PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. The corn crop, which is an unusually heavy one, has matured about three weeks earlier than usual, and the cutting has been commenced.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Next Sunday is communion day at Mt. Carmel church, near Buena Vista, and the service will be held on Friday and Saturday.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. We have a good deal of sickness in our community at this time and we have had two deaths. Mr. J. W. B. Brown, died on the 28th day of August, 1896, aged about 60 years. (Mr. Brown's death is notice elsewhere.) On the morning of the 31st ultimo, Mr. Richard C. Taylor died in the 75th year of his age. He has been a great sufferer from cancer for a number of years. His death was sudden and he was taken by surprise. He was a member of Mt. Carmel church, and in his last days his daughters Miss Jennie and Miss Nannie rendered him all the comfort that could be done for by their untiring efforts to make his last days as pleasant as possible. He was buried on the 1st of September, 1896. Funeral services by his pastor, the Rev. A. H. Hamilton at his house in the presence of a large congregation of friends. J. A. H.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. LAUREL HILL, Sept. 4, 1896. The Augusta Association met here last Wednesday, the 2d day of September. The Association met at 11 o'clock, Mr. J. C. Staples of Harrisonburg, was re-elected moderator, and Mr. E. A. Aldrich, clerk. The first business was to read the minutes of the last business, after which they adjourned for dinner.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Wednesday evening session—The Association and a large number of people met at 2 p. m. to hear the annual sermon which was preached by Rev. W. B. Jones of Clifton Forge, after which they adjourned.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Thursday morning session—The Association met at 9:30, and after devotional exercises, the subject of State missions was taken up and discussed by E. P. Jones and others. The Association adjourned at 11 a. m. to hear a special sermon on baptism by Rev. B. H. Dement of Lexington. Fully 1000 people were in the church and grove Thursday. The Rev. E. P. Jones preached in the grove in the evening to a large congregation of people.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Friday morning session—The Association met at 9:30 a. m., and after reading the minutes and some other miscellaneous business, foreign missions were taken up and discussed. The Association adjourned at 3 p. m. to meet at Goshen, September, 1896. J. A. P. Respectfully.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. The Blue Ridge Manganese and Iron Mining Company was chartered by the Hustings Court last week. The capital stock is located in Staunton, and Mr. J. M. Yost is president; J. A. Vandergriff, vice-president; Thos. A. B. Jacobs, treasurer, and Chas. W. Atmore, secretary. The last three are Philadelphia, Pa.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. The Staunton Vindicator was sold on Saturday to R. S. Turk, owner and editor of the Spectator, who will consolidate the two papers. The Spectator-Vindicator will continue to advocate the cause of Bryan and silver.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. The consolidation of two fine old newspapers like the Staunton Spectator and Vindicator under the editorial management of Col. R. S. Turk and business management of Mr. Arthur S. Morton is an important event in local journalism in Virginia. It will give Staunton and Augusta county one of the strongest newspaper establishments in the Commonwealth and a widely-read organ. There is cause for congratulation. A feature of the change, which every newspaper man in Virginia will regret, is the retirement of Mr. Harry Tinsley, the veteran editor of the Vindicator during the past twenty-five years. As completed in all the years of his profession, with a heart filled with the brim with the milk of human kindness, he had a friend in every man who read his paper or whose foot ever crossed the threshold of his editorial workshop. It is to be hoped that with restored health he may ere long resume a work for which he is so rarely fitted.—Rockingham Register.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. The Vindicator was disposed of at judicial sale last Saturday, as a result of a death of W. H. H. Lynn, a resident of this place. The plant was purchased by Col. R. S. Turk, of the Spectator, and will be consolidated with that paper. A. S. Morton will remain with the establishment as business manager, with R. S. Turk as proprietor and editor.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. H. C. Tinsley, who has ably conducted the editorial department of the Vindicator for 25 years, and whose health has been precarious for some time, will retire from editorial work. We regret the cause and the fact of Mr. Tinsley's resignation. He has been a friend in every man who read his paper or whose foot ever crossed the threshold of his editorial workshop. He is one of the most attractive and forcible writers in the State and will be missed by his party and the public generally. He numbers his friends among political opponents, as well as those in accord with his views.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Col. Turk has shown unusual aptitude in the newspaper field, for one so new in the service, and has secured a valuable plant in the combination of the Spectator and Vindicator under one management and ownership. —York Weekly, Sept. 3rd.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. The Staunton Vindicator has been sold to the Staunton Spectator. We much regret the fact that Mr. Tinsley's resignation. His eminent ability as a journalist has long given him foremost rank in the profession and his valuable services in the cause of Democracy can ill be spared at this time. We are glad to know, however, that Mr. Tinsley's mantle will be passed to a younger man in Col. Turk, the profession has a strong, forcible and capable writer, who, in the brief time he has conducted the "Spectator," has won back for it, in a large degree, its old time force and influence.—Waynesboro News.