REVIEW OF THE WORST CASES. Suppression of the Chapel Hill Vote Traced to Opposition Leaders. THE RAIDS AT THE FLEWELLYN POLLS.

& Radical Revision of the Present Election Laws Deemed Necessary.

As a result of the investigation into the alleged Texas election outrages, the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections finds that the reports are founded on facts, as far as can be ascertained. The report reviews the principal cases, and concludes with a recommendation of a careful revision of the election laws to cover similar cases.

WASHINGTON, February 4.-Senator Evarts, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, made a report to-day of the results of the investigation into the alleged election outrages in Washington county, Texas. The first conclusion the committee reaches is that the averments of the petitioners as to their situation in their homes in Texas and cases of their being compelled to fice from them, are in substance and effect sustained by the evidence. As to the suppression of the vote at the Chapel Hill districts, the committee thinks it is chargeable to the leaders of the opposition ticket, and in that interest, with the motive to discourage and suppress the Republican vote there, and to the colored Republican voters being unwilling to expose themselves to the fate which was visi-ted upon the colored judges of election at Chapel Hill in 1884. At the Flewellyn polls, Dewees Bolton, who headed a raiding party that entered the polling precinct in disguise for the purpose of destroying the ballot box, was shot and killed. The re-

LEFT THE DEAD ALONE. "All in the room fied at once in dismay, and the dead man was left alone, uncared for, as he lay, all night, the lamp burning brightly. Toward morning Presiding Judge Robinson persuaded an aged colored man, his neighbor, Alfred Jones, to leave the sick bed of his wife and go with him to the scene of the homicide on the plea that he was atraid to go alone. This man had no knowledge of the bloody occurrence until informed of it by Robinson, but their visit to the dead body, which had been untouched, the inspection of the corpus delicti, and observation of the scene of the transaction cost him his life. This made him a witness of the disguise, and the mur-derous weapon of Bolton and the manner of

"When afterward an attempt was to be made to make out Bolton an unarmed and undisguised and peaceful visitor to the polling place, and slain by unprovoked violence of the colored man, Alfred was arrested, put in jail, and hung up on no conceivable in-centive but to make away with his testi-

THREE MEN HANGED.

As to the murder of the two Joneses and Felder, by a mob who took them out of jail at Brenham and hanged them, the committee says, after reviewing the testimony: These murders were each committed upon the motive and in the interest of the policy and purpose that had countenanced and caused the raids on the ballot boxes at that election. The sacrifice of these worthy and blameless lives was demanded for the suppression of their evidence, which would have demonstrated the death of Polton as befalling him in the act of a preconcerted attack upon the ballot box at Fiewellyn's to defeat the election of the Republican ticket. The committee cannot find any escape from this conclusion upon the whole body and weight of the

The evidence before the committee showed that no attempts were made by the authorities of the county of Washington or of the State of Texas to bring to indictment, trial, or punishment, any of the actors in the several raids on the ballot boxes at the election of 1886. No such attempt had been made in respect of the outrage upon the ballot boxes and the shooting of the colored judges of election at Chapel Hill, in the election of 1884. The wrath of this community was all excited and was all visited upon the white and colored Republicans, who had

STRIVEN AT THE POLLS to assert the will of the majority to decide by their votes and the canvass of them the pending election."

In conclusion, the committee says: "This notual case presents not unfairly the features that illustrate the political disorders which afflict portions of our country where the population is nearly divided between white and colored citizens. These disorders do not alone disturb and threaten the good fame and security of the neighborhood where they occur, nor of the States within whose borders these disastrous mischiefs pass unchecked, unredressed and uncondemned. They tend to weaken and set back the sincere desire of the country at large, to obliterate all distinctions as between geographical or political divisions in the prevalence of justice, peace, good will and equality of right in discussing and solving all the problems which affect the welfare of this great people. No greater element in the formation of a sound public opinion can be suggested than that a wider and wider spread should be given to a knowledge of and an interest in the real nature of this and similar proceedings wherever they may occur.

COMMITTEE BECOMMENDATIONS. "The committee recommends the careful revision of the existing laws regulating elections of members of Congress, and an exam-ination of the proposed legislation pertinent to the same subjects, which have been pro-posed in Congress, with the view of providing for a more complete protection of the exercise of the elective franchise by act of Congress, and more efficient provisions for the punishment of offenses against it." A resolution, adopted by the committee to enable it to carry into effect the recommendations of the report, accompanied it.

No Time Should be Lost By those troubled with constitution in seeking relief from Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The disease is easily relieved in its earlier stage, and as it is utterly subversive of the general health, postponement of the remedy is unwise. The same holds good of delay in cases of fever and ague, kidney complaints, nervousness, debility and rheumatism, allments to which the bitters is particularly adapted.

Charles Narvis is a crockery manufacturer in Muscatine, Iowa. He was at the Monongahela House yesterday, and this is his opinion of the workings of prohibition in that State. He said:

Prohibition is not a success in the river towns that are in the hands of Democratic oftowns that are in the hands of Democratic officials. The law is openly violated in Dubuque, Muscatine and other towns. Lately some of the illicit sellers in these places have been fined lightly for decency's sake, but the business is not stopped. They continue to sell as much, if not more, than they did in the days when the business was permitted.

In the interior and smaller towns, where it can be watched, prohibition is a success. I might add, too, that in all cities under Republican rule very little whisky is sold. This is true of Des Moines and other places. I might mention. This is how prohibition prohibits in Iowa.

Mr. H. C. Frick said yesterday afternoon that the men at the Standard works had struck under a misapprehension. General Manager Lynch posted a notice that the same wages paid last month would be given the men until further notice. Mr. Frick said he hadn't signed the scale, but would pay last year's wages until the coke operators could agree on one.

Rev. Sheppard Declares Liquor Men Should be Compensated.

"Should liquor men be compensated for the loss of property, if prohibition becomes a law?" was discussed by the M. P. ministers yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Sheppard declared they should be. The business was legalized by law, and it is unjust to destroy property without compensation. Others differed, but Rev. Mr. Robertson agreed with this opinion.

persons have. During this time I treated with no less than thirty physicians; not only with the most skilled physicians of this city, but also with the most eminent physicians of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, receiving no permanent benefit. My symptoms were as follows:
Continuous headache, dizziness, catarrhal secretion in my head dropping into my throat and depositing its poison on my lungs; dry hacking cough and shortness of breath; had a terrible burning sensation in my stomach, belching of cough and shortness of breath; had a terrible burning sensation in my stomach, belching of gas, also nausea and frequent vomiting. Had a weak, tired feeling all the time. My friends thought I could not live. I felt that life was a burden and death would be a relief. In this condition I began treatment with the specialists for these diseases, and as a result of their skill I became cured of the above conditions over one year ago, and the cure has remained permanent. Their consultation is free to all, and may result in good to you, as it has to me."

KAUFMANNS' GREAT ANNUAL House-Cleaning

Will bring about the desired result. There will be no foolishness or child's play about this sale; we must have room to place our new spring stock, that's all there is to it, and we propose to have it at any cost. And, charge your memory with this fact: We not only say: "At Half Price," but we sell at Half Price." You know from past experiences that we never make statements in the newspapers that we cannot back up with deeds, and our present House Cleaning Sale will be no exception to this rule. Now, then, "put money in thy purse," be it ever so little, and attend this sale. WE have made the reductions, it remains for You to take advantage of them. This is the last chance of the season - the last and greatest cut of prices, and,
