

DRIVEN BACK BY FIRE

Another Attempt to Open the Burning Hill Farm Mine Fails.

A CONTRACTOR SKIPS WITH CASH

That Should Have Gone to Many Hard-Working Laborers.

RECORD OF EVENTS IN THREE STATES

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

DUNBAR, September 25.—The fire in the Hill Farm mine is still a difficult problem to solve. The mine was again opened at the first of this week, and another attempt was made to drop the fire out, but this morning it is closed until other necessary repairs are received for the present plan of putting it out. The fire smolders, and apparently goes out, but breaks out anew whenever air is admitted.

Contractor Skips Out, Leaving Many Laborers in Distress.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. PARKERSBURG, September 25.—Jefferson Steel, of the firm of Devers & Steel, contractors on the Ripley Railroad, drew the firm's money and left hundreds of workmen, mechanics and others in the lurch. He was followed from Ravenswood to this city and a large amount of money furnished in bank here. Steel came through overland and got here today and found that the money was gone. He paid the creditors who were here several thousand dollars and drew the rest and jumped out to New York, leaving thousands of dollars in debt behind him. Advice from Jackson county today that a large number of laborers and others are left in great distress.

STILL OUT ON A STRIKE

The Iron Miners Helped by Friends in the Struggle.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SCOTTSVILLE, September 25.—Late reports received to-day from the Iron coal regions state both parties are still confident of winning. A second lot of the imported men who were to have taken the places of the strikers will be shipped away to-night or to-morrow. The miners are again feeling the effects of the long and bitter fight, as they have issued an appeal for aid. Several of the coke region assemblies have responded by making liberal donations. Vice president Turner, of the United Mine Workers, is still there. Every move of both men and their former employers are reported here to the labor leaders, who are watching the situation closely.

A SILVER-HAIRED CRIMINAL

He is Sentenced to Four Years in Prison for Stealing.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. FINDLAY, September 25.—John Valentine, who was caught in the act of stealing cigars from the store of Philip Deets, went before Judge Ridgely this evening and pleaded guilty. The judge sentenced him to four years at hard labor in the penitentiary. Valentine is about 50 years of age and his hair is as white as snow. In his remarks to the judge he admitted that he was an old offender and that he had served one year's term in the penitentiary, having been sent from Toledo for stealing cattle.

SHE FACED DEATH INSTEAD

Fears of the Inmate Assailant Drove Miss Henry to Kill Herself.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. FALLSBURG, Pa., September 25.—This morning Miss Sarah J. Henry, 55 years old, the daughter of the late Hon. William Henry, committed suicide by shooting herself through the heart. She has been in ill health for a year. Some months ago arrangements were made to take her to Philadelphia. She conceived the idea that it was the purpose of her relatives to place her in an insane asylum and she shot herself.

SELLING OUT TO A SYNDICATE

Land Owners Disposing of Many Acres to Enterprising Capitalists.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. PARKERSBURG, September 25.—Almost every acre of land from this city to Lock No. 1, three miles above, fronting on the river, has been bought by a syndicate. Much of the land adjoining and in the rear of the river front lands and options on other property has been secured. The whole affair is a big manufacturing and speculative deal of a syndicate with plenty of money.

KILLED UNDER A LOAD

Samuel Evans Smothered to Death by the Weight of a Hay Wagon.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WAYNESBURG, September 25.—Samuel Evans, a prominent citizen residing near Mt. Morris, this county, was instantly killed yesterday when he was engaged in hauling a load of hay to Mt. Morris when the load was a half hour before he was smothered to death. He was 60 years old.

BACK AGAIN TO WORK

National Pipe Foundry Employees Declare the Strike Off.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SCOTTSVILLE, September 25.—The strike at the National Pipe Foundry has been declared off, and all of the employees have returned to work. The strike of the train runners for a 50 cent advance, which caused the idleness of the entire plant, has been given up, and the men are at work at old rates.

A Mysterious Death

CANTON, September 25.—Charles Aylesworth, who is said to have attempted suicide, says he was given drugged whiskey. He is in a dying condition. Some time ago his wife sued for a divorce, when he became at-tentive to a young lady here. He was a liberal inheritance.

He Branded Thins as Rascals

CARROLLTON, O., September 25.—The different farmers' alliances and granges of this county held a picnic. Over 4,000 were there. President S. P. Ellis denounced Jay Gould, the Vanderbilts, Astors and other moneyed men as swindlers and rascals.

He Was Elected a Member

SCOTTSVILLE, September 25.—The Executive Presbytery, which has been meeting at Dunbar, adjourned last night. Rev. Lytle, the newly-elected minister of the Presbyterian congregation in this place, was elected a member of the Presbytery.

The Burning Pit Flooded

SCOTTSVILLE, September 25.—The fire in the Charlotte mines here is still burning. The pit was flooded yesterday, and it is thought the fire will go out in a day or two. The loss is enormous.

Lee Kils a Child

CANTON, September 25.—The 5-year-old child of Anthony Shaffer, unobserved by the mother to-day, drank a cupful of oil, and died soon after in terrible agony.

Robbed in a Hotel

HUNTSVILLE, Pa., September 25.—John Gertz, of Greene county, and a drove of cattle here was robbed of over $2,000 at a hotel in the night.

Tri-State Breveliers

THIRTEEN robbed Squire James Calvert, at Beaver, of $25.

CAL LIGHT, aged 12 years, fell from a chestnut tree and may die.

THE PITTSBURGH and Bellevue Coal Company, of Greene county, sold a drove of cattle here and was robbed of over $2,000 at a hotel in the night.
