The "State Journal" will be delivered the same evening at a publication in any part of the city or Manchester by retail or subscription. Name and address sent to our office, 912-1-2 3rd street, and in Petersburg if sent with our agent there; and can always be found on sale in this city at Jobson's, 218 1/2 1st street; Wyatt & Minor's, 817 Broad street; Stand at Ford's hotel; Leon Schaepp's, 1402 Main street, and at our counter.

BROAD STREET AGAIN.

The committee appointed by the meeting held at Schach's Hall, a few nights ago, will present a petition to the city council to-night praying for the removal of the railroad track from Broad street, even if it is found necessary to that end to purchase the depot property. The question of the purchase is the subject of a well written article in the Anzeiger of Saturday morning. That paper expresses confidence in the willingness of the council to give the subject such consideration as its importance demands. The Anzeiger says:

"Assuming that the depot can be bought for $100,000 of city bonds, within a short time the interest on this sum would be liquidated by means of the augmented revenues resulting from the steadily increasing value of real estate in this part of the city. Should the city make no use of this acquired property, by erecting thereon a city hall, a market-house, or any other public building, but elect to resell, it is presumed that this valuable real property would find buyers at or near the price paid for it by the city. Even a loss at such a sale cannot, however, be taken into consideration, since the removal of the depot and track is demanded by the common weal, and since for the security of life and property unusual sacrifices are justifiable. Whilst in purchasing the real estate with bonds the city would have to provide for the interest during three or four years, and for the redemption of the bonds at the expiration of that time, the city could by reselling the property have in the treasury within three years, at the farthest, the entire amount realized by the selling price. The Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac company refuses to pay taxes on its real property, and is in continuous contention with the city council; whereas, with the purchase of the depot, the interest of the city would expand, and an important and powerful company be changed from opponents to friends; and the company would in the erection of a new depot disburse among our business men and mechanics every cent of the amount received by them from the city."

MONTHLY MEETING OF THE METHODIST S. S. SOCIETY.

This society held its regular monthly meeting at Clay-street church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. T. L. D. Walford, president, in the chair; Charles P. Rady, secretary. The meeting was opened with singing by Clay-street school and prayer by Rev. W. G. Lumpkin. Rev. A. C. Biedose then addressed the meeting; subject, "Work in the Sunday-school for all." He urged upon the members of the church the importance of entering Sunday-schools and stated that it presented a field peculiarly adapted to all persons. He was followed by the Rev. John E. Edwards; subject, "The magnitude of the Sunday-school work." He said the cause was great in its territory, great in the truths taught, great in the number of the great in the results accomplished. He stated that the Sunday-schools throughout the world contained about 7,000,000 scholars, enough, placed in a line about twenty-two inches apart, to make a belt around the earth, and marched at the rate of ten miles a day, would require seven years to pass a given point. He gave a glowing description of the Sunday-school work. Rev. J. C. Strawberry made the closing address, and though addressed particularly to the little ones, it was food for all; subject, "Do right because God tells you it is your duty. Little things show a man's character; hence the scriptural injunction to be 'faithful in the least.' Other pertinent illustrations were made of this subject. During the exercises Miss Alice Jordan sang a beautiful ditty called "Life's Lot." Miss Alice Jordan also sang a very pretty solo, with chorus by the school. The singing was under the leadership of Mr. John W. Cardwell. The meeting was largely attended and the exercises exceedingly interesting. The rolls did not indicate as large an attendance as very inclement weather, owing to the during the previous month, owing to the very inclement weather. Broad-street school showed an average attendance of sixty-six per cent, which was the largest.

HOW A CHURCH DEBT WAS LIFTED IN MANCHESTER.

—Yesterday Rev. A. E. Dickinson began a three months' pastorate in Manchester. After the morning sermon he came down on the corner of 2d and Twelfth streets, to-day unearthed several metallic burial cases, supposed to have belonged to the stock of John A. Belvin, whose establishment stood upon the spot at one time, but was burned during the great fire of 1865.

