OPPOSITION TO FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.

This was the tenor of R. T. Daniel's speech when he accepted the Conservative nomination, and alluded to the triumph of the Pennsylvania Central railroad over that close corporation, the Fredericksburg railroad, of which Mr. Daniel is counsel, to the triumph of the same company over Monocure Robinson, Commodore McCready and their allies, who for years have imposed heavy burdens on the people of Richmond, and tried to divert commerce from their city to its great detriment.

No matter how humble the individual or how unpretending the position occupied, the performance of a solemn duty brings quiet and repose. It invites sleep—sweet sleep that brings rest to the weary.

Every sensible man, free from prejudice, knows it is his duty to vote against the branch concern of Tweed, Hoffman, Sweeney, & Co. To vote for Democracy is to endorse the "head office." To do so is to rob yourself, your children, and the State of her prosperity.

To vote the Republican ticket is to quiet your conscience, and elevate to power men who will guard your dearest rights, and the interests of your State.

Be advised by us then, for once. Get up early, catch the Democratic worm, mash his ugly head, vote at least once, vote right, tell your neighbor to do likewise, hunt up the doubting, assist the lame to the polls, ask the sick to take an extra dose of physic, (be sure it is not Democratic, for that would be nauseating) and let you drive him in a carriage to the polls; in short, see that no man who can vote stays away. Do your WHOLE DUTY to-morrow, and you will see as you have never slept before.

EVERYBODY in Richmond should vote the Republican ticket. Men of property ought, because the men on our ticket are men of property themselves, and what would hurt them would hurt equally upon themselves. Men of no property ought, because our men are liberal and favor measures of relief for the poor. The candidates of Democracy own but little, if any property, and may do you harm which would not affect them.

Several of them are Know Nothings, and have been charged with cruel and vindictive speeches against foreign-born citizens. Know Nothingness—Know Nothing all ways; and if you entrust power to them and the opportunity ever occurs they will not hesitate to persecute foreigners.

Come up, then, native and foreigner, white and black, and vote for the candidates of the Republican party, who are known to be gentlemen of high character and standing and of liberal and enlarged views.

Let the poor man consider well before he supports the ticket of aristocracy.

William Parker, convicted at a late term of Guilford Superior Court with a colored man named Alfred, who has been respited by Governor Caldwell till December, of the murder of an old colored man, Tom Price, last December, was executed at Greensboro on Friday last. He denied the killing to the last, and insisted that Price was torn to death by dogs.

Massachusetts Races.

Boston, November 4.—The races at Mystic Park to-day commenced with a hurdle race—3 miles over 8 hurdles for all ages—purse, $700. It was won by Astronomer.

Vesuvius was the favorite at the start, but while jumping the fourth hurdle in the first mile struck it, throwing his rider, causing him serious injury. The time of the race was 3:57; said to be the fastest hurdle race on record by a quarter of a second.

The second race for a purse of $300, dash of one mile, for all ages, was won by Tulman. Time, 1:46.

The third race, for a purse of $800, two-mile heats, was won by Alroy. Time, 3:42, 3:51.

To-morrow, the 7th, elections will take place in nine States—Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, New Jersey, New York, Virginia, and Wisconsin.

These jurors are summoned to attend court on Wednesday.

BRANCH OFFICE TO ILLUMINATE.—The branch concern of Tweed, Sweeney & Co., are to have a grand torch-light procession to-night, and will send up a number of sky-rockets, besides "busting a few cabbage-heads."

This concern (we mean the head-centre) has recently met with a mishap, and although it was found impossible, in the last Legislature to discover the big thieves of the branch office, the people of the State will condemn, by their vote to-morrow, all their aids and abettors, by discarding Boss Tweed's tools, and replacing them with honest and capable men.

"Go up like a sky-rocket and come down like a stick," we pray you.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—The Grand Lodge of Good Templars of Virginia will hold its fourth annual session in Alexandria, commencing on Wednesday, November 15th. A full representation from each subordinate lodge in the State is expected, besides many visitors.

REPUBLICAN MEETING IN JACKSON WARD.—Republicans of Jackson ward will meet to-night at Jasper's church, promptly at 8 o'clock.

THE STATE CONVENTION OF DISCIPLINES.—At the meeting on Saturday, Elders R. Y. Henly, J. A. Dearborn, L. A. Cutler, W. H. Clemmitt and Charles McGrunder were elected to constitute a State Board. Elder G. W. Abell was elected corresponding secretary. The same officers constituting the present Ministers' Society were re-elected.

Resolutions were passed thanking the First, Second and Third Baptist churches of Richmond, and the Baptist church of Manchester, for tendering the use of their houses of worship; thanking the Disciples and citizens of Richmond for entertaining the brethren and other visitors, and the different railroad companies for their kindness in allowing delegates to the Convention free return passes over their several railroads.

