

Staunton Spectator.

Local News.

Job Work of all kinds, from a visiting card to a poster, or from a circular to a pamphlet, can be executed, on short notice, in the very best style at the Spectator Office.

All should pay a visit to the Fair in the Town Hall, now in full tide of its operation. Go to the Fair, feast your eyes and palates, and deplete your pockets to a healthful condition.

Some thief stole a likeness of Gen. Stonewall Jackson from the Ladies' Fair, in the Town Hall, on last Sunday. He would rob the grave and sell his mother's corpse to Medical students for dissection. He became "demoralized" and left the picture lying on the ground, near the hall.

Mr. J. S. Moffett bought of R. H. Dudley of this county five fine cattle weighing as follows: 2150, 1645, 1600, 1400, 1365. These are said to be excellent cattle. Give "Old Augusta" half a chance, and she will equal almost any other county in any kind of production.

The "High School for boys" established by Rev. Jno. Rice Bowman and Rev. Francis H. Bowman at the "Angusta Church" in this county will commence its Fall Session on the 1st day of September next. The former is a graduate of Princeton College, New Jersey, and the latter is a graduate of Oglethorpe University, Georgia, and the University of Va.—We can confidently recommend this school.

An effort is being made to secure the names of all soldiers who have lost limbs in the war. Those in this county are requested to report to Wm. A. Burnett, Clerk of County Court.—They will state whether the amputation is above or below the knee, above or below the elbow, and whether they have lost both arms and legs. The object is to enable crippled soldiers to get the best artificial limbs at the cheapest price.

A gentleman has just paid his subscription to the Spectator who has been taking it regularly for 43 years, and has always paid in advance except for this year, when the circumstances were such as to make it impossible to do so. He is perfectly excusable for his failure to pay in advance for this year. We would commend the punctuality of this subscriber as an example for others to follow. We have no doubt that he is a good man and has an easy conscience.

It will be seen by advertisement in another column that the Choir of the Presbyterian Church will favor this community with another splendid concert on next Monday night. The programme will be entirely new, and will consist of choice choruses from the standard Operas, Anthems, Quartettes, Solos, &c. The proceeds to be appropriated for the benefit of the church. Tickets, 50 cents. The church will, of course, be crowded. All who can enjoy good music should attend.

This is the title of a newspaper just started at Lewisburg, Greenbrier County, West Va.—B. F. Harlow, Editor, and Arch. W. Folk, Publisher. It is quite a neat paper, and the experience, ability and skill of both of these gentlemen in their respective departments, furnish the best guarantee that the paper will be conducted in good style, and be printed in a handsome manner. We hope that these gentlemen, who enter upon their enterprise con amore, will be in the highest degree successful. The "Independent" has our best wishes for its triumphant success.

We learn that the enterprising firm of R. G. Mayo & Co., of the Rockbridge Baths, have thrown a pontoon bridge, under the superintendence of Capt. Michael Price, across North River, the landing on one side being at the Baths. The bridge is 120 feet long. The importance of this improvement will be appreciated by those who know that there is no bridge between the head-waters of North River and Lexington, that often, for weeks at a time, the river cannot be crossed at all, and that the fords are deep, rough, and at all times more or less dangerous. If Rockbridge can get a few more enterprising men from Augusta to settle within her limits, she may be aroused from her Rip Van Winkle nap. She sleeps soundly.

This association held their second meeting in the Baptist church, on last Sunday evening, at 4 o'clock, and was permanently organized by the election of the following officers: Wm. H. Peyton, President; A. M. Simpson, 1st Vice President; G. T. Baker, 2d Vice President; D. E. Strasburg, Secretary, and W. D. Candler, Treasurer. The regular meetings of the society will be held alternately in the different churches represented on the fourth Sabbath of every month. To all the schools in town, which have not yet connected themselves with the Staunton S. S. Union, a cordial invitation is extended to unite in the good work at the July meeting, or at any time they may feel so disposed. The object of this organization is to cultivate unity of feeling and action in the furtherance of the Sabbath School cause.

An interesting pamphlet has just been printed at this office, entitled, "Interview between President Lincoln and Col. John B. Baldwin, April 4th, 1861—Statements and Evidence." It contains Col. Baldwin's statement in reference to the issue between Hon. John M. Botts and himself; the testimony, before the reconstruction committee, of Mr. Jno. F. Lewis, Col. Jno. B. Baldwin, and Hon. Jno. Minor Botts, and letters from Allen B. Magruder, Esq., Judge Henry W. Thomas, Hon. Geo. W. Summers, Hon. John Janney, Hon. A. H. H. Stuart, Ex-Lieut. Governor Samuel Price, and Robert Whitehead, Esq.

