

Staunton Spectator.

JOS. A. WADDELL, Proprietor. RICHARD M. WADDELL, Jr., Proprietor.

TERMS. The "SPECTATOR" is published once a week at Two Dollars and Fifty Cents a year...

ADVERTISEMENTS of ten lines (or less) inserted three times for one dollar, and twenty-five cents for each subsequent insertion.

Professional Cards, not exceeding seven lines, will be inserted for one year for $5.00—6 months for $3.00.

One square (ten lines) 1 year $10.00 6 months $6.00 3 months $3.00

Two squares 1 year $15.00 6 months $10.00 3 months $5.00

Three squares 1 year $20.00 6 months $13.00 3 months $6.00

One-third column 1 year $25.00 6 months $16.00 3 months $8.00

One column 1 year $30.00 6 months $20.00 3 months $10.00

All advertising for a less time than three months, will be charged for at the usual rate—$1.00 per square for the first three insertions, and twenty-five cents for each subsequent issue.

CARDS.

MARWOOD & GRAVES, FASHIONABLE TAILORS, Opposite the Marble Works, Main St., Staunton, Va.

W. MOUNTAIN, Tailor and the public generally that they are now prepared to execute work entrusted to them in the neatest and most fashionable styles.

As they have had the practice of six years as CUTTERS they feel confident of pleasing all who may favor them with their patronage.

JAS. H. McVEIGH & SON, (Successors to McVeigh & Chamberlain), WHOLESALE GROCERS, AND DEALERS IN LIQUORS, Wines, Tobacco, Segars, &c., PRINCE STREET, W. VA., ALEXANDRIA, VA., March 29, 1859—17.

Western Virginia MARBLE WORKS, AT STAUNTON, AND HARRISONBURG, MARQUIS & KELLEY, Staunton, April 7, 1858.

COCHRAN & COCHRAN, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, STAUNTON, VA., Will practice in all the Courts of Augusta and the Circuit Courts of Bath and Highland. Strict attention will be given to all business entrusted to their care. Aug. 24, 1857.

POWELL HARRISON, ATTORNEY AT LAW, STAUNTON, VIRGINIA, Will practice in the Courts of Augusta and Highland. He may be found at his office, adjoining the Court House, Dec. 9, 1857.

G. A. SMITH, Manufacturer of Ladies' Shoes of all descriptions, keeps a large stock constantly on hand, and offers them at the lowest prices. Also MISSES' and CHILDREN'S SHOES. His stand is next door to the Post Office. Patronage is respectfully solicited. Staunton, May 17, 1859.

GUY & WADDELL, REAL ESTATE AGENTS, STAUNTON, VIRGINIA, BUYERS AND SELLERS will find it to their advantage to call at their office in the Brick Row of the Old Bell Tavern. Staunton, Sep. 6, 1859.

G. C. YEAKLE, CLOCKS, WATCHES AND JEWELRY, SILVER AND PLATED WARE, Opposite Va. Hotel, Staunton, Va., Staunton, Aug. 20, 1859.

J. M. HANGER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, STAUNTON, VA., Will practice in all the Courts held in Staunton, Bath and Highland, and in the Circuit Court of Bath and Highland. He will also attend to all business entrusted to him in the neatest and most prompt manner. Staunton, Oct. 18, 1857.

JOHN W. MEREDITH, JEWELRY, CLOCKS, WATCHES, &c., Main St., Staunton, Va., Watches and Jewelry Repaired. Staunton, Jan. 17.

JOHN C. MICHEL, ATTORNEY AT LAW, WARM SPRINGS, BATH COUNTY, VA., Will practice in the Courts of Bath, Highland, Fincastle and Augusta. All business entrusted to him will be promptly attended to. March 11, 1860—6m.

DR. JAMES H. GILKESON, Having located in Staunton, tender his professional services to the public. He may be found, when not professionally engaged, at the room over the Saddle and Harness establishment of Mr. G. H. Ellis, nearly opposite the Post Office. Staunton, Feb. 8, 1859—17.

A. D. CHANDLER, UNDERTAKER, Staunton, Va., Keeps Metallic Cases of all sizes, at Staunton and Millborough Depot, at City Prices. Staunton, July 19, 1859.