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. The Staunton Vindicator was sold on Saturday and was bought by R. S. Turk, the proprietor of the Staunton Spectator. Mr. Morton, the business manager of the Vindicator, assumes the same position with the consolidated paper, and Mr. Tinsley, the editor of the Vindicator, who for some time has been a contributor to the Spectator, will continue the editorial management of the combined papers, and those who have read the Spectator recently will readily agree that he will do it ably and creditably. We have seen no more vigorous and enterprising editor to continue in that line. Success to it! —Salem Times-Register.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. The esteemed old Staunton Vindicator, for many years a welcome visitor to this office, has been purchased by Maj. R. S. Turk, owner and editor of the Spectator, of this city, and the two papers have been consolidated. Mr. Turk, who is a former student of Roanoke College, will continue the editorial management of the combined papers, and those who have read the Spectator recently will readily agree that he will do it ably and creditably. We have seen no more vigorous and enterprising editor to continue in that line. Success to it! —Salem Times-Register.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. For the second time during the incumbency of Postmaster Wright this place, which was first in vain to blow open the big iron safe which is supposed to contain Uncle Sam's postal wealth at this office. But in both instances they were so poorly rewarded for their risky efforts that they left the safe intact and retired in evident dejection. Twenty-seven cents was the result of their last labor. When Dep't P. W. Hanger opened the office on last Thursday morning his entrance was almost obscured by the debris of the broken safe, table, chairs, and other furniture scattered in every direction, showing a glance just what had happened. A 14 by 20 hole in the floor showed how it was made possible. A hole was drilled in the outer door, powder injected, and the explosion which followed more than met the expectations of the intruder. The hole was made by the intruder's hastily filled the stamp drawer of 27 cuts, gathered up their tools and left without trying to enter the inner door, which thereby saved the contents.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. With only a few minutes to spare, the honest and well-meaning knights of the road were having more than their share of tramps of late, and whilst they may not be responsible for the many burglaries which are effected nightly, appearances are against them.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. The consolidation of the Vindicator with the Spectator has had its friends, but they feel that with the combined facilities of the two papers into one they are sure to get a newspaper meeting every requirement.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. A meeting was held in the Presbyterian church Monday night looking to the establishment of such an institution.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. By reason of our unsurpassed natural advantages—healthful climate, magnificent scenery, pure mountain air, as well as our proximity to all parts of the country, we are prominently prepared for such an institution, and the scheme seems likely to succeed.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. A Bryan & Sewell club was organized here on Saturday evening last. The Ladies' Men are talking about getting up a similar club.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Miss Annie Caldwell was due to Charlottesville to resume her duties as teacher in the graded school of that place.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Mr. W. H. Leyburn is sufficiently convalescent to be out on the street again with his many friends.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Mr. Frank L. Chew, the Main Street merchant, left last Wednesday for the North, to purchase his fall stock of dry goods.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Dr. Thomas Hume has returned to the University of N. C., where he has taught for several years, and is expected to return to this city.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Rev. J. E. Shank, formerly of this place, but now of Norfolk, Va., preached in the Lutheran church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Mrs. N. M. King, who was at one time recipient of a female Seminary at this place, is a visitor at Mrs. C. F. Caldwell, on East Main street.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Mrs. J. H. Michael, Mrs. F. L. Chew, Mrs. Geo. Maslin and Miss Nannie Smith were on the ladies from Staunton, who went to Staunton on Friday last week.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Mrs. W. Gordon, from Louisa county, is stopping with her brother, Dr. J. B. Winston, of the Seminary.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Miss Bonaly Cook has returned from her vacation visits in adjoining counties, and has returned teaching in the Valley Seminary.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Miss Flora Grove, of Luray, Va., is stopping with her sister, Mrs. John W. Ellison, of Wayne Avenue.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Several marriage licenses have been issued during the last week. Among them are Philip W. Brown and Bettie Furr, Robert E. Wiley of Fairfax, and Ida V. Drummond, Newell A. Cross and Mary Gray. All of the above will be married to-day. Mr. Brown and Miss Furr in Staunton; Mr. Wiley and Miss Drummond at Moscow, and Mr. Cross and Miss Gray at Buffalo Gap.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Jno. W. Stephenson, a leading attorney of Warm Springs, is the city in attendance on the Supreme Court. He reports the condition of Judge Warwick, who was paralyzed some weeks ago as no better. Since the Judge was stricken, he has been at the home of Mr. Stephenson.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. Chas. Curry, Esq., of this city, will speak at Mt. Sidon on Thursday night, the 10th inst., in advocacy of the election of Bryan and Sewall, and free silver. He is willing to discuss the issues in debate if any gold bugs are around who desire to cross lanes with him.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet to-day at 4:30 o'clock in the Stone Wall Jackson Camp-room. The room has been well cleaned and will be still more improved. All members are requested to attend and begin on the winter's work with renewed energy.

PERSONAL.

PERSONAL. There was a Bryan and Sewall club organized at Churchville last week, with J. H. Diamond as chairman. Speeches were made by the Hon. H. D. Flood, J. Lewis Bumardner and R. L. Gray.
