

ACRES OF FIRE.
Hubbard's Mammoth Ax Factory is Totally Destroyed.
A HALF MILLION DOLLARS Will Barely Cover the Great Loss Sustained by the Company.
THE ORIGIN REMAINS A MYSTERY.
Hundreds of Men Around Burning Debris and Lard. The flames were finally smothered by shoving sand into the vaults. The fire was discovered by H. P. Hubbard, who acts as watchman. Several unavoidable damages hampered the freemen from leaving the premises immediately. Engine No. 9 burst a section, and engine 15 broke an axle at Twenty-eighth street while on its way to the scene.

A HALF MILLION DOLLARS
Will Barely Cover the Great Loss Sustained by the Company.
THE ORIGIN REMAINS A MYSTERY.
Hundreds of Men Around Burning Debris and Lard. The flames were finally smothered by shoving sand into the vaults. The fire was discovered by H. P. Hubbard, who acts as watchman. Several unavoidable damages hampered the freemen from leaving the premises immediately. Engine No. 9 burst a section, and engine 15 broke an axle at Twenty-eighth street while on its way to the scene.

THE ORIGIN REMAINS A MYSTERY.
Hundreds of Men Around Burning Debris and Lard. The flames were finally smothered by shoving sand into the vaults. The fire was discovered by H. P. Hubbard, who acts as watchman. Several unavoidable damages hampered the freemen from leaving the premises immediately. Engine No. 9 burst a section, and engine 15 broke an axle at Twenty-eighth street while on its way to the scene.

AN UNPRECEDENTED CASE.
Harper, the Southside Man Who Shot Himself Through the Brain Nerve Three Weeks Ago, Died Yesterday. George Harper, the man who shot himself with suicidal intent by placing a pistol in his mouth on the 18th of last month, died yesterday morning at his home on Ellsworth street, Thirty-first ward. The bullet went clear through his brain, and how he managed to live for almost three weeks is a question which is now bothering the medical fraternity of the two cities. The case is a unique one, and will be reported to the medical journals by the attending physicians.

FOUR ACRES LAID HARE.
The mammoth works of Hubbard & Co., situated on the corner of Forty-eighth and A. V. R., covering four acres of ground, were totally destroyed by this fire. The loss is estimated by the proprietors at $200,000. The firm carried about $175,000 insurance, distributed in various foreign and domestic companies, through the Arrott agency.

AN OLD WOMAN'S SUICIDE.
Mrs. Lawrence, Aged 71 Years, Cuts Her Throat With a Razor—The Epidemic Reaches Troy Hill. Annie Lawrence, or Lorenz, a Bohemian, aged 71 years, living on Brabec street, Troy Hill, Allegheny, followed the example of many others during the past few weeks by ending her life by the razor route. She was taken as a patient for his great work in a rolling mill and rises early every morning. Mrs. Lawrence is also a very rasher and prepares her own breakfast.

ANOTHER STONE FIGHT.
The Hoodlums Above Twenty-Eighth Street Had a Battle Yesterday. There was a lively fight on the hillside above Twenty-eighth street, between a number of boys who live along Jones avenue and the boys who make the brick-yards on the hill their headquarters. Stones were used at first, and as the fight grew more and more heated, several boys were injured. The brickyard boys were the stronger and beat their opponents down the hill.

DAKOTA'S BLESSINGS.
A Rich Resident Says It's the Most Distant Place in the Country. Mr. F. C. Stokes, of Grand Forks, North Dakota, who was formerly Register of Beaver county, is in the city, visiting Dr. Rabauer, on the Southside. Speaking of the new State to a DISPATCH reporter, last night, he said:

FLOWERS FOR A LITTLE GRAVE.
The Murdered Child of Dazr Buried Beneath the Buds and Blossoms. The funeral of little George Dazr, who was murdered by his father last week, took place at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Bloomsfield German Catholic Church. The remains were interred in St. Mary's Cemetery, only the family being in attendance.

LOOKING FOR INGALLS.
The Kansas Senator Wanted at the American Club Banquet. A committee from the American Club, headed by W. H. D. English, was at the depot last evening looking for Senator Ingalls, who was expected to pass through the city going home.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.
Use Howland's Acid Phosphate. Dr. J. J. Howland, Denison, Ia., says: "I have used it largely in the treatment of dyspepsia, and consider that it stands unrivaled in the treatment of this disease. It is used in cases of sleeplessness with very gratifying results."

THEY WILL REBUILD SOON.
Mr. Hubbard also stated that, as soon as the loss is adjusted and the insurance collected, steps will be taken to rebuild the factory. The payroll amounted to $100,000 weekly, and the burning of the works will seriously depress the neighborhood, as many of the men lived near the works.

THEY WILL REBUILD SOON.
Mr. Hubbard also stated that, as soon as the loss is adjusted and the insurance collected, steps will be taken to rebuild the factory. The payroll amounted to $100,000 weekly, and the burning of the works will seriously depress the neighborhood, as many of the men lived near the works.

THE MANAGER HERE.
Mr. Locke Says the May Festival Will be Second to None Held in America—Bundled to be a Great Success. Mr. Seymour E. Locke, of New York, who will manage the May Festival, arrived in the city yesterday from California and registered at the Anderson Hotel. Mr. Locke said he had been in Pittsburgh since 1888, when he had charge of the Wagner Festival.

THE REMAINS AT REST.
James Callery's Funeral From Saint Peter's Pro-Cathedral. Bishop Prelan Mourns His Loss. Impressive Services at the Funeral of Peter Walter, Jr. An Address by Rev. J. G. Goettman. Not within the recent history of St. Peter's Pro-Cathedral in Allegheny has there been such a large crowd of people within its walls as that which gathered yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral services of the James D. Callery, late President of the Pittsburgh and Western railroad and the owner of the large tanneries in the upper portion of Allegheny.

