NEWS IN BRIEF.

THE PYTHIANS MEET IN PORTSMOUTH.

The thirty-first annual session of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias of Virginia will be held in Portsmouth, beginning Tuesday night, February 28th, and will doubtless continue in session until Thursday night.

Colonel Robert Catlett, of Lexington, who has filled all positions up to that which he now holds—Grand Vice-Chancellor—will be promoted to the highest position within the gift of the order, that of Grand Chancellor. Colonel Catlett is a well-known lawyer of Lexington, being Commonwealth's Attorney. He is an ex-member of the Virginia Legislature, and is identified with all that tends to advance the cause of Pythianism.—Richmond Times.

INTERESTING PAPER FOUND.

The original subscription paper for the building of the first church in Lexington has recently been brought to light. The paper is dated February 22nd, 1796, and contains the names of forty-five subscribers. The amounts opposite their names are expressed in pounds, shillings and pence, and foot up about $2,500, which was a large contribution for the people of that time. The church was located in the present cemetery not far from the main entrance. That church was used by the Presbyterians until 1844, when their present church was erected.

NEAR DROWNING.

Frank Dillon, the twelve-year-old son of Mrs. Edward P. Dillon, broke through the ice Saturday afternoon while skating on North river and had a narrow escape from being drowned. He had gone down twice when Cadet Wright, a member of the Fourth class at the Virginia Military Institute, rushed to his rescue, and throwing himself at full length on the ice grasped the boy's hand as he arose the second time and drew him out. Young Dillon was taken home in a buggy.

V. M. I. NOTES.

The cadets in the barracks of the Virginia Military Institute find guard duty rather severe these nights. The regular guard has been lessened somewhat and only one sentinel is kept posted after taps.

The first class with the exception of two members, have reported for duty and are performing their penalty in a manly manner. Performing penalty tours of guard duty with the thermometer around zero is quite severe, and the boys are paying dearly for their fun.

At the beginning of the second session several new cadets were enrolled for the second time.

The new radiators which were installed here last summer are in operation and are keeping the barracks in a very comfortable manner.

As a mark of respect towards their dead comrade, Cadet Burgdorf, of Washington, who died here a short while ago, the entire corps are wearing a band of crepe on the left sleeve of their uniforms.

THE ROBBINS HAVE COME.

In a sign of spring, a flock of robbers came into town to-day.

A LOVELY ENTERTAINMENT.

The Ring-Tum-Phil.

The reception given by President and Mrs. William Lyne Wilson to their friends and to the students of the University, last Tuesday evening was another one of the handsome entertainments that have marked the present season and have made it so joyful. The weather was so inclement that many had to send their regrets but most of the invited hastened to avail themselves of the pleasure that they knew was in store for them. So there was a continual stream of callers all evening and the spacious parlors were kept comfortably filled with Lexington's "brightest and best."

The house is well adapted to entertaining and the whole lower floor was thrown into one large room, but arrangements for tele-phones for those so inclined had not been overlooked.

There were no special decorations but the home was cheerfully lighted and the handsome portraits which adorn the walls and the dainty taste shown everywhere were the delight of many an eye.

The V. M. I. orchestra which was stationed in the hall added much to the gaiety of the occasion, and throughout the evening delicious light refreshments were served in the dining room.

Miss Annie R. White presided at one of the smaller tables and served delightful cafe frappe to the many callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson standing just inside the parlor door received their guests most graciously and were ably assisted by their daughters, Misses Mary and Bettie, two of Lexington's charming belles. Others who assisted in receiving were Miss Nettie Preston, Miss Sue Wellford, of Richmond, and Miss Rosa Tucker.

The affair was a success from beginning to end, was complete in every appointment and will long be remembered as one of the handsomest entertainments known to Lexington society.

