RECIPE FOR MAKING MONEY.—Advertise constantly and liberally in the "Staunton Spectator."

Sale bonds for sale at the "Spectator" Office—very pretty and cheap.

Mr. Jos. T. Mitchell is a candidate for the Sheriffship of Clarke county.

Idea, says Voltaire, are like beards, men get them when they grow up, and women never have any.

We are indebted to Dr. J. B. Bell, of Chicago, for a copy of the Chicago Times, a sound conservative journal.

Every business man should have a copy of the National Journal of Finance. See prospectus in another column.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Hooe & Wedderburn, Alexandria. Persons in want of fertilizers can be accommodated by purchasing from that House.

On yesterday (Monday) week some portions of Rockingham county were visited with a violent tornado which prostrated fences and some buildings. No lives were lost, though some narrow escapes were made.

J. Marshall McCue, Esq., who has been for five years Presiding Justice of the County Court, was, at the last Court, unanimously re-elected. This fact speaks loudly in favor of the intelligence and efficiency of Mr. McCue.

PHOTOGRAPHS. Those who wish to obtain good pictures of themselves or friends can do so by calling at Burdett's Photograph Gallery. He copies pictures life-like and life size from small pictures which have been taken heretofore.

"UNION REGISTER." We have received a copy of the first number of the Union Register just established, at Union, Monroe county, West Virginia, by Messrs. McCreary & Shanklin, proprietors. We hope the "Union Register" will be liberally patronized. It is published in a good county, and should be well sustained.

TO BE HUNG. The negro who has been confined in the jail of this place for some time, and who was sentenced by a military court to be hung, for killing a man and his wife and burning the house near the Natural Bridge in Rockbridge county, was taken on Thursday last, by a military guard, to Richmond, where he will be executed on next Friday.

LE BON TON. We have received from the publishers, S. T. Taylor, 349 Canal street, New York, J. R. Taylor, 22 North Charles street, Baltimore, the May number of this splendid journal of Paris fashion. It contains patterns and plates of the newest female fashions, and the engraving and coloring are so exquisitely executed as to entitle the volume to a high rank among works of art. It is also replete with reading matter of a varied and interesting character.

SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY. We published some time since the circum- stances of the arrest of the notorious robber, Jonathan Hughes, who robbed Jno. Hamilton, Esq., and others in Rockbridge county. At the last Circuit Court of Rockbridge, Judge Sheffield presiding, he was sentenced to the penitentiary for the long term of nineteen years.— In the custody of the Sheriff of that county he arrived here on Tuesday evening last, and the next morning was taken to his future home in Richmond—the penitentiary.

A SECRET WELL KNOWING. We have a secret to communicate to those of our readers who wish to purchase goods on the best terms from the cleverest merchants. If you wish to know where you can make purchases on the best terms from the most liberal and polite gentlemen we refer you to the advertising columns of this paper, for this class of merchants never fail to advertise in the "Spectator." Never deal with a merchant who is too stung to advertise, for he will be sure to cheat you.

A FAMILY MEDICINE. "Doctor, Doctor, can you tell what will make a sick man well?" "Certainly, we can tell you not only what will make a sick man well, but what will prevent a well man from getting sick. It is a secret, but, pro bono publico, we will divulge it. Buy, keep on hand, and use in time, Remond's Pills, manufactured in this place by Remond's & Co. We have not only heard these pills commended by others who have been using them for years, but we have used them ourselves and believe them to be all that is claimed for them.

The Supreme Court. A vacancy has existed on the bench of this Court for sometime by the death of Judge Catron of Tennessee. The President has nominated Henry S. Stausberry, an eminent lawyer, to fill the vacancy, but the dominant majority in the Senate are postponing action on the nomination for the only reason, as would seem, that the nominee is not of the radical stripe of republicanism.

Reduction of Size. A number of publishers in this State who have been issuing large papers have very prudently concluded to diminish the dimensions of them. They find that the intelligent public appreciate matter more than magnitude—that size adds materially to the expense, but nothing to the subscription lists or advertising patronage, and hence it is wiser to issue smaller and better papers.

Nearly one half of the forty-eight negroes who were released from jail in Washington, on condition of going to work in Louisiana, have returned to that city to infest their old haunts, and give the criminal Court more trouble.

The famous "Kentucky Devil" has, they say, been lassoed and thrown into prison. Now let Tennessee have a cage Brownlow, and the two States will be even.