R. L. DOYLE, Attorney at Law, Staunton, Va., Will practice in the Courts of Augusta, Rockbridge, Bath and Highland. July 29, 1857.

KIRKWOOD HOUSE, Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., JOHN H. S. KIRKWOOD, Proprietors. Washington, March 24, 1859—17.

HEALING WATER—DR. W. B. YOUNG, Druggist, has a large lot of Healing Water for sale, and is the regular Agent for it in Staunton. Dec. 12.

STOVES, STOVES.—We have just received 52 Stoves of various patterns, some entirely new, to which we invite the attention of the public. Staunton, Oct. 25. WOODS & GILKESON.

JUST RECEIVED.—The best and cheapest low price TOBACCO that can be found. Wholesale and Retail by J. B. EVANS. Staunton, Oct. 25, 1859.

CORN MEAL.—For sale in large or small quantities at the STAUNTON STEAM MILLS at market prices. Apply to S. A. RICHARDSON, Sup't. May 21, '60.

PHYSICIAN can always be supplied with a full assortment of Medicines of the best quality at DR. H. S. FIEBELBERGER'S, Staunton, Jan. 25, '59.

FURS! FURS!—15 sets of Furs just received, and will be sold at a very low figure. Staunton, Nov. 2. WOODS & GILKESON.

HANDSOME COAL GRATE for sale by WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Oct. 25.

MILLER'S HEAVY GOODS—A full supply of Sewing Machines, and all kinds of Sewing Machines, at a low price. Taylor & Hogue. Staunton, Nov. 2, '59.

JUST RECEIVED—A very fine assortment of CLOCKS to be sold very low. Taylor & Hogue. Staunton, Nov. 2, '59.

BIKOF FOR FARMERS.—Campbell's Manual of Agriculture. ROBT. COWAN'S, Staunton, Nov. 15.

LEATHER LEATHER—1000 lbs SOLE LEATHER good stamp—for sale by Taylor & Hogue. Staunton, Nov. 15.

BLANKING CLOTHS.—A few pieces of Blanketing Cloaking Cloth, just received at Staunton, Nov. 2, 1859. D. A. KAYSER'S

MISCELLANEOUS.

FOR GOVERNOR, GABRIEL HIRSH! FOR LIEUT. GOV., WILLIAM JONAS!

NOTWITHSTANDING the failure of the Atlantic Cable to come up to the expectations of some of the leading ones of the Old and New World, yet GABRIEL HIRSH, in the largest stockholder in the concern, for the purpose of cultivating a fraternal feeling with all mankind, has extended it as far as the Atlantic Ocean, where it is performing some of the greatest achievements of the age, in the way of exhibiting at his old stand, on Main Street, the largest and most complete STOCKING GOODS ever brought to this market.

CONFECTIONERY ESTABLISHMENT!!! FOR THE SEASON AT THE STAND FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY W. M. MOUNT, Main St., Staunton, Va.

MAGNUS S. CEASE WOULD respectfully call the attention of the citizens of Staunton to the fact that he has just received a new stock of FALL GOODS, which he is now receiving and opening, consisting of Water, Sugar and Soda Crackers, Pickles, etc.

WEDDING PARTIES furnished at the shortest notice, and on the most reasonable terms. Also Fresh Peaches, Lobsters, Pickles, Catechups, &c. &c. Will sell on reasonable terms, and respectfully solicit a share of patronage.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT THE CLOTHING HOUSE OF JACOB POLLITZ, (BRANDBURG'S OLD STAND), Though the Great Eastern has met with serious accident, yet my large and well selected stock of FINE CLOTHING, in the great abundance of which my cargo of Goods did arrive safely, and includes the greatest variety of well finished coats, frocks, suits, and every description of clothing, and which I will sell at Baltimore City Prices.

TANNERY—I have this day associated my son, James H. McVeigh, in the Tanning business in the town of Waynesboro' and the business will hereafter be conducted in the name of H. L. GALLAGHER & CO.

Persons indebted to my Tannery are hereby notified to come forward and settle, and those having claims against me are requested to present the same for payment. My son, Wm. B. Gallaher, will always be found at the Tannery and is authorized to settle for me.

P. H. TROUT & CO., A. RE now receiving a large stock of Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, &c., which we are selling at the lowest prices, and are also selling pure articles of various kinds, and are also selling pure articles of various kinds, and are also selling pure articles of various kinds.

