

NO SHOW ON SUNDAY

And No Liquor at Any Time at the World's Fair in Chicago

IF THE SENATE CAN STOP BOTH.

Quay's Moral Amendment Carried by Good-Sized Majority.

NOT A BIG VOTE AGAINST LIQUORS

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The exhibition of the World's Fair is to be closed on Sunday, and no liquors are to be sold on the grounds if any of the $5,000,000 appropriated by the United States is to be available. So said the Senate today. Thus Sabbath-breaking is condemned and prohibition gets a majority in the Senate of the United States in a single breath.

Out of 65 Senators only 14 voted for a free Sunday, but out of 34, 26 voted in favor of permitting the sale of liquor within the walls of the Exposition. It will be seen that many who voted for Sunday closing in the interest of morality voted for the sale of liquor—also, it may be assumed, in the interests of morality. Among these were Senators Cameron and Quay, of Pennsylvania. Sunday closing was commanded by a majority next to unanimous. Prohibition won by a scratch on a much smaller vote, many of the Senators dodging.

Hypocrisy of Many Congressmen.

Knowing the temper and opinions of most of the Senators, as everyone does who sits in the galleries daily and sees these men in their ordinary and sometimes extraordinary movements about the city, one can hardly write patiently of these things. Senator Quay may be credited, in explanation of his Sunday closing amendment, with a desire to pay a tender tribute to the memory of a loving father, who was an orthodox clergyman. I think Senator Morgan was harsh through ignorance when he yesterday charged that the Senator was moved by a desire to do something that would enhance his chances for a possible reelection. Other Senators may have been actuated by sentiments as delicate and commendable as those of Senator Quay, but it is pretty safe to assume that, the merits of the question aside, most of the speeches and the Sunday closing issue was entirely hypocritical, and for effect upon pious constituents. To those who know of this character there is little use in the Senate posing as a Christian Endeavor Society.

The House Thrown into a Fever.

This action of the Senate today has placed the House in the fever of perturbation. The House rejected a general Sunday closing clause and thrust prohibition aside with contempt. Now it will again have to wrestle with both subjects, and with the elections nearer at hand than before.

It is a most distressing situation, and a cruelty to animals on the part of the Senate which should call for the interposition of humane societies. Senators are elected for six years, and for their election go to members of the Legislature, who are not easily affected by moral questions. Representatives are elected for two years, and must play fast and loose with the consciences of their constituents, and the members of the Legislature, who are not easily affected by moral questions.

It will be interesting to see the moral and religious House wrestle with subjects passed over so trippingly in the pious Senate. If the House follows in the wake of the Senate, Chicago threatens to reject the whole appropriation, subscribe the money itself, and let the local management set the moral pace of the exposition in accordance with the well-known morals of Chicago.

QUAY'S POINT CARRIED.

The Senate Refuses to Give Chicago Financial Aid if the Big Fair Is to Be Open on Sunday—No Liquor Must Be Sold at Any Time.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The friends of a due observance of Sunday and the friends of temperance have alike much reason to be satisfied with the action of the Senate today on the provision for issuing, in aid of the World's Columbian Exposition, 10,000,000 souvenir half dollars. The amendment offered by Mr. Quay, coupling with that provision the condition that the Exposition shall not be opened on Sundays, was carried by a large majority, and one offered by Mr. Peffer, prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within the Exposition grounds, was carried by a majority of two. The main proposition, as reported from the Committee on Appropriations, was agreed to without a division.

All of this action, however, was in committee of the whole, and will be subject to change when the bill is reported back to the Senate. There will certainly be an effort to defeat, at least, Mr. Peffer's amendment.

Without any morning business the sundry civil appropriation bill was taken up—the pending question being Mr. Quay's Sunday-closing amendment to the section providing for the issue of 10,000,000 souvenir half dollars in aid of the Columbian Exposition, speeches to be limited to five minutes.

On a Eleven Votes For Opening.

Mr. Peffer gave notice of a substitute to the section appropriating $5,000,000 on condition of an agreement being entered into for repayment of the amount within two years. Mr. Sanders moved to lay Mr. Quay's amendment on the table. Rejected—Yeas, 11; nays, 45. The Senators voting to lay on the table were Messrs. Bidwell, Carlisle, Daniel, Gibson (Maryland), Palmer, Hutton, Peffer, Sanders, Sawyer, Vilas and Vest.

Mr. Quay's amendment was then agreed to without a division.

Mr. Peffer offered an amendment to add to the section a provision prohibiting the sale or giving away of intoxicating liquors on the Exposition grounds, except for medicinal, mechanical or scientific purposes. Mr. Peffer subsequently modified the amendment by making it apply merely to the sale of liquor.