Among those present in the earlier part of the evening besides the receipt party were: Dr. Reid White and wife, Professor Addison Hoge and wife, Col. Hunter Pendleton, Dr. Hall and wife, Dr. McBryde and wife, John L. Campbell, R. R. Witt and wife, Maj. Mallory and wife, Judge Letcher, Professor Willis, H. St. G. Tucker and wife, Professor Stevens, Jos. Turner, of Roanoke, Professor W. K. Vance, Professor Chas. A. Graves, B. Estes Vaughan, Wm. M. McElwee, Major Morgan, M. B. Corso and wife, Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. Hill, Dr. James Lewis Howe and wife, Col. Wm. A. Anderson, Dr. Jas. A. Quarles, Mrs. Brocke, Brogton, S. B. Walker and wife and William G. A. G. W. Later in the evening were Misses Nettie Houston, Mary Moore, Dunlap, Watson, Mary Barely, Joseph Allan, Arnold, Martha Moore, Preston, Anna Anderson, Brockenbrough, Graves, Glasgow and White.

Meats: McIlhenny, Crebs, Preston, Withers, Barclay, Farrar, Cooke, K. mg, Capito, Cadets Polk and Ervey, Barrett, Marshall, Andrews, Ellet, Watson, McPheters, Shipp, Kirkpatrick, Martin, West, Bledsoe, Chermade, Garrow, Fishburne, Hamilton, Ar buckle, McNeill, Roach and others.

TERRIBLE STORM.

Beginning Saturday afternoon and continuing until Monday night one of the most terrific snow storms raged here of which the oldest inhabitant has any knowledge. During that time the thermometer hovered around zero, at night falling below that point and in the day rising a few degrees above. The lowest reached was on Thursday night when the government thermometer at Washington and Lee University registered 9 degrees below zero. At some other places around town 12 and 14 degrees below zero were reported.

The storm is general and reports of suffering come from all parts of the country. Some places in Virginia the thermometer was reported thirty degrees below zero.

The trains on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad were discontinued. On Monday it took the train from 4 o'clock in the morning to 10 in the afternoon to reach Harrisburg. Yesterday afternoon a passenger coach and express car were brought in, four engines being used as double headers. No mail was brought. Regular train service was resumed today. In some places along the valley snow had drifted, entirely filling the deep cuts along the road.

HELP NEEDED.

Much suffering is reported among the poor of our community during this stormy weather. Fuel is being furnished them by the town and the overseer of the poor is unable to supply the demands for something to eat. It would be a great blessing if the City Mission could reorganize and establish again the soup house. Great good was done and much suffering was relieved several years ago by this organization.

RAILROAD BUMOR.

It is said that the Cumberland Valley Railroad Company will extend its line from Winchester through this section. Their engineers have already made a survey through this county and have made a favorable report on the line. If rumor be true, work will commence on the new line in this county in the early spring.

Now let the Valley Railroad sell or give her right of way to this new road, if they will not build themselves. It would be to their interest to turn over their line from here to Salem to the Cumberland Valley people!

NEW VOTING PRECINCT.

The county court of Rockbridge, Judge W. P. Houston, presiding, at the February term held last week, established a new voting precinct in the Natural Bridge Magisterial District, to be known as Broad Creek precinct. The new precinct is composed of parts of Natural Bridge and Oak Bank precincts, the boundaries thereof being located by the court. The formation of the new precinct was made necessary on account of the remoteness of some of the residents from their respective voting places.

THE LEXINGTON CLUB.

The young men of Lexington have fitted up a suite of rooms in the McCrum building in handsome style and have organized a social club with the following officers: Mr. R. L. Owen, president, and Mr. Frank Moore, secretary and treasurer.

We are glad to learn of this, for to our mind nothing is more beneficial to young men than the opportunity to meet each other in social converse after the day's business is over.

All the leading daily papers and magazines will be found on the slub tables, and the rooms are supplied with all of the latest and most interesting games.

We wish the club long life and great success.