For the Spectator. Mr. Editor.—You will be kept busy to notice all the dark, sneaking, underhanded petitions, which are being circulated among a certain class of our citizens, for the sinister and unworthy purposes. To-day, (the 26th) my attention has been called to one, said to have been prepared by that creature, Deas, who has brought disgrace upon the worthy freedom of our country, by being made a member of their Court.—Have not seen the petition, but learn that it has been numerously signed by the so-called Union men of Pendleton county, known as "Swamps," and is now circulating in this county. Here, it is presumed, it will be cheerfully signed, by that class of our people, who, under the late monarch's and outrageous order of that monarch, at Richmond, one Gen. Terry, assembled in our Court House a few weeks since, to say under oath, whether men of their kidney, could get justice done there before our civil tribunals.—I am one, Mr. Editor, who thinks they cannot get justice, but in a view entirely different from a certain ex-Capt. of Militia, residing about four miles from your town, who said, "he did not believe that any man would do that and as he did, during the war, could get a show of justice," at the hands of our Courts. But to the petition. It has been gotten up for, and at the instance of, a certain individual living in White Oak Lick, on the road, via North River Gap, to Pendleton county. This individual, for a short time, carried water successfully on both shoulders, in the early part of the war. For some months Gen. Ed. Johnston employed him as a guide and scout to his forces, whilst on Alleghany. Even at that time, he was aiding the enemy. Afterwards, his house became the rendezvous of deserters from our ranks, as well as those who ran off before they were placed in the army, and he piloted them thro' successfully to New Creek and other points, and brought back the mail for their friends from some numerous classes of deserters within the Yankee lines. Coming under the suspicion of the authorities, his premises were on one occasion investigated by some of Capt. Avis' guard, and this same individual killed one of them from his own domicile.

All familiar with his premises know that ever since he has lived there, near a quarter of a century or more, it would puzzle a dozen way-faring sheep to arrive, from year's end to year's end, at this station presents to the Congress of the United States that this most devoted and self-sacrificing Union man, had his valuable property destroyed by the rebels, and asks thousands of dollars of indemnity. For the several thousands of deserters he aided, in running thro' to Yankeeedom, he asks heavy remuneration.—For the God's service he rendered in murdering one of his own countrymen perhaps, he asks at the hands of Stevens, Sumner & Co., $25,000. This is a faint outline of what this infamous paper, prepared by Deas's hands and for a most unworthy individual, is being circulated for.—What next do you ask? WE WILL SEE.

Murder and Lynch Law in Accomac County. On Thursday evening of week before last, Mrs. Drummond, wife of Captain John Drummond, resident of Accomac county, near Pongoteague, was most brutally murdered by a negro who was recently in the army. The New York Record says:

"He also attempted the murder of a colored woman at the same time. His purpose was robbery. He asked Mrs. Drummond for some money supposed to be in the house, which she refused to give him; whereupon he procured an axe and burst her skull open, and dragged her to the stables. He then demanded of the colored woman that she should say that she had committed the murder, and he then struck her with the axe in the same manner, and left her for dead. The colored woman, though dangerously wounded, revived sufficiently to relate the above facts; and with strict attention being paid to her case, may eventually recover. The citizens of Pongoteague went in search of the author of the heinous act, and capturing him, at once hung him to a limb of a tree.

The Washington Chronicle calls President Johnson "a vain and weak man." A little while ago, the Chronicle would have thought it treason for other people to have said this. The "Old Capitol" would have been too good for them!

Marriages. On the 12th inst., by Rev. J. B. Axtell, Lieut. R. H. Decker, a gentleman, and the daughter of the Stonewall Brigade, to Miss NAOMI TAYLOR, both of Winchester.

Deaths. Mr. JAMES LAWRENCE died on the 19th inst., in Staunton, aged 67 years. Died at Hillsborough, Highland county, Ohio, on April 14th, 1869, JAMES A. TRIMBLE, Esq., in the 78th year of his age.

His ancestors removed from Augusta county to Woodford county, Kentucky, where he was born, in 1788, on Clear Creek. He was young when his father purchased land in Ohio, and he went to reside there with his family, when cut off by death. The subject of this notice passed through life, bearing the character of an honest, intelligent, public spirited and useful citizen, and a devoted member of the Methodist church. He leaves one brother, Gov. Allen Trimble, older, and John A. Trimble, in Virginia, with a numerous connection to mourn his death.

THE UNION MOWER. This is beyond all question the most desirable Mower now in use, not one having failed last season among the great quantity sold. Price $120 for the 4 foot machine, and $130 for the 4 1/2 foot machine.

There has been much competition between the different inventors and manufacturers, in striving to produce the most perfect machine, and it is believed that each have gained some good points, and that the God of Genius has somewhat equally divided his favors. It appears to be the labor of each successful manufacturer to convince the farmer that his arrangement, his gearing, guard and knives, or whatever his alleged improvement may consist of, makes his machine superior to all others. It is no argument to convince the farmer that a machine combining, as the Union Mower does, all of the important and valuable features of the various machines, is the machine for practical use.

Very Respectfully, HENRY BESSARD, STAUNTON, VA., February 22nd, 1869.

Messrs. F. Whitman & Sons.—Yours of the 20th inst. is at hand. In reply to your inquiry regarding the merits of the Union Mower I purchased of you last summer, have to say, that it is a most useful and economical machine, and the neighborhood, and I have never seen its equal.—It is of lighter draft than any other machine, makes clean and speedy work, and kept in good order all through harvest. When I received the Mower you sent me it could beat the world, but as far as I have traveled I have never met its rival.

Very Respectfully, M. C. HARMAN, STAUNTON, VA., February 22nd, 1869.

Messrs. F. Whitman & Sons.—I purchased of you a "Union Mower," last season, and upon trial find it superior to any mower I have ever used before.

Very Respectfully, T. C. PETERS, Baltimore, Md.