Knowing the anxiety of many persons in various parts of the State to read this interesting pamphlet, we have printed a number of extra copies which can be had at this office at 25 cents each, or five copies for $1.00. Address "Staunton Spectator," or R. Matz & Co., Staunton, Virginia.

WORK AT THE CEMETERY. In accordance with the request of the ladies of the Cemetery Committee, on Thursday last the citizens of Staunton closed their houses of business and repaired to the Cemetery with picks, hoes, spades and shovels to dig graves to receive the remains of the soldiers buried on the battle-field of Piedmont and of such others as were buried at Stripling Springs and other places in the county. Such of the citizens as were not able, from sickness or other cause, to go to labor themselves hired persons to work in their stead. Some colored persons volunteered to assist, and many were hired. All worked well, and by 5 o'clock in the evening they had dug, it is supposed, a sufficient number of graves to receive the remains of all the soldiers buried in the county, exclusive of those buried in the Cemetery. The next labor will be to disinter and have the remains of the soldiers buried at Piedmont, Stripling Springs and other places, brought to the Cemetery and properly buried. The Cemetery Committee will not cease their labors till this be accomplished, and then they will probably succeed in having a suitable monument erected in the Cemetery.

PRICE OF SPECIE. The news of the failure of the Peace Conference in Europe which indicated that the impending war in Europe was inevitable, so far as human ken could determine, had the effect to run up the price of gold from 1.30 to 1.67 last week. It has since fallen, and now the price of gold and silver are as follows: Gold 148, silver 1.38.

The Soldiers' Cemetery Committee desire all persons having any of our soldiers buried on their farms, to notify them of the fact as soon as possible. The Committee will be obliged to the ladies who have papers for collection, if they will remit them any money they may have in their hands, as it is needed now.

We were gratified to find on a recent visit to Lexington, Va., that the Virginia Hotel at Staunton has been completely and elegantly refurnished in a first-class style by its present proprietors, Messrs. Geo. L. & W. H. Peyton, whose polite attention deserve and insure success. The travelling public will find this house fitted up in the handsomest style, with all the modern improvements, and the table provided with the best of fare, and will receive the most thoughtful attention at the hands of these true old Virginia hosts.—Richmond Enquirer.

Isaac Paul & Co. are selling off at cost. See advertisement.

Read the advertisement of Piper and Funkhouser. They offer inducements to purchasers.

Geo. A. Piper has just received an additional supply of Stoneware at "White's Corner."

G. Mandelbaum, next door to the Va. Hotel, promises to sell clothing at cheap rates.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Jno. A. & Y. M. Bickle practical cabinet makers and undertakers. They have a large lot of fine furniture for sale at the "White House"—not the President's mansion—corner of Beverly and Water Streets.

The memorable 4th of July will be devoted to a jaunt to Elliott's Knob, an exceeding high mountain, the loftiest peak in the State, from which, if a glass powerful enough could be constructed, the whole universe might be seen, and not cause one to see double, where, even temperance dieters, can feel high up, without having to imbibe elevator. The venerable commissary, "mine host" of former excursions, will be at his post with his capacious heart and hospitable hand wide open, open, open, and be surrounded by the acid fruit of the tropics; saccharine compounds; a flagon of the "O-be-joy" on which glasses powerful enough can be concocted to cause one to see double, where, even Heaven's last best gift to man, in quantity and quality defying description. For further particulars inquire the goody company. No special bids: room for all. Once more to the summit dear friends, once more, is the order of P. O. POLMER, Chief &c.

Judge Underwood Refuses to Issue a writ of Habeas Corpus in the Case of Mr. Davis—His Written Opinion sent to the President—Interesting Details.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Mr. Shea, of the counsel for Jeff. Davis, made a motion to-day before Judge Underwood, in chambers, in order to test the jurisdiction of the court in Virginia, involving the power to hold the prisoner to bail, it being a judicial question with which the President has nothing to do.

