

JOY IN JOHNSTOWN.

The Rapid Work in Distributing the Fund Has a Good Effect.

SPECIAL AID FOR THE JEWELERS.

A Proposition to Use the Boston Money in Building Bridges.

ANOTHER MOVE IN THE OHIO OIL FIELD.

A Company of New York Capitalists to Try to Fight the Standard.

The more rapid methods of distributing the relief fund have greatly encouraged the Johnstown people. Bridges are now greatly needed. The managers of the Boston donation are to be appealed to on this point, as the general fund is not available.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. JOHNSTOWN, August 2.—Twenty thousand dollars was paid out by Treasurer Thompson from 12 o'clock till 4. The work is in shape to be pushed right along now, and the money is now in the hands of the people. The Board of Inquiry expect to get through distributing orders next Wednesday, and before the end of the week the $200,000 will all be paid out. Then checks will be sent to all in classes one, two and three for the balance due them, and the accounts in those three classes closed. They will be paid according to the basis first fixed by the Board of Inquiry, respectively $1,000, $500 and $400 each. As they have received respectively $600, $400 and $200 each, it will require less than $300,000 to pay them all off.

SOME MONEY YET. This will leave over $1,000,000 to be distributed to those in classes 4, 5 and 6. It is likely that some changes in the classification as made by the Board of Inquiry will be made, but in general the basis laid down by them will be followed. Mr. S. F. Meyers, representing the jewelers' Board of Trade of New York, was in town to-day arranging for the distribution of about $1,000 among the jewelers of this place. This money was the balance of a fund left in the hands of their committee, which had already turned over about $100,000 of the general fund. There are no doubt many other small funds of this kind, the struggling remnants of larger collections, and where the fund is large enough to justify it much more good may be done by a direct distribution of this kind than by turning it over to the general fund.

BRIDGES NEEDED. Inasmuch as no appropriation can be made from the general relief fund for building bridges, which is now one of the greatest needs of the place, it is likely a committee of officers from the different boroughs will appeal to the custodian of the Boston fund, asking whether part or all of that fund cannot be given directly for the purpose of making public improvements of that kind. This, it is said, would be the most practical form of relief since the immediate wants of the people have been relieved.

The State Board of Health is now established in new quarters and have a force of over 70 men at work under their immediate directions. The other 500 men employed by Contractor McLean are also working under the direction of the Board of Health. A horse was struck at the crossing at Morrellville by a passenger train and killed this afternoon. Workmen were engaged to-day trying to remove the large iron bridge that was taken out of the gorge above the stone bridge.

REFINING LIMA OIL.

A Company of New York Capitalists Will Try a New Process.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. LIMA, August 2.—Mr. Dudley Farlin, of Albany, President of the Lima Oil Company, with a party of New York capitalists, arrived here this morning, and are holding a conference to-night with Hoyer Brothers, Spear & Williams, of the Shawnee Oil Company, for the purpose of completing arrangements for the building of a large refinery five miles southwest of this city. It is understood that this combination controls a new and valuable process for refining Lima crude that they purchased from a St. Thomas, Ontario, expert. These gentlemen own leases on valuable territory in this and the North Baltimore field, and have their own pipe line, storage and line tank cars. They are the strongest competitors of the Standard in the Ohio field, and are amply able to hold their own.

Excited by an Incendiary Attempt.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. LEICHHING, August 2.—The town is in a fever of excitement this evening over the discovery of an attempt to burn the building occupied by S. H. Cline and others. Two bundles of matches wrapped in a cloth saturated in oil had been lighted and thrown in on the floor of the part of the building used as a carpenter shop. The fire, it is thought, was put out by the rain.

A New Coal Field Opened.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WEST NEWTON, August 2.—A new field of coal is about to be opened at Lucyville, on the Monongahela river. This is the key to a large amount of coal which as yet has not been developed. Mr. John Hlythe, of this place, is largely interested, as is also his son George, who will have charge of the works.

CRAZED BY THE PLAY.

A Pathetic Scene Drives a Man Insane in a San Francisco Theater.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 2.—A man about 33 years of age was taken from the California Theater last night in a raving mania, when only a few minutes previously he was seemingly sane. The Irish play of "Shan Rhué" was being performed. There is a pathetic scene wherein the hero is forced to leave his native life. He is discovered weeping over his mother's grave. At this point last night a terrific shriek was heard from the gallery. There was almost a panic among the audience. A man stood on the seat, with one hand clutching at his breast and the other extended, and yelling. Several officials ran forward, and immediately on their putting their hands on him he fell unconscious. The man was taken to a side room and efforts were made to restore him. When he became conscious he became aggressive and fought all who came near him. After an hour or so he calmed down and was taken to the receiving hospital. During the night he again became violent and had to be strapped down. He was very calm this morning and seemed to understand everything that was going on. He is presumably from the interior. He had about $130 in his possession.

The Menace by Moonlight.

A nice entertainment is soon to take place. The Christian Endeavor Society, of Pittsburg and Allegheny, have chartered the Mayflower and will take a moonlight trip up the Monongahela valley. They will leave on August 13. An orchestra will accompany the excursion.

Just Settling There and Lamenting.

Mrs. Connelly, living on Twentieth street, was arrested last night for sitting on the pavement laughing. She has been arrested before for strange behavior.

FOND OF DIAMONDS.

A Bold Thief Gains $1,500 Worth of Jewels in Broad Daylight—With the Aid of a Revolver He Manages to Effect His Escape.

KANSAS CITY, August 2.—A bold robbery occurred this afternoon at the jewelry store of F. G. Altman, situated in the very heart of the business portion of the city. The thief secured $1,500 worth of diamonds and made his escape after an exciting chase. It was 2:30 when a well-dressed young man entered the store and asked to be shown some diamonds. A tray containing a large number of valuable set stones was placed on the counter before him. He examined a few of the jewels carefully, possibly selecting the most valuable for the intended theft, and, grabbing a handful, he bolted for the door, attempted to mount a saddle horse which he had left unattended in front of a store as a means of escape.

Before he could mount Mr. Altman grappled with him, but the thief broke away, and drawing a big revolver he started on the run to escape on foot. By this time a large crowd had gathered and its members started in pursuit, crying "Stop thief." But the thief had no intention of stopping or of being stopped, and turning round he flourished his revolver at the faces of the pursuers, many of whom gave up the pursuit.

With revived hope the thief quickened his pace and ran a long block distant. He bolted through the barroom, snatching a hat from one of the loungers there to supply the place of his own, which had been lost in the scuffle, and reaching the alley entered the basement of a book-store, locking the door behind him. He then walked coolly up the stairs of the store above and passed through the door unnoted, the clerk fully expecting that he was a thief. Reaching Main street he found a hack, and this he entered and was driven away. Since then he has not been seen. The detectives are scouring the city for him, and watching all railway stations that he may not escape on an outgoing train.