Col. John B. Cary, Elders J. A. Dearborn, M. Garnett, C. Bullard, and A. B. Walthall, were appointed as delegates to the American Missionary Society to be held in the city of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Elder L. A. Cutler was appointed a delegate to the North Carolina State Convention to be held in the city of Kingston in October, 1872.

On motion, it was resolved that the time and place of the next meeting of the State Convention be decided by the State Board.

The committee appointed to draft a suitable set of resolutions on the life and death of Elders Shelburn, Goss, and Parish, reported appropriate resolutions, which were adopted.

After a short night session, the Convention adjourned to meet at such time and place as the State Board shall select.

DISTRICT SCHOOL TRUSTEES.—The following district school trustees have been appointed in addition to those already published:

Albemarle County.—All the one-year trustees have been re-appointed.

Boleford (Amherst district).—Wm. E. Eaker vice Benjamin Moonard; term expired. In the other districts the one-year trustees are re-appointed.

Flory (Little River district).—Joseph D. Sowers, re-appointed. Owen Wade, Henry Showalter, Benjamin P. Elliott, Hosea Wimmer and Wm. T. Lester have been appointed in place of one-year trustees in Burk's Fork, Indian Valley, Jacksonville, Locust Grove and Alum Ridge districts respectively.

King William County.—The one-year trustees have been re-appointed.

Lancaster County.—In Pleasant Grove District, Dr. William Passmore has been re-appointed. In Rehoboth, Columbian Grove, Loch Leven, Brown's Store, and Lewiston districts, P. J. Wallace, J. W. Overby, Samuel A. Place, Samuel Hill, and R. W. Bragg have been appointed in place of the one-year trustees.

If the working man would have schools and colleges erected for the education of his children, vote for the Republican candidates.

ALLEGED CONTEMPT OF COURT.—The case of ex-Governor H. H. Wells vs. the Commonwealth, was commenced by Judge Green, on Saturday, before the Court of Appeals, and was resumed to-day. This is likely to be regarded as one of the celebrated cases. It will be remembered that Judge Wingfield imprisoned Thorp H. Nance, for alleged contempt of court, for proceeding in bankruptcy and compelling his creditors to settle their claims and priorities in that court, rather than in the State court. Nance was not only imprisoned, but was ordered to stand committed until he discontinued his case in the United States Court. He was, however, subsequently released, and by the decision of Judge Rives, of the United States district Court of the Western district, the whole proceeding before Judge Wingfield's court was held to be null and void.

In addition to the proceeding against Nance, Judge Wingfield advising Gov. Wells for contempt of court in advising Nance to proceed in the United States Court, but instead of going to the Federal Court he has chosen to appeal to the Supreme Court of Appeals of the State, with a view of determining that tribunal whether such a monstrous outrage upon the rights of a client and counsel, can with impunity, be perpetrated under State law and in State tribunals.

If you admire partisan legislation, and the election of a corrupt partisan judiciary, fail to vote the Republican ticket.

IMPORTANT TO CITIZENS OF BROAD STREET.—The candidates of the Republican party in this city earnestly favor the passage of an act by the next Legislature, compelling the Richmond and Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad to remove its depot and track from Broad street. They will use their endeavors to secure the votes of every Republican in both houses for such a measure.

Its longer continuance on Broad street is a civic shame and wrong.

If no sense of justice exists in this monopoly, let the next Legislature teach it to them.

An enraged father seeks his fallen daughter—Falling to find her, He becomes Desperate and Attempts to Commit Murder. This morning about 11 o'clock, Thomas Carroll, an Irishman of this city, entered the bar-room kept by Isabella Rix, No. 2223 Main street, and demanded to see his daughter, Rosa, who for some time had been an occupant of the house.

On being informed she had left the place, Mr. Carroll became so enraged that he drew a pistol and fired through a door leading into a room occupied by several females, fortunately, inflicting no damage. One of them, Isabella Rix, fled into the street, followed by Carroll, who fired upon her, shooting her through the right arm. But for her taking refuge in an adjoining grocery she would, doubtless, have been killed by the desperate father. After wandering this woman, he fired several times at parties occupying windows in the house. He was arrested by citizens, and delivered by them into the hands of the authorities, and will, doubtless, be tried to-morrow.

"THE COLUMBIAN CLUB OF THE UNITED ORDER OF AMERICANS." This is an active association of Native Americans and Protestants, organized by James R. Fisher, Esq., to manage and control the election in this city. None but Native Americans and Protestants are admitted and put on guard. It is the germ of a re-organization of Know Nothingism.

Thomas H. Wynne, who was the Know Nothing candidate for Mayor here some years ago, and R. T. Daniel, a most active Know Nothing in years gone by, we are informed, are the moving spirits in this new secret Order.

Local Notes.

