PICNICS ARE PLENTY.

Friends and Enemies of Dr. Cronin in the Chicago Clan-na-Gael

HOLD RIVAL DEMONSTRATIONS.

The Famous Murder Very Vigorously Denounced by the Former.

SOME RATHER TORRID RESOLUTIONS

The Other Section of the Organization Also Does Some Tall Talking.

Two Clan-na-Gael picnics were held at Chicago yesterday. One was under the control of the friends of the murdered Dr. Cronin and the other was in the hands of the opposition. Each demonstration adopted a very lively series of resolutions.

CHICAGO, August 15.—This was the day set for the annual Clan-na-Gael demonstration and picnic, but instead of one there were two gatherings. The friends of the late Dr. Cronin met at Cheltenham Beach in large numbers. Addresses were delivered during the afternoon and evening by Congressman Foran, of Cleveland; Hon. M. J. Ryan, of Philadelphia; Congressman Lawler, of Chicago; John Devoy, of New York; Thomas P. Tuite, of Detroit, and others.

A long statement, accompanying a preamble and resolutions, was read and adopted. It recognizes fealty to this nation as the first and highest obligation, and next thereafter pledges support to the cause of Irish liberty, to be secured under the leadership of Parnell and Gladstone. The preamble and resolutions are as follows:

RINGING RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, In the midst of the universally-conceded tribute to the Irish people, justly earned by devotion to the principles of liberty and civilization, when Ireland's children, led by her patriotic and astute statesman, Charles Stewart Parnell, were on the eve of breaking down the barriers of English prejudice; when the world had to make Ireland's cause her own; when fossilized bigotry and selfish interests only stood in the way of Irish progress, cold-blooded and cruel assassination dropped their double distilled poison into Ireland's chalice; and,

Whereas, In order to indelibly stain the reputation of our race, those conspirators and assassins did resort to the infamous calumny of charging our murdered fellow citizen with being a British spy, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we denounce with all the force of indignant language our utter abhorrence of assassination murder, and the moral assassination resorted to by the murderers of Dr. Cronin, to cover up the

and the betrayal of a people whose devotion to the cause of liberty too often makes them the victims of designing knaves.

Resolved, That knowing Dr. R. H. Cronin to have been a patriotic, high-minded, pure Christian gentleman, utterly incapable of playing the roll of sycophant or falsely living the life of a spy, we brand as the most malicious libel and moral assassination the infamous report that he was an agent of England. On the contrary, knowing him to have been a devoted defender of honesty and truth, we hereby declare it to be our solemn conviction that for his faithful adherence to the Irish cause, honesty and truth, he was foully murdered to prevent the exposure of the actual criminals, who have dragged down that cause in blood and tears into the dust of our Gethsemane.

Resolved, That the crime of his most atrocious murder calls for all the energies of our civilization for the speedy and extreme punishment of the law, and we pledge our abiding support to the public authorities until every guilty man shall have answered to the law for his participation in the most devilish murder which has reddened the annals of crime. We deem it our duty to express our that a few prominent Irishmen in this country and across the water should have taken the foolish position that Dr. Cronin's murder was the work of England's agents, and that the suspicions and accusations almost universally entertained and expressed in this community and throughout America against men pointed out by the evidence as the authors of the conspiracy to murder Dr. Cronin were uttered in the interest of the London Times. Such utterances from men upon the other side of the Atlantic, while they may be overlooked for their impertinence and pardoned for their insult to our intelligence, do lasting damage by undermining confidence in the judgment and discernment of men whose wisdom in Irish affairs we have been accustomed to trust, and whose opinions in those matters we want to continue to respect.

Resolved, That we express our continued confidence and adhesion to Mr. Parnell and his party and our belief in the ultimate success of his efforts to secure for Ireland the blessings of self-government. Believing Ireland to be capable of self-government, we recognize the right of the majority of the Irish people living in Ireland to determine their own position on the national question and to shape their own policy in advancing it. Whatever they decree through their chosen representatives, when that choice is freely expressed, we pledge ourselves to cordially support. We denounce any attempt at interference with that right of the Irish people, either by Irishmen in America or Englishmen in England, as an impeachment of Ireland's capacity and qualification for self-government and offensive to the sentiment of Irishmen everywhere.

PATRICK EGAN DENOUNCED.

