

LAID OFF FOR A YEAR.

This is the Sentence Imposed on Rev. Col. Danks by the Judges.

HE WAS PUBLICLY REPRIMANDED.

The War Veteran Receives His Punishment With Deep Emotion.

WORK OF DEAD PREACHERS PRAISED

In accordance with the verdict of guilty, reached by the Danks court of inquiry last Friday night, the militant pastor was yesterday suspended from the active ministry for one year and was publicly reprimanded by Bishop Foss.

During the morning hours Rev. Mr. Leak, chairman of the "select number," as the court of inquiry is called in the Methodist Episcopal discipline, held several interviews with Bishop Foss in relation to the church law governing the punishment in a case like that of Rev. Colonel Danks. Soon after the opening of the forenoon session of the conference, Rev. Mr. Leak asked the Committee of Fifteen to retire. It was after 12 o'clock when the committee completed its work and reported to the conference. The finding of such a committee is binding upon the conference. There is an appeal to the Court of Appeals, which consists of three members each from the Pittsburgh, Erie, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia Conferences, and from that body to the General Conference in 1892. The following was the report presented by the committee and read by Secretary Watkins:

The select number to whom was referred the case of John A. Danks beg leave to report as follows: That having carefully considered the evidence adduced, we find him guilty of the charge of immorality in the conduct of the life of a fellow man in defilement of character, and as a penalty that he be suspended from the ministry for one year and also be reprimanded before the conference by the Bishop.

APPROVED BY THE JUDGES.

The report was signed by T. J. Leak, chairman, A. S. Hunter, J. A. Ballantine, J. B. Taylor, G. W. Johnson, D. J. Davis, John Conner, O. A. Emerson, G. T. Gray, J. F. Murray, B. R. Wilburn, E. E. Edgell, J. E. Wright and O. P. H. Graham. Rev. Mr. Watkins, being detained in the conference meeting, was not a signer of the report. Attached to the report, as a supplementary declaration, was the following:

The select number, in view of certain publications in the daily press, desire to express their conviction that Dr. J. Leak, the presiding officer, has conducted the management of the case in an entirely impartial manner throughout, and that the counsel on both sides have also discharged their duties properly.

This was intended as a rebuke to one of the morning papers, which said that Rev. Mr. Leak had strenuously labored to secure the acquittal of Rev. Colonel Danks.

Bishop Foss called Colonel Danks to the altar. The gray-haired veteran went forward with bowed head, his face revealing deep emotion in his breast. The Bishop, with a sad voice, said: "I must move your heart to know that of your brethren, free from prejudice and approved by yourself, have arrived at such a verdict. I soundly admonish you to watch against the temper which led to that immorality. Live low at the feet of Jesus, and never again allow such an action to be committed by you." Rev. Mr. Leak returned to his seat near the rear, where he sat silently, with bowed head. During the reading of the report and the utterance of the admonition, there was solemn silence in the assemblage.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS TALK.

The conference listened to addresses by President Wheeler, of Allegheny College, at Meadville, and President Marsh, of Mt. Union College, at Alliance. The committee on Education recommended the appointment of S. H. Nesbit and J. W. Baker as representatives from the Pittsburgh, to meet committees from the other patronizing conferences, to prepare an amended charter for Allegheny College so as to place all its departments under one management.

ment of S. H. Nesbit and J. W. Baker as representatives from the Pittsburgh, to meet committees from the other patronizing conferences, to prepare an amended charter for Allegheny College so as to place all its departments under one management. Wm. T. Braden, Peter M. Harman, Wm. H. Kirkland, James E. Inskeep and P. B. Stockdale were elected to deacons' orders. Henry T. Wingman, late of the Reformed Episcopal Church, was elected an elder.

DOCTRINAL DISCUSSION.

Lutheran Ministers Enjoy Themselves on the River.

The Lutheran General Council yesterday morning, further discussed the subject of the doctrine, Dr. Spaeth, Heidebrunn, Belfour, Mehlhorn, Horkey, Passavant and others participated. The council then adjourned till to-morrow. The members had asked the Committee of Fifteen to retire. It was after 12 o'clock when the committee completed its work and reported to the conference. The finding of such a committee is binding upon the conference. There is an appeal to the Court of Appeals, which consists of three members each from the Pittsburgh, Erie, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia Conferences, and from that body to the General Conference in 1892. The following was the report presented by the committee and read by Secretary Watkins:

FUR HAT SALE.

Certain local dealers have been filling the columns of the daily papers lately with "cheap hat" advertisements. Knowing, by experience, that these were tricks to catch the unwary, we have examined one of these cheap hats and find that they are cheap in more senses than one, being not only cheap in price, but also cheap in looks and no doubt will make the wearer feel pretty cheap besides. In contrast with these goods we could urge economical buyers to inspect our low priced but reliable Fur Hats, which we guarantee strictly hand made, still trimmed and positively fast black.
