.

CROP SUMMARY.

A VERY FULL REPORT OF THE CORN SITUATION.

The Season So Far a Very Peculiar One—The Yield Reduced by the Drouth.

CHICAGO, ILL., August 13.—The Times tomorrow will publish a very full report of the corn situation, covering the States of Illinois, Kansas, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Dakota, Tennessee and Kentucky. The report brings out the following facts: That up to the 4th day of July the general crop prospects of the country east of the Missouri were exceptionally good; west of the river the corn situation, comprising the States of Kansas and Nebraska, had been retarded in quantity and quality by dry weather. The corn season so far has been a very peculiar one, starting out as it did under the most favorable circumstances—the month of June dry and cool, with just an inch of moisture to keep the corn growing and put the fields in condition for uninterrupted cultivation until the first of July, but ever since that date the corn crop has been subjected, with the exception of some limited areas in Ohio and Indiana, to such extremes of dry weather and heat that the general prospects today point to a crop reduced in quantity and quality. Rains during the last ten days have been copious in Kansas and Nebraska, and further reduction to the crop from drouth has been stopped, but the season is now so far advanced that no amount of rain can bring the corn crop up to the condition of July 1, 1886, and from a below the second week in September would cause more than usual destruction to the crop. Intimately connected with the corn crop is the grass crop, and the Times report shows that the crop was a fair one in many localities, but as late as July 1, 1886, and from a below the second week in September would cause more than usual destruction to the crop. Intimately connected with the corn crop is the grass crop, and the Times report shows that the crop was a fair one in many localities, but as late as July 1, 1886, and from a below the second week in September would cause more than usual destruction to the crop.

The quality of the hay this season is unsurpassed. Owing to the very low condition of the water in the rivers and pastures are from Wisconsin to Kansas, Kansas to Nebraska and Nebraska to the Ohio river, the greater majority of farmers are obliged to feed new hay, and have been for more than twenty days. Probably never in the history of this country have pastures and meadows suffered from drouth as they have since July 4th. In fact, they have made no growth since grass was cut, and are practically as destitute of feed as in midwinter; hence it will require an unusual amount of rain to start them up and put them in condition for fall feed. It is a very difficult problem to solve whether pastures are ruined for the season or whether they can be brought to a normal state again by copious rains. Time alone can develop the facts in this case.

THE IRISH CONVENTION.

No Trouble Anticipated by President Evans.

CHICAGO, ILL., August 13.—Patrick Egan, President of the Irish-American National League, arrived in this city today. "Do you expect much trouble at the forthcoming convention," he was asked. "Very little. Of course there may be some differences, but we apprehend nothing of a serious nature. Will not the gentlemen who constitute the Palmer House Committee be likely to make things lively?" "Not at all. We don't expect much trouble from them. These gentlemen have no connection with the league. It is said that they have made very extensive preparations for a reception of the distinguished visitors, and their claim is to be just as national and patriotic as the other party."

THE STATE CAPITAL.

Returns of the Recent Election—The Democratic Majority.

(SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.)
NASHVILLE, TENN., August 13.—Returns from seventy-seven out of the ninety-six counties of the State have been received by the Secretary of State. These returns show that Caldwell, for Supreme Judge, received 129,983, and Warder, R. Republican, 98,050, the Democratic majority in these counties being 31,933. The same count is 1884—see Cleveland 109,980 and Bond 101,699, a Democratic majority of 20,000, or 13.3 per cent. R. Republican 36,410, or 34 per cent. If the Democratic count is yet to hear from now Democratic gains is the same proportion as those already in the Democratic majority will be 37,974.

MONTEGOMERY, ALA.

Consolidation of the Water Works—Real Estate Transactions.

APPEALS TO THE APPEAL.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., August 13.—The feud and litigation between the old Montgomery Water Works Company and the new one, the Capital City, ended suddenly but not unexpectedly today. The Capital City bought out the Montgomery works. It furnishes an abundant and inexhaustible supply of pure tesian water.

Real estate transactions in city property, this week, are numerous, with prices advancing.

Opportunity are very favorable. Cotton is doing splendidly. Rain is needed, however.

