FRIDAY, MAY 10.

MR. MCKINLEY IN THE SOUTH.

The President has been cordially received at all of the principal points in the South through which he has passed. There was some comment because the demonstration did not seem sufficiently vociferous at several places...

Some one has suggested that the Mrs. Nation move in Kansas would purify politics there. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots?

A Letter From Hon. Edward Echols.

To the Citizens of Augusta county and the City of Staunton: The time which I have necessarily been forced to devote to my gubernatorial canvass in the more distant parts of the State has prevented me from personally presenting my candidacy to all my friends in this county...

Buena Vista Items.

Diamonds and Heirs by the Virginia Dramatic Club, of Waynesboro, was played to two small, but very appreciative audiences on last Monday and Tuesday nights. This was decidedly one of the best attractions that has been seen in this section...

Walked 30 Miles to Marry.

Parson Alfred Harrison Bourque married an interesting young couple at his home in Bristol on Saturday evening. They were William Skeens and his cousin Miss Hattie Skeens, the bride being twenty years of age.

From Clifton Forge.

Mr. Wm. T. Wright, of Staunton, spent last Tuesday with his son here. Mr. Darwin Bashaw was called to his home at Craigsville the first of the week by the illness of his father.

Highland Mention.

Mr. Emmett Lightner, of Swoope, is visiting J. Trumble. Mr. Henry Crummett, of Deerfield, visited his son, S. W. Crummett this week.

An Immense Fruit Farm.

The farm of Mr. John W. Copp, of Fisher's Hill, Va., is one of the prettiest and most fertile in the State. It covers 2,000 fruit trees, of which 2,000 are pears, in full bloom, covering an area of 300 acres.

THE PRICE OF APOSTASY.

Senator McLaurin, who was elected as a Democrat from South Carolina, but who has gone over to the Republicans, finds himself wonderfully appreciated in sections which never noticed him before...

News Letter From Greenville.

Greenville May 7.—Mrs. Bettie Beard, wife of J. A. Beard, died at her home in this place, from a complication of disease incident to old age on last Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock.

Closing of Basic City School.

The closing exercises of the Basic City School, which was held in the Odd Fellows' Hall Tuesday afternoon, was a marked success. The children, having assembled at the school, marched with their teachers to the hall...

Death of Dr. Harold Snowden.

Dr. Harold Snowden, editor of the Alexandria Gazette, died at his home in that city Saturday after an illness of more than two weeks of paralytic character.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the tissue of the mucous membrane, and the whole system will be deranged through the mucous surfaces.

Fought For His Life.

"My father and sister both died of consumption," writes J. T. Weatherwax, of Wando, S. C., "and I was saved from the same frightful fate only by Dr. King's New Discovery. An attack of pneumonia could not help, but a few months' use of this wonderful medicine made me as well as ever and I gained much in weight and appetite for soups, colds and all throat and lung troubles."

To Vote Next Wednesday.

The special election to vote on the issuing of bonds to obtain a new water supply for the city of Staunton, will take place next Wednesday, May 15.

Sold For $3,000,000.

The Richmond Locomotive Works, of which Joseph Bryan is president, has been sold to Joseph Leiter, for $3,000,000.

Alexandria For Swanson.

The Democratic primary held in Alexandria Monday to elect delegates to the State convention in Norfolk, resulted in a victory for Mr. Swanson.

Old Soldier's Experience.

M. M. Austin, a civil war veteran of Winchester, Ind., writes: "My wife and I have been afflicted with kidney trouble for a long time in spite of good doctor's treatment, but was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Discovery, which worked wonders for her health."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, May 8.—Is the administration responsible for the outbreak of the "Jingoism" against Germany, just now being rampant in our newspapers? That question has been asked frequently in Washington of late, and not a few answers have been in the affirmative...
