"Green Tea" Given in Honor of Mrs. E. C. L. Kinnear

NEAR TIMBER RIDGE, June 17 It was an occasion of very unusual interest on the 14th instant when, as formerly announced, "Green Tea" was given from 4 to 7 p. m., by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Timber Ridge Presbyterian church at the home and in honor of Mrs. E. C. L. Kinnear, the oldest living member and one held in highest esteem by all who know her.

As was expected to the writer, it was a source of great pleasure to her when 150 friends, ranging in age from more than three score and ten down to the little tot, met on the spacious and beautiful yards at the residence and expressed, not only by their presence, but by many pleasant words, their high regards for her and earnest desires for still many years of pleasure and usefulness.

Light refreshments were served in a very satisfactory way, by the young ladies, and nothing but praise was expressed, not only for the manner of service but for the quality and quantity of the good things served.

The thank offering for the benefit of the church fund amounted to $70.00 including the small admittance fees. Not the least pleasant and profitable was the social feature of the occasion which seemed to be heartily enjoyed by all present.

I am authorized by our hostess to thus publicly express her heartfelt gratitude to all who were present, especially for the liberal contributions for the benefit of the church that is so dear to her heart.

Wheat is ripening very nicely and the sound of the binder is heard on all sides. The yield is generally much more satisfactory than could reasonably have been expected a few weeks ago. Some fields that appeared to have no wheat on them the first of April will yield more than one-half the usual crop.

Right much complaint as to the stand of grass, but rains in the near future may brighten the prospect in that line. S. W. W.

State Cadets Appointed

The following appointments to State cadetships were made by the Board of Visitors Tuesday. One of the regular appointees is a Lexington boy, R. T. Pendleton, son of Mr. E. M. Pendleton, and one of the alternates is also from Rockbridge, R. T. Anderson.

There were five appointments made at large, as follows: Randolph Tucker Pendleton of Lexington, C. Q. Byrd of Bath county, Thomas Hamlin of Danville, L. S. Parsons of Wise county, C. J. Polt of West Point. The alternates appointed are R. T. Anderson of Rockbridge, J. E. Doyle of Norfolk, E. L. Lindsay of Alexandria, J. L. Sinclair of Hampton and W. C. Davis of West Point.

Pleasant Alumni Smoker

The alumni "smoker" was held Tuesday night in the mess-hall and was largely attended. Light refreshments were served, at the conclusion of which the "fragrant weed" was enjoyed. The banquet was brought to a close by the rendering of several delightful songs by a quartet composed of Mayor Walker, Professor Latane, Colonel Ford and Mr. Adkisson.

Mr. Joseph R. Anderson, president of the Alumni Association, was master of ceremonies and the following toasts were eloquently responded to: "Virginia," Governor Montague; "Board of Visitors," Hon. Alexander Hamilton of Petersburg; "Washington and Lee," Prof. W. S. Currell; "V. M. I.," Col. Robert A. Marr; "The Alumni," J. B. Johnson of Norfolk; "The Graduating Class," Cadet R. A. Owen; "Art," Mr. B. West Clinedinst of New York; "The Ladies," Mr. S. J. Graham of Pittsburgh, Pa.; "U. S. Army," F. N. Griffin.

Death of Mrs. W. A. Brown

Mrs. William A. Brown died very unexpectedly last Sunday morning at her home near Woodside. She suffered Saturday night from an attack of headache and early Sunday morning the pain became so severe that a physician was summoned. Before his arrival she died. The funeral took place Monday afternoon from the home, conducted by Rev. Dr. Charles Masly, and interment was made in the Lexington cemetery.

Mrs. Brown was before marriage a Miss Zollman, daughter of the late Henry Zollman of Rockbridge. Her age was about fifty years. She is survived by her husband and several children; also by several brothers and sisters, among them being Mr. James M. Zollman of near Lexington.

Dyche-Argenbright

Miss Annie Argenbright of Staunton and Mr. Robert Dyche of Charleston, W. Va., were married in Staunton last Thursday night. The ceremony was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. Henry P. Hamill officiating, and was witnessed by a few friends of the contracting parties.

The bride is an attractive young lady, and is a daughter of Mr. J. Frank Argenbright, formerly of Lexington. The groom holds a position with the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad at Charleston, where the newly wedded couple will make their home.

Virginia Military Institute

Successful Season Concluded With Interesting Finals

A successful season at the Virginia Military Institute was brought to a close today. Nineteen graduates, the entire first class, received their diplomas.

The graduating exercises consisted of the announcement of distinctions, the delivery of diplomas, conferring of degrees and awarding the Jackson Hope medals. A most excellent address was made by Governor A. J. Montague, which held the closest attention of the large crowd present.

The valedictory address was made by Cadet H. W. T. Eglin of Lewinsville, Va. The exercises were held in the Stonehall Jackson Memorial Hall. On the platform were seated General Shipp, who presided, Governor Montague, members of the Board of Visitors and faculty.

Upon the recommendation of the Academic Board, the following named members of the First Class have been declared by the Board of Visitors graduates of the Virginia Military Institute in the order of their names: R. Alex Owen, Lynchburg, Virginia.

Sermon Before Corps of Cadets

The annual sermon before the corps of cadets was delivered Sunday morning in Stonehall Jackson Hall by Rev. W. S. Hammond of Middletown, Va., a member of the Baltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church South. The theme was a military discourse based on the text, "Quit You Like Men." The sermon was a strong and earnest plea for the principles of truth, courage and gentleness, a trinity of virtues upon which ideal character may be formed.

The preacher made a fine impression upon the large audience composed of men and women of culture. Mr. Hammond was introduced by General Shipp. Upon the platform were seated members of the Board of Visitors and faculty of the Institute, and members of the faculty of Washington and Lee University. The singing was led by the cadet choir and at intervals during the services the V. M. I. orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. Krause, rendered excellent selections.

The Military Features

Beginning Saturday the military features of the commencement exercises have attracted good crowds of spectators. Saturday afternoon a salute of 21 guns was fired in honor of the Board of Visitors who assembled that day for their annual meeting. In the evening at 9 o'clock the athletic exhibition took place in the gymnasium and consisted of work on the horizontal bars and rings, tumbling and other athletic feats.

Butt's manual exercises were held Monday morning at 10 o'clock, under the direction of Captain Pearson. The exercise is a physical drill. The men stand in loose formation, with rifles which they use as dumb-bells or clubs in gymnastic exercises.

The "sham battle" came off Tuesday morning just before noon. This mimic war was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators, and consisted of a series of charges, accompanied by firing blank cartridges.

The review before the alumni Tuesday afternoon was followed by "graduation parade."

Brilliant Military German on Monday Night

The final military german at the Virginia Military Institute was danced last night in the Stonehall Jackson gymnasium. At ten o'clock the fourteen couples of the opening figure marched into the dancing hall, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. A large crowd of spectators witnessed the german. After the opening figure, which was intricate and spectacular, about twenty other couples joined in the dance.

The gallant cadets and their fair companions were all clad in white. The young ladies carried immense bouquets of American Beauty roses, and their military escorts wore red sashes. The leader of the opening figure was Cadet J. M. Marshall of Norfolk, Va., with Miss Willis Williams of Washington, D. C. Following is the list of dancers in the opening figure:

Miss Willis Williams of Washington, D. C., dressed in white tulle over India silk, pearl trimmings and pearl ornaments; with Cadet J. M. Marshall of Norfolk, Va.

It is testimony like the following that has placed "the old Quaker Remedy" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Lexington citizen:

Harty Deaver, shoemaker, with place of business on Jefferson street, residing on Main street, says: "While I did not personally use Doan's Kidney Pills I can speak in the highest terms of praise of them for the great relief they afforded my wife who was troubled with an almost constant aching across her back for some time. Often the aching was so severe that she was in misery and hardly able to perform even light work about the house. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and especially recommended for her trouble I got a box at B. H. Gorrell's drug store. She used them as directed and in a few days noticed their beneficial effects. By the time one box was taken the dreadful aching had been relieved, her back was strengthened and her health generally improved. We know that Doan's Kidney Pills carry out the claims made for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agent for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
