A TERRIBLE COASTING ACCIDENT.—Five ladies, while coasting at Paterson, N. J., Monday night of last week, accidentally ran their sled against a telegraph pole at the foot of the hill, shivering the vehicle to splinters, and the boys were more or less injured.

TEMPERANCE IN ILLINOIS.—A proposition has been introduced in each branch of the Illinois Legislature looking to the submission to a vote of the people of a constitutional amendment to that recently adopted in Kansas for the absolute prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors and beverages in that State.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING AT CHARLOTTEVILLE.—From the Charlottesville correspondent of the Dispatch we learn that, on Monday night of last week, a pistol carelessly handled at the Eureka saloon by a gentleman named Uppery was accidentally discharged, the ball piercing the breast of Mr. C. H. Wingfield, the proprietor of the saloon.

MURDER IN CHARLOTTE.—Wilson Fowles, a colored man, who lived in Charlotte county, Va., becoming jealous of the attentions of Isaac Goulding, also colored, to his wife, whipped her severely a few days ago, and threatened, if she permitted any further attention from Goulding, he would kill her.

UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE.—The Charlottesville Correspondent of the Dispatch says that the editors of the University Magazine for the long term of the session have been elected as follows: J. H. Hamilton, Virginia, editor-in-chief; C. B. Parkhill, Florida, A. B. Gunter, Virginia, C. Lindsey, Kentucky, Calvin Whiteley, Maryland, C. L. Andrews, Maryland, business editors.

Gustave Heinrich, a music teacher, who ran away from Forked River, N. J., recently, with Anna Weibert, one of his pupils, spent an ordinary winter in San Francisco, where the girl was also found. She tells a terrible tale of abuse received from her betrayer, and she is glad to return home. They were started east Monday last week in the custody of the Jersey sheriff.

Some excitement was caused in statutory hall of the capitol at Washington Friday by a difficulty between the son of Congressman Fort, of Illinois, and George Tallifero, the colored man who has charge of the hall.

Mr. J. W. Carroll, manufacturer of the "Lone Jack" brand of smoking tobacco, has heard from Philadelphia that the United States Circuit Court in session in that city had decided in his favor the long-contested suit over the use of that brand and trade mark.

A COASTING ACCIDENT.—We learn from the Shenandoah Herald that Frank Riddleberger, a little son of Capt. H. H. Riddleberger, of Woodstock, met with a severe accident while coasting near the depot at that place.

MEETING OF REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE.—Hon. John F. Lewis, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, has issued a call for a meeting of that committee in Richmond, on Tuesday, the 8th of February.

BOGARDUS BEATEN.—A shooting match came off at the fair grounds, near Richmond, Wednesday, between Capt. Bogardus, the champion shot, and W. T. Mitchell, of Richmond. Of 65 pigeons Bogardus killed 57 and Mitchell killed 60 out of the same number.

General Fitzhugh Lee has accepted the invitation of the Confederate soldiers of Louisiana to deliver the oration at the unveiling of the statue to "Stonewall" Jackson at New Orleans on the 10th of May next.

Reports from Accomac county state that several persons, who had died there lately of small pox, had their faces all with the same disease.

THE DEBT OF VIRGINIA.

[From the Baltimore Sun.]

REPLY TO SENATOR ELBERT MAHONE BY SENATOR JOHNSTON. Senator J. W. Johnston, of Virginia, furnishes to the press, above his own signature, a comprehensive reply to the recent "address" of the readjusters in Virginia and the interview put forth by Senator-elect Mahone on the subject.

"The republican party cannot afford to receive General Mahone into its ranks, even on probation, if he is to be the condonation of his great crime against public honesty. It is everything to lose and nothing to gain by the proposed alliance. It is of some consequence, of course, to have another republican vote in the Senate, but the price asked by Gen. Mahone is exorbitant, and will not be paid by a republican party."

"The storm of Thursday night of last week, was particularly severe in New York and New Jersey. Telegraph wires were prostrated, and direct electric communication was greatly interrupted. A striking peculiarity of the storm was the rapid formation of immense icicles upon the wires and trees, in many cases carrying down the wires and breaking off the branches of the trees by their weight."

THE VALLEY VIRGINIAN AND MAHONE.

The last Valley Virginia publishes the long interview of Mahone with a number of Northern men in Washington, and reviews it at some length in its leading editorial, which concludes as follows:—

"The assumption that the Riddleberger Bill is the measure of adjustment the people demand is without authority. As we have stated that bill was never discussed before them—it was never passed upon at the polls, and cannot be truthfully stated to be the popular will. The only presentation of the debt that has ever been endorsed by the people is incorporated in the McCulloch Bill, and that is the measure of adjustment that the people demand."

"The Northern newspapers in their discussion of the Mahone movement in Virginia are careful to state the fact that the property owners of the State, those upon whom the payment of the State debt falls, and are still striving to settle the debt upon terms honorable to the State and to the people."
