

MR. MICHAEL DAVITT,

THE BRAVE AND RESOLUTE IRISH PATRIOT,

Is Quite Sure That Rome Will Not Silence Dr. McGlynn, Because He Is the Poor Man's Friend.

New York, December 15.—The Sun this morning says: Archbishop Elder, of Cincinnati, will start for Baltimore this morning. He goes in response to a telegram from Cardinal Gibbons. He will be absent for four or five days. The Archbishop, for whom Dr. McGlynn is the object for which he is called away, but admitted that it is for a conference on church matters. Immediately after the receipt of the telegram from Cardinal Gibbons Bishop Maas, of Covington, was summoned to the archdiocesan residence in Cincinnati and was in conference with Archbishop Elder during the entire afternoon and evening. The Archbishop in the meantime refusing to see any callers. The greatest importance attaches to a conference of such dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church as Archbishop Elder and Cardinal Gibbons at this time, when, according to all indications, Rome is about to speak on the labor question, and when there are so many rumors afloat that the church is about to discipline the Rev. Dr. Edward McGlynn, of Cincinnati, for his participation in the George movement. The result of the conference of the distinguished prelates will be awaited with the keenest interest.

Interview With Michael Davitt.

New York, December 15.—The Irish World this morning prints an interview with Michael Davitt on the call to Rome of Rev. Dr. McGlynn, in which he says among other things: "Dr. McGlynn ought, both as a priest and as a social reformer, to be permitted to remain in Ireland, and to participate in the George movement. The result of the conference of the distinguished prelates will be awaited with the keenest interest. Rome may appear at first to be prejudiced in her views, but she is slow to pronounce upon matters submitted to her, the chances always are that her decision will be a just one. Cardinal Simeoni's opinions are not to be taken as the verdict of Rome by any means. The good Cardinal is probably suffering yet from the bad attack of last August, which when he ran a tilt against our movement in Ireland and was assailed with a rude shock, which I confess him to hesitate before entering again in Irish national politics. When I was in Rome last year I learned that Dr. McGlynn had been reprimanded by Cardinal Simeoni as far back as 1882, for his outspoken utterances in this city in defense of the Land League. I am confident that if Dr. McGlynn goes to the Eternal City on this mission he will achieve a victory as complete as that which the Archbishop of Cashel and Dublin have already secured there against English intrigue and misrepresentation. Upon the question of Archbishop Corrigan's suspension of Dr. McGlynn, I do not express an opinion, but continued: "Rome can no more be guilty of the injustice or stupidity of condemning the advocates of the doctrine that private property in land, the sense in which Mr. George opposes it, than she could to her Catholic prelates. Rome is more favorable to monarchy, and I am satisfied that this is what she will do with reference to the rival theories on the land question. They will find out in Rome that Dr. McGlynn has been doing fifty times more work for Christ than the labor agitator here in New York than he has accomplished even for the cause of industry. If France and Italy had had fearless printers of the people as Ireland has today—true lovers of the poor and courageous champions of the oppressed—the land question would not be in the hands of monarchs and too faithful defenders of aristocracy—the Catholic Church would not be in the sad position she now occupies on the continent of Europe. No kindred mistake will be committed, I am sure, on the continent of America."

Dr. McGlynn

Did not officiate at any of the services at St. Stephen's Church on Sunday last, and this gave color to the statement of his suspension. The New York Tribune says of the attendance at every service Sunday: "The many present, not members of the church, and among them, the parishioners of the subject of Dr. McGlynn's call to Rome was freely discussed before and after entering the church doors. Knots of men and some women dotted the sidewalk and expressed their views to one another. The regular attendants of the church declared that the whole proceedings were most ridiculous. "It will and is, in fact," said one, "and if Father McGlynn thinks it necessary to go to Rome he will do so. If he doesn't he won't. I don't know what he would do without him. He has never failed in his church duties, and never spoke about George or any election matters in the pulpit, nor has he ever attempted to influence his flock in political matters. I believe that the inference, if you will call it such, of each man and woman in the city of national politics is a good thing. It elevates what is now a too very high. If it comes to a contest, Father McGlynn will have many backers among us. The same sentiment naturally prevails among the non-regulars. Many members of the church decline to talk about the matter except among themselves, for," they say, "the whole matter will soon die out and the less said publicly about it the sooner the excitement will subside." Dr. McGlynn returned to his yesterday whether he would go to ROME or not. He was not at home last evening. The men who were prominent in the George campaign have met on more than one occasion since the action of Archbishop Corrigan became definite and known. Each time they have discussed at length the policy pursued by the Archbishop. Mr. Archibald, who is a Roman Catholic, was provoked when he heard of the Panel action; so was John McMackin, Mr. George's campaign manager, and a loyal Catholic. Mr. Archibald said yesterday: "Many of the Roman Catholics have gone further than Father McGlynn as to the justice of free land, in condemning the oppression of the poor by the rich, the condition of the church to them. Nothing has been done by Rome to them, and I don't believe anything can be done to Father McGlynn. An illustration of this is the case of the Rev. Father Cantwell, of Thurloe Cathedral, Tipperary. He presided at a meeting of the Land League, where the 'No Rent' movement was read. He is a strong advocate of this measure, and the Land League doctrine does not differ much from George's theories; so he really may be looked upon as a George man. Well, his beliefs became known abroad, and there were rumors that he was to go to Rome, as they say Father McGlynn is to go. But he was willing to face the Pope, for he knew that he had supported no doctrine not based on justice; so can we feel about Dr. McGlynn. Nothing happened to Father Cantwell, and I am confident nothing will to Father McGlynn. To my mind, the people act in such matters, let me relate the experience which Archbishop McCabe had as the result of a pastoral letter denouncing Land League claims. In 1881 the Young Men's Catholic Commercial Club of Dublin heard that the Archbishop had written a letter denouncing the free land beliefs. A copy of the letter was secured in advance, and we knew exactly how its points were brought out. About 150 members of the club attended high mass and sat near each other. When the priest, in reading the Archbishop's letter, reached that point denouncing the Land League theory as communism, then communion is yet to be refused, we all rose, made our obeisances to the altar and left the sanctuary. It created a commotion which lasted many days, but no official notice was taken of it. That was the way one pastoral was treated." Mr. Archibald did not say that an American body of Catholics would do the same thing, but he declared his belief that the opinion among Catholics was widespread that the action against Father McGlynn was not the wisest policy and that it could not help fostering a feeling of displeasure.