By all odds the most important feature of the day at Cheltenham was the denunciation of Michael Davitt and Patrick Egan by John Devoy. The last named gentleman, in a long and impassioned speech, challenged, not alone the motives, but the honesty and patriotism of both these well-known Irishmen, and he openly arraigned Davitt for alleged treachery to his friends, to the cause of Ireland and to Charles Stewart Parnell. His attitude in regard to the Cronin murder was the subject for a fierce denunciation of the "Father of the Land League."

The charge which Mr. Devoy made against the Minister to Chili was graver yet. Mr. Egan was proclaimed as a sympathizer with the gang who instigated the murder of Dr. Cronin, and with using the prestige of his position to blacken men's character, as Cronin's was, and thus bringing about their destruction in a similar way.

Congressman Frank Lawler devoted most of his time to his old political antagonist, ex-Congressman John Finerty, for the course taken by the latter's paper in regard to the Cronin matter and Mr. Lawler himself. Mr. Lawler dealt Finerty some rhetorical blows of unusual vigor and earnestness. He denounced Finerty in conclusion as a liar, poltroon and scoundrel.

THE OTHER PICNIC.

The anti-Cronin section of the Clan-na-Gael demonstration at Ogden's Grove drew a large crowd of people. The grounds were thrown open at 10 o'clock this morning and the preparations were at once begun. The speakers were escorted to the grove by the Clan-na-Gael Guards, the Hibernian Rifles and Chicago Zouaves. It was after 1 o'clock when they arrived on the grounds. They were Senator Thomas F. Grady, of New York; the Rev. George W. Pepper, of Ohio; Hon. O'Neil Ryan, of St. Louis, and Judge Fitzgerald, of Cincinnati.

The address, read and adopted by the audience, opened with a declaration of devotion to the laws and principles of the American Republic, and unchangeable sympathy with the cause of Irish liberty; the plan on which it is to be worked for to be decided by the people of Ireland themselves. The address continues:

But while recognizing the necessity of leaving to the Irish people themselves the plan of battle for the attainment of national autonomy, we desire to express our belief in the distinctive character of the Irish people, and their inalienable right, circumstances permitting, to declare and to assert their independence as a nation.

WAITING AN OPPORTUNITY.

We fully recognise, further, that destitute of those means of asserting their liberty which would alone make revolution justifiable, we are willing to aid them in such peaceful measures as they may choose to adopt in bringing the Government of England to a sense of the duty that it owes to justice and humanity, restoring to the Irish people the right to make their own laws and to live in self-respecting manhood upon their own soil.

It has been asserted by those instrumental in covering us with defamation that we wish to screen the murderers of Dr. Cronin. We meet here to-day, among other reasons, for the purpose of vehemently denouncing his atrocious murder in our capacity as American citizens, but we hold that, as Irish-Americans, we have no more right to be held responsible for that foul atrocity than has any other element of our body politic for crimes committed by persons to whom they are kindred. We devoutly hope that the officers authorized by law will succeed in bringing to justice the assassins of Dr. Cronin.

We repudiate, both as American citizens and as Irish-Americans, the claim made by the enemies of our race, that the Irish element has any desire or any purpose to make the soil of America the theater of acts of vengeance, because of feuds, factions or disagreements growing out of political differences or personal heart-burnings.

THEIR SINCERE DESIRE.

We desire to declare that, in the absence of any rational opportunity for the assertion of the independence of Ireland, after the manly fashion of the American Revolutionary fathers, and while regretting the absence of that opportunity, we wish to convey to Charles Stewart Parnell and his associates in the present struggle for Irish home government and the rights of the Irish tenant farmers, our sincere desire to aid their patriotic efforts, and our wish to leave them unembarrassed by any policy of ours, until all peaceful methods of settling the Irish question have been exhausted.

We return our sincere and most grateful thanks to Hon. John M. Thayer, Governor of Massachusetts, for his magnanimous defense of the honor of our race against the reckless slanders of a society of professional foreigners.

We also return our thanks to Hon. Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, who has proved himself in this crisis, as ever, the friend of our race and of human liberty.

A PERJURED WITNESS.

The Chief Evidence Against Mrs. Maybrick Given by a Fugitive From Justice—A Prejudiced Charge Delivered by the Judge.

NEW YORK, August 15.—The New York counsel of Mrs. Maybrick, now under sentence of death in London, to-day received a letter from Lawyer Alfred Monck, of Notre Dame street, Montreal, in which he states that a Mrs. Yapp answering the description of the Mrs. Yapp, who was the chief witness against Mrs. Maybrick, was obliged to leave Montreal about three years ago to escape indictment for perjury. At that time a man named Malvin Smith brought an action against his wife for separation. Mrs. Yapp was the chief witness for Smith, and gave very damaging evidence against the wife. It was shown, however, that a female friend of Smith and the woman Yapp had, with Smith's aid, plotted a conspiracy to blacken Mrs. Smith's character, and Mrs. Smith's reputation remained unblemished. Mrs. Yapp fled the country immediately thereafter. She was about 40 years old and married.

