SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, January 21.—Troubles have existed among the Samoans since 1860. In that year the German Commercial and Plantation Society at Apia, or rather its president, the Hon. Godefrid von Hatzburg, stood on the side of Malietoa, a chief belonging to one of the most distinguished families of Samoa...

WHAT THE TREATIES WERE.

The treaties entered into between the United States, Great Britain, Germany and Samoa were treaties of friendship and amity, agreed to for the purpose of promoting the trade which American, English and German merchants had gone to the remote Samoan Islands to establish. It was understood and agreed among the treaty powers that the independence and neutrality of these islands should be forever preserved.

GERMANY FOILED AGAIN.

In 1883, and again in 1886, further attempts were made by Germany to seize the sovereignty of the Samoan Islands. Each time the attempt was successfully resisted by the British and American representatives. In the autumn of 1886 a German named Brandeis appeared in Apia. The public was given to understand that he was in the service of the German Commercial and Plantation Society. Among the employees of the society was a man named Brandeis who was known to be the minister of Malietoa's rival, Tamasese.

An Interesting Sharpshooters Suit Decided in Favor of the Fair Defendant. Joseph Williams, a manufacturer of patent medicines, was the prosecutor in a suit for slander against Cecilia Bender, the one being 60, the other 22. It seems a beautiful mix had occurred in Sharpshooters some 20 years ago, and Williams could be had slandered, and asked $4,000 damages.

THE SCALES DROP.

The first five minutes back there revealed several shocking things. BOOTH AND BARRETT.

Henry Gillig Wants a Receiver Appointed for the Combination Because of an Alleged Debt—Colonel Ingersoll Seeks for the Defense. NEW YORK, January 21.—Judge Patterson, in Supreme Court Chambers, heard arguments today upon an application of Henry F. Gillig, formerly manager of the now defunct American Exchange in Europe, for the appointment of a receiver for the Booth and Barrett combination, and for an accounting. Mr. Gillig, in a lengthy complaint, says that four years ago Lawrence Barrett was suffering from a lack of funds, and applied to him for financial aid. He induced the directors of the exchange to assume Barrett's liabilities, in consideration of which Gillig claims that Barrett made an agreement on February 10, 1885, to pay him 10 per cent on the amount advanced to him, until the amount advanced was repaid.

Mrs. Weaver's suffering began with pain in her head, stomach, chest and small of her back. She had much eructation of gas from her stomach. Her food would sour, causing nausea and frequent vomiting. She became very weak, and she also suffered with those diseases common to women, she treated with many physicians, and also at a hospital, but to no purpose. She was finally cured by the physician of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute. She speaks: "I would not again suffer as I have for 12 years for $10,000. It was in this condition that I began treatment with these specialists, and to my great joy I am again a healthy woman."