Unable to see from ECZEMA

I suffered with Eczema of the worst kind, my face and neck down to my shoulders were one inflammation, was not able to see out of my eyes for quite a while, and was unable to sleep for weeks, on account of the severe pain, which nearly drove me insane. My face and neck were swollen and made me look hideous. Had three doctors at different times, and not one of them could relieve me of my pain, swelling, and blotches. I used three bottles of CURICURA RESOLVENT, four boxes CURICURA (ointment), three boxes of CURICURA SOAP, and my friends and one of the doctors are surprised, and asked, "Who cured you?" and I tell them quickly, "CURICURA REMEDY." J. Y. RAYKA, March 1, 1897. 22 Schute St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Dr. Bull's COUGH SYRUP

Constant coughing is very annoying, and the continuous hacking and irritation will soon attack and injure the delicate lining of the throat and air passages. Take advice and use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in time. This wonderful remedy will cure you.

The annual meeting of the Lexington Fire Department which was to have been held last Monday night has been postponed until next Monday night, the 20th, at 7:30. A full attendance is desired.

The coal and wood dealers of Lexington are rushing with orders this cold weather. Additional carts and wagons have been in use and still the wants of the people could not be supplied. In many instances when the order could not be filled immediately the purchaser hired the hauling of his coal for fear he would not get it.

Dr. Bull's COUGH SYRUP Cures a Cough or Cold at once. Does not irritate the throat. Doctors recommend it. Price 25 cts. at all druggists.

"THE BOY COMPANY" (JUNIOR R. SERVICES.)

Prepared by Professor Duncan C. Lyle, of McDonogh, Md., and Captain J. P. Moore, of Lexington.

Early in August, 1864, the Rockbridge, Augusta and Rockingham County Reserves, consisting of old men from 45 to 50 and boys from 17 to 18 years of age, were ordered to rendezvous at Staunton, Va., for organization, equipment and drill. The Rockbridge boys were there formed into a separate company, as follows:

Charles W. Freeman, captain; Duncan C. Lyle, first lieutenant; Alexander F. Laird, second lieutenant; John C. Paxton, orderly sergeant; James Daley, Nathan Strickler, David Black, sergeants; Milton Swink, Schuyler B. Wright, corporals.

Privates—Joseph G. Baldwin, James B. Bell, Calvin Black, Isaac N. Campbell, John T. Campbell, John B. Cash, Schuyler B. Cash, Samuel J. Childress, Taylor Coffman, John Dixon, James C. Drain, Wm. Drawbond, Wm. M. Dunlap, Thomas Edwards, Robert H. Figgart, John Firebaugh, James A. Ford, Wm. Garland, John W. Gold, George Hensley, Henry Jessup, Thomas Johnston, Jacob P. Kahle, Samuel L. Kirkpatrick, J. Calvin Lam, Isaac Leech, Long, J. Moffett McClung, Robert E. McCown, Samuel McCown, John McCullough, Frank McCutchan, John Nutty, John Steele Parsons, Adolphus Paxton, Wm. Gordon Poague, J. Calvin Pring, Alfred Robertson, John Robertson, A. Wallace Ruff, Joseph G. Swartz, James Short, John P. Smith, J. Gerard Stuart, D. Gardiner Tyler, James A. Wilson, H. T. Wilson, Wm. H. White.

Thomas Harvey McGuffin, an old man, acted as commissary sergeant of the company.

All of the reserves, both senior and junior, were formed into a battalion under command of Major George Christman, of Rockingham county; of which Lieutenant Duncan C. Lyle, of the Rockbridge company, acted as adjutant.

After remaining a week or two at Staunton, the battalion was ordered to Camp Lee, at Richmond, Va., where it was further drilled, and a few days later went into camp at Manchester, and performed guard duty at Libby Prison, in Richmond, where Federal prisoners were confined.

Late in September or early in October, 1864, the battalion moved to the trenches below Richmond—to "Battery Field", about one mile north of James river and about the same distance south of where the First Rockbridge Artillery was stationed. Here the battalion remained in the trenches until about the middle of February, 1865, when it was broken into detachments and assigned to duty in the counties of Rockbridge, Augusta and Rockingham. The Rockbridge boys reported to Captain Mortimer Johnson, conscript officer of Rockbridge county, at Lexington, Va., and did guard duty, gathered up conscripts and deserters, and formed a line of couriers between Lexington and Lynchburg, where they were so engaged when the surrender came, in April, 1865.