PAPER HANGINGS.—I have just received from one of the largest manufacturers of Paper Hangings in the United States, a great variety of samples of the latest styles of Wall Paper. Persons wishing to procure handsome papering at reasonable prices are invited to call and examine my samples, and if they can select better from the Manufacturer, getting it here in a few days by express, and in any way by the same, I will avoid the necessity of keeping a large stock on hand, and consequently, will be able to sell for small profits, and at a price that will compare favorably with the market.

DE FOREST, ARMSTRONG, & CO. DRY GOODS MERCHANTS, 80 & 82 Chambers St., N. Y., We notify the Trade that they are opening weekly, in new and beautiful patterns, the latest styles of the season, New York, which exceeds every Print in the Country for perfection of execution and design in full Madder Colors. The prices are cheaper than any market, and meeting with extensive sale. Orders promptly attended to. Staunton, Mar. 6, 1860—Vin copy.

DR. JAMES JOHNSTON, SURGICAL & MECHANICAL DENTIST, having been located permanently in Staunton for the last four years, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally, that he still continues to practice Dentistry in all its various branches, with the strictest regard to durability and satisfaction. His office is on the east side of the Public Square, opposite the old Spectator Office. Staunton, Nov. 29, 1854.

"THE BELLE OF THE SOUTH"—Six "Thomson's," "Sherwood's," "Moran's," and "Belle of the South," which is considered the most perfect of all the Skirts ever made, and is now being sold by PIPER & FUNKHOUSER, Staunton, Mar. 6, 1860—Vin copy.

WHEAT WANTED.—The Staunton Steam Mills Co. will pay the highest prices in Cash for Wheat. Farmers wishing to dispose of their surplus wheat, are invited to bring their samples to S. A. RICHARDSON, Sup't., Nov. 15, 1859.

PUSH AND VELVET VESTINGS.—10 patterns elegant Push Vestings and 10 patterns elegant Velvet Vestings, all just received at D. A. KAYSER'S, Staunton, Nov. 22.

VIRGINIA CANNERS.—We have just received a full supply of the best quality of Canned Corn, Beans, Tomatoes, and other articles, at a low price. Taylor & Hogue. Staunton, Nov. 2, '59.

JUST RECEIVED.—A very fine lot of all kinds of Spectacles—plaid, steel and gold—and all kinds of Spectacle Glasses, some new and some colored. Staunton, Jan. 21—17.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—Our accounts are now drawn off to the 1st of January, and we hope that knowing themselves indebted will come forward and pay up at once. Staunton, Feb. 21, 1859. TAYLOR & HOGUE.

HORSE SHOES, HORSE SHOE IRON, NAILS and Nail Rod, just received by WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Nov. 15, 1859.

AXES &c.—5 doz. Superior Axes, 1 doz. Boy's Axes, and 1 doz. Axes, all just received and for sale by WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Oct. 25, 1859.

FURS.—A few sets of very handsome Brown Russia, Fitch and Sable Furs. Received and for sale by STAUNTON STEAM MILLS. Staunton, Nov. 2, 1859.

CORN SHELLERS.—We have on hand four different varieties of Corn Shellers, and are prepared to sell them at a low price. WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Oct. 25.

OLD DOMINION COFFEE POTS.—A fresh supply on hand and for sale by WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Nov. 15, 1859.

BBLS. Molasses and Syrup, just received by TAYLOR & HOGUE. Staunton, Oct. 11, 1859.

SELF-HEATING SMOOTH IRONS—for sale by WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Nov. 15, 1859.

WAITERS.—Several handsome sets of Waiters, and a few sets of Waiters, all just received and for sale by WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Oct. 25.

ALL kinds of Iron Machinery fitted up at the work Shop of the Staunton Foundry. See J. G. BARBER & CO. Station, Nov. 15.

FOR Hats, Caps, and every style of Gents' Furnishing Goods, call at J. POLLITZ'S, Staunton, Oct. 11, 1859. Clothing House

SOFAS.—A new lot of Sofas, just to hand, very cheap. Staunton, July 19, '59. D. A. CHANDLER.

JUDICIAL ELECTION. (COMMUNICATED.)