MOORE BEGGED FOR MERCY

and fainted away before the mob reached the front door. Down Fourth street the mob marched diagonally toward the Central railroad station until they struck Cherry street. A large crowd assembled on both sides of the street, a great many of whom were women. The criminal, half walking and half dragged by his captors, carried down Cherry street toward the river by the railroad, and they came in front of Sarah Robinson's, the assignation house at which the crime was first committed. To a shout 100 fifteen feet from the ground to a spreading shade tree that stood in front of the house they attached the rope, and the crowd, obtained from the shops. Moore then began praying for mercy, saying that if he did the deed that he was drunk; that he remembered nothing after leaving the depot. The rope was pulled around his neck and many began shouting for hanging him in the air. The first knot was too slack and groaning and struggling in the death agony. A wild cry was raised: "He is not dead, swing him again." The rope was lowered, a man ascended the tree, and in a jiffy was said: "Throw her up, but don't let her drop, it is bad luck." Taking the rope in his hand, he remarked: "I wonder who in the hell tied this rope." Rapidly adjusting it, he again lowered it, and Jim Moore was launched into eternity. A few struggles and the body hung stiff and stark. A blacksmith was tied over his eyes and his hands were tied behind him and the mob allowed dispersed. Today it became known that the young woman was of doubtful virginity. This only intensified the anger of the mob, and their cry was to lynch the girl and the two male prostitutes and to burn the houses in which they lived. Angry crowds are now upon the streets. The Governor has been appealed to for troops. Great uneasiness exists.

A BIG SHORTAGE.

Louisville Stirred Up Over a Genuine Sensation.

LOUISVILLE, KY., August 13.—This city was treated to a genuine sensation today by a sensational article in the Evening Times of a three column article showing that when Col. M. Kelly, for thirteen years pension agent here, retired from office, in March last, he was $58,000 short in his account. This shortage had gradually accumulated during Col. Kelly's entire term in office, and a fresh bond every year or so to cover it. The shortage became public some time after Col. Kelly turned his office over to his successor, and a hastily summoned meeting of his bondsmen and personal friends resulted in the amount being contributed and made good to the government. Among the grantees are Mary Anderson, the actress, $5000; Mrs. Woodward, $2500; E. Field (for C. W. Field), $1000; A. L. Schmit (for First National Bank), $1000; Logan C. Murray (on quasi contract), $4000. B. Dunlap, owner of Col. Kelly's paper, the Commercial, was responsible for $7000 as bondsmen, but contributed $15,000. Mr. Schmit of Chicago, liable for about $17,500, compromised on $10,000. Col. Kelly in his hand the following in the Associated Press tonight: "The public interest in this city and elsewhere in reference to my accounts as United States Pension Agent makes it proper for me to state that I have paid over all government funds for which I was responsible; have discharged fully all liabilities on my official bonds, and owe the government nothing. As to any money loaned me by my personal friends, that is a matter between me and them, with the details of which the public have no legitimate concern."

REMARKABLE MORTALITY.

LOOKING FOR WAR.

Residents of New Laredo Uneasy About the Situation.

ST. LOUIS, MO., August 13.—The Laredo (Tex.) correspondent of the Globe-Democrat telegraphs that several prominent residents of New Laredo, on the opposite side of the Rio Grande, in conversation today, gave it as their opinion that war will come between Mexico and the United States, and they look for no peaceful adjustment of the Cutting case. They are looking forward confidently to the upholding of the Governor of Chihuahua by the general government, and claim that if war does come they will not be alone in their struggle against the United States, but that aid will be tendered them indirectly by England and Spain. Upon being asked their authority for stating that England would help them, they gave a knowing wink and shrugged their shoulders.

The American population of this city is becoming aroused to a realization of its utter helplessness in case trouble ensues. No town on the border is so completely at the mercy of Mexico as Laredo. There is comparatively but a handful of Americans here, and five men could sack and burn the town without the least trouble. There is no organization among the Americans and their residences are scattered all over the city, making them an easy prey to the invader. The news of the Hon. Ed Linn's resignation as Consul at Piedra Negra has caused no little comment, and is taken as another evidence that war must surely ensue.