Mr. Vest ridiculed the amendment and said that the "eminent reformer" who had taken hold of the matter ought, in order to be consistent, to include "cigarette smoking" in their denunciation, it being much more to be deprecated than the drinking of a glass of beer or wine. But the whole thing was rank hypocrisy and Senators knew it—rank hypocrisy.

Morality Begins at Home.

If Senators wanted to commence such reforms, asked the speaker, why did they not commence them right in the Capitol? Every Senator knew that he could go to the Senate restaurant and get all the liquor he wanted—if he had the money to pay for it. [Laughter.] He could buy it, too, from a citizen of Maine, the headquarters of prohibition. The Committee on Rules did not attack it; the Senator from Pennsylvania, who had recently got up on a pedestal as a great moral reformer, did not attack it. The question was taken and Mr. Peffer's anti-liquor amendment was agreed to—Yeas, 28; nays, 26. The following is the vote in detail:

Yeas—Messrs. Allen, Allison, Carey, Chandler, Colquhoun, Cullom, Dolph, Felton, Frye, Hale, Hoar, Hiram, Hawley, Hiram, Hiram, Jones (Arkansas), Jones (Nebraska), Mitchell, Paddock, Palmer, Peffer, Perkins, Sawyer, Vest, Vilas, and Wood.

Nays—Messrs. Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Bidwell, Brown, Cameron, Clark, Coker, Coke, Daniel, George, Gibson (Louisiana), Gibson (Maryland), Gray, Hill, Hutton, Keam, Manderson, Quay, Sawyer, Vest, Voorhees, Wallhall and White—26.

Mr. Allison moved an amendment, which was agreed to, limiting the gross expenditure for medals, clerical services, etc., to $500,000.

Still Another Amendment Rejected.

Mr. White offered an amendment giving the United States priority precedence in the repayment of the sums advanced, except as to a future subscription of $3,000,000 that may be made by the people of Chicago, and as to which the subscribers shall be ratably entitled with the United States.

After a long discussion Mr. White's amendment was rejected—Yeas, 20; nays, 38. The motion was then taken on the amendment and the Exposition amendment was agreed to—Yeas, 51; nays, 14. The Senators voting "nay" were Messrs. Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Bidwell, Butler, Carlisle, Coker, Coke, George, Harris, Irby, Jones (Arkansas), Vest and Wallhall.

As agreed to finally, the World's Fair amendment provides for the recoupage from the unexpended abraded subsidiary coin of $5,000,000 in half-dollar silver souvenir pieces, which are to be paid out to the Columbian Exposition monthly, upon estimates approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, for material and labor, after ascertaining that the sum of $10,000,000 has been collected and disbursed, and that provision has been made, or will be made by the proper authorities, for the closing of the Exposition on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, and after guaranteeing any further sum necessary to complete the Exposition will be provided by the corporation. The sum of $10,000,000 is appropriated to meet the expense of recoupage.

Against the Sale of Liquors.

The sale of intoxicating liquors on the Exposition grounds shall be prohibited, except for medicinal, mechanical and scientific purposes, and detailed vouchers and statements of receipts showing monthly expenditures are required to be filed with the Secretary of the Treasury.

The commission is to meet all expenses of the departments of the exhibition, juries, judges, committees and clerks, the gross expenditure for medals, diplomas, committee awards, judges and jurists, etc., being limited to $500,000. From the net receipts of the Exposition the Government is to receive such proportion as the appropriation made by the bill bears to the stockholders and the city of Chicago's subscriptions. Lastly, provision is made for the procurement of medals and diplomas.

Mr. Peffer offered an amendment, which was agreed to, for the appointment of the Exposition Commission of two additional commissioners and alternates from the five civilized tribes of Indians.

The only other question that provoked much discussion on the sundry civil appropriation bill was an amendment to provide a site for the Government printing office in Washington. The discussion upon it was not half concluded when the Senate adjourned, but there was a unanimous consent given that after 3 o'clock to-morrow all debate on the bill and amendments shall be conducted under the five-minute rule.

REAR ADMIRAL ARRESTED.

He Was Inmate and Looking for Mayor

Officer Ketter arrested an old man at 2 o'clock yesterday morning who was prowling about the streets looking for Mayor Gourley and had made his way into Strawberry alley. He attacked the officer and several citizens who came to the rescue, declaring that he was "Rear Admiral Rodgers" and would perish before he would surrender. At the station he was very violent and yesterday his friends who live on the Southside were sent for. They consented to his removal to the City Home and Detective Coulson and Fitzgerald took him there with some difficulty yesterday afternoon.