For the Spectator. Messrs. Editors:—"Junius" is out again in a column and a half of ineffable stupidity.

His epigrams are gone, and he stands confessed a bore. His family is reported to be in a state of alarm. At what? His impudence would not alarm a hare. His fears suggest that "Z" is angry—let his poor nerves be quiet. The stagnant pool of dullness in which he is fasted to float, awakes commiseration, not anger. The most generous and disinterested of men, is contemned, rather than hateful, his position remaining in his own body, is innocuous to others. So then, poor "Junius," most willing for mischief, by a kind Providence, has been shorn of the power for evil, and thus insured from the hands of a responsible gentleman in Staunton, ready to be handed over to any one who will bring forward a superior workman in his line. G. HIRSH. Staunton, Oct. 19, 1858—17.

CONFECTIONERY ESTABLISHMENT!!! FOR THE SEASON AT THE STAND FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY W. M. MOUNT, Main St., Staunton, Va.

MAGNUS S. CEASE WOULD respectfully call the attention of the citizens of Staunton to the fact that he has just received a new stock of FALL GOODS, which he is now receiving and opening, consisting of Water, Sugar and Soda Crackers, Pickles, etc.

WEDDING PARTIES furnished at the shortest notice, and on the most reasonable terms. Also Fresh Peaches, Lobsters, Pickles, Catechups, &c. &c. Will sell on reasonable terms, and respectfully solicit a share of patronage.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT THE CLOTHING HOUSE OF JACOB POLLITZ, (BRANDBURG'S OLD STAND), Though the Great Eastern has met with serious accident, yet my large and well selected stock of FINE CLOTHING, in the great abundance of which my cargo of Goods did arrive safely, and includes the greatest variety of well finished coats, frocks, suits, and every description of clothing, and which I will sell at Baltimore City Prices.

TANNERY—I have this day associated my son, James H. McVeigh, in the Tanning business in the town of Waynesboro' and the business will hereafter be conducted in the name of H. L. GALLAGHER & CO.

Persons indebted to my Tannery are hereby notified to come forward and settle, and those having claims against me are requested to present the same for payment. My son, Wm. B. Gallaher, will always be found at the Tannery and is authorized to settle for me.

P. H. TROUT & CO., A. RE now receiving a large stock of Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, &c., which we are selling at the lowest prices, and are also selling pure articles of various kinds, and are also selling pure articles of various kinds.

PAPER HANGINGS.—I have just received from one of the largest manufacturers of Paper Hangings in the United States, a great variety of samples of the latest styles of Wall Paper. Persons wishing to procure handsome papering at reasonable prices are invited to call and examine my samples, and if they can select better from the Manufacturer, getting it here in a few days by express, and in any way by the same, I will avoid the necessity of keeping a large stock on hand, and consequently, will be able to sell for small profits, and at a price that will compare favorably with the market.

DE FOREST, ARMSTRONG, & CO. DRY GOODS MERCHANTS, 80 & 82 Chambers St., N. Y., We notify the Trade that they are opening weekly, in new and beautiful patterns, the latest styles of the season, New York, which exceeds every Print in the Country for perfection of execution and design in full Madder Colors. The prices are cheaper than any market, and meeting with extensive sale. Orders promptly attended to. Staunton, Mar. 6, 1860—Vin copy.

DR. JAMES JOHNSTON, SURGICAL & MECHANICAL DENTIST, having been located permanently in Staunton for the last four years, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally, that he still continues to practice Dentistry in all its various branches, with the strictest regard to durability and satisfaction. His office is on the east side of the Public Square, opposite the old Spectator Office. Staunton, Nov. 29, 1854.

"THE BELLE OF THE SOUTH"—Six "Thomson's," "Sherwood's," "Moran's," and "Belle of the South," which is considered the most perfect of all the Skirts ever made, and is now being sold by PIPER & FUNKHOUSER, Staunton, Mar. 6, 1860—Vin copy.

WHEAT WANTED.—The Staunton Steam Mills Co. will pay the highest prices in Cash for Wheat. Farmers wishing to dispose of their surplus wheat, are invited to bring their samples to S. A. RICHARDSON, Sup't., Nov. 15, 1859.