Judge Underwood expressed the opinion which has always been insisted on by Chief Justice Chase, that so long as martial law or military surveillance was enforced in Virginia, the courts were adjourned, and to be used in aid of the military powers. Judge Underwood declined issuing a writ of habeas corpus to bring the prisoner before his court until he received from the President a relinquishment of the accused to the civil authorities, Davis being now a prisoner of war. Judge Underwood rendered his opinion in writing, which was delivered to the President by Mr. O'Connor.

All action in the premises is suspended until further orders from the Government.

It is stated, on the authority of one of the counsel, that no application for bail was made to Chief Justice Chase.

Attorney-General Speed, Chief Justice Chase, Mr. O'Connor, and ex-Governor Pratt were among those present in Judge Underwood's chambers to-day.

Within the last few days Davis's friends, personal and otherwise, have had free admission to him.

The passage of the resolution by the House declaring in its opinion that Davis should be kept in custody until tried by law, was superinduced by the apprehension that he would be haled. The rules were suspended for the purpose of passing the resolution.

THE EUROPEAN WAR.—The New York Post says Austria, it seems, at the last moment, refuses to come into the Conference, which was proposed chiefly on her account, except on condition that she shall not lose territory. This is as though a country gentleman should refuse to enter a mock-auction shop except on condition that he should not have his pockets picked.

Prussia, Italy and France all expect to gain something; Austria alone was to give up a good deal. England stood by, like a sober-sided policeman, not so much caring who was robbed as anxious that everything should be decently and quietly done.

Austria refuses to join the conference—so says Napoleon. He has ingeniously brought affairs to a dead lock, and now he wipos his eyes, and cries, "Oh, what madness, oh, what perversity!" And truly we think Prussia and Austria mad and perverse; for they should see that the only one likely to gain by their quarrel is Napoleon.

War seems now inevitable; the beginning is near; and, considering the various forces arrayed on each side, openly and secretly, he would be a shrewd man who could foresee.

Hotels.

COL. C. S. PEYTON. GEO. L. PEYTON, WM. H. PEYTON. VIRGINIA HOTEL, STAUNTON, VA. GEO. L. PEYTON & CO., Proprietors. R. F. WEBB, superintendent.

This commodious and popular Hotel, (which has been closed for several years) long known as the leading Hotel of town, has been remodeled, Painted and Papered, in the best style, and furnished with NEW and ELEGANT FURNITURE, and possesses now every modern improvement for the comfort of guests. It is now re-opened and kept in a style not surpassed by any Hotel in the State.

It is pleasantly located in the most business portion of the town, near the Railroad Depot! not so near as to cause the guests to be annoyed by the running of trains, and the noise and bustle at the Depot.

To such as may feel disposed to patronize those who served with gallantry and fidelity in the Confederate army, they would say that one of their firm—Col. Chas. S. Peyton—raised a volunteer company at the beginning of the war, and led the misfortune to lose an arm in the second battle of Manassas, and that, notwithstanding he was thus crippled, he remained in the service in the field and was again wounded in the terrible battle of Gettysburg, for he remained in the military service till the war was over.

The proprietors, however, do not rest their claims to patronage upon military services and sacrifices, but upon the merits of the Hotel.

CHARACTER OF THEIR HOTEL.

Those who wish the very best fare and accommodations, whether FROM THE NORTH OR SOUTH, can be suited to "T" at the Virginia Hotel. The Post Office, Adams' Express Office and a Fine Billiard Table are connected with the Hotel. A good Livery Stable is also connected with the Hotel. Stages on the various lines will take passengers to this Hotel, and call on them when they wish to leave. Omnibuses to and from the Depot Free! Connection with all Trains leaving town guaranteed. Having long experience as Hotel Keepers, the Proprietors trust, with MODERATE CHARGES and LIBERAL POLICY, to maintain the favorable reputation of the Old Virginia Hotel. GEO. L. PEYTON & CO., Proprietors. June 12—t near the Court House, Main street, WOODSTOCK, VA. This well known Hotel has been remodeled, repainted and papered in handsome style, and now open for the reception of boarders and visitors; its healthy location, and nearness to Burner's White Sulphur and Drake Springs, will make it a pleasant and healthy Summer retreat in the Valley. During the late war it was one of the most popular Hotels in Virginia, on account of being always plentifully provided. Charges moderate. The subscribers will spare no pains to make it a pleasant home to all who may favor him with their patronage. Terms moderate. June 12—1m F. SCHEFFER, Proprietor.

NATIONAL HOTEL.
