

AND WINDICATOR. Issued Every Friday Morning by R. S. TURK, Editor and Proprietor. East Main Street, - Staunton, Va.

Friday, July 29, 1910.

THE PATHEMIC LITTLE GUBERNATORIAL BOOM OF JAMES RUDOLPH GARFIELD

Mr. Garfield deserves all the nice little dinners Cleveland will give him. He is a remarkable figure in Ohio politics. He is the one republican in the State for whom Col. Roosevelt could take the stump every morning, and every night, during the campaign without giving him the slightest chance for victory.

THE PATHEMIC LITTLE GUBERNATORIAL BOOM OF JAMES RUDOLPH GARFIELD

Every year for some years past has found the rates creeping up, and up, and up, until now they are beyond reason. If they could make money some years ago at the prices, they could make far more now, because they do vastly more business with scarcely a particle of increased cost.

TRouble in the South West

Mr. C. Bascom Slemph has succeeded, we learn, in procuring the aid of Mr. Roosevelt in his contest with Henry C. Stuart for Congress in the 9th Virginia district.

RAILROAD ARTS AND SCIENCE

Railroads are creatures of short memories, and given to singular statements. The government some time ago made a threat of enjoining them on putting into effect certain higher tariff rates.

THE TRICKS OF THE TRADE

We are told that the government cannot regulate tariffs on railroads. It is admitted, at least railroad men seem to admit, whether for a blind or not, we cannot say, that railroads do not object to reasonable laws regulating them.

JIMMY.

The pathetic little gubernatorial boom of James Rudolph Garfield was formally launched at a dinner in Cleveland Monday night.

A CHANGE IS IMMINENT.

Is the political millennium at hand? Certainly something seems about to happen. There is unrest in every part of the nation.

MR. FULTON IS RIGHT.

The position taken by Mr. John G. Fulton, one of the members of the board of supervisors, as expressed on Monday in regard to building roads under the supervision of the State Highway Commissioner, has met public approval.

W. Va. Oil Fields Promise Quick Returns

Charleston, W. Va., July 28.—West Virginia is coming to the front as the great oil-producing state. So much has been said of the West Virginia coal, timber, and natural gas products that it has been overlooked until this year, when marvelous development of new oil fields has been in progress.

ABSOLUTE SURRENDER ONLY

Washington, D. C., July 28.—Absolute surrender of all of Madrid's pretensions to the presidency of Nicaragua is the one condition which the state department will accept from the Madriz exiles.

TRYING TO DISCREDIT BRYAN

There is deep anxiety over Mr. Bryan which way soever he turns. It is published as coming from Omaha that he is now going to bolt the democratic and join the republican party, because it is stated the republican platform in Nebraska this fall will contain the plank on prohibition Mr. Bryan sought to get the democrats to adopt.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT

New York, July 23.—Heart balm to the amount of $50,000 is asked by young Russell Griswold, of New York and Rowayton, Conn., from Mrs. Helen Woodruff Smith, of Stamford, Conn., breach of promise suit is brought in the supreme court of New York.

SMOKED OUT.

Mr. Wickersham has been smoked out on the Friar Lands question. Congress was forced to investigate the Friar Lands scandal. The Sugar Trust has about "appropriated" these lands although, at the time of the purchase from the Friars, it was asserted, they were purchased to protect the 60,000 or 70,000 settlers thereon.

MR. NIMROD HAMRICK SEES

Harrisonburg, Va., July 25.—Nimrod Hamrick, father of Mr. Robert Hamrick, Norfolk and Western Agent at Stanley, died at his home near Tom's Brook, of acute indigestion Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

VIRGINIA HORSE SHOWS

Southern Railway begs to announce that low round trip fares have been authorized on account of the following horse shows:
