Mr. William K. Johnston, son of Mr. Porter Johnston, formerly of Rockbridge, was drowned the first of last week in New River near Thurman, W. Va. The remains were taken to Newport News for interment. He is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters of Newport News.

The Virginia Press Association was held last week at Blue Ridge Springs. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Messrs. M. B. Lewis of Harrisonburg, president; C. B. Camper of Front Royal, vice-president; J. L. Hart of Farmville, secretary; and R. H. Beazley of South Boston, treasurer.

Galveston (Tex) News: Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Valerie E. Austin entertained a party of musical friends at their home, Oak Lawn, on Market and 15th street. The evening of music was a delightful one, each participant being an artist. The parlors of Oak Lawn were filled with pretty ferns. The dainty decorations, delightful breeze and the excellent musical program made the evening one to be remembered.

Mr. William A. Glasgow, Jr., of Roanoke, Va., has announced his removal to Philadelphia where he will be associated with Messrs. Samuel Dickson, H. Gordon McCough and Arthur G. Dixon, under the firm name of Dickson, McCough & Glasgow for the practice of law. Mr. Glasgow is a son of Mr. William A. Glasgow of Lexington and has taken front rank at the Roanoke bar. He was educated at Washington and Lee University.

Supervisors' Adjourned Meeting. The Board of Supervisors of Rockbridge held an adjourned meeting at the Courthouse Saturday for the special purpose of considering the matter of the petition of C. B. Slough and others for opening a public road from the east line of Mrs. S. E. Lynch's land through or around "Goeh's Cut" to the public road at Agnor's Dam.

W. A. Hogan appeared before the board and objected to the opening of the road for the reason that the damage awarded by the viewers was considered inadequate. The board by unanimous vote sustained the report of the viewers.

Messrs. S. W. Wilton, W. S. Mackey, S. B. Higginbotham, C. L. Thompson and G. D. Morris were appointed commissioners to meet on the land proposed to be taken on Saturday, July 30, and to award the damages for the land to be taken.

There were present Supervisors J. L. Kinnear, chairman, J. H. Whitmore, T. S. Rees, G. A. Ayers, C. M. Shewey, R. L. Patterson.

Mr. Hodgson College President. A news-item from Elkins, W. Va., says that Prof. Joseph E. Hodgson has been elected president of Davis and Elkins College, the Presbyterian institution founded by ex-Senator Davis and Senator Elkins.

Prof. Hodgson is a native of Frederick county, Va., and a graduate of Washington and Lee University. For several years he was principal of the Lexington graded school and later was principal of Potomac Academy at Romney. The college is expected to be opened in September.

Blackstone Female Institute. We call attention to the advertisement in this issue of the Blackstone Female Institute, a young ladies' college of high grade, conducted under the best Christian influences. Dr. Cannon, the principal, is an educator who has achieved eminent success.

Parents of Rockbridge having daughters to educate would do well to write to Dr. Cannon for catalogue and terms.

County School Board Will Ask for School Levies. Superintendent Robert Catlett has called a meeting of the County School Board to be held in Lexington Saturday, July 23rd.

It is the purpose of this meeting to ask the Board of Supervisors to lay the levy for county and district school taxes for this year. It has been the usual custom to ask for these taxes the year before it was wanted. At the last annual meeting, at the request of Dr. Johnston, the matter was laid over until June, 1904, just before the meeting of the Board of Supervisors required to make this levy.

It was the idea of Dr. Johnston that increased taxes were necessary to successfully conduct the schools. The effort to get a bill through the Legislature asking the Board of Supervisors of Rockbridge to add a capitation tax of $1.00 to be used exclusively for the county schools having failed, showed the wisdom of Dr. Johnston in having this matter of more money brought at once before this board. What the county board will ask for is beyond the conjecture of any one, but they themselves being heavy tax payers, the amount will be reasonable.