Dudley M. Holman, managing editor of the Portland (Me.) Evening Express, also sends a letter. He states that Mrs. Maybrick once lived in Portland, where she was highly respected. He asks regarding the propriety of getting a petition signed by leading citizens of Portland and forwarding the same to Secretary of State Blaine, requesting him to interest himself in the case. The lawyers replied in approval.

A well-known lawyer, who arrived to-day from England on the Teutonic, and who was present during Judge Stephen's charge to the jury, states that while in England he gave the Maybrick case careful study.

"I never heard such a prejudiced charge delivered," he said, "by a Judge in my many years' experience at the Bar. Mrs. Maybrick's lawyers could not get a hearing; when they endeavored to curb the Judge in his charge, they got snubbed for their pains. I called to see her after her conviction, and she presented a pitiable sight. She exclaimed I did not do it; I did not do it. My folly I admit. I was led astray by a man who had an unnatural influence over me. That was my only sin. I would sooner have lost my life on the spot than hurt one hair of my husband's head."

The woman's counsel will forward the evidence they have to Secretary Blaine at once.

ADVOCATING STATES RIGHTS.

Republicans Harmonize in Western Washington on Squire for the Senate.

OLYMPIA, WASH., August 15.—The exciting scenes of yesterday were succeeded to-day by a calm. On every lawyer's desk was a ponderous law library, and the entire day was spent in discussion of the question of State sovereignty in tide lands. Only one vote was taken. It was on the general principle of State sovereignty and was largely affirmative. The question then came up on patents issued by the United States Government to land part of which possibly through error, is tide land. The debate was still on when the convention adjourned.

News arrived to-day that Colonel J. C. Haines, who has been understood to be a candidate for United States Senator from Western Washington, had withdrawn. This, it is said, strengthens and harmonizes the Republicans, and makes the election of ex-Governor Watson C. Squire to the Senate almost certain.

A VERY SHORT STRIKE.

New York Plasterers Go Out, but Return to Work in Three Hours.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, August 15.—The Plasterers' Union on Wednesday submitted to their employers a demand that their wages be increased from $4 to $4 50 a day. None of the employers paid attention to the demand. To-day committees from the union went to all the large buildings in the city and ordered the plasterers to quit work and to repair to Brevoort Hall, in Fifty-fourth street. It was estimated that 1,500 were in the hall at noon. Then the employers who had been notified by their foremen that the men were on strike, sent word for their men at the hall to return to work.

At 3:30 o'clock all the plasterers had gone. They say that the bosses consented to pay the advance demanded. The boss plasterers said that there was nothing else for them to do but pay. There is not an idle plasterer to be found in the city.

WANTS HALF THE REWARD.

A Clairvoyant Who Claims to Have Discovered a Missing Corpse.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

CINCINNATI, August 15.—A singular law suit has begun in the courts here. Mrs. Clara G. Byrne, of New Albany, Ind., has entered suit against Mrs. Eben Cheney for one-half the amount of the reward offered for the finding of the body of Mrs. Cheney's husband, who mysteriously disappeared last January, but whose body two months later was found in the Ohio river, near Ripley.

Mrs. Byrne claims that she is a clairvoyant, and that she described in every particular the drowning of Mr. Cheney and the place of the finding of the body, having, as she claims, seen it all in a "vision." She had been consulted by Mrs. Cheney, and now claims half of the $1,000 reward, the body having been found as she described.

SAVED FROM THE SEA.

Thrilling Escape of a Lad Who was Carried Into the Surf at Asbury Park—Tremendous Seas Cause Much Excitement.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

ASBURY PARK, N. J., August 15.—The tremendous seas this morning washed away the beach from the Asbury avenue pavilion to the Bend Wave power pier, to a depth of 12 feet. The piling of the board walk at that point, and the pavilion were washed almost bare. The iron swinging gate that worked the pump at the pier with power given by swinging in the waves, was bent double by the seas. The gate weighed over half a ton.

At 10 o'clock, while thousands watched the work of beach destruction, L. C. Craig, a 15-year-old Detroit boy, was washed from the sluice box at the sea end of Wesley Lake by an enormous wave, and carried into the surf, where he struggled desperately. Finally he was washed out to the end of a submerged bathing line, to which he clung for life. An attempt was made to launch the life boat by Bathing Masters Slocum, Clayton and Kittie. A big wave picked up the boat and dashed it between the piling of the pavilion, crushing it to pieces.