THAT UNLUCKY NUMBER.
Thirteen Drinks Dispensed—Other Mistaken Undertakings. "It is time," solemnly pronounced Justice Gripp, and the good old town clock didn't strike 8 as the drinks were arranged in line at Central station.

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

BLAZES NEAR DIXMONT.
The Large New Barn Near the Inmate Asylum Destroyed. The large new barn on the Inmate Asylum grounds was completely destroyed by fire last evening, and at a time it was believed the other buildings would ignite and cause a panic among the inmates. Although the barn is about a quarter of a mile from the institution the building would have been in danger had the other frame structures caught fire.

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

BLAZES NEAR DIXMONT.
The Large New Barn Near the Inmate Asylum Destroyed. The large new barn on the Inmate Asylum grounds was completely destroyed by fire last evening, and at a time it was believed the other buildings would ignite and cause a panic among the inmates. Although the barn is about a quarter of a mile from the institution the building would have been in danger had the other frame structures caught fire.

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

BLAZES NEAR DIXMONT.
The Large New Barn Near the Inmate Asylum Destroyed. The large new barn on the Inmate Asylum grounds was completely destroyed by fire last evening, and at a time it was believed the other buildings would ignite and cause a panic among the inmates. Although the barn is about a quarter of a mile from the institution the building would have been in danger had the other frame structures caught fire.

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

BLAZES NEAR DIXMONT.
The Large New Barn Near the Inmate Asylum Destroyed. The large new barn on the Inmate Asylum grounds was completely destroyed by fire last evening, and at a time it was believed the other buildings would ignite and cause a panic among the inmates. Although the barn is about a quarter of a mile from the institution the building would have been in danger had the other frame structures caught fire.

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

BLAZES NEAR DIXMONT.
The Large New Barn Near the Inmate Asylum Destroyed. The large new barn on the Inmate Asylum grounds was completely destroyed by fire last evening, and at a time it was believed the other buildings would ignite and cause a panic among the inmates. Although the barn is about a quarter of a mile from the institution the building would have been in danger had the other frame structures caught fire.

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

THE REMAINS AT REST.
James Callery's Funeral From Saint Peter's Pro-Cathedral. Bishop Prelan Mourns His Loss. Impressive Services at the Funeral of Peter Walter, Jr. An Address by Rev. J. G. Goettman. Not within the recent history of St. Peter's Pro-Cathedral in Allegheny has there been such a large crowd of people within its walls as that which gathered yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral services of the James D. Callery, late President of the Pittsburgh and Western railroad and the owner of the large tanneries in the upper portion of Allegheny.

THAT UNLUCKY NUMBER.
Thirteen Drinks Dispensed—Other Mistaken Undertakings. "It is time," solemnly pronounced Justice Gripp, and the good old town clock didn't strike 8 as the drinks were arranged in line at Central station.

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

BLAZES NEAR DIXMONT.
The Large New Barn Near the Inmate Asylum Destroyed. The large new barn on the Inmate Asylum grounds was completely destroyed by fire last evening, and at a time it was believed the other buildings would ignite and cause a panic among the inmates. Although the barn is about a quarter of a mile from the institution the building would have been in danger had the other frame structures caught fire.

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

BLAZES NEAR DIXMONT.
The Large New Barn Near the Inmate Asylum Destroyed. The large new barn on the Inmate Asylum grounds was completely destroyed by fire last evening, and at a time it was believed the other buildings would ignite and cause a panic among the inmates. Although the barn is about a quarter of a mile from the institution the building would have been in danger had the other frame structures caught fire.

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

BLAZES NEAR DIXMONT.
The Large New Barn Near the Inmate Asylum Destroyed. The large new barn on the Inmate Asylum grounds was completely destroyed by fire last evening, and at a time it was believed the other buildings would ignite and cause a panic among the inmates. Although the barn is about a quarter of a mile from the institution the building would have been in danger had the other frame structures caught fire.

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

BLAZES NEAR DIXMONT.
The Large New Barn Near the Inmate Asylum Destroyed. The large new barn on the Inmate Asylum grounds was completely destroyed by fire last evening, and at a time it was believed the other buildings would ignite and cause a panic among the inmates. Although the barn is about a quarter of a mile from the institution the building would have been in danger had the other frame structures caught fire.

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

BLAZES NEAR DIXMONT.
The Large New Barn Near the Inmate Asylum Destroyed. The large new barn on the Inmate Asylum grounds was completely destroyed by fire last evening, and at a time it was believed the other buildings would ignite and cause a panic among the inmates. Although the barn is about a quarter of a mile from the institution the building would have been in danger had the other frame structures caught fire.

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

THE BISHOP'S EULOGY.
In his sermon, Bishop Prelan's voice came so weak (caused by grief over the death of Mr. Callery) that it sometimes failed to reach the feet of the congregation. His discourse by saying that it was natural that he should say something in praise of the man who had just died, he was the proper person to do so. He said:

THE SINGLE TAX IDEA.
The New Topic Lectured Upon at a Liberal League Meeting. The Liberal League held its regular weekly meeting at Maitly Hall last night. Mr. F. C. Knight delivered an address on "Justice and Taxation," his argument being based upon the Henry George single tax land theory. He maintained that the conflict of modern times was between monopoly on the one hand and capital and labor on the other.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.

OPENING ON MONDAY.
Mr. Schoenthal, formerly and for many years with Mr. M. H. Danziger, has established himself at 612 Penn. avenue, Hotel Anderson building, and will on Monday, April 8, open one of the coziest stores in this city.