SEVERE STORM.

—A gentleman who came through from Alexandria by the Orange and Alexandria road last night informs us that a severe tornado night prior to the one which we experienced in this city and Gordonsville. All the lights in the train were extinguished by the wind, and the track was obstructed in many places by branches from the trees. He says it was one of the severest wind storms he ever encountered.

TILL ROBBERY IN MANCHESTER.

—The money drawer in the drug store of Dr. Broadnax, on Hull street, Manchester, was robbed about nine o'clock last night. The doctor was sitting in the back room, reading at the time, and so quietly did the thief manage the affair, that the proprietor had not noticed him until he found that he was being perpetrated upon him, until he found his cash account short some fifteen or twenty dollars.

BURIAL CASES UNEARTHED.

—The workmen engaged in excavating for a new building at the corner of 2d and Twelfth streets, to-day unearthed several metallic burial cases, supposed to have belonged to the stock of John A. Belvin, whose establishment stood upon the spot at one time, but was burned during the great fire of 1865.

Dickinson and H. G. Crews. The exercises throughout were highly interesting.

ATTEMPT TO ROB A SHOE STORE.

—Last night an attempt was made to break into the store of John C. Page, Jr., 1421 Main street. The glass in a back door was broken to enable the thief to reach the lock and bolts, and but for a large padlock on the door, an entrance would have been thus effected. A large glass above the door was also broken, and an effort made to cut out a panel of the door. It is thought the thief was frightened away before accomplishing his purpose.

COMPLIMENT TO VIRGINIA TROOPS.

—We learn that President Grant, in reviewing the military, made especial notice as he passed the two Richmond companies as he held the subject in a special manner. Such a clapping of hands was never heard.— Raleigh (N. C.) Era.

WE FIND THE ABOVE COPIED INTO THE RICHMOND WHIG.

So far as we are informed, there was not a single military company from Richmond in Washington on inauguration day.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.

—A colored woman named Millie Anne fell upon the pavement on Franklin street, in front of Dr. Otis F. Mansons's, about nine o'clock last night, apparently in a dying condition. After some delay she was carried into Dr. Mansons's parlor, at the request of Mrs. Mansons, and medical aid summoned. Soon after being placed in the room, however, she was found to be dead. It is thought that she died of heart disease.

Father Kane, pastor of the Catholic church at Harper's Ferry, is making a tour of the diocese for the purpose of raising funds to aid in rebuilding the Catholic church at Bath, Morgan county, West Virginia, which was burned during the war. He preached at St. Peter's cathedral yesterday morning, and at the conclusion of his sermon a collection was taken up for the purpose mentioned, realizing a handsome sum.

SERVICES AT THE CATHEDRAL.

—The Right Rev. Bishop Gibbons preached a very able and interesting sermon last night on the subject of "The Scriptures as a Rule of Faith, and What the Church has done for the Scriptures." His audience was large, the cathedral being completely filled. The singing by the choir, which has been recently reorganized, was very fine, showing decided improvement in their solos and choruses.

BENEFIT OF CLAY-STREET CHURCH.

—Professor George R. Harding's fine Biorama of scenes in Europe and America will be exhibited at the Clay-street Methodist church, for the benefit of that church, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. This exhibition is one of the most interesting and popular now before the people, and the friends of the church and the public generally should not fail to see it.

LOBERT DALE, MADISON COUNTY, VA.

We have been using a Willcox & Gibbs Machine for three years, doing all the sewing for a large family. It has given perfect satisfaction in every respect. The work done on it is no more liable to rip than work done by hand with the same care. We have examined many other kinds of machines and their work, and have no hesitation in saying we consider the Willcox & Gibbs decidedly superior to any of them. LUCY H. GORDON. ELLA I. WILLIS.

BOYDTON, VA.

I have long desired a Willcox & Gibbs Machine. We have a double-headed machine, but cannot manage it. I propose to exchange for one of yours. M. E. CARTER.
