Virginia Orchard Land FOR SALE
After visiting some of the best orchards in the state I selected, about 50 miles from Washington, D. C., 800 acres of fine grazing and timber land adjoining lands of Capt. Beverley, who looks more premiums on his spots than any other exhibitor at Va. State Fair in 1910. Tract has elevation of 200 to 250 feet with deep valleys 50 to 80 feet lower just in front and back of it. In above front line, Peach trees on the place 25 years old still bear every year. I will sell three choice tracts of 100 to 250 acres at grazing land prices to experienced orchardists. I find I have not capital to develop whole tract. For further particulars write: S. S. VANCE, Warrenton, Va.

MRS. McLEOD DID NOT UNDERSTAND THE LAW

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 6.—A peculiar matrimonial mix-up is furnished in the case of Mrs. Sophia McLeod whose action for the annulment of her marriage with Alfred McLeod, superintendent of one of the subway construction companies in New York city, came up in court here today for trial. Mrs. McLeod was married in 1877 to Augustus Doull in Prince Edward Island and lived with him until 1890, when they separated. She came to Cambridge to live in 1897 and sued for divorce in Rhode Island the next year and received a decree. She was not informed by her Rhode Island lawyer, she declares that residence in that State for a year was necessary to give her a right to sue for divorce there. Believing her decree was valid, she was married to McLeod in 1900. Last April she was informed by McLeod that there was doubt as to the validity of her divorce decree. She refused to live with him until the point should be settled. McLeod then left Cambridge and went to New York, where he has since resided. Mrs. McLeod now seeks to have the Rhode Island decree set aside and her second marriage annulled.

A BANK REMITTANCE

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 3.—While postal authorities refuse to talk, it was learned today that a registered letter containing $20,000 consigned by a Bluefield, W. Va., bank to a correspondent in New York city was stolen from a registered pouch either on the Norfolk and Western train coming here, at the local mail transfer, or on the Southern train to Washington last Saturday morning. A number of inspectors are at work here, but it is reported that the local transfer is not under suspicion.

TWO JUMP FROM FLAMES TO DEATH

Chicago, Nov. 4.—As fire today gutted the flimsy tenement structure in which they lived, Abraham Tubin, twenty-seven years old, stepped to the window of his room, on the third floor, muttered a prayer and leaped, with his arms tightly clasped about his two children.
A moment later his wife also jumped.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 4.—In a fierce battle in the swamps of Burk county, Bill Minor, notorious train robber, was captured today, after his companion, Tom Moore, was shot and killed by a sheriff's posse.
Minor and Moore recently escaped from the Georgia State prison, and since then have been leading the officers a lively chase. Minor held up and robbed a Southern railway train near Gainesville several months ago, and the Southern Express Company offered a reward for his capture.

OPEN GRAVE OF ALLEGED VICTIM

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Convinced that the body of Richard T. Smith will either confirm or disprove the police theory that Mrs. Louise Vermilya is a modern Borgia, responsible for the death of nearly half a score of friends and relatives, Coroner Hoffman and Dr. Leconte, an expert on post-mortems, left here today for North Henderson, Ill., to exhume the body of the former Illinois Central railroad conductor.
Smith died at Mrs. Vermilya's home on March 11, under circumstances very similar to those attending the last illness of Policeman Arthur Bissonette, who died from arsenical poisoning. It was his death that the police turned their attention to the remarkable number of deaths of persons associated with Mrs. Vermilya.

HUNDRED YEARS OLD, NEVER YET BEEN KISSED

Adamsville, O., Nov. 4.—Miss Rachel Bell, who lives on the same plot of ground where she was born, will celebrate her hundredth birthday tomorrow. Today she said: "I must confess that for one hundred years I have never been kissed by any person outside of my parents. I have lived a long life and have had plenty of enjoyment. When I was a young girl I went to many parties and dances. We always had a good time and it always went without any of what you call spooning in it. I had plenty of chances to marry, but could never find a man I loved, so ten years more and that there is nothing so sweet as life when one gets old."
Neighbors for miles around will gather at her home tomorrow and 100 farmers with shotguns will fire 100 shots, starting at 8 o'clock in the morning, the hour at which Miss Bell was born.
When she was born her father kept vigil all night and day outside his cabin, protecting the mother and children from a band of Indians who were then pillaging the hamlets near Zanesville.

