

LITTLE TOO TOUGH. The Burly Bostons Too Much for the Home Team. THEY BAT OUT VICTORY. Alleged Dissipation Among Seven or Eight Local Players.

RESULTS OF OTHER LEAGUE GAMES. Schaeffer's Sweeping Challenge to Slosson, the Eastern Billiardist.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY. The Bostons beat the home team yesterday by heavy hitting at an opportune time.

Anybody who knows the difference between a pug dog and the biggest elephant that ever bartered had in his establishment, and will watch the Bostons play a game of ball will know that they are not liable to be marked for anybody.

Those who visited yesterday's game without being initiated into the deeper mysteries of baseball would have thought that the home team was doing it with great regularity.

It is this great power that the Bostons may at any moment bring into action that makes them dangerous people to contend with.

THEY CAN'T HIT FITCHES. In an inning they pitched sufficient to turn white into white. They did it yesterday.

THE WEATHER WAS FIRST. Of course the Bostons are a good drawing card, or else probably only 200 people present.

KEELY'S BIG MUFF. Morris flew out and Miller knocked a high fly to Kelly that was snuffed, and Kuehne got home.

THE SEVENTH INNING. The home players showed that remarkable quality of theirs, viz: The quality to thump out victory cleanly by the sticks.

THE HOME PLAYERS SCORED ONE IN THE EIGHTH. The home players scored one in the eighth. The home players scored one in the eighth.

THE CHICAGOERS ARE BEATEN BY THE PHILLIES. CHICAGO, August 12.—Chicago was not in the race today—although in the seventh inning, two found Gleason's delivery for four singles, two doubles and a home run, piling up seven allies.

THE BOSTONS BEAT THE HOME TEAM. The Bostons beat the home team yesterday by heavy hitting at an opportune time.

THE BOSTONS BEAT THE HOME TEAM. The Bostons beat the home team yesterday by heavy hitting at an opportune time.

Home run—Muller, 1; Farrell, 1. Sacrifice hits—Gleason, 2; Burns, 1. Stolen bases—Duffy, 2; Anson, 2. Double plays—Hallman, Farrar; Burns, Pfeiffer, Anson, 2.

CLEVELAND, August 12.—An error gave Ward a place on first base in the ninth inning, and Attorney Bourke's two-base hit brought him home, and gave the Giants the game.

INDIANAPOLIS, August 12.—Getzels was hit hard and often by the Senators today and at times when his meant runs. The Hoosiers outplayed the visitors in the field, but they were unable to force the delivery of the bats.