PUSH AND VELVET VESTINGS.—10 patterns elegant Push Vestings and 10 patterns elegant Velvet Vestings, all just received at D. A. KAYSER'S, Staunton, Nov. 22.

VIRGINIA CANNERS.—We have just received a full supply of the best quality of Canned Corn, Beans, Tomatoes, and other articles, at a low price. Taylor & Hogue. Staunton, Nov. 2, '59.

JUST RECEIVED.—A very fine lot of all kinds of Spectacles—plaid, steel and gold—and all kinds of Spectacle Glasses, some new and some colored. Staunton, Jan. 21—17.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—Our accounts are now drawn off to the 1st of January, and we hope that knowing themselves indebted will come forward and pay up at once. Staunton, Feb. 21, 1859. TAYLOR & HOGUE.

HORSE SHOES, HORSE SHOE IRON, NAILS and Nail Rod, just received by WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Nov. 15, 1859.

AXES &c.—5 doz. Superior Axes, 1 doz. Boy's Axes, and 1 doz. Axes, all just received and for sale by WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Oct. 25, 1859.

FURS.—A few sets of very handsome Brown Russia, Fitch and Sable Furs. Received and for sale by STAUNTON STEAM MILLS. Staunton, Nov. 2, 1859.

CORN SHELLERS.—We have on hand four different varieties of Corn Shellers, and are prepared to sell them at a low price. WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Oct. 25.

OLD DOMINION COFFEE POTS.—A fresh supply on hand and for sale by WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Nov. 15, 1859.

BBLS. Molasses and Syrup, just received by TAYLOR & HOGUE. Staunton, Oct. 11, 1859.

SELF-HEATING SMOOTH IRONS—for sale by WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Nov. 15, 1859.

WAITERS.—Several handsome sets of Waiters, and a few sets of Waiters, all just received and for sale by WOODS & GILKESON. Staunton, Oct. 25.

ALL kinds of Iron Machinery fitted up at the work Shop of the Staunton Foundry. See J. G. BARBER & CO. Station, Nov. 15.

FOR Hats, Caps, and every style of Gents' Furnishing Goods, call at J. POLLITZ'S, Staunton, Oct. 11, 1859. Clothing House high-minded, honorable and generous men, remarkable for its paternal feeling, and its high appreciation of the talent and virtue of its members, should all be enlisted against this one? It cannot be his lofty egoism—others tower as high, and are beloved. It cannot be his low pride—connected as he is with the profession spring from obscure beginnings, and are loved the more for it. If then Mr. Fultz is hated as intensely and universally as his friends insist, by those who know him best, the fault must be his own. But again—his case is stated even without a cause, which is very improbable, how do the people expect to have their business done by lawyers, all of whom are on such terms with the Judge? Can he, however sincerely, do justice to the clients of his office? These are questions that seriously ought to be asked, and should be well considered. If Mr. Fultz agrees with his friends that the lawyers all hate him, and is governed by a proper sense of delicacy, how can he consent to occupy a position so painful to a refined mind, and how can he expect such exemption from human frailty as would enable him to do justice among his enemies? Let the people ponder these assertions of dire hostility, made and insisted on by Mr. Fultz's friends, and decide for themselves and their clients, whether they will not rather question the seriously deluded office lawyer, than the honest, office lawyer, who has written a long article, and yet have shunned answering questions which involve your own honor, and that of your friends. Why don't you tell who stopped those "wheels of Justice"? The people are demanding a reply, and you need not expect to escape it. I will teach a stinging lesson to "wheels" at you, without ceasing, till you answer. Again, why don't you string together those "Phillips" which you say the lawyers have uttered against Mr. Fultz, and point out the names of the great offenders, and explain some of the great importance, connected with the Clerk's office. I had supposed the researches of your friend Fultz, in that office, would have satisfied you long since, but he is still burrowing, I am told, for your accommodation. What do you mean? Are new accusations to be trumped up, at the "tail and" of the canvass, now that all the first have been tried and disproved? You are no longer willing to recede, unless you can long since, you are your principal. You feel that that ground is swept away by proof, and your shattered ship must be run into harbor for repairs, just as the battle is closing on.

SOFAS.—A new lot of Sofas, just to hand, very cheap. Staunton, July 19, '59. D. A. CHANDLER.

But you are not to be deterred by these changes—unless you show who dogged those "wheels"—who uttered "Phillips" against Mr. Fultz, and who excluded the farmers, &c., from the rank of Judge Thompson, the people will not believe another word you say, until you have satisfied your conscience, and your friends, that you are not a party to the wrong. They are sick of your persecutions against a man, who is conscious of his innocence, has placed his cause in their generous hands, "Z" has a large country correspondence, dear "Junius," disclosing the secret springs of your machinery—pointing out the long purse, who are funded at the present Judge, because of the protection he has felt bound to extend to the widow, the orphan and the poor, contrary to their interests, and their impartial judgment in their own cases, telling what the people upon his conduct, and the course he has pursued. They are ugly doubts, which from affection for you and "my countryman," and others concerned, I had held back, but if you continue splashing mud, and a new war is to be commenced on our words, those letters will carry all before them, and you must take them "for better or worse."

For the Spectator. Judicial Election. Messrs. Editors:—Having shown in your paper of the 27th ult. that I do not concur in the course of the Judiciary of Virginia, under the Constitution adopted 29th June, 1776, and the amended Constitution adopted January 14, 1830; that the late tenure of that system, not only made the Judiciary a disgrace to the people, but a disgrace to the State, and that the principles of the old system, unless, indeed, he has lost all the noble sympathies of the human heart, could behold the present system without admiration and delight, and cheerfully adopt its principles.

It is not a matter of course, that every man who fills the Judicial office fifteen or twenty years, under the old system, and was trained, schooled and accustomed, during that period, to the independence and irresponsibility of that office, as well as the habits, practice and feelings, which the system created, fostered and inculcated, if elected, under the amended Constitution of August 1st, 1851, could change those habits and feelings, and perform the duties of his office, according to the requirements of the new system. I do not concur in the course of the Judiciary of Virginia, under the Constitution adopted 29th June, 1776, and the amended Constitution adopted January 14, 1830; that the late tenure of that system, not only made the Judiciary a disgrace to the people, but a disgrace to the State, and that the principles of the old system, unless, indeed, he has lost all the noble sympathies of the human heart, could behold the present system without admiration and delight, and cheerfully adopt its principles.

It is not a matter of course, that every man who fills the Judicial office fifteen or twenty years, under the old system, and was trained, schooled and accustomed, during that period, to the independence and irresponsibility of that office, as well as the habits, practice and feelings, which the system created, fostered and inculcated, if elected, under the amended Constitution of August 1st, 1851, could change those habits and feelings, and perform the duties of his office, according to the requirements of the new system. I do not concur in the course of the Judiciary of Virginia, under the Constitution adopted 29th June, 1776, and the amended Constitution adopted January 14, 1830; that the late tenure of that system, not only made the Judiciary a disgrace to the people, but a disgrace to the State, and that the principles of the old system, unless, indeed, he has lost all the noble sympathies of the human heart, could behold the present system without admiration and delight, and cheerfully adopt its principles.

It is not a matter of course, that every man who fills the Judicial office fifteen or twenty years, under the old system, and was trained, schooled and accustomed, during that period, to the independence and irresponsibility of that office, as well as the habits, practice and feelings, which the system created, fostered and inculcated, if elected, under the amended Constitution of August 1st, 1851, could change those habits and feelings, and perform the duties of his office, according to the requirements of the new system. I do not concur in the course of the Judiciary of Virginia, under the Constitution adopted 29th June, 1776, and the amended Constitution adopted January 14, 1830; that the late tenure of that system, not only made the Judiciary a disgrace to the people, but a disgrace to the State, and that the principles of the old system, unless, indeed, he has lost all the noble sympathies of the human heart, could behold the present system without admiration and delight, and cheerfully adopt its principles.

It is not a matter of course, that every man who fills the Judicial office fifteen or twenty years, under the old system, and was trained, schooled and accustomed, during that period, to the independence and irresponsibility of that office, as well as the habits, practice and feelings, which the system created, fostered and inculcated, if elected, under the amended Constitution of August 1st, 1851, could change those habits and feelings, and perform the duties of his office, according to the requirements of the new system. I do not concur in the course of the Judiciary of Virginia, under the Constitution adopted 29th June, 1776, and the amended Constitution adopted January 14, 1830; that the late tenure of that system, not only made the Judiciary a disgrace to the people, but a disgrace to the State, and that the principles of the old system, unless, indeed, he has lost all the noble sympathies of the human heart, could behold the present system without admiration and delight, and cheerfully adopt its principles.