AMERICAN MARINES LAND IN SHANGHAI

Bluejackets Will Protect Foreign Interests in Chinese City
MISSION IS IN DANGER
Inflammable Shells from Guns of Imperialists Start Conflagration Which Destroys Hankow

Peking, Nov. 4.—Fire is raging in the native quarter of Shanghai today. Fifty American marines were landed from warships to guard the custom house, and they were re-enforced by volunteer guards who were posted about the railway station.
Fear is expressed today that the Wesleyan mission near the Hans river, in which fifty blind boys and 150 wounded persons, who with the staff of the mission make a total of 300, was destroyed by the fire, which is raging in almost the entire native city of Hankow.
Dr. Booth, head of the mission, asked the imperialists to grant an armistice of two hours to allow the removal of the mission, but the firing stopped for only half an hour. A Red Cross steamer, which was intended to rescue the inmates, was driven back by shells from the rebel fort.
Inflammable shells, thrown into Hankow by the imperialists, who are trying to drive out the few hundred rebels still occupying the unburned parts of the city, today are spreading the flames.
Flames Spread Across River.
A strong wind quickly carried the conflagration across the river to Han Yang, and the water front of that city has been destroyed.
An artillery duel was taking place between the batteries of the imperialists planted back of the British concessions and the Han Yang and Wu Chang forts when the Red cross steamboat was forced to leave.
The change of control of Shanghai, Wu Sung, and the up-river forts was accompanied with about ten persons killed and twenty injured. Most of the casualties were accidental, due to the explosion of dynamite, used to open the gates of the city. There was no real resistance to the revolutionists' occupation of the various forts.
The American cruiser Albany is on its way to Wu Sung.
Large numbers of Japanese are fighting in the ranks of the Chinese revolutionists. Among the officers of the rebel army which invested this city yesterday are a number of Japanese, who were made officers of the revolutionary posts.

U. S. WARSHIP TO PROBE REPORTS

Great Powers Will Probably Wind Up Italy-Turkey War
Up Italy-Turkey War
Washington, Nov. 6.—Sweeping denials were made this morning by the Italian embassy in this city of the Turkish charges of gross outrages by the army of Italy now occupying Tripoli.
These charges were formally made by the Turkish government to the United States last night in a note transmitted to the State Department by the Turkish ambassador. In this note there was an appeal to the United States to intervene in the war to prevent further atrocities against the helpless people of the Tripolitan capital.
In view of the conflicting statements of the two governments now at war, the United States today dispatched the cruiser Chester, now at Malta, to Tripoli. The officers of this vessel will make a report to the American Government, and not until this report is submitted will any action be taken here.
London, Nov. 6.—Turkey's appeal to the powers for intervention in Tripoli is at last in a fair way to bear fruit. The European powers have finally concluded to act in concert in an effort to end the Turkish-Italian war.
Turkey is willing to submit to mediation on the condition that Italy foregoes her claim to political rights in Tripoli, but as Italy already has committed herself to the annexation of the country it is unlikely that peace can be concluded at once.
The Turkish government has informed the powers of its willingness to give Italy all the economic privileges she needs for the development of Tripoli.
Cut Off Italians' Water Supply.
Tripoli, via Malta, Nov. 6.—Turks and Arabs today captured the Boumeliana Wells, cutting off the water supply of the beleaguered Italian army, which will now have to get its water supply from the ships.
The Turks also recaptured the last of the outer forts, following an attack at dawn in which they were driven off with a heavy loss to their combined force.

The dispatch stated all the officials of the city, including a number of high officials of the Manchu dynasty, had fled in the night. The rebels are said to be in peaceful possession after a spirited fight late yesterday.
Chinatown is celebrating the reported revolutionary victory with parades and fireworks. The streets are flooded with extra editions of Chinese newspapers, and crowds are gathering in the heart of the Chinese mercantile districts, waving the red flag of the republic and shouting and singing.

SPEEDING BULLET ENTERS A SPOTSWOOD RESIDENCE

Spottswood, Va., Nov. 6.—Ignorance is felt here at the criminal carelessness with which people in the discharge of firearms.
On Saturday last a bullet fired from a high power rifle entered through the window in the house of G. E. L. and M. H. Kesterson, one mile from this place. The missile demolished the window glass, pierced a heavy wood bench and buried itself in a feather pillow.
Mrs. M. H. Kesterson had a very narrow escape from being killed by the ball. She had been working with some winter flowers that were placed in the window not a minute before the bullet smashed through the glass. She had just left the window and went downstairs when she heard the crash.
It is supposed that the ball came from a distance, as the report of the gun was not heard.

The result is to be tabulated and furnished to all of the pastors and Sunday school superintendents in the city. All of the protestant churches of the city participated in the enumeration.
The work was done under a committee composed of George E. Caskie, an attorney; Richard Hancock, a tobaccoist and Edward F. Sheffey, superintendent of the credit department on the Craddock-Terry Company.
It's awfully deceitful for a young widow not to want to marry.

Washington Assault Case Up

New York, Nov. 6.—Many curious persons visited Part V. of the Court of Special Sessions today in the expectation of hearing some interesting testimony when the case of Harry Ulrich, accused of assault on Booker T. Washington, the negro educator, was called for trial. The alleged assault occurred on the night of March 19 last, in front of Ulrich's house in West Sixty-third Street. At the time of his arrest, Ulrich said that he had mistaken Dr. Washington for a burglar, and also that the negro had annoyed his wife. This Dr. Washington denied. He said that he was looking for the residence of the auditor of the Tuskegee Institute, of which he is the head.
