

Staunton Spectator

TUESDAY, APRIL 23, 1878.

MR. EDISON AND HIS TALKING MACHINE.—Col. Gilman, the Washington Correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch, in his letter of Friday last says that Mr. Edison, the photograph inventor, is a very plain, modest-looking young man, and has over one hundred and fifty patents and above ninety caveats.

THE PROPOSED MONUMENT TO JEFFERSON.—The House of Representatives, on Saturday week, patriotically observed the birthday of Thomas Jefferson, by voting an appropriation of $5,000, for the erection of a monument over the grave of the deceased statesman, at Monticello, near Charlottesville, Virginia.

THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE says: "If the passage of this bill depended upon the Virginia members of the House of Representatives, its chances for success would have been poor indeed, for only three of them were present when the vote was taken last Saturday."

MINERS KILLING COLORED MEN.—At the mining town of Coal Creek, near Lexington, Ind., Wednesday, a militia company of miners who were on a strike parade, and at night, while some of them were in a saloon with their arms stacked an altercation with a colored man took place, which resulted in his being killed. The strikers then went through the streets shooting at colored men on sight, killing two more and wounding another. The sheriff Thursday requested the presence of the adjutant general to aid in capturing and making a requisition for ammunition.

The British revenues for the fiscal year which closed March 31st were $388,816,495, an increase of $5,991,315 over the previous year. The chief sources of the British revenue were about one hundred and thirty-seven millions from excise duties, one hundred millions from customs, fifty-five millions from stamps, twenty-nine millions from the land tax, thirteen millions post-office profits, and nearly six millions telegraph profits.

BALLOONING ON HORSEBACK.—John Wise, the aeronaut, is in St. Louis, where he will make several balloon trips. In one the balloon is to be exploded, in another the professor will go up on horseback, and in the third there will be horse and carriage, with seats for a family.

At Providence, Rhode Island, early Thursday morning, corporal Hussan Sulh, Turkish arms inspector, quarreled with his mistress and stabbed her repeatedly with a dirk and then jumped from the third story of the house and broke his shoulder and hip. Both will probably recover.

It is almost inconceivable that any human creature could be such a monster as to put out a little girl's eyes with a hot poker, for the purpose of profiting by her as a beggar! Yet such a case has come to light in New York. An Italian beggar has charge of the little girl.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—On last Thursday evening, in Richmond, Philip Lambert attempted to commit suicide by taking a large quantity of opium. He was revived by rigorous treatment after being in an unconscious state for three hours.

Mrs. LOUISA LAWSON.—The Richmond Why says that Mrs. Louisa Lawson, who is in the Penitentiary from Rockingham, for being accessory before the fact to the murder of her husband, is represented as an excellent prisoner.

Miss Bessie Turner is dangerously ill with diphtheria at Brockton, Mass., where she has been acting as Bertha Avery. Mrs. Tilton has telegraphed to have a good nurse and other attendance provided for her.

Mrs. Tilton's son Carroll, when he heard that his mother had made the late confession, was overcome with grief; he was seen walking about the yard with his hands to his head, and would listen to no one.

Hon. R. M. T. Hunter, who failed to take the oath of office within the time prescribed by law after his election by the General Assembly, has been appointed treasurer by the Governor, and has duly qualified.

The mess-hall system under the control of the authorities of the University of Virginia is working well. A young man can now have excellent board there at from nine to ten dollars per month.

The Clarke Courier learns that Leo Wheat has purchased the farm of Mrs. S. E. T. Strubling, two miles east of Berryville, containing 438 acres, for $10,000 cash.

Mr. W. N. Davis, of West Virginia, is a candidate for district commissioner, vice General Dennison.

WEST VIRGINIA AND COLORED JUDGES.—On Monday week Mr. George O. Davenport, of Wheeling, W. Va., applied to Chief Justice Waite for a writ of error to a judgment of the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia in the case of a colored man, Taylor Strander, who had been indicted, tried and convicted, and twice sentenced to death in the courts of West Virginia, the Supreme Court of that State having affirmed the last sentence. Application was made on the ground that the law of the State of West Virginia prohibiting colored citizens from serving on juries in that State is in violation of the constitution and statutes of the United States. The chief justice, after consultation with the associate justices, awarded the writ of error. The first trial of this case was in 1872, and Strander had been under sentence of death ever since.