It is not a matter of course, that every man who fills the Judicial office fifteen or twenty years, under the old system, and was trained, schooled and accustomed, during that period, to the independence and irresponsibility of that office, as well as the habits, practice and feelings, which the system created, fostered and inculcated, if elected, under the amended Constitution of August 1st, 1851, could change those habits and feelings, and perform the duties of his office, according to the requirements of the new system. I do not concur in the course of the Judiciary of Virginia, under the Constitution adopted 29th June, 1776, and the amended Constitution adopted January 14, 1830; that the late tenure of that system, not only made the Judiciary a disgrace to the people, but a disgrace to the State, and that the principles of the old system, unless, indeed, he has lost all the noble sympathies of the human heart, could behold the present system without admiration and delight, and cheerfully adopt its principles.

It is not a matter of course, that every man who fills the Judicial office fifteen or twenty years, under the old system, and was trained, schooled and accustomed, during that period, to the independence and irresponsibility of that office, as well as the habits, practice and feelings, which the system created, fostered and inculcated, if elected, under the amended Constitution of August 1st, 1851, could change those habits and feelings, and perform the duties of his office, according to the requirements of the new system. I do not concur in the course of the Judiciary of Virginia, under the Constitution adopted 29th June, 1776, and the amended Constitution adopted January 14, 1830; that the late tenure of that system, not only made the Judiciary a disgrace to the people, but a disgrace to the State, and that the principles of the old system, unless, indeed, he has lost all the noble sympathies of the human heart, could behold the present system without admiration and delight, and cheerfully adopt its principles.

It is not a matter of course, that every man who fills the Judicial office fifteen or twenty years, under the old system, and was trained, schooled and accustomed, during that period, to the independence and irresponsibility of that office, as well as the habits, practice and feelings, which the system created, fostered and inculcated, if elected, under the amended Constitution of August 1st, 1851, could change those habits and feelings, and perform the duties of his office, according to the requirements of the new system. I do not concur in the course of the Judiciary of Virginia, under the Constitution adopted 29th June, 1776, and the amended Constitution adopted January 14, 1830; that the late tenure of that system, not only made the Judiciary a disgrace to the people, but a disgrace to the State, and that the principles of the old system, unless, indeed, he has lost all the noble sympathies of the human heart, could behold the present system without admiration and delight, and cheerfully adopt its principles.

It is not a matter of course, that every man who fills the Judicial office fifteen or twenty years, under the old system, and was trained, schooled and accustomed, during that period, to the independence and irresponsibility of that office, as well as the habits, practice and feelings, which the system created, fostered and inculcated, if elected, under the amended Constitution of August 1st, 1851, could change those habits and feelings, and perform the duties of his office, according to the requirements of the new system. I do not concur in the course of the Judiciary of Virginia, under the Constitution adopted 29th June, 1776, and the amended Constitution adopted January 14, 1830; that the late tenure of that system, not only made the Judiciary a disgrace to the people, but a disgrace to the State, and that the principles of the old system, unless, indeed, he has lost all the noble sympathies of the human heart, could behold the present system without admiration and delight, and cheerfully adopt its principles.

It is not a matter of course, that every man who fills the Judicial office fifteen or twenty years, under the old system, and was trained, schooled and accustomed, during that period, to the independence and irresponsibility of that office, as well as the habits, practice and feelings, which the system created, fostered and inculcated, if elected, under the amended Constitution of August 1st, 1851, could change those habits and feelings, and perform the duties of his office, according to the requirements of the new system. I do not concur in the course of the Judiciary of Virginia, under the Constitution adopted 29th June, 1776, and the amended Constitution adopted January 14, 1830; that the late tenure of that system, not only made the Judiciary a disgrace to the people, but a disgrace to the State, and that the principles of the old system, unless, indeed, he has lost all the noble sympathies of the human heart, could behold the present system without admiration and delight, and cheerfully adopt its principles.

It is not a matter of course, that every man who fills the Judicial office fifteen or twenty years, under the old system, and was trained, schooled and accustomed, during that period, to the