

DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY AND WEEKLY, At No. 912 1/2 Main Street, Richmond, Va.

We are glad that the honest and manly declaration of principles made by the Republican party has smothered the sly old foxes of Democracy out of their holes, and compelled them to come into the light in the presence of honest, intelligent men.

We state, that this is untrue, and again assert that the rates of taxation, up to the coming in of this present detestable Democratic State administration, was thirty cents on the hundred dollars, and that by that administration it was increased, and it is now fifty cents on the hundred dollars, and not only so but this enormous increase will leave a deficiency of about one million of dollars to be provided for in the future.

It has always been regarded as a lasting disgrace to our Father Adam, that, when arraigned by infinite justice for his first great crime, like a sneaking coward, he undertook to defend himself by saying, "The woman whom thou gavest to be with me gave me of the tree and I did eat."

It practically says yes, it is true, the bill is wrong, it does bleed the suffering people of the State for the benefit of these mercenary, but the Democracy are not to blame, for Republicans voted for the bill.

Now we are glad that your backs do smart, the rod has been long in pickle for you, and we are glad to hear you offer such a pitiful excuse.

You know that the majority in a Legislature is always, and justly, held responsible for all the vicious legislation, and claims justly the honor and benefit of all that is wise.

Since the Republican victories a number of Democratic papers, including several at the South, advocate the breaking up of the Democratic organization, and a union with all anti-Republican elements of the country.

There are not opposing elements enough in the country to defeat the Republicans in the next Presidential election, even if they could be harmoniously united in one party, which is a manifest impossibility.

There are not opposing elements enough in the country to defeat the Republicans in the next Presidential election, even if they could be harmoniously united in one party, which is a manifest impossibility.

There are not opposing elements enough in the country to defeat the Republicans in the next Presidential election, even if they could be harmoniously united in one party, which is a manifest impossibility.

There are not opposing elements enough in the country to defeat the Republicans in the next Presidential election, even if they could be harmoniously united in one party, which is a manifest impossibility.

There are not opposing elements enough in the country to defeat the Republicans in the next Presidential election, even if they could be harmoniously united in one party, which is a manifest impossibility.

The Daily Journal.

RICHMOND, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 29, 1871. VOL. III. NO. 270.

found productive of suffering and ruin, on trial, let every man be brave enough to acknowledge his mistake, and labor to repair it.

We had the pleasure of a call from Gen. Rufus Barringer, of Charlotte North Carolina.

Gen. Barringer was a gallant Confederate soldier in the late war, but accepted its results and is now practicing law at Charlotte.

He is not an office-holder or an office-seeker.

He informs us that the Ku-Klux law and the vigorous execution of the trials are having a healthy effect in his State.

He emphatically states that very few of the Ku-Klux are Confederate soldiers.

Most of them are cowardly ruffians, who shirked responsibilities during the war, and now try to redeem themselves by these diabolical proceedings, lest they should be suspected of Northern sympathies.

A powerful force of detectives are still at work, and we may expect still more astounding results.

JUDGE GRAY, OF FAIRFAX.

We find in the Liberal Citizen, of Alexandria, the following notice of John H. Gray, Esq., the Republican nominee of Fairfax county for the Assembly.

Mr. Gray is our friend and neighbor, and we hope to see him elected by an emphatic majority. The Citizen says:

All parties acquainted with the Judge admit his peculiar fitness for that important position. Judge Gray has been one of the Supervisors of Fairfax County for the past two years, and has satisfactorily proved himself a working member.

There are not opposing elements enough in the country to defeat the Republicans in the next Presidential election, even if they could be harmoniously united in one party, which is a manifest impossibility.

There are not opposing elements enough in the country to defeat the Republicans in the next Presidential election, even if they could be harmoniously united in one party, which is a manifest impossibility.

There are not opposing elements enough in the country to defeat the Republicans in the next Presidential election, even if they could be harmoniously united in one party, which is a manifest impossibility.

There are not opposing elements enough in the country to defeat the Republicans in the next Presidential election, even if they could be harmoniously united in one party, which is a manifest impossibility.

There are not opposing elements enough in the country to defeat the Republicans in the next Presidential election, even if they could be harmoniously united in one party, which is a manifest impossibility.

will swell his income and contribute to his comfort and enjoyment.

We are glad to know that Mr. Buck is not the only gentleman in Virginia who is turning his attention to this important subject.

The Leesburg Washingtonian reports the following in respect to Major Williams, of Fairfax, which we take pleasure in copying:

FRUITS AND GRAPES.—Major Williams, of Vienna, Fairfax county, exhibited at the Loudoun fair a number of specimens of apples raised by him, which were shown as a display of the varieties adapted to cultivation in this section of Virginia.

It is his opinion that the wild grapes of our hills and forests contain the germs from which, by cultivation, can be produced a wine grape equal to the best in Europe.

Could not some of our enterprising and intelligent grape growers of Loudoun, find on the Cotochin and Blue Ridge Mountains, a grape which could be reared from its wild state, and made a joy and comfort to the grape producers of our county?

GENERAL NEWS.

Nebraskans who neglect to vote are ridden on a rail.

