What Days Shall be Observed as Christmas Holidays.

THE GAZETTE has been asked to publish the resolution adopted August 3rd, 1902, at the annual meeting of the County School Board, in relation to making the recess for teachers uniform during the Christmas holidays. The resolution was offered by Trustee G. W. Effinger, and is as follows: "Resolved, That the Christmas holidays in the future shall begin December 25th. The schools shall re-open on January 2nd, except when that day shall fall on Saturday or Sunday, then it shall be on the first Monday after New Year's Day." Agreeably to this resolution the schools will close on Wednesday evening, and will re-open on Friday the 2nd day of January.

Mr. J. H. Clemmer Dead.

Staunton Spectator: The death of Mr. James H. Clemmer occurred at his residence in Roanoke Tuesday, Nov. 25, at 11 o'clock. Mr. Clemmer belonged to the large connection of that name in this county. He was over 60 years old, and was born and raised at Fairfield, Rockbridge county, Va. He was a gallant Confederate soldier, a brother-in-law of Wm. S. Humphries of the Vesuvius Plow Works, and a brother of Misses Mary and Sallie Clemmer of Vesuvius. He had been sick of typhoid fever for a month or more. Mr. Humphries and Miss Sallie Clemmer were summoned to his bedside last Friday in the night and were with him till he died. He was buried in Roanoke Wednesday. He leaves a wife and grown son and daughter.

The Highland Recorder says that in an address at Monterey on education, Hon. H. St. Geo. Tucker stated that the idea of education is not along the lines of the three R's—reading, 'riting and rithmetic, but the three H method instead—educate the head, the heart and the hand.

Roanoke Times of Saturday: Miss Jennie Miller left yesterday for Lexington on a visit to Miss Nellie Dunlap—Godwin Figgatt, who for years held an important position in the auditor's office of the Norfolk and Western, but who is now engaged in the telephone business in Baltimore, is visiting in the city.

Mr. Henry Miley left today for New York to arrange for the manufacture of material for color photography. He will also attend the meeting Friday of the directors of the Miley Photograph Company, which was recently organized and incorporated under the laws of New York, for the purpose of bringing upon the market the color photography lately invented by Mr. M. Miley. A number of wealthy gentlemen are interested in the enterprise.

Richmond News of Friday: The Synod of Virginia referred back to the faculty of the seminary its proposition that the Synod appoint some one to visit the colleges and present the claims of the gospel ministry, with the recommendation that the faculty appoint the proposed visitor. The faculty has appointed the Rev. Dr. L. B. Turnbull, a member of the board, now living in Lexington, Va., but formerly pastor of Hoge Memorial church of this city.

Aged Couple Married.

A wedding of unusual interest took place at Hyattsville, Md., in Emmanuel M. E. church, South, Beltsville, when Miss Lizzie A. Beall, young daughter of the late John Beall of that county, became the wife of Dr. Charles G. Linthicum, residing near Branchville. The age of the bride is given as 60, while the groom is 75 years of age. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. D. Harper, presiding elder of the Baltimore M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. Mr. D. E. Chaney, pastor of Emmanuel church. This is the groom's second marriage, his first wife having been a Miss Perrie of Prince George county, Md., who died about two years ago. Dr. Linthicum has three married daughters and several grandchildren. He is a native of Virginia, where his family is widely known. Most of his life has been spent on his farm, about two miles east of Branchville. He is a retired minister of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. Dr. Linthicum was formerly pastor of Goshen and Rockbridge Bapts circuit in Rockbridge.

Fatal Accident at Buena Vista.

Robert W. Linkinbaker, a brakeman on the Norfolk and Western shifting train, which works between Buena Vista and Roanoke, hauling coal and coke for the furnace, fell between the cars of his train on the yard at Buena Vista Tuesday night Nov. 25. He was passing over his right leg at the knee, crushing it. Dr. Merriweather, in the absence of Dr. Mapp, the company's physician, amputated the injured limb. The injured man was immediately sent to the hospital at Roanoke where he died the following night. Mr. Linkinbaker was comparatively a young man and has been in the employment of the Norfolk and Western but a short time. He has two brothers with the same company, one an engineer, the other a conductor. The engineer, who is his brother, was pulling the train which hurt him.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her forlly herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds, and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at B. H. Gorrell's Drug Store, Lexington, Va. Get Green's Special Almanac. Special price on Candies, Nuts and Raisins in quantities at WADE MASTERS & CO.

Central Kerr's Creek.

