By virtue of a decree of the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Virginia, rendered the 17th day of April, 1871, in the matter of Fletcher H. Mays, bankrupt, I will sell, as assignee of said bankrupt, the under-mentioned real estate, at public auction, at the Junction Store, in said county of Boteourt, to the highest bidder, on all of the REAL ESTATE of said bankrupt rendered in his schedules, (except the Junction Store farm, containing 140 acres, which will not be offered for sale.) The real estate to be sold consists of the following tracts or parcels of land, to wit:

THURSDAY, 26th OF OCTOBER, 1871,

No. 1.—Containing EIGHTEEN ACRES OF LAND, adjoining said Junction Store farm, situated on the turnpike road, leading from Fincastle to Covington. None of this land has been cleared.

No. 2.—Containing THIRTY-EIGHT ACRES, on Patterson creek, adjoining the lands of said Junction Store farm and Samuel Riddick's, situated in the long draft. None of this land has been cleared.

No. 3.—Containing FIFTEEN AND A HALF ACRES OF LAND, on the northeast side of James river. Upon this land there is a good cabin, and it is in a good state of cultivation. The soil is good, and the power, a great and saw-mill having been at one time in successful operation upon it. (The mills have been burned.)

No. 4.—Containing FOUR HUNDRED AND FIFTY ACRES, more or less, on the north side of James river, and near to the river. This tract contains a large portion of good tobacco land as any in Virginia, and well watered, and the soil is in cultivation. The remainder is heavily timbered, and is situated below the junction of Craig's creek with James river, and within half a mile of the river.

No. 5.—Containing EIGHTY-FIVE ACRES, situated on the banks of James river, above the mouth of Craig's creek. This land is all in timber, and well watered, and the soil is in cultivation. This tract has been in part constructed above this point, runs through this tract and the said tract of 155 acres and by the tract of 450 acres.

No. 6.—Containing FOUR HUNDRED AND FORTY-SEVEN ACRES, north of Craig's creek, above the junction of said creek with James river, and adjoining the lands of Pettigrew, the heirs of Anderson and the heirs of James River for nearly a mile and a half; is a valuable acquisition to either of said farms.

No. 7.—Containing THREE HUNDRED ACRES, on the west side of James river, below the mouth of Craig's creek. This is a good farm, with from 75 to 100 acres in cultivation. Has some improvements and a small orchard. Is situated on the banks of James river for nearly a mile and a half, and is one of the best bodies of gray stone between Covington and Richmond.

No. 8.—Contains FOUR THOUSAND ACRES, more or less, chiefly situated on the waters of Patterson creek, adjoining the Junction Store farm. This large tract lies between Caldwell's and Craig Creek mountains, is some eight miles in length, and is one of the best bodies of gray stone upon this farm, and is justly regarded as the best range for stock in the country. This land will be sold as a whole, or in tracts of five or six hundred acres, to suit purchasers, and so laid off as to give purchasers farming lands on the creek and access to the mountain land from mountain to mountain. This survey divides the "Barley survey" or the lands sold in New York by Francis V. Sutton in 1868 or 1867, and if the purchasers of that land wish to make their purchases valuable they will do well to attend this sale.

TERMS—One-fourth of the purchase money cash; the residue in one, two and three years, the purchaser to give notes, with interest added from day of sale, for the deferred payments. Title to be retained until all the purchase money is paid, with power reserved to the court to rescind in case default is made in any payment or any part thereof.

The land is sold free from all liens and encumbrances. Assignee of F. M. Figgatt.