New Albany ladies walk up to bars and call for a little sugar in theirs.

Gloves are rather deeper in tone and higher in price than last season.

Thayer, of circus fame, is about to enter the political ring in Pennsylvania.

An unruly lover was cowed by his prospective mother-in-law in Cincinnati.

Mr. Howe, of Lebanon, N. H., aged eighty-five, took his first railroad ride last week.

A Florida colored woman rock-a-bye'd her infant to sleep with a dose of laudanum.

Venison is eight cents a pound in Wisconsin, and "deer" at that.—Boston Post.

"Yankee Doodle" is often played now-a-days by English bands, and is very popular.

A wood-pile fell and forced a Detroit man against a circular saw. He was cut in two.

The gloom of a Missouri funeral was alleviated by an impromptu jig by an insane man.

The Hartford Times mourns that the only sparrows in the park are spare rows of benches.

Southern saloonists have formed a syndicate to put the price of drinks down to ten cents.

A Massachusetts psychologist has mesmerized an inebriate out of his appetite for liquor.

A Hartford friend advised a slender friend to chalk his head and go to a masquerade as a billiard cue.

Some Troy Sons of Temperance seasoned their oysters with whisky, by mistake, instead of vinegar.

Mr. Kerr, of Kansas went to bed upon a roof, and on waking up on the sidewalk made some Kerry remarks.

St. Louis gamblers are out with a circular setting forth the great losses to the city occasioned by the suppression of gambling.

Three audacious attempted burglary in Greenfield, Ind., and were cordially welcomed with a little shot-gun by the affable proprietor.

James Neely, of Ohio, enjoyed the greatest satisfaction in his last moments, by refusing to tell his weeping family where he had buried $15,000 in coin.

A Vermont paper speaks of a minister who had resigned his "pastorate." His last sermon might have had for its text, "All flesh is grass!"—Boston Post.

With the completion of the European North American railway from Bangor to St. John, on the 18th of October, the ocean transit to Europe will be reduced five days.

An eccentric clergyman lately said in one of his sermons, that "about the commonest proof we have that a man is made of clay is the brick so often found in his hat."

Miss King, who has tasted tea in every part of China, says Americans will never get the best tea until they are willing to bid as high for it as the Russians, who now monopolize the finest growths.

The Queen of Belgium is a better horse-woman than scholar. Her trained horses recently awoke the professional enthusiasm of Ernest Benz, a famous circus rider of Brussels, who declared them much better educated than herself.

The ex-king of Spain, the consort of the deposed Queen Isabella, is stated to be a very skillful turner and wood carver, and spends several hours every day in making small images of saints out of wood. He can out-whittle any Yankee.

In one county of Kansas alone there are 121 acres of castor beans under cultivation, and Greeley thinks it needs no mathematician to show that the crop will supply castors to every bedstead in the United States.

Laura De Force Gordon insisted, in a recent lecture at Stockton, California, that she was "an American citizen over twenty-one years of age," which provoked a crusty and disgusted benedict to exclaim, "You bet you are!" Sensation in the audience.

JOHN W. WOLTZ, News and City Editor.

LOCAL MATTERS.

For the Senate. Hon. J. R. POPEHAM, WILLIAM TROY, JOHN WOODWORTH.

For the House. D. W. BOHANNON, C. W. MILLS, HORACE L. KENT, HENRY MILLER, JOHN BRANKIN.

OUR CANDIDATES.—We invite the attention of the voters of Richmond and Henrico, to the names, character and standing of the gentlemen composing the ticket of the Republican party.

They have been selected because of their worth and merit and their ability to make a vigorous campaign against those who have been selected by the Hibernianites.—in fact because they have the disposition to make the far fly.

ENLISTED FOR THE WAR.—We accept the gage of battle thrown down by the Evening News, and hoist the flag of our standard bearers, and nail it to the top of our columns. His attention is directed to the fight and he is determined to make the coming one "red hot."

THE CONSERVATIVE TICKET.—After the manipulation of the rings they succeeded in nominating a very milk-and-water ticket, possessing no real strength.

Mr. Doolley is a promising young lawyer, a member of most of the Catholic associations in this city, and was put on to catch the Irish and Roman Catholic vote.

The funniest bait thrown out was the candidate to catch the German and Jew vote—Billy Lovenstein.

Mr. Gilman is a gentleman and an orator, and has attained celebrity, but like "Poor Ray" he is in sorry company and may suffer.

J. Thompson Brown, an amiable young mechanic, and vice president of the Trades Union, was put on to catch Republican members of the Trades Union.

Mr. Doolley is a promising young lawyer, a member of most of the Catholic associations in this city, and was put on to catch the Irish and Roman Catholic vote.

The funniest bait thrown out was the candidate to catch the German and Jew vote—Billy Lovenstein.

Mr. Gilman is a gentleman and an orator, and has attained celebrity, but like "Poor Ray" he is in sorry company and may suffer.

J. Thompson Brown, an amiable young mechanic, and vice president of the Trades Union, was put on to catch Republican members of the Trades Union.

