GRAPE GROWING IN THE SOUTH
L. A. Burkhardt, of Covington, Georgia, furnishes Colman's Rural World with the following:

It is grape growing, a success or a failure in the south. The above question is not as yet decided. The general opinion is grape growing is a failure save Scuppernon...

For the benefit of those who desire to raise grapes, we will give the result of several varieties which we have planted in our vineyard: Concord—perfectly healthy; very vigorous and productive; no sign of any disease...