THE AMERICAN COLONY

INCREASED BY THE PRESENCE OF CONGRESSMAN REID

In Canada—A Blind Defaulter Finds His Way to the Dominion Safely. RALEIGH, N. C., December 15.—The air is full of talk concerning the criminal conduct of Congressman Jas. W. Reid, of Greensboro District. Before the election Mr. Reid was publicly charged with obtaining money from the Wachovia Bank, in Winston, by using an order of Rockingham county, of which he was Treasurer, when, in fact, the order was issued for the purpose of paying a county debt. It is now ascertained that Mr. Reid has raised $30,000 on property not worth over $8000 and that he has pledged his salary as Congressman until the 4th of March to more than one person, and raised money in this way. He obtained ten days' leave of absence, and is now reported to have gone to Canada. He is not in Washington and has not been for several days. General regret is expressed. He comes of a good family. His father, the Rev. Nana F. Reid, was the ablest Methodist divine in the State, and the son inherited the abilities of the father.

The Hoke Extradition Case.

MONTECAL, December 15.—Judge Dugas delivered judgment in the Hoke extradition case today. The Judge said the accused was charged with forging and uttering several drafts and bills of exchange by means of filling in the body of blank checks to which the proper signatures were attached, and in this way and otherwise defrauding the bank to the extent of $179,803. The Judge quoted a large number of authorities, and held that light this forgery and uttering several drafts and bills of exchange by means of filling in the body of blank checks to which the proper signatures were attached, and in this way and otherwise defrauding the bank to the extent of $179,803. A Man Robbed of $7000 and Brutally Murdered.

St. Louis, Mo., December 15.—A special from Olney, Ill., says: A brutal murder was committed here last night, the discovery of the remains of Mr. George Bowers. Mr. Bowers lived three miles northeast of Newton, Jasper county, and had just returned from Indiana, where he sold a farm for $2400. On Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock he reached this city, and upon leaving for Newton. Arriving there he was compelled to make the journey of three miles on foot. After crossing the railroad bridge it is thought he was waylaid, killed and robbed of $2700, and his body thrown under a passing freight train, which managed to get beyond recognition. Should the murderer be discovered they will doubtless be lynched.

Even Blind Swindlers Get to Canada.

New York, December 15.—William Storor, who has been engaged in the commission dry goods business on Church street for many years, has suddenly departed, leaving creditors mourning to the extent of $30,000. Mr. Storor is over 70 years of age and blind, but it is thought that he has reached Canada all right.

A Prohibitionist Whipped by an Alabama Mayor.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., December 15.—A special from Greenville says the local election for prohibition in Greenville Monday resulted in a victory for liquor. F. W. Cheves, a well known temperance lecturer from Kentucky, was engaged in the campaign. Yesterday morning an Obsever averted from a lack at the depot to take the north bound train. J. T. Perry, Mayor of the city, assisted him, leading him into the water of the James River. Cheves was finally rescued, and is now in the care of physicians. His skull has two holes in it, and there are other bruises on his person. Mayor Perry was on the liquor side in the contest, and claims that Cheves insulted him in a public speech. He was also a friend of the Land League when it tried friends. Later he was one of the first men of note to join the labor party headed by Henry George. Dr. McGlynn has also endorsed Henry George's theory of taxation. A fearless outspoken man, he has secured public respect, and it is hoped he will not be a disappointment.

THE MEMPHIS AND NASHVILLE.

A Railroad That Will Develop Marvellous Riches. To the Editors of the Appeal: In a letter written by me in regard to the Memphis and Nashville railroad, published in Thursday's APPEAL, I omitted some important facts. The iron in the counties between the Cumberland and Tennessee rivers is being mined, and the quantity of iron made up of it has never been known to our people. They are now shipping iron ore from Lawrence county, Tenn., by Columbia to Birmingham. At the junction of the Florence and Clarksville, of the Louisville and Nashville, on the banks of the river, there must be an important manufacturing town. This will be in Hickman county.

Without Adequate Cause.

Or with apparently no cause at all, chills and fever, thought to be cured, re-terminates and re-terminates in the system. This glandular disease cannot be laid out with quinine, but it can be cured by a final and exterminating gusher, which is used as a preventive, and which is felt by persons who are not acquainted with the nature of the symptoms are sometimes in error as to their cause, and neglect the simple and pleasant remedy, of all others best suited to check the progress of this dreaded and destructive miasm. The Danforth-Cushing Fight a Draw

New York, December 15.—Tommy Danforth and Mike Cushing, the amateur champion of light weights, fought for 42 minutes at an early hour this morning at an up town sporting house. It was a scratch match, the true, but it was one of the best that has taken place in this vicinity for a long time. It was a strong test of Mike Cushing, and he came out of the struggle with a veteran of Danforth's caliber creditably. As they entered the ring Danforth weighed 122 and Cushing 130 pounds. Eight rounds were fought. The fight was finally declared a draw.