Union Thanksgiving services were held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at Trinity Methodist church, the various churches of town uniting for the occasion. A large crowd was in attendance. Rev. J. H. Light, pastor of the church, presided and the sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. R. J. McBrady, rector of Grace Memorial church. The invocation prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. L. B. Turnbull, the Scripture lesson read by Rev. Dr. Whaling, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and the concluding prayer by Rev. Dr. J. A. Quarles. The music was rendered by a choir composed of Mrs. W. F. Edwards, Mrs. R. H. Gillock, Mrs. J. M. Quisenberry, Mrs. G. W. Offlighter, Miss Elizabeth Boogher, Miss Nettie Deaver, Mr. J. M. Senesney, Mr. Howard G. Lacy and Prof. A. L. Nelson. Miss Bessie Quisenberry was organist. By request Mr. Senesney sang "Palms of Victory." The collection for the benefit of the poor amounted to over $53. Dr. McBrady preached an appropriate and eloquent sermon from Psalm 95: "Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving." He said that as individuals and as churches thanksgiving is an integral and essential part of our religious life and worship. The family gatherings, the joyful festivities, the hearty signs that the heart of man is overflowing and finds its highest expression in giving joy and light and hope to others. The preacher then recalled many of the material blessings that have come to us as a nation and as individuals—peace and prosperity at home and abroad, the amicable settlement of the strike conditions, and the better and more sympathetic understanding between capital and labor, as evidenced in the increase of the wages of railroad employes. He closed by referring to some of the church movements for which we should be thankful, especially for the missionary zeal and enterprise.

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Johns.

Mrs. Elizabeth Johns died Sunday afternoon at her home at Glasgow at the advanced age of 83 years. The cause of her death was a general breaking down incident to advanced age. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late home, conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. G. Buckner, of Falling Spring Presbyterian church. The remains were interred in the family burying ground near her home.

Mrs. Johns before marriage was a daughter of Mr. Joseph Glasgow, and was a cousin of Mr. W. A. Glasgow of Lexington. Her father lived and died at Balcony Falls, now the town of Glasgow. She was married in 1850 to Mr. Hobson Johns of Botetourt county and for some years lived in that county on James' place, but was now engaged in the telephone business in Baltimore, where her husband died in 1863.

Her mother was Miss McCullough and through the Horsleys she was a descendant of a brother of Colonel William Cabell of Union Hill, Albemarle county. Her grandfather, Arthur Glasgow, came from County Done, Ireland, in 1790, and settled at Green Forest, afterwards Buena Vista.

Mrs. Johns was a woman of fine business capacity and for years successfully managed her large property interests. A portion of the town of Glasgow was laid out on her farm. For many years she had been a communicant of Falling Spring church.

Noted List Ends With J. E. A. Gibbs' Death.

With the death of James Ethan Allen Gibbs, in the town of his own founding, Raphine, Va., last Tuesday, there passed away the last of the prominent sewing machine inventors and manufacturers of the country. Mr. Gibbs was born in the South. He went to a farm in Virginia to Philadelphia in 1858 with his invention and there met James Wiley, a capitalist, who joined him in bringing out the sewing machines which bear their names.

"During the civil war he fought for the Confederacy. Afterward he made Raphine into a prosperous town. He built a grain warehouse and elevator, a creamery and many stores and houses. He was seventy-three years old and leaves a widow and several children by a previous marriage.

"All the old-time men interested in the sewing machine industry, Wheelers, Wilsons, Grover, Bakers, Howes, Singers, Hunt, Gifford, Gordon and others have now passed away."

Church Notes.

Dr. Jas. Lewis Howe of Washington and Lee University, occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday morning. There were no services at night.

Quarterly conference will be held at Trinity church Friday night by the presiding elder, Rev. Dr. J. E. Armstrong of Salem. Dr. Armstrong will preach Sunday night.

At Trinity Methodist church, as a result of the recent meeting conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Light, there were ten accessions to the church Sunday morning by profession and three by letter.

The revival services closed last week at Wesley chapel Methodist church, conducted by Rev. L. S. Rudasill of New Castle, who assisted the pastor in the meeting, Rev. Seymour Grady. There was considerable interest in the meeting, resulting in more than fifty conversions, many of them being persons of mature life. Rev. Mr. Rudasill, an earnest and successful evangelist.

The Natural Bridge.

We agree with the Irvington Citizen that the State of Virginia ought to own the Natural Bridge property and make a park of it. This is one of Nature's wonders, the grandeur of which beggars description. The pictures of this natural wonder never do it justice. They give an idea of its shape, but they utterly fail to give any conception of its magnificence and grandeur.

Nothing inspires a feeling of awe more than to view from a short distance this bridge, built not with human hands.

A Parson's Noble Act.

"I want all the world to know," writes Rev. C. J. Budlong of Ashaway, R. I., "what a thoroughly good and reliable medicine I found in Electric Bitters. They cured me of jaundice and liver troubles that had caused me great suffering for many years. I am grateful, all-around, for they cured anything I ever saw." Electric Bitters are the surprise of all for their wonderful work in Liver, Kidney and Stomach troubles. Don't fail to try them. Only 50 cts. Satisfaction is guaranteed by E. H. Gorrell, druggist.

Springfield.