Heretofore the county levy has been 10 cents and the district levy has been from 4 cents to 10 cents on the $100 of real and personal property. Under the old law 10 cents for county and 10 cents for district purposes, was the maximum limitation.

On May the first, 1904, an entire board of school trustees for the several districts was elected. A number of them have not as yet seen any school service, but they are representative men from their locality, who unquestionably have the public schools at heart. As many alterations have occurred in the first board since it was nominated on the 16th of April last, the following is a complete roster of those who have qualified and are ready to enter the work next Saturday.

Town of Lexington—R. E. Hutton, F. T. Glasgow, D. C. Humphreys. Central—W. R. Humphris, W. B. Wallace, L. D. Hamric. Natural Bridge—G. W. Edinger, J. W. Gilmore, F. F. Harris. Buffalo—W. B. F. Leech, W. D. Deacon, R. K. Dunlap. Kerr's Creek—M. P. Dunlap, James H. Harper, Charles Lind-say.

Walker's Creek—J. S. Gibson, John A. Shaw, C. C. Snider. South River—C. J. Bell, W. G. Houston, L. L. McClung.

Our Home Fire Company. The Lexington Fire Company is made up of the young men of the town of Lexington, generally the working class of its people, and composed mostly of young men who have passed 21 years of age, some slightly over and a few under. This class of people are the bone and sinew of any town, their mainstay and reliance in times of peril, as evidenced by their response to calls at any and every hour of the day and night when their atened with a disastrous conflagration, and are indeed a level of promptness.

This estimate of them is shared by other sections of Virginia. Four times they have won the State race and getting prizes of $100 cash, and are now holding the trumpet of silver, which, if they succeed in holding the second year, will be theirs forever. The world's race for $250 each time has three times been won by this company, which shows their expertness and proper training. The conditions are that they must run at least 150 yards, attach the hose to a plug so that it will successfully throw water. This has heretofore required only about 30 to 35 seconds, and shows, at best, marvelous discipline but they have done it, and the make-up of their team for 1904 leads one to believe that they can do it again at the State Firemen's Association, which will meet in Alexandria August 17-19 next.

The present team at the evening races is composed of 22 men, but under the rules it cannot enter the State contest with more than 15. The desired number will be retained by thinning out and the best kept.

New High School Assistant. At a meeting of the Lexington School Board held last week Mr. Howard W. Barclay was elected assistant in the High School to succeed Mr. W. D. Gresham who for several years held that position. Mr. Barclay is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barclay of Lexington. He was educated at Washington and Lee, graduating with the degree of A. B. and B. L. and has spent much time in teaching in Kentucky and in Savannah, Ga., and at Ronceverte, W. Va. Mr. Barclay married a daughter of Dr. W. H. Ruffner of Lexington.

The board decided to install water closets in the school buildings to replace the out of door closets now in use. There was a full meeting of the board present, as follows: Messrs. Robt. E. Hutton, chairman, D. C. Humphreys, clerk, and F. T. Glasgow.

Hon. H. St. G. Tucker Addressed Indiana Bar Association

The Hon. H. St. George Tucker was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Indiana Bar Association held at Fort Wayne, Ind., last week. The Fort Wayne News of Thursday said of Mr. Tucker's address:

"The convention's chief oration was delivered by the Hon. Harry St. George Tucker of Lexington, Virginia. Mr. Tucker is a tall, broad shouldered, handsome man of perhaps forty-five or fifty, and is erect in stature, looking every inch the high-bred gentleman and thinker. The subject matter was of high oratorical order. The theme was 'Civil Liberty in the United States and the Principal Countries of the World.'"

"The address was frequently interrupted by applause and when the orator had concluded, there was a spontaneous flash of hand-clapping which clearly showed the high tension of pleasure to which the speaker had brought his constantly delighted audience. A vote of thanks was tendered him with unanimous vigor."