THE DATE OF EASTER.—Easter Sunday falling on April 21 is considered late this year, and it is thirteen days after the mean date, but it is to be remarked that in no year since the introduction of the Gregorian Calendar into England has the festival occurred on the latest possible date, April 25, though in 1761 and 1818, it fell on March 22, which is the other limit. In 1868 Easter Sunday will fall on April 25, in the new or Gregorian style, for the first time since the year 1734, or eighteen years before this style was accepted in England. The only other occasion since the reformation of the calendar by Pope Gregory XIII, upon which Easter has fallen on the latest possible date is 1666, and after 1880 this will not again occur until 1943.

A WINDFALL OF $10,000,000.—Mr. Elias Wentworth, of Elizabethport, N. J., has fallen heir, it is reported, to an estate of colossal proportions. His father, many years ago, settled on a large tract of land on which the city of Little Rock, Ark., was afterward partly built. Twenty years ago suit was brought by the heirs of the elder Wentworth against the city to recover the property. The suit was contested step by step, and finally the heirs abandoned all hope of realizing anything. On Sunday evening from Little Rock, Ark., having found Mr. Wentworth, conveyed to him the inheritance of the United States, which had just rendered a decision in favor of the heirs. The value of the property is said to be over $10,000,000.

Mrs. Pamela Brown, widow of Major-General Jacob Brown, died Sunday of last week, at Rye, N. Y., at the advanced age of ninety-three years. She was born a Pennsylvania Quaker, and was the daughter of a Quaker in Bucks county, Pa. He was in 1812 military general. During that he held commissions, and for his bravery at Chippewa, Niagara river and the siege of Fort Erie he received the thanks of Congress and a gold medal. At the siege of Fort Erie he was promoted to be major-general. In 1821 Gen. Brown was the ranking officer in the army, and consequently the commander-in-chief. This high position he held until his death, which occurred in 1828, in Washington.

TRAGIC END OF AN ELOPEMENT.—Fanny Maguire, a young white girl, eloped from Houston, Texas, with Walter Denning, a negro employed by her father. After a marriage ceremony they went to live in a hut in the neighborhood of the city. The girl's conduct was amazing, because she was educated, pretty, and had stood well socially. Denning was arrested on the charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons, and while in jail was shot to death by a mob.

In Nelson county, Virginia, a hawk was recently seen to seize a large moccasin snake, and soar to a considerable height with the serpent writhing in its talons, when suddenly the bird clasped its wings and fell heavily to the ground. The moccasin had bitten it in the neck, but the talons of the hawk were so buried in the vitals of the serpent that it also died.

Bishop Peterkin, the chairman of the standing committee of the Episcopal Diocese of West Virginia, has been elected to the office of the ratification of the Rev. George W. Peterkin of Baltimore, to the Bishopric of West Virginia, by a majority of the standing committee of the different dioceses. The new bishop will probably be consecrated the latter part of May.

FIRE IN A POSTOFFICE.—Fire was discovered in the postoffice in Winchester, on Monday night of last week, but by prompt action the contents of the office, including the mails, were saved, though some of the letters and papers were badly scorched. It is believed that the fire was caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp.

The great fire at Clarksville, Tenn., which destroyed fifty-seven houses and a quantity of tobacco and other property, is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. It is said that the negroes had been set on fire in consequence of the lynching of one of their number for an outrage committed on a young lady.

The Corporation Court of Winchester has confirmed the sale of Belmont belonging to M. B. Buck, near Front Royal, to Dr. T. A. Ashby, of Baltimore, for $15,500.

Charlottesville is steadily improving. New buildings are being erected in all directions, and the merchants generally are doing a safe though not a large spring business.