Meantime, little Craig struggled for life with the big waves. Just as he was washed from his position and lost to view, the bathing masters, with life lines succeeded in getting through the mountainous surf, and saw the drowning boy beneath the water. Slocum grasped the little fellow by the hair, and succeeded in bringing him back to the shore by working his way in along the bathing line.

Craig was apparently dead when laid on the sand. He was restored to consciousness only after several hours' exertion by physicians. He is suffering from exhaustion to-night. Fifteen thousand people cheered the rescuer. Later in the day, Charles E. Schwartz, of Philadelphia, was caught by a big wave and dashed headlong upon the hard beach. He was picked up insensible. To-night he is in a precarious condition.

DAMAGED BY VANDALS.

Sad Work Done to the Bronze Tablets on a Boston Monument.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

BOSTON, August 15.—Vandals have made sad work on the bronze tablets of the soldiers' monument on the Common. These tablets, beautiful in artistic design, have in two instances been badly mutilated. The one which represents the departure of the Sixth Massachusetts regiment shows a company passing in review before Governor Andrew, Wendell Phillips, Archbishop Williams, and others. The company commander is represented as presenting arms, with his sword pointed in the direction required in the execution of the command. The sword is now gone, and one of the chief beauties of the picture is destroyed. On the north side is a tablet representing the return of a regiment from the war. The company commander, who is shown in the group, is in the position of parade rest, his hands resting on his sword. This sword has also been wrenched out of place and carried away.

The company in the rear is in the position of present arms. In the first file four men with rifles stand boldly out. Some fiend of a relic hunter or vandal has broken the butts of three of the rifles off, destroying this picture beyond repair. The swords removed from the hands of the officers can be replaced, but the rifle butts cannot be.

MURDERED BY MOONSHINERS.

A Noble Young Man Shot While Trying to Arrest Illicit Distillers.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

TALLAHASSE, FLA., August 15.—United States Deputy Revenue Collector Frank Weller was murdered in Holmes county, last night, while attempting to make an arrest of illicit distillers there. No further particulars have been received, but the entire city is agitated over the sad end of this most upright young man. His father, Rev. W. H. Weller, of Jacksonville, is a very prominent Episcopal divine, and editor of their church paper.

Weller leaves a young wife and one child. The authorities will try hard to apprehend the murderer.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

EXPOSED AND CONDEMNED.

Garbled quotations from official reports, falsely credited to respectable journals, but really emanating from the advertising department of the Royal Baking Powder Co., have again made their appearance. Extracts from official letters and documents are falsely quoted, and spurious words inserted to mislead the public and hoist into notoriety an adulterated food product. Cooked up lies, and stories made out of whole cloth, appearing in an article headed, "A Remarkable Expose," have only exposed a sad dishonesty of purpose.

The public likes to see fair and open competition, backed by honest and legitimate advertising. Trickery and fraud will always react upon the trickster. These attempts to throw sand in the eyes of the public are too shallow, and only instills an added interest into the intelligent reader to find more positive and praiseworthy proofs of superiority.

The American Analyst, of New York City, says, in its issue of June 13, 1889: "No 'Board of Health' has ever officially indorsed the Royal Baking Powder, as its manufacturers state." A careful perusal of the original National Board of Health Bulletin, "Supplement No. 6, page 33," will show quite conclusively, that "without money considerations," but in the interest of the United States Government they indorsed "Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder as the strongest and purest."

In reference to the report made by the Canadian Government on Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, we refer to the Commissioner of the Inland Revenue Department, Ottawa (seat of Government), Canada, which will show that Mr. Wm. Sanders, Public Analyst of that Department, gives the preference to Dr. Price's in strength and purity.

A bogus report purporting to come from the Ohio Food Commissioner is another brainy (?) concoction of those who take the pay and wear the collar of the Royal Baking Powder Co. This Royal editor would make the public believe that their powder, with its filthy ingredient, ammonia, had been officially indorsed, while the truth told, Commissioner Hurst, of Ohio, over his own signature, denounces the Royal's report as "a false and garbled statement." Commissioner Hurst adds: "This article (Royal's) pretending to quote, but misrepresenting my official circular, as it did, was a most flagrant abuse of an official paper."