Mr. Doolley is a promising young lawyer, a member of most of the Catholic associations in this city, and was put on to catch the Irish and Roman Catholic vote.

The funniest bait thrown out was the candidate to catch the German and Jew vote—Billy Lovenstein.

Mr. Gilman is a gentleman and an orator, and has attained celebrity, but like "Poor Ray" he is in sorry company and may suffer.

J. Thompson Brown, an amiable young mechanic, and vice president of the Trades Union, was put on to catch Republican members of the Trades Union.

Mr. Doolley is a promising young lawyer, a member of most of the Catholic associations in this city, and was put on to catch the Irish and Roman Catholic vote.

The funniest bait thrown out was the candidate to catch the German and Jew vote—Billy Lovenstein.

Mr. Gilman is a gentleman and an orator, and has attained celebrity, but like "Poor Ray" he is in sorry company and may suffer.

J. Thompson Brown, an amiable young mechanic, and vice president of the Trades Union, was put on to catch Republican members of the Trades Union.

Mr. Doolley is a promising young lawyer, a member of most of the Catholic associations in this city, and was put on to catch the Irish and Roman Catholic vote.

The funniest bait thrown out was the candidate to catch the German and Jew vote—Billy Lovenstein.

Mr. Gilman is a gentleman and an orator, and has attained celebrity, but like "Poor Ray" he is in sorry company and may suffer.

J. Thompson Brown, an amiable young mechanic, and vice president of the Trades Union, was put on to catch Republican members of the Trades Union.

Mr. Doolley is a promising young lawyer, a member of most of the Catholic associations in this city, and was put on to catch the Irish and Roman Catholic vote.

The funniest bait thrown out was the candidate to catch the German and Jew vote—Billy Lovenstein.

Mr. Gilman is a gentleman and an orator, and has attained celebrity, but like "Poor Ray" he is in sorry company and may suffer.

J. Thompson Brown, an amiable young mechanic, and vice president of the Trades Union, was put on to catch Republican members of the Trades Union.

Mr. Doolley is a promising young lawyer, a member of most of the Catholic associations in this city, and was put on to catch the Irish and Roman Catholic vote.

The funniest bait thrown out was the candidate to catch the German and Jew vote—Billy Lovenstein.

Mr. Gilman is a gentleman and an orator, and has attained celebrity, but like "Poor Ray" he is in sorry company and may suffer.

J. Thompson Brown, an amiable young mechanic, and vice president of the Trades Union, was put on to catch Republican members of the Trades Union.

Mr. Doolley is a promising young lawyer, a member of most of the Catholic associations in this city, and was put on to catch the Irish and Roman Catholic vote.

Local Notes.

—E. W. Mason was yesterday appointed notary public for Frederickburg.

—The Baltimore Sun says Jeff. Davis, who is now in that City, is expected to reside there permanently.

—Mr. Joseph Delarue, of this City has recently invented and patented a machine for cutting and engraving revenue stamps.

—The up freight train on the Danville road ran off the track yesterday morning when about eight miles beyond Richmond.

—Ten new tenements, suitable for families of moderate means, are soon to be erected on Pine street, in what is known as the Hollywood field.

—There will be a public temperance meeting held in Clay Street M. E. church next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

—The City Council will meet on Monday evening next, probably in the new Chamber, in Washington Hall, the preparation of which, under the order of Council, is rapidly approaching completion.

—Miss Susan L. F. Smith, formerly of "Maude," gave a recitation of Tennyson's "Maud," a few days since, to an appreciative audience in Paul's Methodist Chapel, New York City.

—To the ISRAELITES.—During the haste of Wednesday, when most of us were engaged in watching the proceeding of the convention, a communication, signed "Conservative," appeared in the columns of the JOURNAL.

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

DISAPPOINTMENT.—Desperation.—Expected Suicide.—It requires the experience of a school-boy of the past, to appreciate the disappointment which was felt when, on Friday night, he had fastened new hooks to his lines, secured a cup of worms, and filled his snail-bucket; or when he had washed out his gun, oiled the lock, filled his pouch and flask with powder and shot; and then awoke Saturday morning and find it pouring down rain, with no power to stop it.

Our souls were then tried, nor have we ever felt the keenness of disappointment so severely since, until this morning.

Here we have been since the 1st of last May, anxiously toiling to find something to please our readers. Worrying our mind, and fatiguing our body, have been but few of the trials incidental to the life of contributing to a newspaper.

We have sweated and sworn, blustered about, have received kicks and cuffs, and taunts, have written, read and reread our articles, have read news-papers until we are sick and tired of them—we are surprised, grieved and feel as if we could dispense with news for at least twenty months.

Pencils are sharpening, brains are at work, and our enemies sitting on their armor ready to battle with us for victory. We know we are to pass through hail, rain, thunder and lightning, and possibly to get a bunged eye, broken nose or smashed countenance generally.

Considering all these things, we had better obtain a fourlough for a week, to begin immediately after the adjournment of our Convention.

We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our coming;

—We had already packed our carpet-bag (though not a bagger); written to our friends in the blue mountains to look out for us; had notified the trout, pheasants, and deer to beware of our