Editorially the News said: "The address yesterday of Mr. Harry St. George Tucker was superb in thought and magnificent in treatment. These are words that to many who did not hear the oration may seem extravagant. It will not strike many of those who were present as an over statement. Mr. Tucker discussed a rather trite subject with a purity and force of literary style, together with a wealth of information which was impressed upon the highly intellectual audience. The address rang with the same true Americanism which one can imagine made Patrick Henry's ringing apostrophe to civil liberty fire the heart of his compatriots in Virginia, from which State Mr. Tucker hails. The State Bar Association is to be thanked as well as congratulated upon bringing so eloquent and scholarly a production within reach of its members and of the bar of Fort Wayne. To the high art of a literary masterpiece, it added the personal magnetism of a charm of voice and personal appearance. The people of Fort Wayne, fortunate enough to have heard the speaker, will remember the convention, not by what it does relative to the forms and organization of courts, but by its address by Mr. Tucker."

Col. Robert Parrish Dead. The community of Lexington was greatly shocked by the announcement Thursday morning that Col. Robert L. Parrish had passed away the night previous, having been operated upon for appendicitis at the C. & O. Hospital at Clifton Forge.

Col. Parrish was a distinguished lawyer and an influential citizen of the western portion of Virginia. His commanding position as attorney for many corporations, among which was the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, often brought him to Lexington in controverted railroad matters, and he will be pleasantly remembered here as a most clever, genial and courtly gentleman, and feel that his death is a distinct loss.

Col. Parrish lived in Covington, where he owned one of the most palatial residences in the western portion of Virginia. For 20 years he filled the office of commonwealth attorney of Alleghany county, and for a long series of years had been a member of the Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia. He was a native of Caroline county, 55 years of age, served in the Confederate army, and rose to the rank of colonel for gallantry before the tragedy was over.

Col. Parrish's wife was Miss Margaret Carr of Front Royal, Va., and preceded her distinguished husband to the grave by about two years from the same dreaded disease. Two sons survive, Robert L. Parrish, Jr., of Covington, Va., and Dr. Percy Parrish of Low Moor, Va. The first-named of these young men was Colonel Parrish's law partner, and at the time of the unexpected death was accompanying Judge Letcher in his visit to the Yellowstone National Park. It was with difficulty that he could be reached, but was found within the past day or two at Denver and was present today at the funeral services. Colonel Parrish's remains were interred at Covington this evening at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Boogher Wedded in St. Louis. A dispatch from St. Louis of July 18th says: "Mr. G. W. Boogher of St. Louis and Mrs. Velma W. Gaster of Monticello, Ark., were quietly married at Centenary church yesterday, the ceremony being performed at 2 o'clock by Rev. Dr. W. F. McMurtry. The bride wore a stylish going-away gown, and was unattended. Mr. W. H. Bartle of St. Joseph, served as best man for the groom. After the ceremony a bridal dinner was served at a downtown cafe. Mr. and Mrs. Boogher left later in the day for an Eastern tour. They will be at home in St. Louis after October 1."

Mr. Boogher is a son of Mr. E. N. Boogher of Lexington, and was reared in this community. He holds the responsible position of traveling agent for the Chicago and North-western Railway Co., with headquarters at St. Louis.

A little life may be sacrificed to an hour's delay. Cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhea come suddenly. Only safe plan is to have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry always on hand.

News and Views Around About River Side

River side, July 18.—Some wheat threshing has been done here with results not very satisfactory. That portion of the crop cut down by the fly is, in part, not filled at all, while the rest is of a shriveled quality.

The viewers appointed to locate a public road through the lands of Mr. J. J. L. Kinnear and others, did their work on Friday and Saturday last. They fully decided as to the necessity of the road, and after carefully looking into the pros and cons, fixed upon a route that is, in their judgment, the most practical, and will so report.

Mr. Clyde E. Wilson of Pensacola, Fla., is spending a little vacation with friends here. A week hence he will leave for his adopted home in the "land of flowers."

