THE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE CATTLE MARKET. The offerings at the scales during the past week amounted to 1819 head, against 2030 last week.

291 sold to speculators for other markets; 470 to farmers for grazing, and about 100 head re-shipped to the East without being offered here, and the balance for meat use.

Prices today ranged as follows: Old cows and Seal-ways at $5.00-$4.00; Ordinary thin steers, oxen and cows at 4.00-$5.00.

Fair to good stock cattle, fat; Fair quality hogs, 60c; And the very best hogs 80c-$7.50 per 100 lbs, the average price being about $6.75.

WHEAT.—The market during the past week has been well supplied in common wheat, but there is a scarcity of good fat ones, and we note a decided improvement in prices.

Hogs.—The market has been fully supplied during the past week, and there is some activity, but no change to note in rates. Prices today ranged as follows: Fair to good fat hogs at 12c-$14.25 per 100 lbs net.

PAIN KILLER. [OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.] No article ever attained to such unbounded popularity...

There has nothing as yet surpassed the Pain Killer, which is the most valuable family medicine now in use...

Its wonderful power in relieving the most severe pain has never been equalled.

It is one of the few articles that are just what they pretend to be.

After many years' trial of Davis' Pain Killer, we advise that every family should provide themselves with so effective and speedy a pain killer.

The Pain Killer is for sale by Medicine Dealers generally.

Insurance.

CHARTER PERPETUAL HOME COMPANY. VIRGINIA INSURANCE COMPANY.

FOR LIFE INSURANCE ONLY! Cash Capital Paid in, $125,000.

Chartered by Legislature of Virginia, December 13th, 1865.

OFFICERS: Maj. H. M. Bell, President. Wm. H. Tams, Secretary. Dr. B. B. Donaghe, Chief Medical Examiner.

DIRECTORS: E. W. Bayley, Rev. R. H. Phillips, John A. English.

Call and examine its merits before Insuring.

GOOD AGENTS WANTED. Address Rev. R. H. PHILLIPS, Gen'l Agent, Lock Box 241, Staunton, Va.

READ! It recommends itself especially to the people of the Valley and the South as a Southern enterprise investing its money at home.

It is believed that its liberal charter will enable it to make, to the assured, large dividends than is heretofore possible for any company.

Seven-eighths of its profits are divided among policy-holders on the contribution plan. It guarantees on the face of its Policies, a definite surrender value.

On the Life Plan on ages under 55, a Loan of 50 per cent. of the Premium will be given, at six per cent interest—thus insuring the largest amount of insurance for the least amount of money.

The Policies issued by this Company are incontestable after five years' duration, for, or on account of, errors or mis-statements, except as regards age in the application; it is believed that all attempts at fraud will culminate within that period, and while it is the Company's duty and intention to guard, as a sacred trust, the moneys which policy-holders deposit from year to year, and to protect the same against fraudulent designs, the above guarantee is given to satisfy insurers that accidental mis-statements or omissions cannot by any possibility effect the validity of insurances effected with the "Virginia."

Now, therefore, and in this most reliable Company, adopt the wise course of taking a Policy. Put it not off till to-morrow. No man can tell what a day may bring forth. It is hard for you to raise the premium, how much harder will it be for the helpless ones you may leave behind, to struggle with poverty, if you die without such provision for them? For full information, apply to

Rev. R. H. PHILLIPS, General Agent, or to JAMES KER, or R. S. PHILLIPS, Agents, under First National Bank, Staunton, Va.

VIRGINIA INSURANCE COMPANY. V. Books and Subscriptions to the Capital Stock of this Company, for sale by the Bankers, House of W. H. Tams & Co., and at the offices of the two Banks in Staunton.

A MYSTERY. What mystic path was tracing, When the sun his rays was shedding, Beaming, gleaming, fairly streaming thro' the trees, And I watched the streamlet glistening, As entranced I was listening To the melting, merry music of the breeze; When beneath a tree reclining, Where no ray of sun was shining, I saw a fellow-being on the ground; Though no other words he uttered, Quickly, soon his eyes uplifted, 'Upward lifted, as he wildly looked around. Good friend, said I, approaching, Do not charge me with encroaching, Are you waiting for some messenger of news? But no other word he uttered, Save "Go to Simon Hill's for dry goods, boots and shoes." I was not a little startled, Said a strange expression surely, Said I, looking down demurely, I trust good sir, the words you'll excuse, But he only looked the prouder, As he spoke the words the louder, Go to Hill's for all the goods you use. Why bless me, man I thought, As his sanity I doubted, 'Tis surely naught to me what merchant's goods you buy, But he only cried the higher, With enthusiastic fire, You'll save half your cash if Simon Hill you try! So I left him there reclining, Where no ray of sun was shining, And frequently I wondered at what the man spoke in the woods; Thinking surely it was a mystery, And that some hidden history Was weaving round myself and Simon's goods, So then I resolved to try them, Then could not help but buy them, And, behold! I was cause for gladness, That the words I deemed were madness, Induced me thus to purchase my goods from Simon Hill. So I will find the same cause for gladness, 'Till I find in time some of the late bargains, lately received direct from New York.

They will find a splendid assortment of Ladies' Cloaks, at prices ranging from $2.50 to $25; 200 sets Ladies' Furs from $4.00 to $20; elegant bleached Fall and Winter Dress Goods for Ladies; a large variety of black and colored cloakings. The Dress Goods Stock consists, in part, of the national shades of Empress Cloths, Chane Poplins, Scotch Mohair, Poplin Plaids, Black and Colored Silks, French and English Merino, All-wool Delaines—all colors. A large assortment of muslin delaine, large stock of prints in various styles, large stock, a beautiful article for mourning suits. A complete assortment of the newest styles of coats and cuffs, real lace collars, real lace handkerchiefs, real lace and edges. Notions of all kinds and descriptions, dress buttons and trimming fringes, English and German Hosiery. Ladies' and gentlemen's gloves in full assortment. Also a very fine stock of French cloth, black and colored. Doekin cassimere, fancy cassimere and the Charlottesville Factory Goods. A handsome assortment of carpets, all the various qualities. Oil cloth, 4-4 and 6-4, rugs and mats, boots and shoes, a full assortment of Hats for men and boys.

H. L. Powell, J. A. Templeton and D. B. O'Rock are with me and will be glad to serve their friends in any manner. S. H. HILL.
