Barnum's Arabs Think Americans Are in League With Satan.

CAPTURE OF A REAL MAN-EATING TIGER

Barnum & Bailey's circus arrived yesterday. Over 7,000 good people and two Law and Order detectives were on hand to greet the greatest show on earth.

The show did not arrive until 4:30. It came from Harrisburg in six trains hauled by 12 engines. All afternoon the crowds had waited, and when the first section came in sight, cheer on cheer followed.

As soon as the train stopped first were lighted in the cook wagons and the chimneys were pouring out volumes of smoke before they were taken from the cars.

The great feature of the show this year came from the Sultan of Morocco, Ismail, the Algerian Arab. They are high clan Moslems, known as Berbers, and are under the management of Hassan Ben Ali, World's Fair Commissioner for Morocco and Algeria.

The Sultan then relented and permitted the Moslems to come to America, and appropriated $100,000 to make an exhibit. Ben Hassan was also given one of the emirates from the royal harem.

When the show was in Washington Press Agent Foster took the opportunity to see the President. When they entered they fell into the arms of the Sultan and the Sultan.

Ben Hassan explained to them the cars were run by electricity, but as they could not see how it was done they decided the car was pushed along by invisible forces.

How Paper is Made. The letter qualities of paper are made from rags. To change the rags from cotton or linen to paper, they are treated with a solution of alkali (concentrated lye) which attacks the fiber and reduces the rags to a pulp from which the paper is produced by passing it through a series of rolls.

Walker's Family Soap contains no free alkali; it has all been washed out. It has been analyzed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's chemist and found to be neutral and harmless, and is used by the company on that account.

Sacrifice Pianos. In order to make room for a special stock of pianos now arriving, we will offer a portion of our present stock at unusually low prices.