Dec. 1.—Miss Mattie Armistead is visiting Miss Kate Thompson of Buchanan. Miss Sallie Johnston spent Saturday and Sunday as the guest of Mrs. W. H. Chiles at Gilmore's Mill. Mr. Cary Wright of Santa Fe, New Mexico, is spending a few days with his niece, Mrs. W. E. L. Starke. He has been away from this, his native State, for forty years and his return was a great surprise to his relatives here. Mr. Coray Leech paid a short visit to his father, Hon. W. B. F. Leech, last week. Mr. W. E. Arnold won first prize at the tournament in Buchanan last Thursday. Rockbridge usually comes in first. The following named party of ladies and gentlemen of this vicinity were most courteously entertained at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Parsons Thursday night: Misses Maude Davidson, Sallie Johnston, Ethel Starke and Annie Watts, and Messrs. Wilson Whitmore, Dan McClelland, Brownlee Barger, Hubert Waits, John McClelland, Marvin Garland and Erskine Arnold. An elegant supper was served after which the evening was spent with music and games of different kinds. CLOVER BLOSSOM.

Brownburg.

Dec. 1.—Dr. D. E. Strain has about completed the addition of a second story to the ell of his house, which will be a great improvement. Mr. M. H. Warr is putting in a new front to his store-room occupied by Messrs. Shaw & Co. Dr. J. C. Hyde has rented Mr. Lavelle's property and moved in last week.

Miss Cornelia Brooks left last Friday for a visit in Amherst county. Mr. Homer Wade of Goshen, spent a few days of last week with his father near here. Miss Edna Wade is visiting friends at Barterbrook, Augusta county. Mr. Wm. Swoope is having a barn built on his farm near here. Mr. Bolen is the contractor. The farmers in this section have about finished getting in corn, as the weather has been fine for such work. The wheat is looking better than it has for several seasons at this time of the year. X. Y. Z.

Upper Collier's Creek.

Dec. 1.—A new 'phone company has recently been organized at Collierstown, known as the Buffalo District Mutual Telephone Company. It is composed of 'phone holders, who are now putting up their line. This new line starts at Alphin, running southward down Collier's Creek to George Barger's place, thence across the country to North Buffalo Creek, following that stream as high as William Deacon's. The line will be from 12 to 15 miles in length. We learn that already 23 'phones have been subscribed for and it is thought that this number will necessitate two more wires. The new system has no connection with the old one. The recent meeting held at the Presbyterian church at Collierstown resulted in about 25 conversions. We regret to learn that Mrs. Susan Gregory, who was reported ill a few weeks ago, is not improving very much. It has been about four weeks since she had a stroke of paralysis, making three helpless invalids in one family. In about four miles distance we have eight dry goods stores all in good running order. Can any other part of the county out of Lexington beat it? If so, we will give over the belt. Mrs. William Lair, who has been visiting in this section several weeks, has returned to her home at Lynchburg. The cold snap enabled a great many who have been wishing for cold weather, to butcher their hogs. Some cholera has been reported in this district. X-RAYS.

Buena Vista.

Dec. 2.—Mr. Hugh Slough, who was seriously hurt on Saturday while unloading some stones from a railroad car, is reported as being on the way to recovery. The accident was the result of the breaking of a rope, which caused a heavy bar of iron to swing round and strike Mr. Slough on the head. He was at first pronounced dead, and his skull was thought to be fractured. Now, hopes of his recovery are entertained. The entertainment given by the Southern Seminary last night was a most creditable and enjoyable affair. It was the first of the kind this season, and was witnessed by a packed auditorium. Rev. L. H. Graybill, his wife and daughter, Miss Belle, were guests at the McChesney home yesterday. Mrs. Graybill returned to her home after a week's stay with her son, Gene, who has a fine daughter at his house. Miss Belle, after a visit of some three weeks among friends here, returned with her father to Fairfield. Miss Cornie Edwards and Miss Lecky returned down Lynchburg on a shopping expedition and to consult an ear specialist for Miss Edwards who, for some days, has suffered intensely from earache. Mr. T. H. Keller has succeeded in securing some one to relieve him at the C. & O. depot, and has taken his family for a month's vacation to Augusta county and Washington, D. C. This is Mr. Keller's "annual outing." SY KLEONE.

Rockbridge Baths.

Dec. 1st.—Thanksgiving services were held in Bethesda Presbyterian church on Thursday last by the pastor, Rev. Henry Miller. The calendar reception given by Mrs. Henry Miller to the members of the Calendar Club Thanksgiving evening, was a decided social success and much enjoyed by those present. Mr. J. Wm. Mohler had the misfortune to be thrown from a colt which he was breaking on last week and sustained very painful injuries. Mr. Carter of New York visited his niece, Mrs. Robert Gibson, at the Baths last week. Mr. Reid Sterrett is at the Hot Springs, where he is taking the baths for the benefit of his health. There is considerable talk of a new iron bridge to be erected at this point in place of the wooden structure, which has been condemned by the engineer, Col. Marr, of the V. M. I. Messrs. Shafer, Frank and Raymond Cooper, of the W. L. L., were guests at the home of Mr. J. S. Gibson last week. Mrs. J. M. Henry expects to visit her sister, Mrs. Charles Irvine, in Charlottesville, this week. The graded school here is full to overflowing. If many more pupils come in, the services of another teacher will be much needed. COUNTRY MAIDEN.