Captain J. W. Oakes, of Charleston, W. Va., committed suicide Monday of last week by throwing himself under a freight train. He was a prominent steamboat man.

A fox-hunting club will be organized in Frederick county next month, which will number about one hundred of the principal farmers of the county.

A LUCKY MAN.—Mr. George R. Gorton, of London Bridge, Princess Anne county in this State recently drew $30,000 from the Louisiana State Lottery.

The annual meeting of the Council of the Episcopal Church of Virginia will be held this year in the city of Lynchburg, commencing on the 15th of May.

Fun and Fancy. Spring poetry: Her cheeks were very ruddy, and the cheeks were awful muddy; and she loudly shrieked "Oh thunder!" as her feet flew from under. It was really very shocking, for she showed her striped stockings.

Working for bare life—making shirts for babies. "Do Editors even do wrong." "No." "What do they do?" "They do write." "Beauty and booty" was the cry of the young man, who kissed the girl and was kicked by her father.

A gentleman who had been struck by a young lady, and determined to follow the injunction and "Kiss the rod that smote him." The tendency of clubs in all times has been to destroy our youth. Hardly had our first ancestors been driven from Eden before Able, a young man, was killed by a club.—Etc.

"Every cloud has a silver lining." But that is no consolation, after all, when you reflect that things are never won with the lining side out.—Hawkeye.

The Oil City Derrick has its opinion of persons who use Latin. There is the phrase "ad infandum." No man who spells them with a "u," thinks, should set himself up as a Latin scholar.

A CLERGYMAN INDICTED.—Rev. Geo. B. Vosburgh, pastor of the Madison Avenue (Jersey City) Baptist Church, has been indicted by the grand jury of Hudson county, N. J., charged with poisoning his wife. The indictment contains several counts: one charges him with having put tartar emetic into his wife's tea; another with having put it into water designed for her use; a third charges him with having put it into her medicines. Vosburgh was arrested, pleaded not guilty, and gave bail in $50,000 to appear to answer. The trial was set for May 13.

THE HITCH IN EUROPE.—The "hitch" in the negotiations for a congress is the latest phase of the Anglo-Russian controversy. Germany now proposes that England and Russia simultaneously withdraw from the neighborhood of Constantinople. One account says they have agreed to the principle of the proposition, but are undecided as to the localities to which to withdraw. Another, that England will reject the proposition.

JOHN JASPER AS A LECTURER.—Rev. John Jasper, the colored preacher of Richmond, who maintains that the earth stands still, has been engaged by a party in Richmond to visit the Northern cities on a lecturing tour, and will start in a week or two. This is a peculiar case, as the lecturer has been greatly advertised by the papers publishing his absurdities.

PENSION FOR THE WAR OF 1812.—At the time of the passage of the bill granting pensions to the soldiers of the war of 1812-14, it was stated that the bill would not affect more than 100 persons, and it is now stated that there are already 6,000 applications for pensions under that bill. A great many of these applications are doubtless fraudulent.

"Bob," the sorrel war-horse which Stonewall Jackson was riding when he received his fatal wound, is still living, at the age of twenty-three, and retains much of his old vigor. He is owned by a brother-in-law of the General, in Lincoln county, North Carolina.

LARGE RATTLESNAKE.—A Mr. Blount in Washington county recently killed a rattlesnake which measured 8 feet 2 inches, and had 28 rattles and a button.

ON SUNDAY.—In Richmond on last Friday, the grand-jury of the Hustings Court indicted nineteen bar-keepers for selling liquor on Sunday, and others will be indicted for the same offense.

"MOSES ADDAMS" AND THE PHONOGRAPH.—In a letter of St. Andrew, written to the Farmville Mercury, of which he is editor, says: "While in New York our old friend, Dr. G. W. Bagby, seeking a monopoly of the phonograph, 'talking machine' and other things, was in the city, and giving practical photographic and telephonic illustrations. Such a lecture adorned by the wit and eloquence of the accomplished doctor, is certain to be popular. Who would not travel miles to see the phonograph and the telephonic illustrations? I hope the Doctor will start his campaign in Farmville, where he is always welcomed by hosts of admirers."

