J. C. Siegel has sold his farm on the Valley Pike a short distance south of town to Wm. F. Berry of the Lilly neighborhood. Possession was given Nov. 1, and Mr. Berry is moving this week. The farm contains 120 acres and the price paid was $8,788. The place was greatly improved during Mr. Siegel's ownership, the barn being one of the finest in the county. Mr. Berry is a good citizen and will be cordially welcomed to this community. He has sold his farm on Dry River to Mr. Rexroad of Highland Co.—Rockingham Register. This demonstrates what good roads do toward increasing the price of farm lands.

The patent granted Mr. M. F. Peterfish on his collapsible Egg Crate in the United States has been considered of great interest, amongst persons shipping eggs, and amongst expressmen who see a vast saving of space in returning the crates. The cost of the crates will be but little beyond the ordinary crate now in use, but in re-shipment are so much more liable to injury that they soon pay for themselves. Mr. Peterfish has applied for letters patent in Canada and will receive his papers in a very short time. He is thinking of going into the manufacture of crates, at some convenient point, either directly or through some of the factories which are desirous of handling the invention. The patent applies to all kinds of collapsible boxes, and one of the most useful is for pianos and organs.

James A. Calvert, aged 41 years, died at his home on the Greenville road Monday night at 11 o'clock. Mr. Calvert had been sick for a long time with dropsy of the heart and his death was momentarily expected for the last ten days. He was a butcher by occupation and had lived all his life in Staunton, where he had many friends. Mr. Calvert was a married man and leaves a wife and two children to mourn their loss. The funeral took place from the Upland Brethren church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. S. K. Wine, the pastor, conducting the services.

Fatal Accident. Claiborn M. Van Buren, one of the car inspectors at Clifton Forge, met with an accident on the upper yards Thursday night of last week which cost him his life. He was engaged in fixing an air pipe, and was standing with one foot on the track between the rails, when the shifter with a latch shoved the car at which he was at work against him. He was thrown upon his back and several wheels passed over his left leg, grinding it off between the knee and ankle and tearing the flesh from his thigh up to the body.

Deceased had two brothers, William and John Van Buren, and a sister, Mrs. George Campbell, residing in West Clifton. He carried a life insurance policy for $1,000.

Frazier is shown in foot ball togetery and is playing remarkably well as quarter back on the team of that college. So far this team has literally wiped up the ground with every team it has played.

Testimonial to Mr. M. Dinneen. During a called session of a committee of the board of directors of the Western State of Mr. Michael Dinneen, who was always in the hospital, was announced as having occurred following resolution to adjourn; whereupon the following resolution was adopted: That the committee do hereby, as a mark of appreciation for the services of Mr. M. Dinneen, do hereby, as a mark of appreciation for the services of the hospital of his long and valuable services, and one as manager of the electric light and steam department of the White Sulphur Springs.

Mr. Dinneen was endowed by nature with an unusually clear and vigorous mind, and with an excellent practical education. Every position he occupied, these qualities made his services most valuable. They were united also with a conscientious fidelity to duty, which fully justified the confidence which the authorities of the hospital entrusted to him one of its most responsible positions. Upon his efficiency and faithful discharge of his duties, the confidence of the inmates of the institution, but the safety of much valuable public property.

These important trusts were committed to him with every feeling of assurance, and a part of the directory and of the superintendent, that they could not well be left in safer hands. His death has thus ended a long life of most useful and honorable labor, which in every position he ever occupied, was always performed in a manner that reflected credit upon himself, and gave uniform satisfaction to those for whom it was done.

It was then ordered that a copy of this testimonial be presented to Mr. Dinneen's family, and that it be published in the city papers.

Death of W. E. Snapp. A telegram was received in this city, November 3rd, announcing the tragic death of Wilber E. Snapp, son of Captain William F. Snapp. From what was learned it seems that the young man was scalded to death. He was an engineer on a railroad in Alabama and was in a wreck at the time of his death. The train—a freight was wrecked, it is said, by a defective switch, and the entire crew called to leave the wrecked train. Mr. Snapp was about 33 years old, was a young man of excellent character, and was well-known in Clifton Forge, being a brother of Mr. I. B. Snapp.

He left Staunton about 10 years ago and has worked in different places since that time. He is survived by his father, one brother and one sister. The remains were laid to rest in Thurston cemetery.

Mr. Snapp was a member of the Masonic order, and was buried with Masonic honors, and a eulogy was pronounced by the pastor of the church.