Nothing better than deception can be expected from a company who will foist upon the public as "absolutely pure" a food preparation which has as its basis that harsh caustic chemical, carbonate of ammonia. The origin of ammonia is filth, decomposed animal and vegetable matter, and yet it is being used as a leavening power in the Royal Baking Powder.

It was decided by the National Food Analysts that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder was the one they could recommend to general family use, being free from Ammonia, Alum, Lime and all drug taint.

TEST.

Place a can of the "Royal Baking Powder" top down on a hot stove until heated; then remove the cover and smell. A chemist will not be required to detect the presence of the disgusting drug "Ammonia."

Let Dr. Price's be subjected to the same test, and if it contains Ammonia or any other unwholesome, unclean substance, it can be detected without the dictum of the Royal Company. au16-47

ADVICE FOR ALL.

Sad and sorrowfully glance into the future many sick persons who suffer pain and who find an early grave through mistaken treatment. Do not forget that the proofs are here that my celebrated all-German remedies cannot be excelled. Thousands of patients have I met who said: "I was not a day without medicine and grew worse every day." They are correct. Where dangerous operations have been previously undertaken my remedy has cured in a short time. My remedies cure, in fact, most of the chronic diseases where no other medicine gives help. Daily sick persons come to me and complain that they have spent $50, $100, $1,000 among doctors, but were not 5 cents' worth better. When these doctors had received the money they left the city by moonlight. Thousands in Pittsburg and vicinity have been cured within a year by my wonderful remedies. Look at the following, a few of those who were cured in as many weeks as they were yearssick.

Mr. Wagner, chronic rheumatism, 2 years.
Mr. H. Conrad, chronic diarrhœa, 2 years.
Miss Weaver, epilepsy, 6 years.
Mrs. Emmler, eye trouble, nearly blind, 30 years.
Mrs. L. Mahone suffered 6 years with spinal disease, nervousness and liver trouble, leading to dropsy.
Mrs. Dickson, asthma, 10 years.
Miss Johnson, dropsy, 6 years.
Mrs. Gunther, cancer, 7 years.
Mrs. Kleinmann suffered two years with terrible cramps. She is cured and suffers no more.

If the disease is not to be recognized by any other existence, the urine is the best means of diagnosis; it shows what and where the trouble is. As soon as it leaves its normal straw color, you should not fail to use my celebrated remedies and be cured from the very root of the trouble.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

PEOPLE WHO WEAR SHOES,

DON'T READ THIS,

unless you are willing and anxious to save money. None but men and women who can appreciate a good thing when they see it are invited to avail themselves of the truly miraculous bargains in good, solid footwear now offered at

KAUFMANNS'

BUILDING and ENLARGING SALE

Men of families—men whose limited incomes compels them to enforce rigid economy to make both ends meet—are especially requested to take advantage of this sale. They have here the rare chance of supplying their families with first-class and stylish Shoes at about half the regular prices. The same money that usually buys one pair now buys two pairs—hence the great benefit derived from patronizing Kaufmanns' Shoe department at present is apparent. Below we point out a few of our bargains. Read them and remember that they don't represent one-hundredth of our stock.

∴ Ladies' Fine Shoes for $1 49. ∴

Not fine in name only—but in fact as well. These Shoes are made of the celebrated imperial Kid, have worked button holes and leather counters, and are very durable and comfortable. The usual retail price is $3. Our Building and Enlarging Sale price is $1 49.

Ladies' Patent Leather Tipped Shoes, $1 49

They are also made of imperial Kid, have smooth insoles and leather counters, and every pair is guaranteed to give entire satisfaction. Patent leather tipped shoes are now all the rage, and these goods won't linger long on our shelves.

Ladies' Genuine French Kid Shoes, $2 50

Ladies who wear extremely fine shoes—goods that are generally sold for $5 per pair—have now a chance to buy them at $2 50. We warrant these French Kid Shoes to be hand-turned, and, although the sizes are somewhat broken, most any lady can get fitted. Come quick, however.

∴ Ladies' French Kid Oxfords at $1 50 ∴

We have these in all lengths and widths, and they come with patent leather tips or plain toes. No shoe dealer in this city has ever offered the equal of this shoe for less than $3. By buying them at our Building and Enlarging Sale you can now get them for only $1 50.

Men's Extra Quality Calf Shoes at $1 98

We have them in button, lace and congress, and all sizes and widths. They are made to fit, and fit they do as perfectly and comfortably as one could desire. We want you to compare these shoes with those at $3, about which certain shoe stores in this city make so much ado.

Men's Popular English Waukenphasts, $2 50

These shoes are so well and favorably