The membership of the company of Junior Reserves was continually changing; which was due to the law requiring a boy when he became 17 years of age to connect himself with the reserves, and when a reserve became 18, to enlist in one of the companies in the regular service. But after the Junior Reserves were put alongside the regulars in the trenches below Richmond, few new members were added, and their number gradually diminished.

In May preceding the organization of the foregoing company, the reserves of Rockbridge, both senior and junior, were called into service to aid in checking the advance up the Valley of the Federal army under Major General David Hunter, and the names of the following boys are recalled as having rendered service at that time: David Black, Alexander Barger, Taylor Coffman, W. C. Daniels, Charles W. Freeman, John W. Gold, George Hensley, J. G. Montgomery, Warren Moore, Samuel P. Moore, Prosser, (a student), John P. Smith, Milton Swink, John P. Strider, J. C. Sanderfer, Mac. Smith, D. Gardiner Tyler, Samuel Wright, Thomas Watts.

The following named Senior Reserves were in service in May, 1864.—George Hill, George Hostetter, Andrew H. Lackey, Andrew Miller, Robert Montgomery, Abner W. Moore, William T. Moore, J. Westley McAleah, Calvin Ramsey, Jacob Sweet, R. C. Turpin, William Wilson, William G. Wright, Charlton Wallace, Samuel Wallace, James M. Webb. Other Senior Reserves served in this campaign, but their names cannot be recalled.

The last named Senior and Junior Reserves were engaged in the battle of Piedmont in the Valley of Virginia, at which battle occurred the following casualties:

SENIOR RESERVES.
Wounded—George Hill, (leg amputated), Andrew H. Lackey, (arm amputated), Calvin Ramsey.

JUNIOR RESERVES.
Killed—Warren Moore.
Wounded—Taylor Coffman.

A slight earthquake shock was felt here Monday morning between 4 and 5 o'clock. The papers report the disturbance in southwest Virginia, and in parts of Tennessee and North Carolina.

The papers throughout the country are suggesting that the birds be fed during this cold weather. Many of them are dying from cold and starvation. By a little trouble on the part of farmers and people generally the lives of many birds can be saved.

CLOVER SEED!

We have closed at the present low rates for a carload of Clover Seed, direct from the West. Price, a bushel. Speak quick if you want some reserved on the low market. Timothy, Orchard Grass, and Red Top seeds for sale, too.

$4 to $5

A carload of SALT now being received.

Thos. S. White & Son.

There is one thing certain, we cannot make money here if you don't. A lady said to us yesterday, "Your store is always so crowded that I feel shy about coming in." We responded, "Madam, this crowd is our very best advertisement." Not to give bargains is to lose customers, to deal justly and give bargains means a crowd. This crowd enables us to receive and buy more bargains every day in the week. Were it not for this crowd we would not have the great advantage of buying many things by the carload and by the original package. We could not sell you a 10 cent canson for 8 cents if we had not bought them by the case. And we had to buy a jobbers stock of White undergarments in order to sell them at 42c. up to $1.07; the 60c. to $1.50 counterpane. If polite to mention names you would certainly refer you to many ladies of Lexington who have already received the benefit of this huge counterpane purchase.

Had we not bought twenty bolts of gray homespun, 38-inch all-wool Dress Goods we could never sell it at 20c., a yard. Think of it, 38 inches wide, double thick; splendid for dresses, wrappers and undershirts. It would be cheap at 50 cents. Your inspection means a purchase.

Men's heavy-weight union Flannel Drawers at 25c. Men's heavy-weight Undershirts at 25, 40, and 50c. And all-wool, extra heavy, extra fine for $1 a garment. We will match this against any $1.50 garment you have seen. Babies' Undershirts, nice and snug at 10c. A very nice, cape, trimmed all around with braid for 75c. Beautiful $8 and $10 jackets reduced to 6c.75 and $7.75. A fresh supply of animal-headed Colored or Beas (the latest things out) for $1.50 to $8. Lovely $12.50 Capes, $9.75.