The State of Saturday says the above statement is erroneous—that exclusive rights are not given, but the phonograph is sold to whoever will purchase, and the owner can exhibit it wherever he pleases. Dr. B. during his recent visit to New York, gave an order for a photograph suitable for public exhibitions and expects to have it here in a few days. It is probable that he will also exhibit the telephonic.

THE TEXAS-PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The Washington correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch under date of Saturday last, says:—"Colonel Tom Scott is here, and I hear that he is confident of carrying through the Texas-Pacific bill. The light will be first made in the Senate, and Messrs. Hanson and Gorton are now anxious to get the bill introduced in that body from the South. A petition, signed by two hundred of the railroad-men of Alabama, was received by Mr. Scott on Monday of last week. They urge him to work and vote for the Texas-Pacific bill. Petitions from the cities, corporations, and commercial bodies of Georgia are pouring in upon the Georgia delegation. They all regard this route as of the highest importance to the South. As yet, however, Senator Ben Hill has not taken position in favor of the bill. A letter from San Diego says that they have 253 feet of water on their tanks, and that the water is 18 inches more than was shown by the government survey of twenty years ago. The letter is in reply to the assertion that the tanks are filling up."

EPIDEMIC ATTACK.—On Friday evening, last, Mr. Edward Cole was residing from Charlottesville to his home on horseback, he was suddenly attacked with illness, and fell from his horse to the ground, near Mr. Harris' farm. He was borne into a house close by where he remained until a wagon was procured to convey him to his residence in the country. We understand that his condition is such as to be critical.—Charlottesville Chronicle.

The Tilton-Beecher Scandal.

FULL CONFESSION OF MRS. TILTON.—REV. MR. BEECHER'S REPLY.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The following letter from Mrs. Tilton will appear in the morning papers to-morrow: "Mr. Ira B. Wheeler—My Dear Sir: A few lines of my long manly letter of mental anguish, I told, as you know, a few friends whom I had bitterly deceived that the charge brought by my husband against me, and between me and the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher was true, and that the lie I had lived so well the last four years had become intolerable."

"That statement I now solemnly reaffirm, and leave the truth with God, to whom also I commend my soul. My husband and I must suffer. I know full well the explanations that will be sought by many for this acknowledgment. I desire to return to my home, true and only one, my quickened conscience, and a sense of what is due to the truth, and to the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, and the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher was true, and that the lie I had lived so well the last four years had become intolerable."

"I declare to you, my dear friend, that I have been your confidential friend, and therefore I address this letter to you, authorizing and requesting you to secure its publication."

"Elizabeth B. Tilton. Brooklyn, April 13, 1878."

Mr. Beecher's great letter to the city tonight when Mrs. Tilton's letter was made public, and his whereabouts were not known save to a few friends. The New York Herald has published the substance of the letter at a late hour to-night, and received the following reply from Mr. Beecher: "Brooklyn, N. Y., April 15, 1878.—To the Editor of the New York Tribune: I confront Mrs. Tilton's confession with an explicit and absolute denial. The matter is not a matter of fact, but a matter of fiction. I have been your confidential friend, and therefore I address this letter to you, authorizing and requesting you to secure its publication."

"HENRY WARD BEECHER."

DR. MOFFETT OF ROCKINGHAM.—But the course of Dr. Moffett is an especial object of "marvel." He is a forcible and energetic man, and he is the inventor of the Moffett register law, which promises to be a most lucrative source of revenue to pay the taxes of the State. He is a man of readiness to repudiate. Indeed, while he is colloquizing with his colleagues of agriculture to advance the cause of public health, he is engaged in the Moffett register law, which promises to be a most lucrative source of revenue to pay the taxes of the State.

WE know not how to understand Dr. Moffett's course, or so much as we solve it in this way: That being an aspirant for office on the side of the former, he will offer for a public office, and succeed by excelling them in their chief merit. So, after inventing the Moffett register law, he will offer for a public office, and succeed by excelling them in their chief merit.