—Wyman is exciting the Petersburgers this week, opening to-night.

—A correspondent of the Scientific American has discovered "how to see under water." We imagine the discovery will be of no practical utility, unless it enables the submerged to see how to get out.

If foreigners would elevate Know-Nothingism to power, let them vote for Tom Wynne, who was the Know-Nothing candidate for Mayor, and Raleigh T. Daniel, who said he would never permit a foreigner to vote.

POLICE COURT.—Justice J. J. White presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Miles Crowdis, charged with unlawfully detaining 85 cents in currency, the property of Bettie Collins. Dismissed.

Melvin Banks, charged with trespassing upon the premises of David Tellen, and removing therefrom clothing to the value of two dollars. Dismissed, as a matter for civil action.

P. H. Morgan, charged with trespassing upon the premises of Thomas York, and also with threatening the life of York. Bound over on his own recognizance in the sum of $50 for three months.

Alex. Anderson and John Ross, charged with being disorderly on the streets. Discharged.

Andrew Tinsley, charged with being drunk and disorderly on the streets. Fined $1.

Minnie Epps, charged with being drunk and disorderly on the streets. Fined $2.

The Democrats are constantly blowing about "carpet-baggers" owning no property in the State. Does any one of their number, who has lived here all his life, own $500 worth of property in Virginia?

The Republicans of Chesterfield have already had created for them, by Democracy, a monument as enduring as the existence of that party. The horrid thing stands with its bloody arms stretching forth ready to grasp the hands of its victims, while its extended claws seem switching to fester the feet of the poor and helpless.

He who is embraced by it, need stand waiting but for a moment to hear the bloody lash as it whines through the air, and cuts through the flesh of its victim. This is the cruel, barbarous and savage whipping post of Democracy. It is no fancy picture, but a living reality. There it stands a disgrace to the present enlightened age, and yet it is the child of Virginia slavery.

The second Tweed, with his stolen plunder, helped to pay for the erection of these infernal machines in Virginia. There they will stand as long as Democracy reigns in Virginia. If there is a dissatisfied Republican in Chesterfield who doubts the propriety of casting his ballot in favor of the Republican candidates, let him remember his instrument of torture, let him behold in it the mendacity of Democracy, and then say, if he can stand back. Not for this alone, but because the ticket is a good one, is reason sufficient for it to receive the support of every Republican. He who can lay aside his personal preferences and march straight up to duty is as great a hero as the victor of many battles.

Let every man in Chesterfield, Richmond and elsewhere do his duty to-morrow, as it is but another struggle between slavery and freedom.

If you would have the whipping post, gilder, longer to rot over you, fail to cast your vote for the Republican ticket.

VIRGINIA NURSERY AND WINE COMPANY.—As will be seen by a change in the advertisement in our paper, John M. Allan, Esq., has been appointed sole general agent of the Virginia Nursery and Wine Company, office in the Columbian Block, corner of Thirteenth and Cary streets, this city.

AN ENRAGED FATHER SEEKS HIS FALLEN DAUGHTER—Falling to find her, He becomes Desperate and Attempts to Commit Murder. This morning about 11 o'clock, Thomas Carroll, an Irishman of this city, entered the bar-room kept by Isabella Rix, No. 2223 Main street, and demanded to see his daughter, Rosa, who for some time had been an occupant of the house.

On being informed she had left the place, Mr. Carroll became so enraged that he drew a pistol and fired through a door leading into a room occupied by several females, fortunately, inflicting no damage. One of them, Isabella Rix, fled into the street, followed by Carroll, who fired upon her, shooting her through the right arm. But for her taking refuge in an adjoining grocery she would, doubtless, have been killed by the desperate father. After wandering this woman, he fired several times at parties occupying windows in the house. He was arrested by citizens, and delivered by them into the hands of the authorities, and will, doubtless, be tried to-morrow.

EXCLUDED.—We received yesterday, several communications in reference to Republican meetings, which are excluded on account of pressure of election matters.

THE STARS AND STRIPES.—We are glad to see the Conservatives at their mass meetings making such a profuse display of the Old Flag. Their band wagons and the horses' heads, we have observed, are decorated with the glorious Stars and Stripes, and their speakers' stands are wrapped with the national banner. It is a sign that they are discarding their old secession sentiments, and an evidence that they wish to be loyal citizens. We congratulate James R. Fisher, President of the Columbian Club of the Order of United Americans, on this change of sentiment towards the Old Flag—long may it wave; it is good for sore eyes to see it carried about by ex-Confederates.

THE ILLUSTRATED NEWS.—The Evening News has become an illustrated paper, and contains in its Saturday edition, a picture of "mixed free-schools"—that is, it is a representation of what its editor supposes will be some of the results.

Wade still has a weakness for illustrated papers, caused by his long connection with one during the war. The first attempt
