

OVER IN ALLEGHENY.

License Judges Hear the Applicants From the Northside.

FIRST THREE WARDS COMPLETED.

A Barber Indignantly Denies That He Is an Anarchist.

ALL THE NEWS OF THE COUNTY COURTS

The License Court hearings were resumed yesterday, when the applications from the first three wards of Allegheny were heard. An unusually large number of witnesses were on hand, among them E. J. Fox, of Allegheny, who is credited with having conducted the Liberal League campaign against Judge Slagle, who is now sitting on the License Court bench. There was also a changed complexion in the make-up of the crowd. Chief Murphy, ex-Mayor Pearson, "Squire Brinker, Major Tyler, E. H. Eggers, H. W. Ahlers and other prominent politicians and citizens were among the witnesses.

The Fourth to the Seventh wards inclusive, of Allegheny, will be heard to-day, and an effort will be made to complete the city by to-morrow evening.

Frederick and Philip Ariz, 65 Federal street, were the first Allegheny applicants heard. The court record showed that Philip Ariz had, in 1886, sold liquor at Ross Grove.

The Fate of a Peace-maker. John J. Dougherty, 63 Locock street, had five witnesses to prove his good character. Mr. Christy wanted to know if the applicant didn't have some trouble with the police. Mr. Dougherty explained that he had interfered and stopped two officers from beating a prisoner and was shot in the leg accidentally. He had no fuss or trouble with the police since.

Thomas Byrne, 84 Irwin avenue, had to face a re-moanance which charged that he had been a nuisance to men of temperate habits.

Amos Bryner, 173 Federal street, had 12 witnesses to testify to his good character. A re-moanance against the applicant charged that there was only one room in the place and it was used as a billiard room. It was frequented by a large number of men. Detective Hesser and others testified that the house was disorderly and that was gambling on billiards.

Joseph Carson, Taylor and Irwin avenues, had a re-moanance against him charging that he had no lease on the premises. James Donahue, another applicant for the same house, said that he was in possession and had a verbal lease. Mr. Carson produced a written lease and the court took the papers.

Last Year's Unpaid License Court. Margaret Dorn, 73 Jackson street, the first female applicant of the day, admitted that she was refused last year because she kept a disorderly house and sold liquor. Charles W. Smith applies for 104 Irwin avenue, a house formerly occupied by the Hanover Fishing Club. The applicant said that he ordered the club to move out as soon as he learned of the opinion of such clubs and the club moved.

Charles F. Faulhaber, of 92 East street, was the first man that ran against a stumbling block at the afternoon session. Mr. Christy tried to get a re-moanance against him, but the applicant denied the allegation.

Joseph Geier, 60 James street, has had a license since 1876, with the exception of 1887 and 1888. He admitted that a house owned by him farther up the street was raided during the past year, but he claimed the tenants had been in the house before he bought it and he was in no way responsible for the trouble. Mr. Geier had a record of a man named Joseph Geier having been indicted once for obstructing a legal process, but Mr. Geier said he had never been used for anything.

A Man of Perseverance. Frank C. Gray has been refused three times on Spring Garden, and is trying this time at 141 and 143 Chestnut street. Attorney Long represented E. W. Golmer, of 57 Ohio street, and ex-Lieutenant Clark, of Police force, and Major Tyler were character witnesses.

The capture of Martin Heitzel's house was the large number of witnesses he called to establish the necessity of a saloon at 34 Third street. Theodore Buckstein, of the corner of North avenue and East street, was refused last year because he had been charged with selling liquor to minors.

He explained that the charge was made by a man who had been a speaker, who had induced a young man to buy liquor from the applicant in order to bring it against him in the License Court.

Lorenz Lattner presented himself with 14 witnesses. Attorney Long and W. M. E. Eggers, of the bar, appeared against him and tried to prove that the applicant had run a speak-easy for the last two years. Detective Hesser said the place had had that reputation, and Mr. Lattner had been indicted three times for selling liquor to minors.

Charles Oehlert, of 109 and 111 Second street, is a new applicant. There was a speak-easy in his house but as soon as he found it out, he had the tenants put out.

A County Employee Wants a License. Henry Piaz, one of the hall men at the Court House, is an applicant at 62 East street.

Conrad Rosmer, 185 Ohio street, has been refused once, and Mr. Christy tried to show that the applicant had been running a poker room for the last year.

Mathias Steuss, 209 Ohio street, has been running a shooting gallery, and admitted that he permits shooting for prizes.

George J. Shaefer, 71 East street, who has a barber shop, is a new applicant. Mr. Christy—"You are what is commonly called an Anarchist, are you not?"

Mr. Shaefer (indignantly)—"No, sir."

"Have you not expressed belief in the principles advocated by Herr Most?"

"No, sir," excitedly.

"Have you not addressed meetings at which you advocated those principles?"

"No, sir."

"Have you not engaged in discussion on the subject of anarchism in your barber shop?"

"Well, some times."

"Isn't it almost a continual subject for discussion?"

H. W. Eggers, the druggist, was asked if the applicant's reputation was not that of an Anarchist, but he replied that he thought him more of a Socialist.

Attorney Moser—"Well, he's the owner of $20,000 worth of property; I wish we had more Anarchists like him."

Christy Failed to Make His Point. Mr. Christy attempted to show that people of a questionable character frequent the place of A. T. Thornton, of 41 Middle street, but he failed. A number of witnesses testified that the place was the quietest in the ward and that the applicant is all right.

The Fourth ward was reached at 5:30. It was the intention of the Court to hear the first 24 applicants, but Mr. Christy was found to be too much for them and they adjourned.

The following applicants were examined without anything of interest being developed: First ward—August Brown, Robert Campbell, W. H. Leiser, Joseph Mulligan, Edward Morris, Frederick Wagon, Frederick Guesler, James M. Davison, James M. Hays, W. E. Michaels, Charles Quinn and Hugh Sweeney, Henry and Charles Schreiber.

WORK IN THE FIELDS.

The Oil Report for the Month Leads Toward the Bull Pen.

SMALL DECLINE AT EVERY POINT.

More Doing at McDonald Than in All the Other Pools Combined.

DRY HOLES IN THE LITTLE FIELDS.

The work in the various oil fields during the month just ended shows a decrease in every feature of the business. There is one exception. The average size of the wells has increased from 55 1/2 barrels to 58. Outside of the Southwest district, of which McDonald is the leading pool, there is almost a shutdown. In Butler county a few energetic operators are still at work, but in the territory to the northeast of Butler the new work is so scattered that it is almost imperceptible.

The increase in the average size of the wells is due principally to the opening of a bigger fifth sand production at McDonald. In February the great majority of the wells struck were Gordon sands, with usually a small output, while in March some good fifth sand runs have been tapped with a consequent improvement in the capacity of the wells.

The decline during March has been so small, however, that the report can be said to be only bordering on the bullish. It has not gone so far in that direction that the gay tauri will be justified in giving vent to more than ordinary exultation.

There are several wells out of the sand in the McDonald field, but none of them were drilled in yesterday. They will probably reach the surface in a few days.

The following estimates were submitted by the gagers of the southwestern Pennsylvania Pipe Line Company:
