OVER 40,000 PERSONS. ELABORATE FLORAL OFFERINGS

From the Former Comrades of the Deceased Southern Leader.

THE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE FUNERAL. Secretary Foster Sends a Telegram Dedicating to Act Officially.

Fully 40,000 people yesterday viewed the remains of Jefferson Davis, lying in state in the City Hall at New Orleans. At nearly all of the churches allusions were made to his death. The Secretary of War will make no official action upon the subject.

New Orleans, December 8.—Many churches held memorial services in honor of Jefferson Davis to-day, principally the Protestant Episcopal, Catholic, Methodist and Presbyterian. Bishop Keener, of the Methodist Church, related anecdotes of the deceased, especially as a visitor to the annual seashore camping. Bishop Gallaher, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, who will be in charge of the funeral, did not preach any sermon. Besides those he is specially mentioned as assistants, he will be assisted by Dr. Markham, Presbyterian; Father Huber, Catholic, and Dr. Bakewell and Martin, Protestant Episcopal.

WASHINGTON, December 8.—The following telegram was received to-day by Secretary Foster: NEW ORLEANS, December 8, 1890. To the Honorable Secretary of War, Washington, D. C. I have officially to inform you that the Hon. Jefferson Davis, at one time Secretary of War of the United States, died in this city yesterday. His funeral will take place here on December 11 at 12 o'clock.

WAR DEPARTMENT. In response thereto, Secretary Foster tonight sent the following message to the Hon. James A. Shakspeare, Mayor of New Orleans: "Rock of Ages." The body will be taken to the cemetery, a distance of about three miles on a caisson and the vast procession will be held there.

A surprised choir will sing the anthem "Rock of Ages." The body will be taken to the cemetery, a distance of about three miles on a caisson and the vast procession will be held there.

A MARSHAL'S FACE SLAPPED. Because He Said Davis Should be Buried in the Potter's Field.

NEW ORLEANS, December 8.—A big question was created in the lobby of the Hotel Ruffier this evening, by W. A. McCorkle, a Virginian and a very prominent attorney, slapping the face of United States Marshal S. S. White. There was a big crowd of politicians and officials in the hotel, and the talk turned on the death of Jefferson Davis.

White remarked that Davis ought to be buried in the Potter's field. McCorkle refused the remark, and when White refused to apologize his face was slapped. McCorkle publicly announced he would give White any satisfaction he might want at any time.

TACKLED AS A SPEAK-BABY. John Beck Met His Waterloo in Lawrenceville Last Night.

At 7:30 last night Captain Brophy and Lieutenant Orth, of the Lawrenceville police district, raided an alleged speak-easy kept by John Beck, on the corner of Charlotte and Third-fifth streets. Beck and Mrs. Beck and 12 visitors were arrested and placed in the Seventeenth ward station. Captain Brophy reports Beck's place as being one of the worst in that part of the city. He has warned them time and again to quit, but his warning has been unheeded. Yesterday, it is said, hundreds of men visited the house and secured drink.

COLONEL HARDY'S EULOGY. He viewed him in the early days of his vigorous manhood at his hospitable home at Briarwood, where the great Father of Waters dwelt.

NEW YORK, December 8.—In response to a call from John C. Calhoun, President of the late Southern Society, about 100 members assembled in the private dining room of the New York Hotel this afternoon to draft resolutions touching the death of Jefferson Davis, to hear some informal tributes to his memory, and to arrange for a memorial funeral service to be held in this city at the same hour that the New Orleans ceremonies take place.

F. C. Morehead, son of Governor Morehead, of Kentucky, who was a classmate of Jefferson Davis at West Point, introduced General J. C. Calhoun, who was appointed Chairman, and stated the purpose of the meeting. In behalf of the representatives of the State of Mississippi present, Colonel W. H. Hardy spoke for that State with great feeling at his eulogy. He said:

Ask for Ivory Soap and insist upon having it. 'Tis sold everywhere.

A Thoughtful One. Everybody's looking eagerly holidayward. The stores must, too.

We follow your lead with the practical thought of our business. We have the best of clothing to sell.

We're not afraid such nearby, sensible and serviceable presents as Suits and Overcoats will be forgotten. Are they not whispering their claim in your ear the whole day long?

Let us keep goodness, excellence, beauty, every word that means good value, before us in this holiday time, Brush mean goods aside!

Such Clothing as we sell needs no throwing in of trinkets, or even such ponderous affairs as guns, clocks, watches, vases, sleds, skates—to raise its value.

We are asking you to consider only how good our clothing is! how low it is in price! what a pleasure it will give the receiver by its merit what a delight to the giver by its fair price!

If it's bought at a venture, without knowing exact size, we'll exchange for clothing that is, or return the money.