Mr. W. A. Kinnear expects about the middle of September next to move with his family to Pensacola, Fla. This change is thought to be necessary, by those in position to judge intelligently, for the improvement of Mr. Kinnear's health as well as that of several members of his family. He will hold his property here and leave things in such a shape as to return when conditions are such as to render that advisable. He is not influenced, to any extent, by the prospect for improvement from a money standpoint, but does look for better educational facilities for his children while he may be temporarily there. The wish of all is that they may soon get expected benefit from the Southern climate and salt-water bathing and return to their home in good health.

Mr. H. A. Lackey was quite sick during a part of last week, but has sufficiently recovered to go today to Wilson's Springs to spend a week or so. A good many are looking forward to the enjoyment of the pleasure of a stay at that long noted health resort.

Sunday School Convention. The thirty-eighth annual session of the Baltimore Conference Sunday School Convention, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was held in Martinsburg, W. Va., last week. The convention was the largest in attendance yet held, the number of delegates and visitors reaching over two hundred. Rev. Carlton D. Harris is the popular pastor of the church that entertained the convention.

A most excellent program was presented. Among the speakers were Rev. F. J. Prettymann of Washington, D. C., and Rev. J. Olin Knott of Lexington, Va. Of special interest were the addresses by Miss Hilda North of Washington, D. C., on primary work; by Hon. W. M. Andrews, Auditor of the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., and by President D. B. Purinton of West Virginia University at Morgantown. Music by the orchestra at Keyser, W. Va., which led the singing for a portion of the convention, was greatly appreciated and highly complimented.

Officers for the ensuing year are Hon. M. L. Walton of Woodstock, as president, who has filled this position for fourteen years, and Mr. W. W. Millan of Washington, D. C., secretary, who has served in this capacity for ten years. Vice-presidents were elected for each of the presiding elder's districts. Mr. Wm. R. Kennedy of Lexington, was elected vice-president for the Roanoke district.

The convention embraced Sunday schools of the Methodist faith in portions of Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia. The schools in this territory number nearly six hundred, with an attendance of about 50,000 members.

Tomb of Rev. William Graham. The last week's issue of the Central Presbyterian says: "The attention of the authorities of Washington and Lee University is called to the fact that the tomb of the Rev. Wm. Graham, the founder of Washington College, is immediately in the rear of old St. John's Church, Richmond. The vestry of this church is now asking the consent of the City Council for an extension of the church building to the rear. As this extension will probably cover this and other old tombs we would suggest that the President and Board of Trustees of Washington and Lee University take action for the protection of the tomb of President Graham, or the removal of the remains to some appropriate location at the University or in the Lexington Cemetery."

Springfield. July 18.—Mr. I. A. Miller, who has been in feeble health for some time, suffered a stroke of paralysis on Saturday night and his condition is regarded as very critical.

Miss Mary Ruff of Lexington, and Mr. Edward L. Carpenter of New York city, are the guests of the Misses Starke.

Mrs. Charlotte Shaffer spent several days last week with her brother, Mr. A. M. Lotts.

Masters Arnold and Charles Leech are visiting their grandfather, Mr. W. B. F. Leech, on North Buffalo.

Miss Annie Watts is spending some weeks with relatives in Roanoke and Salem.

Ever Watchful

A Little Care Will Save Many Lexington Readers Future trouble. Watch the kidney secretions. See that they have the amber hue of health.

The discharges not excessive or infrequent; contain no "brick-dust like" sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick. Daniel A. Crigger, of Randolph st., says: "I had dull bearing down pains across my kidneys so that it was painful for me to stoop or lift anything even of ordinary weight. At times I could not go up or down stairs without causing sharp pains in my back. In the morning I felt tired and unrefreshed and was stiff and sore. The secretions from the kidneys were in a bad condition, scalded and were so irregular in action especially at night that my rest was greatly disturbed. Learning about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box at B. H. Gorrell's drug store. I took them regularly and found that they acted as represented. My wife also used them with splendid results. There is no mistake about Doan's Kidney Pills being a good kidney medicine."
