

A VERSATILE AGENT

Comes to Grief After a Very Remarkable Business Career.

HE WAS THE CHAMPION BUSTLER,

But Would Take the Company's Funds for Individual Use.

MEMBER OF A NOBLE AUSTRIAN FAMILY

CHICAGO, September 4.—Max Jacobson, until recently Western Superintendent of the Fidelity and Casualty Company, which has general offices in this city under the control of General Manager W. A. Alexander, was before Justice Randall and White this morning, charged with embezzling small amounts of money from the company.

The arrest was made on a warrant sworn out by Mr. Alexander, the accused being on the point of boarding a train for New York when the officers found him.

Mr. Alexander was seen by a reporter, and from that gentleman the story of Jacobson's career in this city and something of his previous history were obtained.

"Jacobson is one of the most versatile men I ever saw," said Mr. Alexander, with some enthusiasm. "His talent is something wonderful, and he had no equal in handling insurance business. He is only about 25 years old and a fine-looking fellow, with a most winning address. He got in with the best class of business men, such as Farwell, McVeigh and Armour, and he got along with them so well that he could put his feet on their desks with impunity and act as familiarly as if he were a friend."

MODEST AND CONTENT. "He was with about nine months and he made plenty of money. He did a business of $20,000 in five months, and his salary and commissions amounted to nearly or quite $400 per month. The first irregularity I discovered in his business was in last March. This, after talking to him and getting his promise to do better, I overlooked. When the Washington Park race came on, he got into rapid motion, and he was using my money to buy pools with, and was carrying on at a high rate.

"I called him in and remonstrated with him, saying that he was using my money wrong, as usual, and then, about three weeks ago, I discharged him, making at the time a demand for all the money in his hands belonging to the company. He was behind with us to the extent of $700. As soon as I discharged him he went over at once to work for another liability company, and he advanced him money. The assurance of the man is shown by the fact that he went down to Joliet and, on the strength of forged letters representing that he had left me in a straight way, got prominent business and influential Senators to go on his bond."

"What do you know of his antecedents?"

AN AUSTRIAN NOBLE. "Well, I know he belongs to a prominent noble family in Austria. I got a letter from his father only a few days ago. The letter bore the family crest, and Jacobson used to live at Monte Carlo, where he was known as a poker player and a very slick one. Before he came to Chicago he had served a three-year term in the Penitentiary for forgery, but he made himself solid with Warden McClaughry and other prominent people while there, and when he came out carried with him the most flattering letters of recommendation from ex-Mayor Page, Banker Fish, Senator Culculla's brother and General McClaughry. He has been equally successful in this city in 'coming it over' people, and he has obtained I don't know how much money under false pretenses from different people, including Max or Edward Strakos, who are relatives of his and whom he dresses and forges drafts. There is no telling how many people he has done up."

When the case was called before Justice White the prisoner had no counsel, but he afterward sent out and got lawyers, who began to fight the prosecution with a will. After hearing the testimony, which was to the effect that Jacobson had collected $35 from one party and $19 from another, failing to account for either sum on demand, the Court held the prisoner in $300 bond. A writ of habeas corpus was at once taken out by the defendant's counsel.

STILL FINDING BODIES.

Three More Recovered From the Ruins of the Wrecked City—Belleville for Beaver—All the News From Nearby Towns. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. JOHNSTOWN, September 4.—Three more bodies were found today, one that of a man in a cellar on Market street, just in the rear of the Burgess office. Another body of a man was found in a cellar on Walnut street.

When the Flood Commission is expected to meet here on the 13th inst., when the Board of Inquiry expect to have their report ready to hand the commission. Dr. Robinson, who disappeared recently, has turned up in Philadelphia, and it is understood that satisfactory arrangements for his return to this city have been made.

A MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

Strange Manner in Which a Resident of Braddock Met His Death. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BEAVER FALLS, September 4.—This evening about 9 o'clock a young man named about 25, and named William Spencer, was shot at this place and instantly killed. The deceased, whose home is at Braddock, came to this place yesterday with a gang of tramps. To-night they assembled in the Papermill woods in a locality and began drinking, betting and carousing. During the carousal a shot was heard, and Spencer fell to the ground with a groan.

He ran for a doctor, but when they returned Spencer was dead. The bullet had entered just below the heart and death must have been instantaneous. Who fired the shot is not known and no arrests have been made.

SCARCITY OF WATER.

The Beaver River is Very Low and Rain is Badly Needed. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BEAVER FALLS, September 4.—Owing to the continued dry weather the Beaver river has become unacceptably low, and unless rain comes soon many of the mills along the river that run by water-power will have to shut down. Great difficulty is also experienced by the water works company in getting enough water to keep a respectable force of water in the reservoir. The pumps are running, but they are not doing a satisfactory business. Yesterday a force of men were put to work constructing a temporary dam from the shore, just below the dam, to an island in the middle of the river, which will create a pool sufficient to allow the pumps to get a full supply. If rain does not come soon the swimming carts will be taken off and consumers notified to be careful of the water.

A BOON FOR HASTINGS.

Center County is Certain He Will be the Next Governor. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BELLEVILLE, September 4.—The Republican County Convention met here in the Court House this afternoon for the purpose of electing a ticket. Associate Judge, Michael Fisher, of Millheim; Probationary, W. J. Fleming, of Belleville; District Attorney, W. E. Gray, of Belleville; Surveyor, Jesse Claver, Unionville; Coroner, W. F. Wood.

Resolutions were adopted endorsing the administration of President Harrison and Governor Weaver, and also the course of M. S. Quay, and especially the course of General D. S. Hastings at Johnstown. Speeches made by Mr. Coburn and others have been interesting. Hastings was our next Governor. It is generally believed that Quay is the man to be elected.

No Show for General Goff. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. TERRA ALTA, W. Va., September 4.—The WITNESSES WON'T TESTIFY.

McCall Says He Has No Evidence Against the Spanish-Bastards. Agent McCall said yesterday that he was only the clerk of the District Attorney, and he will be governed by the latter in the prosecution of speak-easy cases. He said he has no evidence at hand with which to convict anybody, and he finds that in the cases which he felt pretty sure of conviction the witnesses will go into court, and say they don't know anything about it.
